CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

More than half of 2011 have passed when you read this statement, and I have assumed the new position as chairman of CNOOC Limited for more than four months. Here, I would like to share with you my perception on CNOOC Limited and my thoughts on its future development.

Having benefited from the joint efforts of the board, the management and the entire staff over the past years, CNOOC Limited has become a highly recognized company in the market. During the past four months, I became increasingly aware that the Company not only possesses an ample resource base in offshore China and internationally distributed resources, but more importantly, the Company also has established a set of good corporate governance practices, a management team with strong execution capability, and a diligent workforce. These are the sources of my confidence on the future development of the Company.

The Company's 2011 interim results have further enhanced my confidence in the Company.

In the first half of 2011, the Company steadily developed each of its business segments, of which encouraging results of oil and gas production and financial performance were recorded. Our total net oil and gas production reached 168.7 million barrels-of-oil-equivalent ("BOE"), representing a 12.9% year-on-year increase. Meanwhile, benefiting from higher international oil prices and outstanding cost control measures, the Company achieved net profit of RMB39.34 billion, representing a significant increase of 51.4% year on year. During the same period, basic earnings per share of the Company reached RMB0.88. The board of directors of the Company has declared an interim dividend of HK$0.25 (tax inclusive) for 2011 in order to share these excellent results with our shareholders.

We are of course not complacent with such accomplishments. In motivating people to make further progress, Chinese people use the saying: "To move a step further from the top of a 100-foot pole". To CNOOC Limited, after the celebration of 10 years' continuous production growth and the crowning of the "Energy Company of the Year 2010" by Platts Global Energy Awards, I focus my thoughts on how to keep a clear mind on the past achievements and deal with the various difficulties and challenges that gradually begin to surface.

Currently, the United States sovereign credit rating for the first time was downgraded. The ripple effect of the financial crisis in Europe still prevails. The situation in the Middle East and North Africa continues to be unstable. The inflation rates of the emerging economies are standing at a high level. The trends of global economy are becoming increasingly uncertain and international oil prices are becoming increasingly volatile. Facing the more unstable macro environment and the enlarging size of our business operation, we must enhance our consciousness on crisis and responsibility, and be more innovative and initiative.

The resource-rich offshore China is our homeland where the Company has cultivated for many years, and will continue to be an important platform for our future development. Here, we have been able to maintain a good record of safe and environmentally friendly production since the listing of the Company 10 years ago. However, the Bohai Bay oil spill incident has rung the alarm to us: the safety and environmental risk is present at every moment, and the consciousness on crisis and responsibility is something we could never address enough. Both the market and the public have paid great attention to this incident, and I felt deeply sorry. We will further improve our management system and increase the awareness of safety and environmental protection among our staff, in order to avoid the recurrence of similar incidents in the future.

Recently, with the rapid production growth, our reserve life is gradually decreasing, which raised concerns among our shareholders. In the future, we'll strive to discover more reserves in order to maintain the sustainable growth of the Company. Also, with our operation gradually extending to overseas, the Company is being exposed to more risks and challenges. We'll work hard to apply our successful experience in offshore China into overseas operation and make it an important driving force of the Company's future development.

For sustainable growth in the long run, whether it is an integrated oil company or an exploration and production company like CNOOC Limited, it will step into the area of unconventional energy that is characterized with higher technology and higher cost, such as ultra deepwater, coal bed methane, shale oil and gas, and oil sands. Lately, we have made several attempts in this area and have progressed smoothly. I strongly believe that this strategy is necessary for driving the Company's long term growth.

In the future, we will continue to carry out the Company's established strategies. While we pursue growth, we'll attach more importance on its quality and return in order to fully elevate our value creation capability. We will be applying a more comprehensive spectrum to evaluate all kinds of risks, and a more cautious attitude towards the future development of the Company. We will also take a more modest mentality towards compliments, criticism and suggestions from outside.

Despite of many challenges that lie ahead, I firmly believe that, standing on the solid foundation that we have built over the years, and with the protection of various soundly established systems, the development path of the Company will be much steadier and our business operations will be more efficient. CNOOC Limited will be able to continue its growth story and make itself a model of sustainable growth within the industry.

