Letter to Shareholders

The first half of fiscal 2015 saw continued volatility in the gold price, but with no clear directional trend. The gold price traded as high as $1,296 per ounce in late January before declining to a low of $1,147 in the middle of March. For the six month period, the gold price averaged $1,208 per ounce. The last six months, in many respects, were similar to 2014 with the gold price lacking significant momentum as the relative strength of the U.S. economy, the ongoing Greek debt crisis and expectations for rising interest rates in the U.S all influenced trading in gold. Despite the general malaise in the gold price, sentiment for gold mining company shares improved slightly as investors appeared to perceive value in the industry following the dramatic decline in share prices during the previous couple of years.

At May 31, 2015, ASA Gold and Precious Metals Limited (“ASA” or the “Company”) reported a net asset value (“NAV”) of $11.80 per share. For the six month period ended May 31, 2015, the Company’s NAV experienced a total return of 2.8% versus a total return of 9.1% for the Financial Times Global Gold Mines Total Return Index (“Index”). ASA’s more diversified portfolio and underweight investment in Newmont Mining Corporation relative to the Index were responsible for the underperformance during the last six months. The total return of ASA’s share price was negative 0.5% for the period, closing at $10.67 on May 31, 2015.

The discount at which ASA’s shares traded in the market widened from an average of 5.2% during the first six months of 2014 fiscal year to an average of 9.6% during the first six months of the 2015 fiscal year. This is the first significant widening of ASA’s discount in several years and is due in part, we believe, to the low level of investor interest in gold and gold mining company shares in combination with the relatively higher investment returns being realized in the broader equity markets. The Board of Directors continues to closely monitor the discount and undertakes a thorough review of the discount regularly as part of its ongoing share repurchase program.

ASA’s portfolio generated very low levels of dividend income from its investments during the last six months. Despite improvements in cost control and capital allocation within the industry, low commodity prices have continued to strain the ability of most mining companies to distribute dividends to shareholders. These issues have contributed to a 55% decline in net dividend income received by ASA over the last five years. During the last six months, ASA distributed $0.02 per share to shareholders, the same rate as during the first six months of 2014. While the Company is not presently earning sufficient income from which to distribute dividends, it has made the most recent distribution to shareholders from previously undistributed net investment income.

Market Observations

Much of what we discussed in our 2014 shareholder reports remains true today. The mining industry has continued to suffer under the pressure of the low gold price and low levels of capital availability. The precious metals mining industry, however, has begun to adapt to the lower prices as the pace of new project development appears to have slowed and producers have lowered operating costs. We believe these cost savings are due to numerous factors including the sharp decline in oil prices, a less competitive labor market, a stronger U.S. dollar and a higher level of cost awareness on the part of the gold producers. While some of these causes are beyond the control of the miners, we have seen a concerted effort on their behalf to reduce overhead, cut corporate spending and invest prudently.

Global gold production is slowing from the relatively high growth rates of the last several years. During the twelve months ending March 2015, it is estimated that global gold production increased by approximately 1.5% to a record high of 3,137 metric tons and increased at a rate of 1% for the quarter ending March 31, 2015 (GFMS Gold Survey Q1 2015). The growth in global gold production during the last year, despite the lower gold price, is a reflection of projects that commenced several years prior and which are only now entering production. We estimate that during 2015, global gold production will remain relatively in line with 2014 and begin to slowly decline in subsequent years unless we witness a sharp improvement in the gold price. A decline in global gold production should, over time, assist the next recovery in the gold price.

Portfolio Diversification

ASA's allocation to diamonds has continued to increase during the last year, largely on the basis of the recent outperformance of Stornoway Diamond Corporation. ("Stornoway"). Stornoway is continuing to advance the Renard project towards commercial production and remains on time and on budget. Despite short term weakness in the global diamond market, largely due to the availability of credit, we continue to be optimistic regarding the outlook for the diamond sector.

ASA has continued to expand its holdings in developing gold producers which we believe have the ability to enter production and create shareholder value over the next few years. Most of these newer investments require very little, if any, additional capital to commence production. In some cases, ASA has participated in the public financings for these new projects. Since last November, ASA has increased exposure to smaller producers and developers by purchasing shares in Asanko Gold Inc., Guyana Goldfields Inc., Semafo Inc., and Romarco Minerals Inc.

ASA's investments in earlier stage companies start at modest levels to spread the risk of investing in smaller capitalized companies with low liquidity over a larger number of issuers. Our strategy with these investments has remained consistent by targeting fully financed companies with undeveloped mining assets that we believe will be profitable at the current gold price. Many of these companies may be candidates for merger and acquisition activity due to the quality of their assets and the lack of growth within the broader industry.

