Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definite Agreement

The Disposition of USP and Renown

On March 10, 2011, Gibraltar Steel Corporation of New York (Seller), a New York corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Gibraltar Industries, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company) entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the USP Agreement) with MiTeK Industries, Inc., a Missouri corporation, and MiTeK Canada, Inc., an Ontario corporation (collectively the Purchaser), under which the Seller agreed to sell, and the Purchaser agreed to purchase, all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of United Steel Products Company, Inc., a Minnesota corporation (USP) and all of the shares of Renown Specialties Company Ltd., an Ontario corporation (Renown). Under the terms of the USP Agreement, the total consideration payable to the Seller is approximately $58,000,000 in cash, net of working capital adjustments that may be made respecting USP or Renown. There was no material relationship, other than in respect of the transaction, between the Company and the Purchaser. The foregoing description of the USP Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms, provisions, and covenants of the USP Agreement, a copy of which has been filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Acquisition of D.S. Brown Company

On March 10, 2011, Gibraltar Industries Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the D.S. Brown Agreement) with the stockholders of D.S.B. Holding Corp, a Delaware corporation (Holdings), under which the Company agreed to purchase all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Holdings. Holdings, though its direct wholly-owned subsidiary the D.S. Brown Company, among other things, engages in the manufacture and sale of products for use in the transportation infrastructure industry. Under the terms of the D.S. Brown Agreement, the total consideration payable by the Company is approximately $96,000,000 in cash, net of a working capital and certain other adjustments the D.S. Brown Agreement provides for. There is no material relationship, other than in respect of the transaction, between the parties. Closing of the transactions contemplated by the D.S. Brown Agreement are subject to customary conditions, including the passage of requisite waiting periods under the Hart Scot Rodino Act, and receipt of all necessary consents, approvals, permits and authorizations from interested governmental and regulatory authorities. The foregoing description of the D.S. Brown Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms, provisions and covenants of the D.S. Brown Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 to this report on Form 8-K.

The USP Agreement and the D.S. Brown Agreement have been filed to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms, provisions, conditions, and covenants of those agreements and is not intended to provide any other factual information respecting the Company or its subsidiaries. In particular these agreements contain representations and warranties made to and solely for the benefit of the parties thereto, allocating among themselves various risks of the transactions. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified or modified by information in disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing these agreements. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the dates of these agreements, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in our public disclosures. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on the representations and warranties in these agreements as characterizations of the actual state of any fact or facts.

Second Amendment to Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement

On March 10, 2011, Gibraltar Industries, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiary, Gibraltar Steel Corporation of New York, a New York corporation, as co-borrowers, entered into Amendment No. 2 (the Amendment) to the Third Amended and Restated Credit Agreement with KeyBank National Association and the lenders named therein (the Credit Agreement). The Amendment revises the definition of Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and defines several new terms relative to the disposition of USP and Renown. In addition, the Amendment requires that 100% of the net cash proceeds from the disposition of USP and Renown be applied to the debt outstanding under the Credit Agreement. The foregoing description of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms, provisions, and covenants of such Amendment, a copy of which has been filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Robert E. Sadler, Jr., a director of the Company, is a member of the Board of Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, one of the lenders under the Credit Agreement.
