Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 13, 2017, Bradley B. White notified Energy Focus, Inc. (the “Company”) of his resignation from his position as the Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of the Company effective March 17, 2017 to pursue other opportunities.

On March 16, 2017, the Board of Directors appointed Michael H. Port, the Company’s Controller, to serve as the Company’s Chief Financial Officer and Secretary. In consideration for such service, Mr. Port will receive an annual salary of $250,000 and is eligible for a performance-based bonus of 50% of base salary at target level. He also will be granted restricted stock units (“RSUs”) having a grant date value of $65,000 and options equal to 1.5 times the number of RSUs that will vest over three years. Mr. Port will also participate in the Company’s Change in Control Benefit Plan (the “CIC Plan”), which provides for a severance payment to Mr. Port upon a qualifying termination occurring within 24 months after a Change in Control (as defined in the CIC Plan) equal to one times his base salary and annual target bonus, a pro-rated portion of any current year bonus, 12 months of continued benefits and full vesting of all outstanding equity awards provided that he remains in compliance with confidentiality, non-competition, non-solicitation and other covenants.

Mr. Port, age 52, has served as the Company’s Controller since July 2015 and served as Interim Chief Financial Officer and Secretary from August to December 2016. From 2010 to July 2015, Mr. Port was a consultant with Resources Global Professionals (“RGP”), a multinational professional services firm, during which time he filled roles such as Interim CFO, Controller and Director of External Reporting for industrial and manufacturing customers, including interim Controller of the Company from April to July 2015. Prior to joining Resources Global Professionals, Mr. Port held various senior level executive positions at both private and public companies, including Mork Process, Inc., an international manufacturer of industrial cleaning equipment, Oglebay Norton Company, a great lakes shipping and industrial minerals company and Hitachi Medical Systems of America, a distributor of diagnostic imaging products. He began his career at Ernst & Young, focusing on entrepreneurial growth companies. Mr. Port is CPA and has an MBA from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve and a BS in Business Administration from The Ohio State University.

The press release announcing Mr. Port’s appointment is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