During the six months ended May 31, 2015, ASA initiated a new position in Stillwater Mining Company (“Stillwater”), a platinum and palladium miner, which we believe has improved the quality and cost profile of its operations substantially in the last year. Stillwater is one of the few platinum and palladium producers outside of Africa and offers a unique opportunity to gain exposure to the metals without the South African social and political risk. Similarly, during the last six months, ASA decreased its exposure to the South African platinum producers, Anglo American Platinum Ltd. and Impala Platinum Holdings Ltd. These two companies are among the largest producers of platinum and palladium in the world, but the continued high levels of labor unrest and low levels of profitability have negatively affected our outlook for these companies.

ASA increased its holdings of AngloGold Ashanti Limited and Alamos Gold Inc. during the first half of 2015, principally on the basis of their low relative valuations as compared to their peers. The Company also increased its investment in Detour Gold Corporation as management appears to have resolved their start-up issues and production has been improving.

While the gold price remains sidelined by the broader themes of rising interest rates and Greece’s financial crisis, we are beginning to see some bright spots in the industry, and due to the lower valuation of the mining shares, we have become more active in order to take advantage of these dislocations in the market. ASA continues to seek investments in high quality companies led by strong management teams, with a long-term focus. We anticipate that the precious metals industry will continue to experience large, multi-year cycles as it has throughout ASA’s history, and believe that the Company’s long term strategy, use of diversification and experience with past cycles will position ASA to take advantage of opportunities as they arise.

We appreciate the continued support of the Board of Directors and our shareholders.

Certain Investment Policies and Restrictions (Unaudited)

The following is a summary of certain of the Company's investment policies and restrictions and is subject to the more complete statements contained in documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The concentration of investments in a particular industry or group of industries. It is a fundamental policy (i.e., a policy that may be changed only by shareholder vote) of the Company that at least 80% of its total assets be (i) invested in common shares or securities convertible into common shares of companies engaged, directly or indirectly, in the exploration, mining or processing of gold, silver, platinum, diamonds or other precious minerals, (ii) held as bullion or other direct forms of gold, silver, platinum or other precious minerals, (iii) invested in instruments representing interests in gold, silver, platinum or other precious minerals such as certificates of deposit therefor, and/or (iv) invested in securities of investment companies, including exchange traded funds, or other securities that seek to replicate the price movement of gold, silver or platinum bullion. Compliance with the percentage limitation relating to the concentration of the Company's investments will be measured at the time of investment. If investment opportunities deemed by the Company to be attractive are not available in the types of securities referred to in the preceding paragraph, the Company may deviate from the investment policy outlined in that paragraph and make temporary investments of unlimited amounts in securities issued by the U.S. Government, its agencies or instrumentalities or other high quality money market instruments.

The percentage of voting securities of any one issuer that the Company may acquire. It is a non-fundamental policy (i.e., a policy that may be changed by the Board of Directors) of the Company that the Company shall not purchase a security if, at the time of purchase, more than 20% of the value of its total assets would be invested in securities of the issuer of such security.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and the Board of Directors of ASA Gold and Precious Metals Limited

We have reviewed the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities of ASA Gold and Precious Metals Limited (the "Company"), including the schedule of investments, as of May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014, and the related statements of operations for the six month periods ended May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014, the consolidated statement of changes in net assets for the six month period ended May 31, 2015, and the financial highlights for the six-month periods ended May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014. These financial statements and financial highlights are the responsibility of the Company's management.

We conducted our reviews in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). A review of interim financial information consists principally of applying analytical procedures and making inquiries of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters. It is substantially less in scope than an audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion regarding the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to the interim financial statements referred to above for them to be in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

We have previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the statement of changes in net assets for the year ended November 30, 2014 and the financial highlights for each of the three years in the period ended November 30, 2014, and in our report dated January 16, 2015, we expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements and financial highlights. Other auditors have previously audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, the financial highlights for each of the two years in the period ended November 30, 2011 and in their report, dated January 24, 2012, they expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial highlights.

Notes to Financial Statements (Unaudited)

Six months ended May 31, 2015 and 2014

1. Organization

ASA Gold and Precious Metals Limited (the “Company”) is a closed-end investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”), and was organized as an exempted limited liability company under the laws of Bermuda.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies:

A. Security valuation

The net asset value of the Company generally is determined as of the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”) or the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”), whichever is later, on the date for which the valuation is being made (the “Valuation Time”). Portfolio securities listed on U.S. and foreign stock exchanges generally are valued at the last reported sale price as of the Valuation Time on the exchange on which the securities are primarily traded, or the last reported bid price if a sale price is not available. Securities traded over the counter are valued at the last reported sale price or the last reported bid price if a sale price is not available. Securities listed on foreign stock exchanges may be fair valued based on significant events that have occurred subsequent to the close of the foreign markets.