WANG Yilin
Chairman

CEO'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

In the CEO's Statement of our 2010 Annual Report, I presented to you the management's perceptions and resolutions on the development of the Company that were "New Achievements, New Challenges, New Missions". Achievements belong to the past, challenges need to be taken up, and missions are progressing step by step. Through such measures as "cost reduction and efficiency enhancement, streamlined management and production and reserve growth", CNOOC Limited propelled its business steadily during the first half of 2011.

Having benefitted from stable production growth, higher realized prices and effective cost control, the Company has once again achieved encouraging results for the first half of 2011.

Managing Businesses for Sustainable Growth

In the first half of 2011, the Company enhanced its management and steadily steered its business towards established objectives.

During this period, the Company has overcome a number of challenges and achieved a net production of 168.7 million BOE, representing a 12.9% year-on-year increase. This is mainly attributable to: firstly, the new oilfields and development wells which continued to introduce new momentum to the Company's production; secondly, production contributions from newly acquired projects since 2010; and thirdly, the composite decline rate of producing oil and gas fields which has remained low through comprehensive adjustment measures.

I am glad to see that the oil and gas production in offshore China has successfully maintained at a high level similar to that of the second half of last year with only a marginal decline of 2.8% in terms of daily production. The decline is mainly due to the suspension of production of Floating, Production, Storage and Offloading (FPSO) vessel "Haiyangshiyou 102". With only one new project that came on stream in offshore China in the first half of the year, this was certainly not an easy task.

In the area of exploration, the Company has made 6 new discoveries. The first commercial discovery of Wushi 17-2 was made in Wushi Sag in the Western South China Sea. This new breakthrough is expected to make this region one of the Company's new reserve growth areas in the future. In terms of rolling exploration, two new discoveries, Qinhuangdao 33-2 and Qinhuangdao 33-3 were made following the discovery of Qinhuangdao 33-1 South, in the Shijiutuo uplift area. The size of reserves discovered in this area has significantly increased over the last two years. It is expected to improve the reserve economics through regional development, which further demonstrated the potential of the Company's traditional operation areas. In addition, a total of 18 appraisal wells were successful, which has further proved the size of the reserves on new discoveries that were made before.

The Company continued to make remarkable progress on merger and acquisition activities overseas. For the first half of the year, the Company has further extended its resource distribution in one of the most promising basins with oil and gas resources in East Africa, the Lake Albert Basin in Uganda, by acquiring a one-third interest held by Tullow Oil in each of blocks 1, 2 and 3A in Uganda. Through the acquisition of a 33.3% interest in Chesapeake's Niobrara project, the Company also enhanced its presence in the shale oil and gas sector in the United States. In addition, the acquisition of OPTI Canada Inc. at a reasonable price has increased the Company's resource base.

The resources of the unconventional oil and gas such as shale oil and gas and oil sands are very rich and are expected to become an important driving force of long term energy supply in the future. The oil industry is increasing its investments in this sector. We believe the cost of unconventional energy will come down and play a more important role in world energy supply following technology breakthrough in the future. The Company has recently put more stakes into this area which is expected to become an important resource base of the Company's long term development.

Effective Cost Control Attributed to Considerable Return

For the first half of the year, international oil prices fluctuated sharply, although generally, it sustained at a high level. Having benefited from this, the Company's average realized oil price reached US$108.16 per barrel, 40.8% higher than that of the same period last year. The Company's average realized gas price was US$4.92/mcf, representing an increase of 15.5% year on year.

Due to the higher realized prices and stable growth in oil and gas production, the Company achieved oil and gas sales revenue of RMB97.03 billion, 45.0% higher than that of the same period last year. On the other hand, despite escalating prices of oilfield services and raw materials, the Company's production cost has remained at a low level mainly attributed to cost savings and efficiency enhancement. The seasonality factor has also lowered the production cost. The Company's operating expenses per barrel were US$7.00, representing a decrease of 3.8% as compared to the 2010 average of US$7.28. The Company recorded net profit of RMB39.34 billion, representing a significant increase of 51.4% year on year. Basic earnings per share of the Company were RMB0.88. The Company has maintained a strong profitability within the industry.

