Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On February 24, 2009, the Board of Directors of Ormat Technologies, Inc. (the Company) adopted and approved, effective immediately, amendments of Section 2.15 of the Company s bylaws. Among other things, the amendments revise the bylaws to:

clarify that the requirements set forth in the bylaws apply to all stockholder proposals and director nominations, other than stockholder proposals made pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

require stockholders nominating directors to disclose any material monetary agreements and other material relationships between those stockholders (or affiliates or those stockholders) and a director nominee (or affiliates of a director nominee); require director nominees, upon request by the Company, to complete a questionnaire and representation and agreement with respect to their background, any voting commitments or compensation arrangements and their commitment to abide by the Company s governance guidelines;

expand disclosure required by stockholders making proposals or nominations or requesting special meetings to include, among other things, information (for themselves and any beneficial owners of Company stock on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made) concerning holdings of derivatives or short positions in the Company, any profits interests or other similar types of arrangements, performance-related fees, certain other material interests and relationships that could influence proposals or nominations, and other information that would be required in a proxy statement; and expand disclosures regarding proposed business to include a description of the proposed business and all agreements, arrangements and understandings between proposing stockholders and any other person in connection with the proposed business.

The foregoing description of the amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amendment, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference. The Company s bylaws, as amended and restated are annexed as Exhibit 3.2.
