"safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. Certain statements contained in the exhibit to this Report, and in any other written or oral statements made by or on behalf of the Registrant, such as statements concerning the continuation of high levels of power generation and low interest rates, the possible development of business strategies and realization of value from resulting business opportunities, the ability of Microgy's licensed technology to reduce air and water contaminants from waste streams and improve the profitability of farmers, the increasing support of numerous state and federal initiatives and EPC's position to realize value from these emerging segments of the agriculture and power generation industries, the validity and vitality of pursuing EPC's new business before defining and shaping its larger business strategy, the benefits of quickly financing and constructing a meaningful number of digester/generator facilities in key markets, and other statements regarding matters that are not historical facts, are forward looking statements as such term is defined in the Act. Because such statements involve risks and uncertainties, actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, but are not limited to, uncertainties involving development stage companies, financing requirements and uncertainties, difficulties involved in executing on a business plan, risks relating to managing and integrating acquired businesses, the inability to predict the course or outcome of any contract or other negotiations, uncertainties relating to government and regulatory policies and approvals, volatile and unpredictable developments (including plant outages and repair requirements), the difficulty of estimating repair and maintenance costs and timeframes, the uncertainties involved in estimating insurance and implied warranty recoveries, if any, the uncertainties relating to general economic conditions and cyclical industry conditions, the amount and rate of growth in expenses, the legal environment, and the competitive environment in which the Registrant operates. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates. The Registrant undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