As the industry cost is likely to rise, the Company will be faced with pressure on cost increase. Nevertheless, the Company will implement all of its practicable and effective cost control measures to maintain its competitive position in the industry and elevate its value creation ability.

Promoting Environmental Protection and Achieving Harmonious Development

The Company always considers environmental protection, production safety and occupational health as important elements for the fulfillment of its social responsibilities, which are integrated with the Company's sustainable development strategy.

The senior management members and entire staff have attached great importance to health, safety and environmental protection ("HSE"), and a good record has been kept since the establishment of the Company more than a decade ago. However, offshore oil exploration and production is characterized as a high risk industry, and the challenges on HSE always exist. The oil spill incident of Penglai 19-3, an oilfield in the Bohai Bay area and operated under a production sharing contract, posed HSE challenges to the Company. The Company initiated the emergency response system in a timely manner and actively supported ConocoPhillips China Inc., the operator of the Penglai 19-3 oilfield, to stop the spillage and carry out spilled oil collection and cleanup work.

This was quite a severe HSE accident in the Company's history and has made certain impact to the marine environment. We all regret deeply on this. Being a responsible company, we will continue to urge and assist ConocoPhillips China Inc. to stop the spillage and complete the cleanup work in a timely manner and to minimize the impact to the marine environment.

We truly realized that the Company needs to constantly improve and enhance its HSE management along with its rapid development. The Company has once again carried out a thorough inspection on all offshore oil and gas operation facilities and continues to optimize the emergency response system in order to avoid the recurrence of similar incidents in the future.

Achieving Whole-Year Targets through Careful Planning

During the 2011 strategy preview early this year, I shared with the market that the year of 2011 would be a year of steady growth for the Company. As there are few new oil fields coming on stream, the primary objective of the Company is to lay a solid foundation for meeting the production target of 6-10% CAGR for the years from 2011 to 2015.

Due to the combination of the progress on acquisition project and the impact from the oil spill incident, we reset the Company's annual production target to 331-341 million BOE.

For the second half of the year, on the basis of steady growth in operating results for the first half of the year, the Company will focus on the following:

- to urge and assist ConocoPhillips China Inc. to stop the spillage and complete the cleanup in the field of Penglai 19-3, and to perform the inspection on the operation facilities of both independent and PSC oil and gas fields to ensure safe and environmentally friendly production;
- to maintain the stable production of oil and gas fields, and to implement certain measures such as development wells and infill drillings, ensuring that the revised annual production targets can be achieved;
- to manage the integration and management on overseas acquisition projects and ensure that the projects progress smoothly and the staff are positioned seamlessly;
- to continue to focus on exploration work, especially the progress on deepwater exploration; and
- to further improve cost control measures in order to maintain competitive advantage.

With the support of our shareholders and the board of directors led by our chairman, Mr. WANG Yilin, I firmly believe that the management team will adhere to a high professional integrity and quality and continue to leverage on the diligence and wisdom of our staff to achieve our annual targets.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparation

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements for the six months ended 30 June 2011 have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) 34 and Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKAS”) 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

The interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all the information and disclosures required in the annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the Group’s annual financial statements as at 31 December 2010.

Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Group's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2010, except for the adoption of the following new Standards effective on 1 January 2011:

Mandatorily adopted as of 1 January 2011:

IAS 24/HKAS 24 (Revised) – Related Party Disclosures

IAS 24/HKAS 24 (Revised) clarifies and simplifies the definition of related parties. It also provides for a partial exemption of related party disclosure to government-related entities for transactions with the same government or entities that are controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by the same government. IAS 24/HKAS 24 (Revised) are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2011. The adoption of IAS 24/HKAS 24 (Revised) does not have significant impact on the Group's interim condensed consolidated financial statements.