Securities for which current market quotations are not readily available are valued at their fair value as determined in good faith by, or in accordance with procedures approved by, the Company’s Board of Directors. If a security is valued at a “fair value,” that value may be different from the last quoted price for the security. Various factors may be reviewed in order to make a good faith determination of a security’s fair value. These factors include, but are not limited to, the nature of the security; relevant financial or business developments of the issuer; actively traded similar or related securities; conversion rights on the security; and changes in overall market conditions.

Where the Company holds securities listed on foreign stock exchanges and American Depositary Receipts (“ADRs”) representing these securities are actively traded in U.S. markets, the securities normally are fair valued based on the last reported sales price of the ADRs.

The difference between cost and market value is reflected separately as net unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on investments. The net realized gain or loss from the sale of securities is determined for accounting purposes on the identified cost basis.

B. Restricted securities

At May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014, the Company held investments in restricted securities of 3.43% and 2.51% of net assets, respectively, valued in accordance with procedures approved by the Company's Board of Directors as follows:

C. Fair value measurement

In accordance with U.S. GAAP, fair value is defined as the price that the Company would receive to sell an investment or pay to transfer a liability in a timely transaction with an independent buyer in the principal market, or in the absence of a principal market the most advantageous market for the investment or liability. U.S. GAAP establishes a three-tier hierarchy to distinguish between (1) inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity (observable inputs) and (2) inputs that reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances (unobservable inputs) and to establish classification of fair value measurements for disclosure purposes. Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Company's investments. The inputs are summarized in the three broad levels listed below.

Level 1 –unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical investments

Level 2 – other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, credit risk, etc.)

Level 3 – significant unobservable inputs (including the Company's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments)

The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014 in valuing the Company's investments at fair value:

D. Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all money market fund and all highly liquid temporary cash investments purchased with an original maturity of less than three months to be cash equivalents. The majority of the Company's cash and cash equivalents at May 31, 2015 and 2014 consisted of overnight deposit of excess funds in a commercial paper sweep instrument issued by JPMorgan Chase & Co.

E. Foreign Currency Translation

Portfolio securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts at the rate of exchange reported one hour after the Valuation Time. Purchases and sales of investment securities and income and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollar amounts on the respective dates of such transactions. The Company separately reports the effect of changes in foreign exchange rates from changes in market prices of securities held. The resulting net foreign currency gain or loss is included on the Statements of Operations. Realized foreign currency gains or losses arise from sales of foreign currencies, currency gains or losses realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, fluctuation in exchange rates between the initial purchase date and subsequent sale date on securities transactions, and the difference between the amounts of dividends, interest, and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Company's books and the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid.

F. Securities Transactions and Investment Income

During the six months ended May 31, 2015, sales and purchases of portfolio securities (other than temporary short-term investments) amounted to $11,965,667 and $11,514,440, respectively. During the six months ended May 31, 2014, sales and purchases of portfolio securities (other than temporary short-term investments) amounted to $11,139,630 and $8,688,113, respectively.

Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, net of withholding taxes or ADR fees, if any. Interest income is recognized on the accrual basis.

G. Dividends to Shareholders

Dividends to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The reporting for financial statement purposes of dividends paid from net investment income or net realized gains may differ from their ultimate reporting for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The differences are caused primarily by the separate line item reporting for financial statement purposes of foreign exchange gains or losses.

H. Use of Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates. It is management's opinion that all adjustments necessary for a fair statement of the results of the interim periods presented have been made. All adjustments are of a normal recurring nature.

I. Basis of Presentation

The financial statements are presented in U.S. dollars.

J. Income Taxes

In accordance with U.S. GAAP requirements regarding accounting for uncertainties on income taxes, management has analyzed the Company's tax positions taken on federal and state income tax returns, as applicable, for all open tax years (2011 - 2014). As of May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014, the Company has not recorded any unrecognized tax benefits. The Company's policy, if it had unrecognized benefits, is to recognize accrued interest and penalties in operating expenses.

3. Tax status of the Company

The Company is a passive foreign investment company (PFIC) and is not subject to Bermuda tax as an exempted limited liability company organized under the laws of Bermuda. Nor is the Company generally subject to U.S. federal income tax, since it is a non-U.S. corporation whose only business activity in the United States is trading in stocks or securities for its own account; under the U.S. federal tax law that activity does not constitute a trade or business within the United States, even if its principal office is located therein. As a result, its gross income is not subject to U.S. federal income tax, though certain types of income it earns from U.S. sources (such as dividends of U.S. payors) are subject to withholding tax.

