Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 of the Schedule 13D is hereby supplemented as follows:

On November 7, 2016, Gemini Properties, together with William F. Thomas and Robert D. Thomas (collectively, the "Thomas Group"), delivered an open letter to shareholders of the Issuer, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. In the letter, the Thomas Group expressed its deep concerns regarding the improper manner in which the misaligned, entrenched and inherently conflicted Board of Directors of the Issuer (the "Board") is permitting Managing Director Barry M. Portnoy ("B. Portnoy") to firm up his value-destructive grip on the Issuer through an inadequate $3.00 per share tender offer launched by ABP Acquisition LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of ABP Trust, an entity owned by B. Portnoy and his son, Adam (“A. Portnoy”, and together with B. Portnoy, the “Portnoys”). The Thomas Group urged the Issuer’s shareholders in the letter to reject the Portnoy Tender Offer given its belief that (i) the Portnoy Tender Offer is grossly undervalued, fraught with deep conflicts of interest, and fails to provide full and fair value to the Issuer’s shareholders and (ii) the purpose of the Portnoy Tender Offer is to enrich the Portnoys and to increase B. Portnoy’s effective control over the Issuer at the expense of shareholders.

CUSIP No. 33832D106

The Thomas Group explained to shareholders that it believes they should reject the Portnoy Tender Offer for the following six reasons, which are explained in more detail in the letter:

1. The Portnoy Tender Offer is Grossly Undervalued. Just eleven months ago, B. Portnoy and the Board rejected the Thomas Group's $325 million proposal to acquire certain assets for cash that equated to $6.50 per share to the Issuer, which is more than twice the $3.00 per share Portnoy Tender Offer.
2. A Non-Competitive and Unfair Process. Last month, the Issuer's purported "Independent Directors" effectively denied the Thomas Group's right to concurrently offer shareholders an alternative tender option even though it was priced at $3.45 per share, a 15% premium over the Portnoy Tender Offer. The Thomas Group believes this is a direct result of the Independent Directors' unflinching allegiance to the Portnoys given the cobweb of interrelationships among the Portnoys, the Issuer's external manager RMR LCC and the Issuer's landlord Senior Housing Properties Trust and their affiliated entities, as well as other directors and officers of the Issuer, that has created an inherently conflicted governance structure.
3. Pro-rata Risk. Tendering shares to the Portnoys, which the Portnoys will purchase on a pro-rata basis, is tantamount to giving-up effective control of the Issuer to the Portnoys and to a Portnoys-beholden Board.
4. Consideration of Alternatives. Rejection of the Portnoy Tender Offer would serve as a referendum that the status quo is clearly untenable and a hopeful call to action for the Board to seriously evaluate how to transform the Issuer into an industry leader. Since the Thomas Group's initial investment in the Issuer in 2012, the Thomas Group has neither seen nor heard the strategic plan for turning the Issuer's declining value around.
5. Election of New Independent Director. By retaining the Issuer's shares and rejecting the Portnoy Tender offer, shareholders retain their right to vote and importantly, their right to elect directors who will protect their best interests. Accordingly, last week, the Thomas Group nominated David R. Ford as an Independent Director candidate for election to the Board at the Issuer's 2017 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "2017 Annual Meeting").
6. Envisioning a Better Future. The Thomas Group believes the inherent value of the Issuer is not reflected in its stock price and that significant value can be unlocked given the obvious demographic changes occurring throughout the next 30 years and favorable industry dynamics currently available to the Issuer. Unfortunately, the Issuer's disastrous corporate governance is, in the Thomas Group's view, the single greatest barrier preventing the Issuer from achieving sustainable shareholder value. With the right governance structure in place, the Thomas Group believes the Issuer can become a best-in-class senior housing leader with a market capitalization that reflects its true value.

CUSIP No. 33832D106

Given the Board's troubling track record of placing its own interests ahead of shareholders, as evidenced by the inadequate and unfair Portnoy Tender Offer, the Thomas Group believes immediate change to the Board is required to ensure shareholders' interests remain paramount. To that end, on November 3, 2016, the Thomas Group delivered a letter to the Issuer nominating David R. Ford for election to the Board at the 2017 Annual Meeting. Mr. Ford is a highly qualified candidate with direct industry experience as a former seniors housing operator, as evidenced by his biography below, who is truly independent with no ties to the Portnoy family or the Thomas Group.