Early adopted before the mandatory effective dates:

IFRS 10/HKFRS 10 – Consolidated Financial Statements

IFRS 10/HKFRS 10 replaces the portion of IAS 27/HKAS 27 that addresses the accounting for consolidated financial statements. It establishes a single control model that applies to all entities. It requires management to exercise significant judgement to determine which entities are controlled, and therefore are required to be consolidated by a parent.

The standard introduces a new definition on control under which control of investee requires an investor to possess all the following three elements: 1) the power over the investee; 2) the exposure or rights to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and 3) the ability to use its power over the investee to affect the amount of the investor's returns.

IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 – Joint Arrangements

IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 replaces IAS 31/HKAS 31 Interests in Joint Ventures and Standing Interpretation Committee-13 Jointly-controlled Entities — Non-monetary Contributions by Venturers. IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 addresses only two forms of joint arrangements (joint operations and joint ventures) where there is joint control. In determining the type of arrangements, IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 requires parties to the arrangement to assess: 1) the legal form of the separate vehicle; 2) the terms of the contractual arrangement; and 3) other facts and circumstances that give them right to the assets and obligations for the liabilities or right to the net assets of the vehicle. A joint arrangement that meets the definition of a joint venture must be accounted for using the equity method. For a joint operation, an entity recognises its assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses relating to its relative shares thereof.

IFRS 12/HKFRS 12 – Disclosure of Interests in Other Entities

IFRS 12/HKFRS 12 establishes the disclosure objectives for an entity to disclose information concerning its interest in a subsidiary, a joint arrangement, and associate or an unconsolidated structured entity. It also requires an entity to disclose the significant judgements and assumptions it has made in determining the nature of its interest in another entity or arrangement, also in determining the type of joint arrangement in which it has an interest.

IAS 27/HKAS 27 (Revised) – Separate Financial Statements

Revisions are made resulting from the issuance of IFRS 10/HKFRS 10 and consolidated financial statements are now addressed by IFRS 10/HKFRS 10. Therefore, IAS 27/HKAS 27 are revised to only address separate financial statements, including how to prepare separate financial statements of an investor and what disclosures should be made in the separate financial statements.

IAS 28/HKAS 28 (Revised) – Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures

Revisions are made resulting from the issuance of IFRS 11/HKFRS 11. An entity applies IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 to determine the type of a joint arrangement in which it is involved. Once it has determined that it has an interest in a joint venture, the entity recognises an investment and accounts for it using the equity method.

Except for IAS 24/HKAS 24, all the other five new or revised standards are mandatorily effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2013 and should be applied in accordance with respective transition requirements. Early application is permitted so long as all of the five new or revised standards are applied early. The Group has adopted these five new or revised standards on 1 January 2011.

Impacts of adopting new accounting standards:

The adoption of IFRS 10/HKFRS 10, IAS 24/HKAS 24, IAS 27/HKAS 27 and IAS 28/HKAS 28 has no material impact on the accounting policies of the Group and has no material financial impacts on the Group's interim condensed consolidated financial statements.

Summarized below are the significant assumptions and judgements adopted by the Company in determining the nature of its interest in another entity or arrangement and the type of joint arrangement in which it has an interest:

Subsidiaries

The Company directly or indirectly holds more than 50% of equity interest and substantive voting rights in all of its subsidiaries, giving it the power to direct the operating and financing activities that significantly affect the returns of the subsidiaries. Therefore, the Company controls the subsidiaries for the purpose of consolidation.

Associates

Based on the Group's ownership percentage (considering its direct ownership as well as potentially exercisable or convertible shares) and other contractual rights, the Group has significant influence over its associates, rather than the power to control.

Joint arrangements

Certain of the Group's activities are conducted through joint arrangements.

Some arrangements have been assessed by the Group as joint operations as both parties to the contract are responsible for the assets and obligations in proportion to their respective interest. This evaluation applies to both the Group's interests in production sharing arrangements and certain jointly-controlled entities.

