5.1. Purchase and Sale Agreement. On March 18, 2007, the Offerer entered into an irrevocable and irreversible agreement with the controlling shareholders (the "Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders"), of DPPI and Refinaria de Petróleo Ipiranga S.A. Item 1

Exhibit I - Draft Public Offer Instrument

in DPPI, RIPI, and Companhia Brasileira de Petróleo Ipiranga (“CBPI”) (the “Purchase and Sale Agreement”) on its own behalf and as commission agent for and on account of Braskem and Petrobras to acquire petrochemical assets, and in Petrobras’ case, certain distribution assets.

5.1.1. The Ipiranga Group businesses will be managed by Petrobras, Ultrapar and Braskem. Ultrapar shall hold the fuel and lubricant distribution businesses located in the South and Southeast regions in Brazil (the “South Distribution Assets”), Petrobras shall hold the fuel and lubricant distribution businesses located in the North, Northeast and Mid-West regions in Brazil (the “North Distribution Assets”) and Braskem and Petrobras shall hold the Petrochemical Assets, represented by Ipiranga Química S.A., Ipiranga Petroquímica S.A. (“IPQ”) and the latter’s stake in Copesul – Companhia Petroquímica do Sul (“Copesul”), in a proportion of 60% to Braskem and 40% to Petrobras (the “Petrochemical Assets”). The assets relating to oil refinery operations held by RIPI shall be shared equally by Petrobras, Ultrapar and Braskem.

5.2. Transaction Stages. The transaction is divided into five (05) stages: (i) acquisition of the shares from the Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders by the Offerer; (ii) a mandatory tender offer due to disposal of control for acquisition of common shares issued by RIPI, DPPI, CBPI and IPQ (the “Tag Along POAs”); (iii) a public offering to cancel Copesul’s registration as a publicly traded company; (iv) exchange offer by Ultrapar's of shares issued by RIPI, DPPI and CBPI; and (v) segregation of the South Distribution Assets, North Distribution Assets and Petrochemical Assets, and the consequent transfer of the Petrochemical Assets to Braskem and Petrobras and the North Distribution Assets to Petrobras.

5.3. Acquisition of shares from the Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders. On April 18, 2007, (the “Closing Date”) Ultrapar acquired shares issued by RIPI, DPPI and CBPI from the Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders representing the following company stakes: (i) 66.2% of the common shares issued by RIPI, (ii) 11.6% of the preferred shares issued by RIPI, (iii) 69.2% of the common shares issued by DPPI, (iv) 10.5% of the preferred shares issued by DPPI, (v) 3.8% of the common shares issued by CBPI, and (vi) less than 0.1% of the preferred shares issued by CBPI. In addition, on April 23, 2007, Ultrapar acquired the common and preferred shares issued by RIPI and DPPI and common shares issued by CBPI from one of the Controlling Shareholders, representing less than 0.1% of the shares of the respective class and type. The following table indicates the value per share that was paid to the Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders:

Company	Share	Purchase Price (R$/share)
	Common	132.85184
	Restricted
RIPI	Common	106.28147
	Unrestricted
	Preferred	38.93000

Exhibit I - Draft Public Offer Instrument

concentrating all of the shareholders in a single company listed on the stock market, allowing for a reduction in costs and increased liquidity and (ii) permit segregation and transfer of the Petrochemical Assets, North Distribution Assets and South Distribution Assets (the “Corporate Restructuring”). Within this context, Ultrapar shall incorporate the shares issued by RIPI, DPPI and CBPI (the “Share Incorporations”) pursuant to the terms of article 252 of Brazilian Corporate Law. As a result of the Share Incorporations, RIPI, DPPI and CBPI shall become wholly-owned subsidiaries of Ultrapar. Shareholders holding preferred and any common shares in RIPI, DPPI and CBPI shall receive preferred shares in Ultrapar.

5.5. Segregation of Assets. Upon conclusion of the Share Incorporations, Ultrapar shall (i) reduce RIPI's and CBPI's capital stock in order to transfer the Petrochemical Assets directly to Ultrapar, for future delivery to Braskem and Petrobras, pursuant to the commission agency, and (ii) Ultrapar shall spin off CBPI to transfer the North Distribution Assets to a company controlled by Petrobras.