4. Exemptive order

The Company is a closed-end investment company and operates pursuant to an exemptive order issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") pursuant to Section 7(d) of the 1940 Act (the "Order"). The Order was originally conditioned upon, among other things, the Company complying with certain requirements relating to the custody of assets and settlement of securities transactions outside of the United States different than those required of other registered investment companies. These conditions made it more difficult for the Company to implement a flexible investment strategy and to fully achieve its desired portfolio diversification than if it were not subject to such requirements. On June 18, 2013, the SEC issued an order that amended certain conditions contained in the Company's then-existing exemptive order, most notably, the Company's ability to hold assets and settle trades in Canada, Australia, the United Kingdom, the United States, South Africa and Hong Kong (text of relief granted is available at: <http://www.sec.gov/Archives/edgar/data/1230869/999999999713009907/filename1.pdf>).

5. Retirement plans

The Company has recorded a liability for retirement benefits due to retired directors and one current director upon retirement. The liability for these benefits at May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014 was $584,806 and $613,580, respectively. A director whose first election to the Board of Directors was prior to January 1, 2008 qualifies to receive retirement benefits if he has served the Company (and any of its predecessors) for at least twelve years prior to retirement. Directors first elected on or after January 1, 2008 are not eligible to participate in the plan.

6. Concentration risk

The Company invests at least 80% of its total assets in securities of companies engaged, directly or indirectly, in the exploration, mining or processing of gold or other precious minerals. The Company also invests a substantial portion of its assets in companies that are domiciled and/or have operations outside of the United States, including emerging market countries, such as South Africa. The Company is, therefore, subject to gold and precious metals-related risk as well as risk related to investing in foreign securities, including political, economic, regulatory, liquidity, currency fluctuation, and foreign exchange risks. The Company currently is invested in a limited number of securities and thus, holds large positions in certain securities. Because the Company's investments are concentrated in a limited number of securities of companies involved in the holding or mining of gold and other precious minerals and related activities, the net asset value of the Company may be subject to greater volatility than that of a more broadly diversified investment company.

7. Indemnifications

In the ordinary course of business, the Company enters into contracts that contain a variety of indemnification provisions. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown.

8. Compensation matters

For the six months ended May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014, the aggregate remuneration paid to the Company's officers was $1,073,850 and $1,119,075, respectively. In addition, $384,500 and $414,512, respectively was accrued for bonuses to the Company's officers and employees. The accrued bonuses are reflected in the "Accrued affiliated expenses" on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The aggregate remuneration paid to the Company's directors was $104,000 and $107,000, respectively.

9. Operating lease commitment

In November 2012, the Company entered into a five-year operating lease agreement in San Mateo, CA for approximately 2,500 square feet to be used as office space for its employees. The lease provides for future minimum rental payments in the aggregate amount of $347,859 as of May 31, 2015. The lease contains escalation clauses relating to the tenant's share of insurance, operating expenses and tax expenses of the lessor.

Future minimum rental commitments under the lease are as follows:

06/1/15 - 11/30/15	$61,226
12/1/15 - 11/30/16	125,206
12/1/16 - 11/30/17	128,953
12/1/17 - 02/28/18	32,474
Total	$347,859

10. Share repurchase

The Company may from time to time purchase its common shares at a discount to NAV on the open market in such amounts and at such prices as the Company may deem advisable.

The Company had 19,289,905 shares outstanding as of May 31, 2015 and May 31, 2014. There were no repurchases during the six months ended May 31, 2015 and 2014.

11. Legal proceedings

On September 30, 2013, Firsthand Technology Value Fund, Inc. (“Plaintiff”) filed a lawsuit in California Superior Court against the Company and one of its then-independent directors Phillip Goldstein (“Co-Defendant”). Plaintiff alleged, among other things, intentional interference with contractual relations and unfair competition in violation of the California Business and Professions Code. On November 19, 2013, pursuant to its indemnification policy for directors and officers, the Company entered into an agreement to advance legal defense costs to its Co-Defendant. The Company filed a claim with its insurance carrier for coverage of related legal expenses and costs for the Company and its Co-Defendant. The insurance carrier reimbursed a portion of the amounts claimed before the end of fiscal year 2014. Plaintiff dismissed the Company from the lawsuit on April 14, 2014 (and subsequently dismissed the Co-Defendant). The Company did not enter into any settlement with the Plaintiff in exchange for its dismissal.

