Noble Roman's, Inc.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE ROMANS INC - Form S-1/A

About Us

We are a franchisor for non-traditional and co-branded foodservice operations under the trade names "Noble Roman's Pizza" and "Tuscano's Italian Style Subs." Our franchise concepts' hallmarks include high quality pizza and sub sandwiches, along with other related menu items, simple operating systems, labor-minimizing operations, attractive food costs and overall affordability. Since 1997, we have focused our efforts and resources primarily on franchising for non-traditional and co-branded locations and now have awarded franchises in 44 states plus Washington, D.C., Puerto Rico, Guam, Italy and Canada. In 2005 we began selling franchises for our dual-branded concept in traditional locations. We have begun to sell development territories to Area Developers in an attempt to accelerate growth in the dual-branded traditional concept. Prior to focusing our efforts on franchising for non-traditional and co-branded foodservice operations, we had approximately 25 years' experience operating full-service pizza restaurants, giving us unique advantages in the design and support of foodservice systems for franchisees.

Business Strategy

Our business strategy can be summarized as follows:

Continue Focus on Sales of Non-Traditional Franchises. We plan to continue our focus on awarding franchise agreements for both Noble Roman's Pizza and Tuscano's Italian Style Subs in non-traditional venues such as hospitals, military bases, universities, convenience stores, attractions, entertainment facilities, casinos, airports, travel plazas, office complexes and hotels which we have been doing the past several years.

Growth of our Traditional Dual-Branded Concept. In order to seek more rapid growth, we have initiated a strategy to sell dual-branded franchises and to sell development territories to Area Developers for the growth of our dual-branded concept of Noble Roman's/Tuscano's for stand-alone traditional locations. Area Developers have the exclusive right to develop our dual-branded traditional concept in their area. Area Developers generally pay a development fee based on the size of the development area and will receive a percentage of the initial franchise fees and continuing royalties from the franchise locations they develop. As of January 17, 2006, we have entered into six Area Development Agreements and thirty-seven dual-branded franchise agreements for traditional locations, eight of which were sold through the Area Development Agreements.

Maintain Superior Product Quality. We believe that the quality of our products will contribute to the growth of both our non-traditional and our traditional dual-branded concept. We design every ingredient and process with a view to produce superior results. We carefully develop all of our menu items to be delivered in a ready-to-use form requiring only on-site assembly and baking. We believe this process results in products that are great tasting, quality consistent, easy to assemble, relatively low in food cost and require very low amounts of labor.

We are an Indiana corporation, and our principal executive offices are located at One Virginia Avenue, Suite 800, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204. Our telephone number is (317) 634-3377 and our website address is www.nobleromans.com. See "Principal and Selling Shareholders" and "Plan of Distribution."

RISK FACTORS

All phases of our operations are subject to a number of uncertainties, risks and other influences, many of which are outside of our control and any one of which, or a combination of which, could materially affect our results of operations. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from our expectations are discussed below. Prospective investors should carefully consider these factors before investing in our securities. These risks and uncertainties include:

Competition from larger companies.

We compete for franchise sales with large national companies and numerous regional and local companies. Many of our competitors have greater financial and other resources than us. The restaurant industry in general is intensely competitive with respect to convenience, price, product quality and service. In addition, we compete for franchise sales on the basis of product engineering and quality, investment cost, cost of sales, distribution, simplicity of operation and labor requirements. A change in the business strategy of one or more of our competitors could have an adverse effect on our ability to sell additional franchises, maintain and renew existing franchises or sell our products through our franchise system. As a result of these factors, we may have difficulty competing effectively from time to time or in certain markets.

Dependence on growth strategy.

A significant component of our growth strategy is selling new franchises and assisting franchisees in opening new restaurants. The opening and success of new restaurants will depend upon various factors, including the franchisee's ability to find suitable sites, the ability to negotiate leases for the new restaurants on acceptable terms, the ability to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, the ability to meet construction schedules, the ability of the franchisees to manage their anticipated expansion and to hire and train personnel, the ability of the franchisees to obtain acceptable financing and the effect of competition and general economic and business conditions including, but not limited to, food and labor costs. Many of the foregoing factors are not within our control. There can be no assurance that we will be able to achieve our plans with respect to the opening of new franchise units.

