Press Release

CVRD and POSCO sign long-term contract for the supply of 103 million tons of iron ore

Rio de Janeiro, November 17, 2004 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the world's largest producer of iron ore, and POSCO, one of the major steel makers in the world, signed a ten-year contract for the supply of up to 103 million tons of iron ore fines from April 2005 to March 2015.

Since the first iron ore sale contract in 1979, CVRD and POSCO have maintained close relationship. The partnership was enhanced by the development of Kobrasco, a pelletizing joint venture between the two companies, in 1995. The supply of pellets to POSCO is covered by an independent contract between POSCO and Kobrasco.

This new iron ore supply contract consolidates the long-term relationship between CVRD and POSCO.

Long-term contracts support CVRD investment in the expansion of production capacity of iron ore and eliminate risks of raw material shortages for the steel industry.

These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates.
