is the documentation regarding the remaining excess layers of Fidelity Bond coverage issued by the following insurance companies:

- (i) First Excess Layer issued by Great American Insurance Group for $25 million is attached under Exhibit 1;
- (ii) Second Excess Layer issued by United States Fire Insurance Company for $20.5 million is attached under Exhibit 2.

The initial joint insured Fidelity bond filing was made on October 24, 2008, where the following documents were provided:

- (i) A copy of the Fidelity Bond Binder (the Bond), effective July 1, 2008, issued by National Union Fire Insurance Company, the primary policy for $25 million; First Excess Layer issued by Great American Insurance Company for $25 million; and Second Excess Layer issued by U.S. Fire Insurance Company for $20.5 million, insuring the Funds is attached under Exhibit 1;
- (ii) A copy of the executed joint Fidelity Bond Agreement between the joint insureds in accordance with Rule 17g-1(f) is attached under Exhibit 2;
- (iii) A copy of the resolutions of a majority of Trustees/Directors of each Board who are not interested persons of the Funds, approving the amount, type, form and coverage of the Bond and the portion of the premium to be paid by each Fund is attached under Exhibit 3; and
- (iv) A Rule 17g-1 Minimum Amount of Bond worksheet showing the amount of a single insured bond which each Fund would have to maintain, had it not been named as an insured under the joint Bond is attached under Exhibit 4.

Premiums for the Bond have been appropriately paid from July 1, 2008 through the period ending July 1, 2009. If there are any questions regarding this filing, please contact the undersigned at (212) 739-3222.

Very truly yours,

Thomas J. Fuccillo