5.6. CADE. The transaction has been presented for approval to the Brazilian Anti-trust Authorities (CADE – Administrative Board for Economic Defense), Secretary for Economic Rights (SDE) and the Economic Oversight Office (SEAE). CADE has issued a writ of prevention with a series of provisions on management of the assets acquired. The provisions relating to the Petrochemical Assets were effectively reviewed on April 25, 2007, in a decision ratified in CADE Full Session, at which time Braskem entered into an Agreement to Preserve Reversibility of the Transaction (the “APRO”). Such alterations being made, CADE accepted Petrobras' retention of a minority stake in Copesul after the acquisition. Additionally, on May 16, 2007, another APRO was entered into for the fuel distribution sector. This APRO establishes corporate governance rules encompassing CBPI, in order to maintain distribution sector competition and transaction reversibility relating to the Petrobras Assets. Please note that these APROs do not affect the conclusion of the Offer.

on account of Braskem and Petrobras to acquire petrochemical assets, and in Petrobras' case, certain distribution assets.

5.1.1. The Ipiranga Group businesses will be managed by Petrobras, Ultrapar and Braskem. The assets relating to oil refinery operations held by RIPI shall be shared equally by Petrobras, Ultrapar and Braskem.

5.2. Transaction Stages. The transaction is divided into five (05) stages: (i) acquisition of the shares from the Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders by the Offerer; (ii) a mandatory tender offer due to disposal of control for acquisition of common shares issued by RIPI, DPPI, CBPI and IPQ (the "Tag Along POAs"); (iii) a public offering to cancel Copesul's registration as a publicly traded company; (iv) exchange offer by Ultrapar's of shares issued by RIPI, DPPI and CBPI; and (v) segregation of the South Distribution Assets, North Distribution Assets and Petrochemical Assets, and the consequent transfer of the Petrochemical Assets to Braskem and Petrobras and the North Distribution Assets to Petrobras.

5.3. Acquisition of shares from the Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders. On April 18, 2007, (the "Closing Date") Ultrapar acquired shares issued by RIPI, DPPI and CBPI from the Ipiranga Controlling Shareholders representing the following company stakes: (i) 66.2% of the common shares issued by RIPI, (ii) 11.6% of the preferred shares issued by RIPI, (iii) 69.2% of the common shares issued by DPPI, (iv) 10.5% of the preferred shares issued by DPPI, (v) 3.8% of the common shares issued by CBPI, and (vi) less than 0.1% of the preferred shares issued by CBPI. Within this context, Ultrapar shall incorporate the shares issued by RIPI, DPPI and CBPI (the “Share Incorporation”) pursuant to the terms of article 252 of Brazilian Corporate Law. As a result of the Share Incorporations, RIPI, DPPI and CBPI shall become wholly-owned subsidiaries of Ultrapar. Shareholders holding preferred and any common shares in RIPI, DPPI and CBPI shall receive preferred shares in Ultrapar.

5.5. Segregation of Assets. Upon conclusion of the Share Incorporations, Ultrapar shall (i) reduce RIPI's and CBPI's capital stock in order to transfer the Petrochemical Assets directly to Ultrapar, for future delivery to Braskem and Petrobras, pursuant to the commission agency, and (ii) Ultrapar shall spin off CBPI to transfer the North Distribution Assets to a company controlled by Petrobras.

5.6. CADE. The transaction has been presented for approval to the Brazilian Anti-trust Authorities (CADE – Administrative Board for Economic Defense), Secretary for Economic Rights (SDE) and the Economic Oversight Office (SEAE). CADE has issued a writ of prevention with a series of provisions on management of the assets acquired. The provisions relating to the Petrochemical Assets were effectively reviewed on April 25, 2007, in a decision ratified by the CADE Full Session, at which time Braskem entered into an Agreement to Preserve Reversibility of the Transaction (the “APRO”). Such alterations being made, CADE accepted Petrobras' retention of a minority stake in Copesul after the acquisition. Additionally, on May 16, 2007, another APRO was entered into for the fuel distribution sector. This APRO establishes corporate governance rules encompassing CBPI, in order to maintain distribution sector competition and transaction reversibility relating to the Petrobras Assets. Please note that these APROs do not affect the conclusion of the Offer.