A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement. Bidas Corporation is a separate legal entity that controls its own assets, earns its own income and incurs its own expenses and liabilities. The Group's rights as a shareholder of Bidas Corporation are limited to dividends or distributions of the net assets of Bidas Corporation, rather than having direct rights to any operating assets, liabilities or production output. Accordingly, the Group has evaluated its interest in Bidas Corporation as an investment in joint venture under IFRS 11/HKFRS 11.

Prior to 2011, the Group's interest in Bidas Corporation was accounted for as an investment in a jointly-controlled entity and was included in the consolidated financial statements in proportion to the Group's interests in its income, expenses, assets and liabilities since the acquisition date in accordance with IAS 31/HKAS 31. Upon the adoption of IFRS 11/HKFRS 11, the Company changed the accounting for its investment in Bidas Corporation from proportionate consolidation to the equity method from the date of acquisition on 4 May 2010. The comparative period has been restated with the investments in Bidas Corporation being equity accounted since the date of acquisition. The effect on the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2010 and the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the six-month period ended 30 June 2011 and 2010 are shown below.

The following presents the effect of adopting IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 on the consolidated statement of financial position comparing the restated 2010 balances to the balances previously reported, and the 2011 recorded balances to what would have been reported had the Group continued to proportionately consolidate Bridas Corporation:

The following presents the effect of adopting IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 on the consolidated statement of comprehensive income comparing the restated 2010 amounts to the amounts previously reported, and the 2011 recorded amounts to what would have been reported had the Group continued to proportionately consolidate Bridas Corporation:

Decrease in other expenses	148	31
Decrease in income tax expense	132	22

The adoption of IFRS 11/HKFRS 11 has no material impact on basic and diluted earnings per share for the six-month period ended 30 June 2011 and 2010.

Improvements to IFRSs/HKFRSs

Apart from the above, the IASB/HKICPA has also issued improvements to IFRSs/HKFRSs which set out amendments to a number of IFRSs/HKFRSs primarily with a view to remove inconsistencies and clarify wording. The adoption of those amendments upon their effective dates did not have any material impact on the accounting policies, interim financial position or performance of the Group.

3. ACQUISITIONS AND OTHER VENTURE

(i) The Company and Bidas Energy Holdings Ltd. (“BEH”), through Bidas Corporation, entered into a share purchase agreement with BP PLC (“BP”) on 28 November 2010, pursuant to which Bidas Corporation will acquire a 60% equity interest in Pan American Energy LLC (“PAE”) from BP for a consideration of approximately US$7.06 billion. The acquisition excludes PAE’s assets in Bolivia.

CNOOC International Limited (“CNOOC International”) and BEH have agreed to contribute an aggregate amount of approximately US$4.94 billion to Bidas Corporation, to finance 70% of the consideration of the acquisition. The contribution will be made in equal amounts, i.e. approximately US$2.47 billion, by each of CNOOC International and BEH. The remaining 30% of the consideration, or approximately US$2.12 billion, will be satisfied by third party loans to be arranged by Bidas Corporation and/or additional contributions from CNOOC International and BEH.

Completion of the acquisition is conditional on, amongst others, all necessary governmental and regulatory approvals.

(ii) On 29 January 2011, CNOOC International through its wholly-owned subsidiary, OOGC America, Inc., signed a purchase agreement with Chesapeake Exploration, LLC, a subsidiary of Chesapeake Energy Corporation to purchase a 33.3% undivided interest in the Denver-Julesburg (DJ) and Powder River Basins in northeast Colorado and southeast Wyoming with a cash consideration of US$570 million. In addition, CNOOC International has agreed to fund 66.7% of Chesapeake’s share of drilling and completion costs in the project until an additional US$697 million has been paid. The deal was closed on 11 February 2011.

(iii) On 29 March 2011, CNOOC Uganda Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CNOOC International, entered into a sales and purchase agreement with Tullow Uganda Limited and Tullow Uganda Operation Pty. Limited, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Tullow Oil Plc., to acquire a 33.3333% working interest in Uganda block 1, 2 and 3A (the “Assets”) respectively, for an initial cash consideration of US$1.467 billion. Final consideration is subject to adjustments on actual cash expenditure of the Assets before the completion of the transaction. The closing of the transaction is subject to obtaining all governmental and regulatory approvals, permissions and consents among other terms and conditions.

