Indenture

On June 16, 2015, DTE Energy Company (the “Company”) and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee, entered into a supplemental indenture, dated as of June 15, 2015 (the “Supplemental Indenture”) to the Company’s Amended and Restated Indenture, dated as of April 9, 2001 (the “Base Indenture,” as so supplemented, the “Indenture”), in connection with the issuance by the Company on June 16, 2015 of $300,000,000 aggregate principal amount of the Company’s 2015 Series B 3.30% Senior Notes due 2022 (the “Notes”).

The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (“Securities Act”) or under the securities laws of any jurisdiction. The Notes are subject to certain restrictions on transfer and may only be sold in transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The Notes were offered and sold only to “qualified institutional buyers” under Rule 144A under the Securities Act.

Interest accrues on the Notes at 3.30% per annum. Interest on the Notes is payable on June 15 and December 15 of each year, beginning on December 15, 2015. The Notes may be redeemed at the Company’s option, in whole or in part, at any time. At any time prior to April 15, 2022 (the “Par Call Date”), the optional redemption price for the Notes will be equal to the greater of (i) 100% of the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed and (ii) the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the Notes being redeemed that would be due if the Notes matured on the Par Call Date (not including any portion of any payments of interest accrued to, but not including, the redemption date), discounted to the redemption date on a semiannual basis at the Adjusted Treasury Rate (as set forth in the Supplemental Indenture) plus 20 basis points, as determined by a quotation agent, plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the redemption date. At any time on or after the Par Call Date, the optional redemption price will be equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes being redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon. The Notes and the Indenture contain customary events of default, including failure to pay principal or interest on the Notes when due, among other things.

Certain of the Initial Purchasers and/or their affiliates are lenders under the revolving credit agreements of the Company and its affiliates or may have acted as lenders, and performed certain investment banking and advisory and general financing, trustee and commercial banking services for the Company and its affiliates from time to time for which they have received customary fees and expenses. The Initial Purchasers and/or their affiliates may, from time to time, engage in transactions with or perform services for the Company and its affiliates in the ordinary course of their business.

Registration Rights Agreement

The Company entered into a Registration Rights Agreement dated as of June 16, 2015 with the Initial Purchasers of the Notes. The Registration Rights Agreement requires the Company to file and to use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) a registration statement to permit holders to exchange the Notes for new notes that are registered under the Securities Act. The new notes will have identical terms to the Notes, except that the new notes will not have restrictions on transfer or bear additional interest. If the Company cannot complete the exchange offer within 365 days of the issue date of the Notes, and under certain other conditions, the Company is required to file and to cause to be declared effective by the SEC a shelf registration statement covering resales of the Notes. If the Company is not able to complete the exchange offer or have the shelf registration statement declared effective within a certain period of time, and under certain other conditions, the Company is required to pay additional interest on the Notes.

A copy of the Base Indenture was filed by the Company as an exhibit to its Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-58834). The Supplemental Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement are filed as exhibits to this Current Report, and the description of each document above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Base Indenture, the Supplemental Indenture and the Registration Rights Agreement.