8.3. Information on the Offerer’s Controlling Company. Ultrapar is controlled by Ultra S.A. Participações, which holds 66% of the voting capital and 40% of Ultrapar’s total capital stock.

9. SUPERVENING LIABILITY

9.1. Additional Liability. The Offerer hereby agrees to pay the owners of the Shares accepting the Offer any additional amount, if any, between: (i) the price paid to the shareholders for the sale of their Shares, restated by the TR (based on 365 days per year) on a pro-rated basis from the Auction Date up to the date on which payment of such amounts is due (restated according to the alterations in the number of shares resulting from splits, groupings or conversions) and (ii) the Share price that would be due, or may be due, in the event of the following circumstances within a period of one (01) year from the Auction Date, (a) a fact that requires or shall require a mandatory public offering to acquire the Shares or (b) a corporate event that would entitle Shareholders accepting the Offer to withdraw from the company upon payment of a price per share, if they still were RIPI shareholders on the date of such a corporate event, and disagreed with the deliberation approving the implementation of any corporate event that would allow said right to be enforced.

9.1.1. RIPI Share Incorporation. According to the relevant fact disclosed on March 19, 2007, the Offerer intends to incorporate RIPI shares once the Offer has been concluded. Pursuant to article 252, paragraph 2 of Brazilian Corporation Law, the owners of common and preferred shares issued by RIPI disagreeing with this share incorporation shall be entitled to withdraw from the company, upon receiving a price per share that shall be defined within the scope of article 264, of Brazilian Corporate Law. Shareholders accepting this Offer shall be entitled to receive the difference, if any, between the Offer Price (restated as set forth in item 1.5) and the share price resulting from exercising the right to withdraw from the company. Thus, the Offerer does not foresee paragraph 1, article 10 of CVM Instruction 361/02 being applicable, since the price per share resulting from enforcement of the right to withdraw from the company has not yet been disclosed.

10. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

10.1. Updating the Publicly traded Company Registration. The Offerer hereby declares that to the best of its knowledge and having requested the appropriate confirmation, RIPI registration as a publicly traded company has been maintained up to date pursuant to article 21 of Law No. 6385/76;

10.2. Offerer Representation. The Offerer hereby represents that it is responsible for the truthfulness, quality and quantity of information submitted to the CVM and the market, and for any harm caused to RIPI, its shareholders and third parties, by gross negligence or willful misconduct, resulting from false, inaccurate information or information that has been omitted.

10.3. Intermediary Institution Representation. The Intermediary Institution hereby represents that it has taken every precaution and acted diligently to ensure that the information submitted by the Offerer is true, consistent, accurate and sufficient, undertaking liability for any omission in its duty, and that it has verified the quantity and quality of the information supplied to the market during the entire Offer procedure, required for shareholders to take decisions, including occasional and seasonal RIPI information, as well as those contained herein and in the Valuation Report.

10.4. Duties of the Financial Advisor. In conjunction with the Intermediary Institution, the Financial Advisor shall help the Offerer in all phases of the Offer, including, but not limited to, issues regarding (i) oversight and control of Offer development, (ii) responses to any questions eventually raised by RIPI shareholders and (iii) the receipt and processing of shareholder accreditation requests from shareholders wishing to take part in the Auction. Regardless of this Financial Advisor’s duty, the Intermediary Institution shall not exempt itself from any of its legal and regulatory duties in relation to the Offer and its settlement.

10.5. Shares held by the Intermediary Institution, the Financial Advisor and affiliated companies. The Intermediary Institution, the Financial Advisor, its controlling company and the entities related thereto pursuant to article 3, item VI of CVM Instruction 361/02 represent that they do not hold or manage Common and/or Preferred Shares issued by RIPI.

10.6. No Undisclosed Relevant Facts or Circumstances. The Intermediary Institution, the Financial Advisor for the Offer and the Offerer hereby declare that they have no knowledge of the existence of any relevant facts or circumstances not disclosed to the public which may have a relevant bearing on RIPI income or RIPI Share prices on the market.

10.7. Access to the Valuation Report, the Offer Notice, the Justified Statement of the Purchase Price Calculation Format and List of Shareholders. The Valuation Report, this Notice and the List of RIPI Shareholders are available to all interested parties (the last document issued only upon identification of the recipient and issuance of a receipt signed by the recipient) at the following addresses. ULTRAPAR PARTICIPAÇÕES S.A.

