Magal Receives a $6 million Order to Protect Military Bases in Israel

Wednesday January 31, 5:00 am ET

YAHUD, Israel, January 31 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Magal Security Systems, Ltd. (NASDAQ GM: MAGS; TASE: MAGS), today announced that it has received an approximately US$6 million order for a turnkey project to protect several military bases in Israel. As part of the project, Magal will implement its Taut Wire Intrusion Detection Systems and its FORTIS Integrated Command & Control system.

Magal will serve as the subcontractor for the perimeter intrusion detection systems and the work is expected to be completed before the end of 2007.

Izhar Dekel, CEO of Magal, said: "We are very pleased with this contract which attests to our position as the leading provider of perimeter security solutions and our ability to perform in a high intrusion risk environment. This win combines two of our product lines, legacy and new, further supporting our strategic decision to expand our security offerings."
