The followings discussion contains forward-looking statements based upon current expectations that involve risks and uncertainties. Any statements contained herein that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. For example, the words "expects," "anticipates," "believes," "intends," "plans," "seeks" and "estimates" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Commtouch's actual results and the timing of certain events may differ significantly from those projected in the forward-looking statements. Factors that might cause future results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, those discussed in "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2002, as amended.

Recent Developments

The following discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the documents described, which are attached as exhibits to this report.

On November 26, 2003, Commtouch entered into a securities purchase agreement and related agreements with certain investors identified in a schedule to the Securities Purchase Agreement, which provides for the following terms:

- o Commtouch will issue senior convertible notes to the investors in the aggregate principal amount of $3,000,000. The notes will carry interest at the rate of 8.0% per annum, payable quarterly in cash and maturing in 36 months.
- o the notes will rank senior to all outstanding and future indebtedness of the Company and will be secured by a first priority, perfected security interest in the assets of the Company and the stock and assets of the Company's subsidiaries.
- o the investors, at their discretion, may cause the Company to issue up to an additional $3,000,000 of notes from time to time for a period of six months following the effectiveness of the first resale registration statement filed by the Company, as discussed below.
- o the investors may convert the notes at any time into ordinary shares of the Company at a conversion price of 102% of the average closing prices of the Company's ordinary shares for the five trading days prior to closing, but not greater than 105% of the closing price on the trading day prior to closing. The notes provide for certain anti-dilution adjustments.
- o the Company may prepay the notes at any time after the twelve month anniversary of the effectiveness of the applicable registration statement if, among other things, (i) the daily volume weighted average price of the ordinary shares for 20 trading days in any 30 consecutive trading day period was at least 200% of the conversion price of the notes and (ii) the trading volume on 15 of the 20 trading days is greater than 250,000, excluding block trades of 20,000 shares or more.

- o the investors also will receive warrants to purchase up to 200 ordinary shares for every $1,000 principal amount of notes purchased. The warrants will be three year warrants exercisable at an exercise price equal to the conversion price. The warrants provide for certain anti-dilution adjustments.

The initial closing and funding of the transaction is subject to the conversion of all amounts outstanding under the $1,250,000 in promissory notes issued pursuant to the Convertible Loan Agreement dated January 29, 2003 between the Company and the lenders party thereto, which the Company previously reported.

The Company is required to use its best efforts to file a Registration Statement on Form F-3 covering the ordinary shares underlying the notes and the warrants within 10 days from the initial closing and within 30 days from the closing of any additional sale of notes, and use its best efforts to cause the registration statement to become effective within 90 days from those dates. If the Company fails to do so, then the Company will be required to pay to each noteholder cash in the amount of 0.02 of the aggregate principal amount of the notes whose underlying shares were includable in the registration statement if the registration statement was filed late, plus an additional 0.02, if the registration statement is not declared effective by the applicable deadline, plus 0.00067 of the principal amount for each day of the delay. These payments will bear interest at the rate of 1.5% per month until paid in full.

The Company has also agreed that:

- o while the notes are outstanding, it will not redeem, or declare or pay any cash dividend or distribution on, its ordinary shares without the prior express written consent of holders representing a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the notes then outstanding.
- o while the notes are outstanding, it will not permit certain liens to exist on its property or assets.
- o it may not offer, sell, grant any option to purchase, or otherwise dispose of any of its or its subsidiaries' equity or equity equivalent securities, including any debt, preferred stock or other instrument or security convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for ordinary shares or ordinary share equivalents, until 90 trading days following the effectiveness of the first resale registration statement the Company files. After the 90 day period has expired and for the succeeding 18 months, the investors will have a right of first refusal to purchase up to 1/3 of any such securities.
- o it will indemnify the investors as to certain liabilities arising in connection with the registration statements.

The Company will use the proceeds of the notes and warrants for general corporate purposes.

The closing of the transaction is subject to the fulfillment of the following closing conditions, among others:

- o approval of the shareholders of the Company of (i) an increase in the authorized share capital of the Company to allow the issuance of shares on conversion of the notes and exercise of the warrants and (ii) the Company's issuance of ordinary shares upon conversion of the outstanding promissory notes of the Company issued pursuant to the Convertible Loan Agreement. The Company's principal shareholders have agreed to vote in favor of these proposals.
- o all security interests pursuant to the Convertible Loan Agreement must have been released and terminated.
- o receipt of all required approvals, including the approval of the Office of Chief Scientist in the Israeli Ministry of Industry and Trade and the Israeli Investment Center.

The transaction is currently expected to close in January 2004.