4. OIL AND GAS SALES AND MARKETING REVENUES

Oil and gas sales represent the invoiced value of sales of oil and gas attributable to the interests of the Group, net of royalties and the government share oil that is lifted and sold on behalf of the government. Revenue from the sale of oil is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred, which is when title passes to the customer. Revenue from the production of oil and gas in which the Group has a joint interest with other producers is recognised based on the Group’s working interest and the terms of the relevant production sharing contracts. Differences between production sold and the Group’s share of production are not significant.

Marketing revenues principally represent the sales of oil and gas purchased from the foreign partners under the production sharing contracts and revenues from the trading of oil and gas through the Company's subsidiaries. The cost of the oil and gas sold is included in "Crude oil and product purchases" in the interim condensed consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

5. SPECIAL OIL GAIN LEVY

In 2006, a Special Oil Gain Levy ("SOG Levy") was imposed by the Ministry of Finance of the PRC at the progressive rates from 20% to 40% on the portion of the monthly weighted average sales price of the crude oil lifted in the PRC exceeding US$40 per barrel. The SOG Levy paid can be claimed as a deductible expense for enterprise income tax purposes and is calculated based on the actual volume of the crude oil entitled.

6. FINANCE COSTS

Accretion expenses of approximately RMB421 million (six months ended 30 June 2010: approximately RMB304 million) relating to the provision for dismantlement liabilities has been recognised in the interim condensed consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the six months ended 30 June 2011.

7. TAX

(i) Income tax

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject, on an entity basis, to income taxes on profits arising in or derived from the tax jurisdictions in which the entities of the Group are domiciled and operate. The Company is subject to profits tax at a rate of 16.5% (2010: 16.5%) on profits arising in or derived from Hong Kong, which is qualified as a foreign tax credit to offset the PRC enterprise income tax starting from 1 January 2008.

The Company is regarded as a Chinese resident enterprise (as defined in the "Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China") by the State Administration of Taxation of the PRC. 19. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The majority of the Group's business activities are conducted with state-owned enterprises (including CNOOC and its associates). As the Group is controlled by CNOOC, transactions with CNOOC and its associates are disclosed as related party transactions.

The Group is controlled by the Chinese government and had transactions with enterprises which are controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by the same government. Exemption from disclosure requirements under IAS 24/HKAS 24 is applied.

25% of the Group's revenue in the six-month period ended 30 June 2011 is generated from crude oil and natural gas sold to two major customers, PetroChina Company Limited and China Petroleum and Chemical Corporation. These two customers are controlled by the Chinese government. Other transactions with enterprises which are controlled, jointly controlled or significantly influenced by the same government are individually not significant and are in the ordinary course of business.

(iii)

Contingent liabilities

(a) On 8 January 2006, the Company signed a definitive agreement with South Atlantic Petroleum Limited (“SAPETRO”) to acquire a 45% working interest in the Offshore Oil Mining Lease 130 (“OML130”) with Nigeria (the “OML130 Transaction”) and the OML130 Transaction was completed on 20 April 2006.

In 2007, a local tax office in Nigeria (the “Nigerian Local Tax Office”) conducted a tax audit on SAPETRO. According to the preliminary tax audit results, the Nigerian Local Tax Office has raised a disagreement with the tax filings made for the OML130 Transaction.

The tax audit assessment made by the Nigerian Local Tax Office has been contested by the Company in accordance with Nigerian laws. The Company then filed a suit in the Nigerian Federal High Court. In March 2011, the Nigerian Federal High Court delivered a binding judgement in favour of the Company, agreeing that the Company is not subject to Value Added Tax for OML130 Transaction. However, the judgement might be appealed by counterparties to the Higher Court. After the assessment of the Company’s management, no provision has been made for any expenses which might arise as a result of the dispute.

