EXPLANATORY NOTE

Computer Associates International, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Computer Associates", "CA" or the "Company"), is filing the materials contained in this Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 18, 2001 in connection with the solicitation of proxies for electing the board of directors of Computer Associates at the 2001 annual meeting of Computer Associates' stockholders.

THE FOLLOWING NEWS RELEASE WAS ISSUED OVER PR NEWSWIRE ON JULY 18, 2001:

COMPUTER ASSOCIATES TO MAIL DEFINITIVE PROXY MATERIALS

Urges Shareholders To Sign And Return White Cards When They Receive Them

ISLANDIA, N.Y., JULY 18, 2001 - Computer Associates International, Inc. (NYSE: CA) today announced that it has filed a definitive proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission for its August 29, 2001 annual meeting. CA will mail its definitive proxy statement this week to shareholders of record as of July 5, 2001. The mailing will include a white proxy card and a letter asking shareholders to sign and return the white card in support of CA's current management and CA's current Board of Directors.

Charles B. Wang, Chairman of CA, said, "It is important that all shareholders exercise their right to vote at this important annual meeting, and we encourage them to sign and return the white proxy cards as soon as they receive them."

"We believe -- and more importantly our customers believe -- that Sam Wyly's plan to break up CA is misguided and a bad idea. Our customers want integrated software solutions while, under Mr. Wyly's plan, they would have to deal with up to four different sales people and four different organizations. We believe his plan would badly diminish the synergies that exist between our sales, marketing and development operations, undermine the excellent progress we have made with CA's new business model, and destroy shareholder value."

"We hope shareholders will support us and we look forward to speaking with many of them in the coming weeks," said Sanjay Kumar, President and Chief Executive Officer of CA. "Our campaign isn't just about defeating Sam Wyly -- it's an opportunity to better communicate about CA's innovative technology, the exciting changes that we have made in our business in the last year and the company's prospects for delivering superior shareholder value in the years ahead."

Since CA's IPO on December 11, 1981, CA's stock price has outperformed Apple, Hewlett-Packard (HP), IBM and Intel.* In the last year, CA's stock price has outperformed Apple, Cisco, Compaq, Dell, EMC, HP, IBM, Intel and Microsoft. CA's stock price is up over 75% year-to-date and, in the last three years alone, CA has returned over $1.5 billion to shareholders in the form of dividends and share repurchases, while generating over $4 billion in cash from operations.

Statements herein concerning Computer Associates' future prospects are "forward-looking statements" under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. There can be no assurances that future results will be achieved, and actual results could differ materially from forecasts and estimates. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include: the risks associated with changes in the company's business model; the risks associated with changes in the way in which the company accounts for license revenue; the difficulties of compiling pro forma financial information, given acquisitions over time; the significant percentage of CA's quarterly sales consummated in the last few days of the quarter making financial predictions especially difficult and raising a substantial risk of variance in actual results; changes in industry accounting guidance; the emergence of new competitive initiatives resulting from rapid technological advances or changes in pricing in the market; the risks associated with new product introductions as well as the uncertainty of customer acceptance of these new or enhanced products from either CA or its competition; risks associated with the entry into new markets such as professional services; the risks associated with integrating newly acquired businesses and technologies; dependency on large dollar licensing transactions; delays in product delivery; reliance on mainframe capacity growth; the ability to recruit and retain qualified personnel; business conditions in the distributed systems and mainframe software and hardware markets; uncertainty and volatility associated with Internet and eBusiness related activities; use of software patent rights to attempt to limit competition; fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates; the volatility of the international marketplace; uncertainties relative to global economic conditions; uncertainty in connection with litigation in which the company has been named as a defendant; changes in the sales compensation plan and its effects on the business; and other risks described in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
