Item 5.04 Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefits Plan.

In November 2011, the administrator of the Southwest Gas Corporation Employees' Investment Plan (the "Plan"), distributed a notice to participants in the Plan informing them that starting December 2, 2011, the Southwest Gas Stock Fund (the "Stock Fund") will be converted from a unitized stock fund to a real-time traded fund. Due to this change, Plan participants will be temporarily unable to make exchanges, request distributions or obtain loans involving Plan assets invested in the common stock of Southwest Gas Corporation (the "Company") through the Stock Fund during a temporary blackout period that is scheduled to begin at 4:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Friday, December 2, 2011, and is expected to end on or about Wednesday, December 7, 2011 (the "Plan Blackout Period").

Because restrictions on investment changes involving the Company's common stock held in the Plan could be in effect for more than three business days, on November 17, 2011 the Company sent a blackout trading restriction notice (the "BTR Notice") to its executive officers and directors informing them that, pursuant to Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules promulgated thereunder, they would be prohibited during the Plan Blackout Period from purchasing or selling shares of the Company's common stock (including derivative securities pertaining to such shares) acquired in connection with their employment as an executive officer or service as a director.

A copy of the BTR Notice is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. Any inquiries regarding the Plan Blackout Period may be directed to Fidelity Investments at (800) 217-4015 or the Company's manager of benefits at (702) 876-7395.