12. Subsequent events

In accordance with U.S. GAAP provisions, management has evaluated the possibility of subsequent events existing in the Company’s financial statements through the date the financial statements were issued. The Company believes that there are no material events that would require disclosure.

Certain Tax Information for U.S. Shareholders

The Company is a “passive foreign investment company” (“PFIC”) for United States federal income tax purposes. In view of this, United States investors holding shares in taxable accounts are strongly urged to review the important tax information regarding the consequences of an investment in the common shares of the Company, which may be found at www.asaltd.com under “Investor Information | Tax Information - PFIC”. Due to the complexity and potentially adverse effect of the applicable tax rules, U.S. shareholders are strongly urged to consult their own tax advisors concerning the impact of these rules on their investment in the Company and on their individual situations, and any additional informational filing requirements.

Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan

Computershare Trust Company, N.A. (“Computershare”) has been authorized by the Company to offer and administer the Computershare Investment Plan, a dividend reinvestment and direct stock purchase plan (“CIP”) to shareholders as well as new investors or non-shareholders. Shareholders and new investors may elect to participate in the CIP by signing an enrollment form or by going to www.computershare.com/investor and following the instructions. New investors or non-shareholders must include a minimum initial investment of at least $500. Computershare as agent will apply to the purchase of common shares of the Company in the open market (i) all cash dividends (after deduction of the service charge described below) that become payable to such participant on the Company’s shares (including shares registered in his or her name and shares accumulated under the CIP) and (ii) any optional cash purchases ($50 minimum, subject to an annual maximum of $250,000) received from such participant.

For the purpose of making purchases, Computershare will commingle each participant’s funds with those of all other participants in the CIP. The price per share of shares purchased for each participant’s account shall be the weighted average price of all shares purchased in the open market with the net funds available from a cash dividend and any voluntary cash purchases being invested. Any stock dividends or split shares distributed on shares held in the CIP will be credited to the participant’s account.

A one-time $10 enrollment fee to establish a new account for a new investor or non-shareholder will be deducted from the purchase amount. For each participant, each dividend reinvestment will entail a transaction fee of 5% of the amount reinvested, up to a maximum of $3.00 plus $0.03 per share purchased. Each optional cash purchase by check or one-time online bank debit will entail a transaction fee of $5 plus $0.03 per share purchased. If a participant has funds automatically deducted monthly from his or her savings or checking account, for each debit the transaction fee is $2.50 plus $0.03 per share purchased. Fees will be deducted from the purchase amount. Each batch order sale will entail a transaction fee of $15 plus $0.12 per share sold. Each market order sale will entail a transaction fee of $25 plus $0.12 per share sold. Fees are deducted from the proceeds derived from the sale. All per share fees include any brokerage commissions Computershare is required to pay. Additional fees are charged by Computershare for specific shareholder requests such as copies of account statements for prior years ($10 per year requested) and a returned check and ACH reject fee of $25.

Participation in the CIP may be terminated by a participant at any time by written, telephone or Internet instructions to Computershare. Upon termination, a participant will receive a certificate for the whole number of shares credited to his or her account, unless he or she requests the sale of all or part of such shares. Dividends reinvested by a shareholder under the Plan will generally be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes in the same manner as dividends paid to such shareholder in cash. See "Certain tax information for U.S. shareholders” for more information regarding tax consequences of an investment in shares of the Company, including the effect of the Company’s status as a PFIC. The amount of the service charge is deductible for U.S. federal income tax purposes, subject to limitations.

To participate in the CIP, shareholders may not hold their shares in a “street name” brokerage account.

Additional information regarding the Plan may be obtained from Computershare, P.O. Box 30170, College Station, TX 77842-3170. Information may also be obtained on the Internet at www.computershare.com/investor or by calling Computershare’s Telephone Response Center at (800) 317-4445 between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, Monday through Friday.

Privacy Notice

The Company is committed to protecting the financial privacy of its shareholders.

We do not share any nonpublic, personal information that we may collect about shareholders with anyone, including our affiliates, except to service and administer shareholders’ share accounts, to process transactions, to comply with shareholders’ requests of legal requirements or for other limited purposes permitted by law. For example, the Company may disclose a shareholder’s name, address, social security number and the number of shares owned to its administrator, transfer agent or other service providers in order to provide the shareholder with proxy statements, tax reporting forms, annual reports or other information about the Company. This policy applies to all of the Company’s shareholders and former shareholders.

We keep nonpublic personal information in a secure environment. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information to Company employees, agents and service providers who have a need to know the information based on their role in servicing or administering shareholders’ accounts. The Company also maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect the confidentiality of nonpublic personal information.