Dependence on success of franchisees.

A significant portion of our earnings come from royalties generated by our franchisees. Franchisees are independent operators, and their employees are not our employees. We provide training and support to franchisees, but the quality of franchise store operations may be diminished by any number of factors beyond our control. Consequently, franchisees may not successfully operate stores in a manner consistent with our standards and requirements, or may not hire and train qualified managers and other store personnel. If they do not, our image and reputation may suffer, and our revenues and stock price could decline. While we attempt to ensure that our franchisees maintain the quality of our brand and branded products, franchisees may take actions that adversely affect the value of our intellectual property or reputation.

Dependence on success of area developers.

In 2005 we adopted an additional growth strategy by selling dual-branded franchise agreements for traditional locations and by selling development territories to Area Developers to spur the growth of stand-alone traditional locations. Recently we have entered into six Area Development Agreements calling for the development of 234 franchises over the next six years. The Company, as of January 17, 2006, has entered into 37 dual-branded franchise agreements for traditional locations, eight of which were sold by the Area Developers in their territories. There is no assurance that Area Developers will be successful in significantly increasing the number of new franchises.

Dependence on consumer preferences and perceptions.

The restaurant industry is often affected by changes in consumer tastes, national, regional and local economic conditions, demographic trends, traffic patterns and the type, number and location of competing restaurants. We can be substantially adversely affected by publicity resulting from food quality, illness, injury, or other health concerns or operating issues stemming from one restaurant or a limited number of restaurants.

Interruptions in supply or delivery of fresh food products.

Dependence on frequent deliveries of fresh product also subjects us to the risks that shortages or interruptions in the supply caused by inclement weather or other conditions could adversely affect the availability, quality and cost of ingredients. In addition, factors such as inflation, market conditions for cheese, food, paper and labor may also adversely affect the franchisees and, as a result, adversely affect our ability to add new restaurants.

Dependence on a few individuals.

Our business has been and will continue to be dependent upon the efforts and abilities of certain members of its management, particularly Paul Mobley, our Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, and A. Scott Mobley, our President and Chief Operating Officer. The loss of either of their services could have a material adverse effect on us.

We are subject to Indiana law with regard to purchases of our stock.

Certain provisions of Indiana law applicable to us could have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire, or of discouraging a third party from attempting to acquire, control of us. Such provisions could also limit the price that certain investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of our common stock. These provisions include prohibitions against certain business combinations with persons that become "interested shareholders" (persons owning or controlling shares with voting power equal to 10% or more) unless our board of directors approves either the business combination or the acquisition of stock before the person becomes an "interested shareholder."

We and our franchisees are subject to various federal, state and local laws with regard to the operation of the businesses.

We are subject to regulation by the FTC and various state agencies pursuant to federal and state laws regulating the offer and sale of franchises. Several states also regulate aspects of the franchisor-franchisee relationship.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE ROMANS INC - Form S-1/A

The FTC requires us to furnish to prospective franchisees a disclosure document containing certain specified information. Some states also regulate the sale of franchises and require registration of a franchise offering circular with state authorities. Substantive state laws that regulate the franchisor-franchisee relationship presently exist in a substantial number of states, and bills have been introduced in Congress from time to time that would provide for federal regulation of the franchisor-franchisee relationship in certain respects. The state laws often limit, among other things, the duration and scope of non-competition provisions and the ability of a franchisor to terminate or refuse to renew a franchise. Some foreign countries also have disclosure requirements and other laws regulating franchising and the franchisor-franchisee relationship, and we would be subject to applicable laws in each jurisdiction where we seek to market additional franchise units.

Each franchise location is subject to licensing and regulation by a number of governmental authorities, which include health, safety, sanitation, building and other agencies and ordinances in the state or municipality in which the facility is located. The process of obtaining and maintaining required licenses or approvals can delay or prevent the opening of a franchise location. Vendors, such as our third party production and distribution services, are also licensed and subject to regulation by state and local health and fire codes, and U. S. Department of Transportation regulations. We, our franchisees and our vendors are also subject to federal and state environmental regulations.

