Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) On April 9, 2010, RTI International Metals, Inc. (NYSE: RTI) (RTI or the Company) announced that effective May 17, 2010, James L. McCarley, age 46, will assume the office of Executive Vice President Operations. Mr. McCarley was employed at Wyman Gordon (a division of Precision Castparts Corp.), a global manufacturer of complex metal components, in various management roles from 1987 to 2009, including serving as Division President of Wyman Gordon-West since 2008. He has served as CEO of General Vortex Energy Inc., a private developer of engine and combustion technologies, since 2009. None of these companies are affiliated with RTI.

There is no family relationship between Mr. McCarley and any other director or executive officer of the Company, and there are and have been no transactions since the beginning of the Company s last fiscal year, or currently proposed, regarding Mr. McCarley that are required to be disclosed by Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

In connection with his appointment, Mr. McCarley and the Company expect to enter into an employment agreement on terms identical to those letter agreements previously entered into between the Company and its other executive officers, the terms of which are detailed under the caption Employment Agreements in the Company s current proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 2, 2010. As with the Company s other executive officers, Mr. McCarley will be subject to the Company s Executive Non-Change in Control Severance Policy and its Executive Change in Control Severance Policy; provided, however, that Mr. McCarley will not be entitled to receive any gross-up payments under the Executive Change in Control Severance Policy for any excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code. Mr. McCarley will also become a party to the Indemnification Agreement currently in place between the Company and its directors and certain executive officers, which provides enhanced indemnification protection as it relates to his position with the Company.

The Company issued a press release dated April 9, 2010, announcing the appointment of Mr. McCarley as Executive Vice President Operations. The press release is set forth in its entirety and filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K, and is incorporated herein by reference.