(b) The Company has extended interest-free intercompany loans to CNOOC International, a wholly-owned subsidiary, to provide onward funding to its subsidiaries domiciled outside the PRC. Upon receipt of the Chinese Resident Enterprise Approval, the Company may be liable to pay taxes on the deemed interest income for the intercompany loan to CNOOC International starting from 1 January 2008. The Company is currently applying to, and awaiting confirmation from its in-charge tax authority for an exemption on this possible deemed interest income. In 2011, the Company approved the transfer of the interest-free intercompany loans to share capital account of CNOOC International, in order to reduce the future tax exposure arising from any deemed interest income for the intercompany loans.

(c) ConocoPhillips China Inc. (“COPC”), the Operator of Penglai (PL) 19-3 field, informed the Company on 13 July 2011 that, COPC had suspended the production of Platforms B and C of PL19-3 field immediately upon and according to requirements of State Oceanic Administration of People’s Republic of China (“SOA”). As the non-operator, the Company, in accordance with the provisions set up in related contract and agreement and upon the request of COPC, has been actively mobilising the resources and assisting COPC in completing the clean-up work as quickly as possible and endeavoring to reduce the impact of the oil spill incidents on the marine environment. According to SOA’s requirement, the Company also has been keeping urging, coordinating and cooperating with COPC to perform thorough investigations to find oil spill points and to cut off the sources of the oil spills. The financial impact of the oil spill incidents is subject to the causes of the incidents and the liabilities related which have not been determined.

21. SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Group is organised on a worldwide basis into three major operating segments. The Group is involved in the upstream operating activities of the petroleum industry that comprise independent operations, operations under production sharing contracts or the joint arrangement and trading business. These segments are determined primarily because the Group’s chief operating decision maker makes key operating decisions and assesses performance of the segments separately. The Group evaluates the performance of each segment based on profit or loss from operations before income tax.

The Group engages in the exploration, development, production and sales of crude oil, natural gas and other petroleum products in offshore China. Activities outside the PRC are mainly conducted in Indonesia, Australia, Nigeria, Argentina, the United States of America, Canada and Singapore.

The Main Board Listing Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited require the preparation of a report on interim financial information to be in compliance with the relevant provisions thereof and International Accounting Standard 34 Interim Financial Reporting (“IAS 34”) issued by the International Accounting Standards Board or Hong Kong Accounting Standard 34 Interim Financial Reporting (“HKAS 34”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The directors are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these interim condensed financial statements in accordance with IAS 34 and HKAS 34. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on these interim condensed consolidated financial statements based on our review. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

SCOPE OF REVIEW

We conducted our review in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Review Engagements 2410 Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

CONCLUSION

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the interim condensed financial statements are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34 and HKAS 34.

CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company has complied with the code provisions of the Code on Corporate Governance Practices (the "CG Code") as set out in Appendix 14 of Listing Rules throughout the six months ended 30 June 2011, except for the deviations from the code provisions ("Code Provision") A.4.1 only. The following summarises the requirement under the relevant Code Provisions and the Company's reasons for such deviation.

Code Provision A.4.1

Under Code Provision A.4.1, non-executive directors should be appointed for a specific term and be subject to re-election.

None of the existing Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company is appointed for a specific term. This constitutes a deviation from Code Provision A.4.1. However, all the Directors are subject to the retirement provisions under article 97 of the articles of association of the Company ("Article 97"). According to Article 97, one-third of the Directors for the time being must retire from the office by rotation at each annual general meeting. The Company has observed the need for good corporate governance practices. All the incumbent Non-executive Directors and Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company have retired from the office by rotation and have been re-elected in the past three years according to Article 97. Therefore, the Company considers that sufficient measures have been taken to ensure that the Company's corporate governance practices are no less exacting than those in the CG Code.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCES IN CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES FOR PURPOSES OF SECTION 303A.11 OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE LISTED COMPANY MANUAL

The Company is incorporated under the laws of Hong Kong. The principal trading market for the ordinary shares of the Company is The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. However, many of the corporate governance rules in the NYSE Listed Company Manual (the "NYSE Standards") do not apply to the Company as a "foreign private issuer" and the Company is permitted to follow its home country corporate governance practices in lieu of most corporate governance standards contained in the NYSE Standards.