David R. Ford, age 61, is a business and legal advisor to, as well as an investor in, the seniors- housing industry, commercial real-estate ventures and start-up enterprises. Mr. Ford has been an advisor to each of the Walker Group, a real estate advisory firm, since June 2014 and Linked Senior, a developer of interactive software for people living with Alzheimer's and other forms of dementia in the senior-care market, since March 2016. Mr. Ford is also currently an investor in Aegis Senior Communities LLC (d/b/a Aegis Living), a leading developer and operator of senior-housing communities in California, Nevada and Washington, where he previously served as Vice Chairman of its Board of Managers from 2002 to April 2015. Prior to that, he was the Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel of Maden Technologies LLC, an integrator of outsourced IT solutions and cyber security solutions for the public and private sectors, from 2000 to 2002. For the first two decades of his professional life, he was an attorney in private practice in Washington, D.C., where he specialized in mergers and acquisitions in the healthcare, technology and government-contracting industries. Mr. Ford is currently Chairman of the Board of the Washington D.C. chapter of Minds Matter, Inc., an all-volunteer, not-for-profit organization whose mission is to transform the lives of accomplished high school students from low-income families by preparing them for success in college, a position he has held since November 2014. He has also served on the Board of Directors of Teach for America – DC Region, a non-profit organization, since December 2015 and as President of the Cosmos Club, Washington, D.C., a non-profit organization, since May 2016, where he previously served as its Vice President from May 2015 to May 2016. Mr. Ford also previously served on the Executive Board of the American Seniors Housing Association, a non-profit organization, from 2004 to April 2015. In addition, in June 2007, he co-founded Kalorama Village, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to helping seniors "age in place", where he served as a director until 2009. Mr. Ford received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Rollins College and his J.D. degree from the University of Virginia School of Law. He is a member of the District of Columbia Bar.

The Reporting Persons have engaged, and intend to continue to engage, in discussions with management and the Board regarding Board representation and the composition of the Board, generally as well as opportunities to create value for the Issuer's shareholders.

Item 5 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Thomas may be deemed to beneficially own an additional 2,150 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer. Mr. W.F. Thomas disclaims such beneficial ownership.

Robert D. Thomas does not directly hold any shares of Common Stock of the Issuer. By virtue of his position as an advisor to certain family investment funds, Mr. R.D. Thomas may be deemed to have beneficial ownership of 39,800 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer. By virtue of his position as trustee of a family trust account, Mr. R.D. Thomas disclaims such beneficial ownership.

CUSIP No. 33832D106

Gemini Properties, an Oklahoma general partnership, holds and beneficially owns 1,915,164 shares of Common Stock of the Issuer. Mr. W.F. Thomas and Mr. R.D. Thomas, as general partners of Gemini Properties, may each be deemed to beneficially own such shares of Common Stock of the Issuer.

Mr. Ford does not directly or beneficially own any shares of Common Stock of the Issuer.

NOTE: All statements made in this Schedule 13D with respect to beneficial ownership, including, without limitation, all disclaimers of beneficial ownership, are made with respect to beneficial ownership as that term is defined in Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and such statements are made solely for the purpose of reporting under Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act. All disclaimers of beneficial ownership are made pursuant to Rule 13d-4 promulgated under the Exchange Act and are made solely for the purpose of expressly declaring that the filing of this Schedule 13D and the statements contained herein shall not be construed as an admission that either Mr. W.F. Thomas or Mr. R.D. Thomas is, for the purposes of Section 13(d) or 13(g) of the Exchange Act, a beneficial owner of such shares of Common Stock of the Issuer.

Gemini Properties directly holds 3.9% of the outstanding Common Stock of the Issuer and may be deemed to have beneficial ownership of such shares of Common Stock. By reason of the relationships described in this Item 5(a), and without regard to the relevant disclaimers, it may be possible that Mr. W.F. Thomas may be deemed to beneficially own approximately 6.1% of the Common Stock of the Issuer.
