Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

Closing of the Acquisition of The D.S. Brown Company

On April 1, 2011, Gibraltar Industries Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), completed the purchase of all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of D.S.B. Holding Corp, a Delaware corporation (Holdings). Holdings, through its direct wholly-owned subsidiary, The D.S. Brown Company, among other things, engages in the manufacture and sale of products for use in the transportation infrastructure industry. Under the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement the Company entered into with Holdings stockholders (the D.S. Brown Agreement) the Company paid approximately $96,000,000 in cash, net of a working capital and certain other adjustments the D.S. Brown Agreement provides for. There is no material relationship, other than in respect of the transaction, between the parties. The foregoing description of the D.S. Brown Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms, provisions and covenants of the D.S. Brown Agreement, a copy of which was filed as Exhibit 10.2 to our report on Form 8-K filed on March 15, 2011 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

The D.S. Brown Agreement was filed to provide investors and security holders with information regarding the terms, provisions, conditions, and covenants of that agreement and is not intended to provide any other factual information respecting the Company or its subsidiaries. In particular, the D.S. Brown Agreement contains representations and warranties made to and solely for the benefit of the parties thereto, allocating among themselves various risks of the transactions. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified or modified by information in disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing that agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the D.S. Brown Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in our public disclosures. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on the representations and warranties in the D.S. Brown Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of any fact or facts.
