Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

At the regularly scheduled March 14, 2019 meeting of the independent Personnel and Organization Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Colgate-Palmolive Company (the “Company”), in consultation with the other independent directors of the Board, the Committee approved the following compensatory arrangements for Noel R. Wallace in his new role as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, effective April 2, 2019.

Effective April 2, 2019, Mr. Wallace’s annual salary will be increased from $950,000 to $1,250,000. In addition, the target awards for which Mr. Wallace is eligible under the Company’s regular incentive compensation programs will be adjusted as follows, in each case effective April 2, 2019: (i) his target aggregate annual bonus award opportunity will be increased from 100% to 160% of his base salary; (ii) his target long-term incentive restricted stock unit award opportunities under the Company’s Long-Term Global Growth Program for the performance cycles from 2017 to 2019 and from 2018 to 2020 will be increased from $1,250,000 to $3,375,000; and (iii) the guideline value of his stock option award will be increased from $1,250,000 to $3,375,000. In addition, as part of the Company’s overall transition of its long-term incentive compensation program for all eligible employees, Mr. Wallace received a target award of 50,943 performance-based restricted stock units on March 14, 2019 for the performance period from 2019 to 2021. These performance-based restricted stock units will be earned and will vest in accordance with the form of award agreement filed as Exhibit 99 hereto following the conclusion of the three-year performance period that ends on December 31, 2021 on the basis of the achievement of performance goals determined by the Committee. Mr. Wallace’s actual awards under these programs may vary from target based on performance in accordance with the formulas and methodologies employed in the applicable programs, as determined by the Committee.

Also on March 14, 2019, the Committee, in consultation with the other independent directors of the Board, approved the following compensatory arrangements for Ian Cook in his new role as Executive Chairman of the Company, effective April 2, 2019.

Effective April 2, 2019, Mr. Cook’s annual salary will remain at $1,400,000 and his target annual bonus award opportunity will remain at 160% of his base salary. In addition, Mr. Cook’s long-term incentive award opportunity will be reduced from $9,250,000 to $3,610,000. Mr. Cook’s long-term incentive award will be paid in stock options to be granted in September in accordance with the Company’s regular grant procedures.