Future sales of common stock could affect the price of our common stock.

No prediction can be made as to the effect, if any, that future sales of shares or the availability of shares for sale will have on the market price of the common stock prevailing from time to time. Sales of substantial amounts of common stock, including the shares offered hereby, or the perception that such sales might occur, could adversely affect prevailing market prices of the common stock.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus and the information incorporated by reference in this prospectus contains certain statements which constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The terms "Noble Roman's," "Company," "we," "our" and "us" refer to Noble Roman's, Inc. The words "expect," "believe," "goal," "plan," "intend," "estimate," and similar expressions and variations thereof are intended to specifically identify forward-looking statements. Those statements appear in this Prospectus and the documents incorporated herein by reference, particularly "Prospectus Summary," "Risk Factors," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Business," and include statements regarding the intent, belief or current expectations of us, our directors and officers with respect to, among other things: our financial prospects; our growth strategy and operating strategy; and our current and expected future revenue.

You are cautioned that any such forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks and uncertainties, and that actual results may differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements as a result of various factors. The factors that might cause such differences include, among others, competitive factors and pricing pressures, shifts in market demand, general economic conditions, changes in demand for our products or franchises, success of area developers, the impact of competitors' actions and changes in prices or supplies of food ingredients and labor, as well as the factors discussed above under "Risk Factors."

Edgar Filing: NOBLE ROMANS INC - Form S-1/A

Because forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, some of which cannot be predicted or quantified, you should not rely upon forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. The events and circumstances reflected in the forward-looking statements may not be achieved or occur and actual results could differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Except as required by applicable law, including the securities laws of the United States and the rules and regulations of the Commission, we do not plan to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements contained herein after we distribute this prospectus, whether as a result of any new information, future events or otherwise.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

General

We are authorized to issue 25,000,000 shares of common stock, and 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, without par value, which may be issued in one or more series.

Common Stock

The holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters to be voted on by shareholders. There is no cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors, with the result that the holders of more than 50% of the shares voting for the election of directors can elect all of the directors then standing for election. The holders of common stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by the board of directors out of legally available funds. In the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding down of our business, the holders of common stock would share ratably in all remaining assets which are available for distribution to them after payment of liabilities and after provision has been made for each class of stock, if any, having preference over the common stock. Holders of shares of common stock, as such, have no conversion, preemptive or other subscription rights, and there are no redemption provisions applicable to the common stock.

Preferred Stock

We are authorized to issue preferred stock with such designations, rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors. Accordingly, the board of directors is empowered, without further shareholder approval, to issue preferred stock with dividend, liquidation, conversion, voting or other rights which could adversely affect the voting power or other rights of the holders of the common stock.

Our board of directors designated 4,929,275 shares of our authorized preferred stock as Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. All of these shares were repurchased by us in August 2005 and are currently held as treasury shares. No shares of the Series A Convertible Preferred Stock are currently outstanding. The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock had a liquidation preference equal to $1.00 per share.

Our board of directors designated 51,000 shares of our authorized preferred stock as Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. In August 2005, all of the designated shares were issued, together with warrants to purchase 204,000 shares of our common stock, in exchange for subordinated debentures and warrants that previously were outstanding. The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock has an aggregate liquidation preference of $2,040,000, equal to the principal amount of the debt converted, and is convertible at the election of the holder after December 31, 2006 into 906,666 shares of common stock at a conversion price of $2.25 per share. The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock provides for cumulative dividends payable at the rate of 8% per annum on the stated amount of the shares until December 31, 2009 and 12% per annum thereafter.

Dividends

We have never declared or paid dividends on our common stock. We intend to retain earnings to fund the development and growth of our business and do not expect to pay any dividends on our common stock within the foreseeable future. The holders of our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock are entitled to a cumulative dividend of 8% per annum on the liquidation value of those shares. The declaration and payment of cash dividends is prohibited without the consent of certain of our lenders. Future dividends, if any, also will depend, in the discretion of the board of directors, on our earnings, financial condition, capital requirements and other relevant factors.

