Board of Directors

Hawthorn Bancshares, Inc.

132 East High Street

Jefferson City, MO 65102

Dear Director:

We have decided to withdraw our support for the Board of Directors of Hawthorn Bancshares, Inc. (“Hawthorn” or the “Company”). The results achieved by the Company since we last met on March 29, 2017 are unnecessarily disappointing and put the Company at risk. Our conclusion is not reached lightly and is based on five years of observation and analysis of the Company’s strategic actions and governance decisions. Management continues to pursue policies that in the past have not been successful leading inevitably to persistent, intractable low levels of performance.

Two years ago the Board chose to maintain a combined Chairman and CEO role, against our strong recommendation. Last year, against our noted objection, the Board chose to allow a second member of management to join a Board already too small and too undiversified to carry out its appropriate function to independently and responsibly supervise management, oversee the operations of the Company and provide strategic leadership. Both situations were missed opportunities to alter the dynamics of the Company. These choices have reduced the effectiveness of Board leadership, contribute to sustaining the low level of performance and inhibit proper strategic discussion. The Board’s strategic and fiduciary obligations rise above the interests of management and maintenance of a status quo.

For several year’s now the Company’s returns have been substantially below peer. This is underlined ever more by the fact that Hawthorn is levered substantially by trust preferred and yet produces a return on equity substantially below peer. An underperforming, levered company is a risky company, particularly in banking. A strengthening economy has been the background scenario for several years, but unfortunately Hawthorn has not been able to take advantage of the lengthy positive economic period. We can no longer rely on smooth waters of a slowly building recovery.

Volatility, interest rate risk and credit risk are likely to increase in the later stages of this economic expansion and Hawthorn is poorly positioned to withstand much headwind.

We have put forward our views in writing in the past and reiterate them.

Ø The cost structure of the Company is unsustainable and assures poor performance.

Ø Management does not engage with the investment community nor consider the relative value of the stock versus growth opportunities, which has allowed an imbalance of sellers and buyers to unnecessarily persist in spite of more effective options being accessible.

Ø The Board has failed to maintain its size and diversity and lacks members with sufficient depth of experience in publicly-listed companies and this limits the strategies adopted by the Company.

Ø The low stock price has inhibited the Company's ability to execute a merger to improve cost and investment efficiency, yet Management pursues a merger strategy as if this reality does not exist.

Ø Compensation for leadership remains primarily cash based and consistently paid out at the highest levels even as the Company fails to achieve its most critical goals.

Given this substantial list of unresolved, intractable problems, it would be reasonable for the Board of Directors to hire independent, outside counsel and financial advisers to assist the Board in reviewing its strategic options.

We remain confident that a satisfactory direction beneficial to all stakeholders can be achieved at Hawthorn, but it will not happen with the current dynamic. Our effort going forward will be focused on achieving this path, which lies outside the current strategic choices.

Respectfully yours,

/s/ Jonathan Holtaway /s/ Jacques Rebibo
