ABN AMRO announces USD 21 billion sale of LaSalle to Bank of America

Separate from today's announcement of the proposed merger of ABN AMRO Holding N.V. ("ABN AMRO") with Barclays PLC ("Barclays"), the Managing Board and the Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO today announce the sale of ABN AMRO North America Holding Company which principally consists of the retail and commercial banking activities of LaSalle Bank Corporation ("LaSalle") to Bank of America for USD 21 billion in cash. ABN AMRO's North American Asset Management businesses and certain businesses within ABN AMRO's North American Global Markets and Global Clients operations do not form part of the sale.

Headquartered in Chicago, LaSalle has been the centrepiece of ABN AMRO's US operations since its acquisition nearly 30 years ago. As a result of both organic and acquisition growth, LaSalle became one of the 20 largest bank holding companies in the United States. Through its two principal subsidiaries, LaSalle Bank N.A. and LaSalle Bank Midwest N.A., LaSalle operates a network of more than 400 branches and more than 1,500 ATMs in Illinois, Michigan and Indiana and more than 25 regional lending offices throughout the country.

As at 31 December 2006, LaSalle had more than USD 113 billion in tangible assets and a tangible book value of USD 9.7 billion. These figures are adjusted for businesses retained by ABN AMRO and the previously announced sale of the mortgage operations unit and presented on a US GAAP basis. For the year ended 31 December 2006, LaSalle, presented on the same basis, had net income of USD 1,035 million. On the basis of the above, the purchase price of USD 21 billion represents a 2006 price to earnings multiple of 20.3 and a 2006 price to tangible book value multiple of 2.2.

The sale of LaSalle is expected to generate a very significant gain. Taking into account the excess capital from the sale of LaSalle, the management of the combined group resulting from the proposed merger of ABN AMRO and Barclays expects to distribute approximately EUR 12 bln to the shareholders of the combined group in a tax efficient form, primarily through buy-backs after completion of the offer. The value of the sale of LaSalle to ABN AMRO shareholders is reflected in the exchange ratio agreed with Barclays.

The sale of LaSalle is expected to complete late 2007 and is subject to regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions. The sale and purchase agreement permits ABN AMRO to execute a similar agreement for a higher offer for LaSalle for the same business for a period of 14 calendar days from the date of the agreement, permits Bank of America to match any higher offer and provides for a termination fee of USD 200 million payable to Bank of America if the agreement is terminated under certain limited circumstances. The agreement also provides for a purchase price adjustment linked to the financial performance of LaSalle before the completion of the transaction.

LaSalle represents a unique and important strategic opportunity for Bank of America in augmenting its unparalleled business platform in the US.

“LaSalle has been a wonderful platform for ABN AMRO in the United States because of its strong focus on customer service, dedicated employees, community involvement and civic leadership,” said Joost Kuiper, member of the Managing Board of ABN AMRO and responsible for the Business Unit North America.

“LaSalle is an outstanding business and has demonstrated an impressive record of growth and profitability. In light of this record, the Managing Board decided that greater value for our shareholders could be achieved by finding the right buyer,” commented Rijkman Groenink, Chairman of the Managing Board of ABN AMRO. “Today’s announcement is clear evidence of the tremendous value created for our shareholders. I would personally like to thank the management and staff at LaSalle for their many years of loyal service and success as part of the ABN AMRO organisation. I wish them continued success in the future.”

ABN AMRO was advised by UBS Limited as lead financial adviser. ABN AMRO was further advised by Morgan Stanley & Co. Limited and Lehman Brothers as financial advisers. The Supervisory Board of ABN AMRO was advised by Goldman Sachs International. Legal counsel was provided to ABN AMRO by Davis Polk & Wardwell along with Vedder, Price, Kaufman & Kammholz, P.C. as to US law, and by Nauta Dutilh N.V. and Allen & Overy LLP as to Dutch law.