Provisions Regarding Certain Business Combinations

We are subject to the business combination provisions under Indiana law, which allow our board of directors to retain discretion over the approval of certain business combinations. We are also subject to the control share acquisition provisions under Indiana law, which places restrictions on the voting rights of an acquiror with respect to any shares of voting stock which increase its beneficial ownership to more than specified thresholds unless certain conditions are satisfied. These provisions may make it more difficult for there to be a change of control or for us to enter into certain business combinations than if we were not subject to these provisions.

Under Indiana law, a person (or persons acting as a group) who acquires 20% or more of the outstanding stock of an "issuing public corporation" will not have voting rights, unless: (1) such acquiring person satisfies certain statutory disclosure requirements, and (2) the restoration of voting rights to such acquiring person is approved by the issuing public corporation's shareholders. Additional shareholder approval is required to restore voting rights when an acquiring person has acquired one-third and a majority, respectively, of the outstanding stock of the issuing public corporation.

Indiana law also regulates a broad range of "business combinations" between a "resident domestic corporation" and an "interested shareholder." "Business combination" is defined to include, among other things, mergers, consolidations, share exchanges, asset sales, issuances of stock or rights to purchase stock and certain related party transactions. "Interested shareholder" is defined as a person who: (1) beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the outstanding voting stock of a resident domestic corporation; or (2) is an affiliate of a resident domestic corporation and at any time within the last five years has beneficially owned 10% or more of the voting stock of such corporation. Indiana law prohibits a resident domestic corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested shareholder for a period of five years following the date on which the person became an interested shareholder, unless the board of directors approved the business combination or the acquisition of shares that made the person an interested shareholder before the person became an interested shareholder. Business combinations after the five-year period following the stock acquisition date are permitted only if: (a) the board of directors approved the acquisition of the stock prior to the acquisition date; (b) the business combination is approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting stock (other than the interested shareholder); and (c) the consideration to be received by shareholders meets certain statutory requirements with respect to form and amount.

We believe that we are both an "issuing public corporation" and a "resident domestic corporation" subject to the Indiana takeover statutes described above. Indiana law defines each type of entity as including an Indiana corporation having: (1) one hundred or more shareholders; (2) its principal place of business, principal office or substantial assets in Indiana; and (3) certain prescribed percentages of stock ownership by Indiana residents. While we believe we would be subject to such takeover statutes, there can be no assurance that a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately would so hold.

(1) This prospectus shall also cover any additional shares of our common stock which become issuable in connection with the shares registered for sale hereby by reason of any stock dividend, stock split, recapitalization or other similar transaction effected without the receipt of consideration which results in an increase in the number of outstanding shares of our common stock.

- (2) Assumes all shares offered hereby are sold by the selling shareholder and that the selling shareholder does not acquire any additional shares of common stock.

None of the selling shareholders have held any position or office, or have had any other material relationship with us or any of our affiliates within the past three years

Because the offering contemplated by this prospectus is not currently being underwritten, no estimate can be given as to the number of shares of common stock that will be held by a selling shareholder upon termination of the offering. Information concerning the selling shareholders may change from time to time and changed information will be presented in a supplement to this prospectus if and when necessary and required. Except as described above, there are currently no agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to the resale of any of the shares covered by this prospectus.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholders and any of their respective pledgees, donees, assignees and successors-in-interest may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. These sales may be at fixed or negotiated prices. The selling shareholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling shares:

- o ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- o block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- o purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- o an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;
- o privately negotiated transactions;
- o short sales made after the date that this Registration Statement is declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission;

- o broker-dealers may agree with the selling shareholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;
- o a combination of any such methods of sale; and
- o any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

In addition, any securities covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale in compliance with Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than under this prospectus.

Edgar Filing: NOBLE ROMANS INC - Form S-1/A

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling shareholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling shareholder (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. The selling shareholders do not expect these commissions and discounts to exceed what is customary in the types of transactions involved.

