and Chairman of the Board. The Agreement will be effective upon the execution and delivery of the Agreement by Mr. Westerman and will expire on December 31, 2009.

The Agreement entitles Mr. Westerman to 24 months of base salary and 24 months of health insurance benefits in the event ROC terminates Mr. Westerman's employment without cause within 24 months after a change in control of the Company.

The Agreement is substantially similar to the Salary Continuation Agreements reported on Form 8-k, filed June 2, 2008, that the Company, ROC and RBH, as applicable, entered into with two executive officers and 59 significant employees.

(e) Item 1.01 is incorporated by reference.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On August 12, 2008, the Board amended and restated Article I, Section 1.08(g) of the Company's Bylaws to implement and clarify vote requirements and certain procedures relating to the election of directors.

Pursuant to this amended and restated provision, each director shall be elected by the vote of the majority of the shares cast with respect to the election of directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at the close of the applicable notice periods, the Chairman of the Board, or if no Chairman, then the entire Board, determines that the number of persons properly nominated to serve as directors of the company exceeds the number of directors to be elected (a "Contested Election"), the directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors. For purposes of the amended and restated Section 1.08(g), a vote of the majority of the shares cast means that the number of shares voted "for" a director must exceed the number of votes "withheld" from, or cast "against" that director. If a director is not elected in a non-Contested Election, the director shall offer to tender his or her resignation to the Board. The Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board, or such other committee designated by the Board for the purpose of recommending director nominees to the Board, will make a recommendation to the Board as to whether to accept or reject the resignation, or whether other action should be taken. The Board will act on the committee's recommendation and publicly disclose its decision and rationale within 90 days following the date of the certification of the election results. The director who tenders his or her resignation pursuant to the amended and restated Section 1.08(g) will not participate in the Board's decision with respect to that resignation.

The remaining original language of Section 1.08(g) remains substantially unchanged and remains applicable to all matters other than the election of directors.

Prior to this amendment, the Bylaws were silent on the vote policy for contested director elections and the resignation procedure of directors
