Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

On February 8, 2007, BorgWarner Inc. announced that during the fourth quarter, it evaluated the competitiveness of its North American facilities, as well as its long-term capacity needs. As a result, it will be closing its Drivetrain plant in Muncie, Indiana and has adjusted the carrying values of other assets primarily related to its four-wheel drive transfer case product line. Production activity at the facility is expected to wind down and cease as early as is practical, currently no later than the expiration of the current labor agreement in April 2009. Existing and future programs currently assigned to that facility will be relocated to other facilities. As a result of the fourth quarter restructuring, BorgWarner recorded expense of $73.2 million.