A selling shareholder may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares (including underlying shares) owned by it and, if it defaults in the performance of its secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus, or under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act of 1933 amending the identification of the selling shareholder to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling shareholders under this prospectus.

Upon our being notified in writing by a selling shareholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of common stock through a block trade, special offering, exchange distribution or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed, if required, pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act, disclosing (1) the name of each such selling shareholder and of the participating broker-dealer(s), (2) the number of shares involved, (3) the price at which such shares of common stock were sold, (4) the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealer(s), where applicable, (5) that such broker-dealer(s) did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and (6) other facts material to the transaction. In addition, upon our being notified in writing by the selling shareholder that a donee or pledgee intends to sell more than 500 shares of common stock, a supplement to this prospectus will be filed if then required in accordance with applicable securities law.

A selling shareholder also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

A selling shareholder and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, that can be attributed to the sale of common stock will be paid by the selling shareholder and/or the purchasers. Each selling shareholder has represented and warranted to the company that it acquired the common stock subject to this Registration Statement for investment and without a view to resale and, at the time of its purchase of such common stock, the selling shareholder had no agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the common stock.

We have advised each selling shareholder that it may not use shares registered on this Registration Statement to cover short sales of common stock made prior to the date on which this Registration Statement shall have been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If a selling shareholder uses this prospectus for any sale of the common stock, it will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling shareholder will be responsible to comply with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act and Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder promulgated, including, without limitation, Regulation M, as applicable to the selling shareholder in connection with resales of its shares under this

Registration Statement.

We are required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares, but we will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the common stock.

- 10 -

Each selling shareholder has agreed to indemnify us with respect to certain matters and may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer or broker that participates in transactions involving sales of our shares against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Item 14. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 23-1-37 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law (the "IBCL") provides that a corporation may indemnify present and former directors, officers, employees, or agents or any person who may have served at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation ("Eligible Persons") against liability incurred in any proceeding, civil or criminal, in which the Eligible Person is made a party by reason of being or having been in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, if the individual acted in good faith and reasonably believed that (a) the individual was acting in the best interests of the corporation, or (b) if the challenged action was taken other than in the individual's official capacity as an officer, director, employee or agent, the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests, or (c) if in a criminal proceeding, either the individual had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

The IBCL further provides that a corporation may pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by an Eligible Person in connection with the defense of any such claim, including counsel fees; and, unless limited by its Articles of Incorporation, the corporation is required to indemnify an Eligible Person against reasonable expenses if he is wholly successful in any such proceeding, on the merits or otherwise. Under certain circumstances, a corporation may pay or reimburse an Eligible Person for reasonable expenses prior to final disposition of the matter. Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation otherwise provide, an Eligible Person may apply for indemnification to a court which may order indemnification upon a determination that the Eligible Person is entitled to mandatory indemnification for reasonable expenses or that the Eligible Person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances without regard to whether his actions satisfied the appropriate standard of conduct.

Before a corporation may indemnify any Eligible Person against liability or reasonable expenses under the IBCL, a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to the proceeding must (1) determine that indemnification is permissible in the specific circumstances because the Eligible Person met the requisite standard of conduct, (2) authorize the corporation to indemnify the Eligible Person and (3) if appropriate, evaluate the reasonableness of expenses for which indemnification is sought. If it is not possible to obtain a quorum of uninvolved directors, the foregoing action may be taken by a committee of two or more directors who are not parties to the proceeding, special legal counsel selected by the Board or such a committee, or by the shareholders of the corporation.

In addition to the foregoing, the IBCL states that the indemnification it provides shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any provision of the articles of incorporation or bylaws, resolution of the board of directors or shareholders, or any other authorization adopted after notice by a majority vote of all the voting shares then issued and outstanding. The IBCL also empowers an Indiana corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Eligible Person against any liability asserted against or incurred by him in any capacity as such, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have had the power to indemnify him against such liability.

(4) That, (i) for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of the registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in the form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the time it was declared effective; and (ii) for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

(5) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use; and

(6) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report, to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X is not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
