Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 17, 2008, Century Aluminum of West Virginia, Inc. (CAWV), an independent operating subsidiary of Century Aluminum Company (the "Company"), issued a conditional Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (WARN) notice at its Ravenswood, West Virginia smelter related to a possible 100% curtailment of plant operations in 60 days. This facility employs approximately 684 persons. Simultaneously with the issuance of the WARN, CAWV began the immediate curtailment of one of its four potlines which is expected to be completed by December 20, 2008. The potline curtailment will ultimately impact an estimated 120 employees, who will be temporarily redeployed throughout the smelter.

Separations from employment at the Ravenswood smelter could begin in approximately 60 days. However, CAWV intends to work during this 60 day notice period with suppliers, customers, employees and government officials to explore avenues for maintaining plant operations in some form. The Company cannot predict what, if any, outcome will result from CAWV's efforts during this 60 day period and the effect of those efforts on the Company's future financial performance. The Company believes that the impact of the curtailment of the single potline is not likely to have a material adverse effect on its financial condition or results of operations.

The Ravenswood smelter began operations in 1957 and produces approximately 170,000 metric tons of aluminum per year, or approximately 22 percent of the Company's annual primary aluminum production capacity.

A copy of the Company's press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Century Aluminum Company owns primary aluminum capacity in the United States and Iceland, as well as an ownership interest in alumina and bauxite assets in the United States and Jamaica. The Company's corporate offices are located in Monterey, California.