Ultrapar Participações S.A. (“Ultrapar”), a publicly traded company organized under the laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil, is offering to purchase for cash (the “Offers”) all of the outstanding shares of common stock (the “Shares”) of Refinaria de Petróleo Ipiranga S.A. (“RIPI”) and Distribuidora de Produtos de Petróleo Ipiranga S.A. (“DPPI”), two publicly traded companies organized under the laws of the Federative Republic of Brazil, at the prices of R$106.28147 and R$112.06937 per share (each, an “Offer Price” and together, the “Offer Prices”), respectively, under the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the public offer notice for the acquisition of common shares issued by RIPI and DPPI for and on behalf of Ultrapar Participações S.A. that are being published in Brazil on September 20, 2007 (together, with any amendments or supplements thereto, the “Public Offer Notices”).

The Offers are open to all holders of common shares of RIPI and DPPI and will remain open for a period of 32 days from September 20, 2007. The Offers will be conducted via auctions (the “Auctions”) on October 22, 2007 (the “Auction Date”), at 1:00 P.M. and 1:15 P.M. (São Paulo local time) for RIPI and DPPI, respectively, via MEGABOLSA, the trading system of the São Paulo Stock Exchange (the “BOVESPA”). The Offer period shall not be extended beyond the Auction Date. The Auctions are not subject to any requirement for minimum acceptance levels and Ultrapar must purchase all Shares offered during the Auction. Holders of validly tendered Shares will receive their respective Offer Price in cash, in reais, on the financial settlement date for the Auctions, which shall be three business days following the Auction Date, expected to be October 25, 2007.

THE OFFERS WILL EXPIRE AT 12:00 P.M. and 12:15 P.M., NEW YORK CITY TIME
(1:00 P.M. and 1:15 P.M., SÃO PAULO LOCAL TIME) ON OCTOBER 22, 2007, FOR SHAREHOLDERS OF RIPI AND DPPI, RESPECTIVELY.

By 12:00 P.M. (São Paulo local time) on the Auction Date, the brokers and representatives of the shareholders that wish to sell Shares in the Offers must register the Shares they hold, which will be sold during the Auctions on the MEGABOLSA under the ticker symbols “RIPI3L” and “DPPI3L”, respectively. Offer, acceptance and the subsequent firm offer to sell the Shares will be irrevocable and irreversible as of the commencement of the Auctions, to the extent that an offer and acceptance creates an obligation on the part of the shareholder to dispose of his or her Shares and provided that acceptance was duly and validly given in accordance with the Public Offer Notices.

Any third party is entitled to make a competing offer to acquire all or part of the Shares, subject however, to the following: (i) competing offers must be registered with the Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (the “CVM”), pursuant to CVM instruction 361/02 and (ii) the value of the first competing offer must be at least 5% greater than the last price offered by Ultrapar. All brokerage costs and commissions relating to the disposal of the Shares shall be borne by the respective selling shareholder. All brokerage costs and commissions relating to the purchase of the Shares shall be borne by Ultrapar. Bradesco S.A. Corretora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários (the “Dealer Manager”) will be Ultrapar’s representative during the Auctions.

RIPI or DPPI shareholders that wish to take part in the Auctions must register with the Dealer Manager or any other brokerage company authorized to trade on the BOVESPA (each individually referred to as a “Broker” and, collectively, as the “Brokers”) between the date that the Public Offer Notices are published and 5:00 P.M. on October 19, 2007, the business day immediately preceding the Auction Date (the “Registration Period”). Participation in the Auctions must comply with the requirements established by the BOVESPA and Companhia Brasileira de Liquidação e Custódia (the “CBLC”), the securities clearing house for the BOVESPA, as well as with the requirements set forth in the Public Offer Notices. To register with a Broker, shareholders must present the Broker with certified copies of the identifying documents set forth in the Public Offer Notices.

