Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(c)(3) Appointment of Certain Officers – Description of Material Contract

On April 29, 2010, Banner Corporation (the “Company”) and its financial institution subsidiary, Banner Bank (“Bank”), entered into an employment agreement with Mark J. Grescovich, who was appointed President of the Company and the Bank, and as a director of the Bank effective April 6, 2010 as previously reported. The material terms of this agreement are summarized below and a copy of the agreement is furnished as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Under the employment agreement, the aggregate base salary level for Mr. Grescovich is $600,000, which may be increased at the discretion of the Board of Directors or an authorized committee of the Board. The agreement provides for an initial three-year term commencing on April 29, 2010, provided the agreement has not been terminated earlier by either party. On each anniversary beginning on April 29, 2011, the term of the agreement will be extended for an additional year unless notice is given by the Board to Mr. Grescovich, or vice versa, at least 90 days prior to the end of the then three year term, and prior to the end of the then current three-year term, the Board of Directors, or a designated committee of the Board, reviews and approves the extension of the agreement. The agreement provides that Mr. Grescovich shall be appointed by the Board of Directors as Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank by no later than November 22, 2010 if the Board of Directors determines it is satisfied with Mr. Grescovich’s performance for the Company and the Bank.

The employment agreement also provides that Mr. Grescovich shall receive a grant of the Company’s common stock in the form of restricted stock on the sixth and eighteenth month anniversaries of his employment. The aggregate value of each restricted stock grant will be $250,000. One third of each restricted stock grant will vest on each of the next three anniversaries following the grant, unless there is an earlier change in control while Mr. Grescovich is actively employed, in which case all of the restricted stock will vest. The shares may not be sold while Mr. Grescovich is employed by the Company and the Bank and that such grant shall be subject to the TARP Requirements during the TARP Period, as those terms are defined in the agreement. Among other benefits Mr. Grescovich will receive that are commensurate with his position at the Company and the Bank, Mr. Grescovich also is entitled to participate, to the same extent as executive officers of the Company and the Bank generally, in all plans of the Company and the Bank relating to pension, retirement, thrift, profit-sharing, savings, group or other life insurance, hospitalization, medical and dental coverage, travel and accident insurance, education, cash bonuses, and other retirement or employee benefits or combinations thereof. In addition, he also is entitled to be considered for benefits under all of the stock and stock option related plans in which the Company and the Bank's executive officers are eligible or become eligible to participate. Bonuses, equity related compensation, and incentive compensation otherwise payable to Mr. Grescovich will be subject to the applicable TARP Requirements during the TARP.

The agreement may be terminated by Mr. Grescovich if he is assigned duties inconsistent with his initial position, duties and responsibilities, or upon the occurrence of certain events. If Mr. Grescovich's employment is terminated without cause or upon his voluntary termination following the occurrence of an event described in the preceding sentence, the Company and the Bank would be required to continue to pay Mr. Grescovich's salary for an additional 12 months, and to continue the health, life and disability programs of the Bank for the remaining term of the Agreement. However, the ability of the Company and the Bank to honor the terms of the Agreement upon an involuntary termination may be limited by the TARP Requirements during the TARP Period.

The employment agreement also provides for a severance payment and other benefits if Mr. Grescovich is involuntarily terminated within 12 months following a change in control of the Company. The value of the severance benefit under Mr. Grescovich' employment agreement is one times the value of his annual Salary in effect upon his termination of employment, and continued coverage under the health, life and disability programs of the Bank for the remaining term of the agreement following the change in control. This severance payment also is subject to the TARP Requirements during the TARP Period, as well as the golden parachute payment restrictions of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code and other regulatory provisions.

The agreement also includes a noncompetition provision that restricts Mr. Grescovich, for a period of one year from the termination of the agreement, from serving as a director, officer or employee of or consultant to any bank, savings and loan association, credit union or similar thrift, savings bank or institution or holding company of any such entity in any county in which the Company, the Bank or any other affiliate of the Company operates a full service branch office on the Date of Termination (as defined in the agreement) of the agreement.

The foregoing description of the employment agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of employment agreement, a copy of which is furnished as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
