Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 21, 2009, FH Holding, Inc. (FH), a subsidiary of Cavco Industries, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Corporation), entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Fleetwood Enterprises, Inc. (Fleetwood).

Fleetwood has been operating under Chapter 11 protection since March 10, 2009. Consequently, the Purchase Agreement does not include customary indemnification provisions and, in addition to customary closing conditions, the Purchase Agreement does contain representations and warranties and covenants that are customary for a transaction of this nature. In addition, the Purchase Agreement must be approved by the U. S. Bankruptcy Court and the court is expected to make its ruling in August 2009.

Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, Fleetwood has agreed to sell, and FH has agreed to purchase, certain of Fleetwood's assets comprising its manufactured housing business (collectively, the Assets). In addition, FH will assume certain liabilities of Fleetwood, including among other things, certain warranty and contractual obligations. The cash consideration to be paid to Fleetwood in connection with the sale of the Assets is expected to be approximately $29.9 million. However, the final cash consideration is subject to post-closing adjustments related to working capital, standard proration related to real estate conveyances, and assumption of the warranty liabilities.

In addition, the Purchase Agreement further contemplates that the parties or their affiliates will enter into a number of ancillary agreements related to the transaction, including a: (1) transition services agreement, pursuant to which Fleetwood will provide certain fee-based transition services to FH; and (2) co-existence agreement describing the rights to certain of Fleetwood's transferred intellectual property.

The foregoing description of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Purchase Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Purchase Agreement is attached as an exhibit hereto to provide you with information regarding the terms of the transaction described therein and is not intended to provide you with any other factual information or disclosure about the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries. The representations and warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement were made for the purposes of the Purchase Agreement and as of a specific date, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by disclosure schedules made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties thereto instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Purchase Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be reflected in the Corporation's public disclosures.