In the event that RIPI or DPPI shareholders accept the Offers but are within one year subjected to a mandatory public offering for their Shares, or to a corporate event from which they validly dissent, Ultrapar has agreed in the Public Offer Notices to pay such holders an additional amount equal to the difference of the price paid to such holders in the Offers (inflation adjusted from the Auction Date to the date of the additional payment) and the share price to be paid in respect of such offering or event. Further, because of the structure by which Ultrapar will acquire RIPI and DPPI's Shares, Brazilian Corporate Law entitles holders of RIPI and DPPI's common and preferred shares to withdraw from their shareholdings and to receive a price per share equal to the difference, if any, between the Offer Price (adjusted as described above) and the share price resulting from exercising the withdrawal right.

Pursuant to the terms of the Dealer Manager Agreement executed by the Dealer Manager and Ultrapar and to CVM Instruction 361/02, the Dealer Manager will guarantee financial settlement of the Offers.

The Offers are being conducted as part of a multi-stage acquisition and restructuring (the "Transaction") of the Ipiranga Group, a large Brazilian fuel distributor, petrochemicals producer and oil refinery, of which RIPI, DPPI and Companhia Brasileira de Petróleo Ipiranga ("CBPI") form the substantial part, by Ultrapar, Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. ("Petrobras") and Braskem S.A. ("Braskem"). Pursuant to several Transaction agreements, the Ipiranga Group's businesses will be split up and managed by Petrobras, Braskem and Ultrapar. The Transaction consists of five stages: (i) Ultrapar's acquisition of shares of RIPI, DPPI and CBPI from controlling shareholders of the Ipiranga Group; (ii) mandatory tender offers, of which the Offers form the substantial part, for the common shares of RIPI, DPPI, CBPI and IPQ; (iii) a public offering to delist Copesul's shares from the BOVESPA; (iv) exchange offers of Ultrapar's preferred shares for the remaining outstanding common and preferred shares of RIPI, DPPI and CBPI; and (v) the split-up of the Ipiranga Group's Assets among Ultrapar, Braskem and Petrobras.

On April 4, 2007, in accordance with CVM Instruction 361/02, Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. ("Deutsche Bank") issued a valuation report (the "Valuation Report"), with respect to RIPI, DPPI, CBPI and Ultrapar. The Valuation Report recommended book equity values per share as of December 31, 2006 for RIPI and DPPI of R$19.50 and R$25.13, respectively; weighted average prices per share for RIPI and DPPI of (i) R$45.81 and R$41.69, for the period from March 15, 2006 to March 16, 2007 and (ii) R$97.09 and R$101.06, for the period from March 19, 2007 (the date that the Transaction was first publicly announced) to April 4, 2007 (the date of the Valuation Report) for RIPI and DPPI, respectively; and, under the discounted cash flow method, price per share ranges of R$51.63 to R$57.06 and R$41.11 to R$45.44 for RIPI and DPPI, respectively. Deutsche Bank and its affiliates do not hold shares issued by RIPI, DPPI or Ultrapar. Deutsche Bank disclaims any conflict of interest that would decrease its independence as required to impartially produce the Valuation Report. Deutsche Bank will receive US$3,000,000.00 net of taxes for delivering the Valuation Report.

The Offers were previously filed with the CVM for its review and approval and on September 14, 2007 were registered under the numbers, CVM/SRE/OPA/ALI/2007/004 and CVM/SRE/OPA/ALI/2007/005 for RIPI and DPPI, respectively. On September 17, 2007, the BOVESPA authorized the Auctions to be held on its trading system.

In conjunction with the Dealer Manager, Banco Bradesco BBI S.A. (the "Financial Advisor") will help Ultrapar through all phases of the Offers to (i) oversee and control the progress of the Offers, (ii) respond to any questions raised by RIPI or DPPI shareholders and (iii) receive and process certification requests from shareholders that wish to participate in the Auction.

Annual and periodic financial statements and operating information regarding RIPI, DPPI and Ultrapar are available at each company's respective website, listed below, as well as at www.cvm.gov.br, and, in the case of Ultrapar, at www.sec.gov. Additional information regarding the Transaction, such as the Transaction agreements, the Valuation Report and the Public Offer Notices, are available at www.ultra.com.br, www.cvm.gov.br and www.sec.gov.

The Public Offer Notices contain important information and should be read in their entirety before making any decision with respect to the Offers.

Questions or requests for assistance or copies of the Public Offer Notices may be directed to Ultrapar at its address and telephone number below. Holders of RIPI or DPPI common shares may also contact their brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies or other nominees for assistance concerning the Offers.
