DIGITILITI, INC.
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of Digitiliti, Inc. (the Company) have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 8 of Regulation S-X under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. These consolidated financial statements and notes should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on April 14, 2011. In the opinion of management, all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and the results of operations for the interim periods presented have been reflected herein. The results of operations for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Software Revenue Recognition

The Company derives its revenue from sales of its products and services. Product revenue is derived from sales of the Company's DigiBak and DigiLibe service.

The DigiBak service provides an offsite storage solution through a utility based computing philosophy where customers pay for the gigabytes of data they store in the DigiBak vault.

The DigiLibe service is a multiple element software sales arrangement that is comprised of three key components that act as one: Client Agent, Information Director, and Archive Information Store.

For multiple element software license sales arrangements that do not require significant modification or customization of the underlying software, we recognize revenue when: (1) we enter into a legally binding software arrangement with a customer for the license of software, (2) we deliver the software, (3) price is deemed fixed or determinable and free of contingencies of significant uncertainties and (4) collection is probable.

For sales arrangements with multiple elements, we defer revenue for any undelivered elements, and recognize revenue when the product is delivered or over the periods in which the service is performed. If we cannot objectively determine the fair value of any undelivered element included in bundled arrangements, we defer revenue until all elements are delivered and services have been performed, or until fair value can objectively be determined for any remaining undelivered elements.

Correction of a Prior Period

During the year ended December 31, 2010, the Company discovered and corrected an error related to options granted to an employee that were inadvertently omitted from the Company's employee stock option expense from April 2008 through September 30, 2010. The error resulted to an understatement in stock compensation expense and additional paid in capital. In accordance with the SEC's Staff Accounting Bulletin Nos. 99 and 108 (SAB 99 and SAB 108), the Company evaluated this error and, based on an analysis of quantitative and qualitative factors, determined that the error was immaterial to each of the prior reporting periods affected. However, if the adjustments to correct the cumulative effect of the above error had been recorded in the year ended December 31, 2010, the Company believes the impact would have been significant and would impact comparisons to prior periods. Therefore, as permitted by SAB 108, the Company corrected, in the current filing, previously reported results for the three months ended March 31, 2010.

Table of Contents

The following table shows the impact of the error to the unaudited Consolidated Statements of Operations for the three months ended March 31, 2010:

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2010

The adjustment to the unaudited Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for three months ended March 31, 2010 did not result in any changes to the amounts previously reported for net cash from operating activities, investing activities or financing activities.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In October 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2009-13, Multiple-Deliverable Revenue Arrangements (ASU 2009-13) which:

- (i) provides updated guidance on whether multiple deliverables exist, how the deliverables in an arrangement should be separated, and how the consideration should be allocated;
- (ii) requires an entity to allocate revenue in an arrangement using estimated selling prices (ESP) of deliverables if a vendor does not have vendor-specific objective evidence of selling price (VSOE) or third-party evidence of selling price (TPE);
- (iii) eliminates the use of the residual method and requires an entity to allocate revenue using the relative selling price method; and
- (iv) expands the disclosure requirements to require an entity to provide both qualitative and quantitative information about the significant judgments made in applying the revised guidance and subsequent changes in those judgments that may significantly affect the timing or amount of revenue recognition.

In addition, in October 2009, the FASB also issued ASU No. 2009-14, Certain Revenue Arrangements That Include Software Elements (ASU 2009-14) to amend the accounting standards for revenue recognition to exclude tangible products containing software components and non-software components that function together to deliver the tangible product's essential functionality from the scope of the software revenue recognition guidance. The revised revenue recognition accounting standards are effective for revenue arrangements entered into or materially modified in fiscal years beginning on or after June 15, 2010 and shall be applied on a prospective basis. The above pronouncements were effective for the Company beginning the first quarter of 2011. The adoption of the above guidance did not impact the Company's consolidated financial statements.

No other new accounting pronouncement issued or effective has had, or is expected to have, a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements

2. Going Concern

As shown in the accompanying financial statements, the Company incurred net loss of $909,684 for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and had a working capital deficit of $1,257,502 as of March 31, 2011. These conditions raise substantial doubt as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company continues to be dependent on its ability to generate future revenues, positive cash flows and additional financing. There can be no guarantee that the Company will be successful in generating future revenues, in obtaining additional debt or equity financing or that such additional debt or equity financing will be available on terms acceptable to the Company. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

Table of Contents

3. Notes Payable

During the three months ended March 31, 2011, the Company repaid a previously issued note payable of $231,540. During the three months ended March 31, 2011, the Company borrowed $16,000 from a member of the Company's Board of Directors. The note is unsecured, bears interest at 12% per annum and matures on June 25, 2011.

4. Convertible Debt

On February 28, 2011, the Company completed the placement of $1,182,844 Secured Convertible Promissory Note (the Notes) and Warrants (collectively, the Secured Convertible Debt Offering). The Lenders in the Secured Convertible Debt Offering paid a 10% discount for their investment, resulting in a stepped-up basis in their individual Notes for a total principal amount of $1,301,128. The Notes bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum, have an 18-month maturity date and are convertible to common shares at $0.20 per share. The Notes are secured by a first lien on all assets of the Company; but are subordinate to the lien with respect to up to $100,000 of original principal amount of other notes against the Company's vault.

In conjunction with the Secured Convertible Debt Offering, the Lenders received warrants to purchase an aggregate of 3,252,821 common shares. The warrants vested immediately, have a five year term, a $0.30 exercise price and are redeemable by the Company in the event of an acquisition. The Company valued the warrants using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The warrants include antidilution provisions for stock splits, stock dividends and recapitalization.

$250,000 of the cash proceeds under the Secured Convertible Debt Offering were received by the Company during November and December of 2010 in the form of advanced convertible notes. The notes originally matured at the earlier of the closing of the Secured Convertible Debt Offering or May and June of 2012, had an interest rate of 12% per annum and were convertible into common shares at $0.20 per share. The principal and accrued interest amounting to $250,000 and $8,844, respectively, were converted into Notes under the Secured Convertible Debt Offering upon closing.

In conjunction with the sale of the 12% Secured Convertible Debt Offering, the Company paid consultants fees totaling $64,000 and issued 170,000 5-year warrants with an exercise price of $0.20 per share and 363,000 5-year warrants with an exercise price of $0.30 per share. The fees were paid through the issuance of Notes in the 12% Secured Convertible Debt Offering. The fees and the fair value of the warrants totaling $143,735 were recorded as deferred financing costs and amortized using the effective interest method over the term of the Notes.

Amortization expense on deferred financing costs for the three months ended March 31, 2011 and 2010 amounted to $8,861 and $19,722, respectively. Unamortized deferred financing costs amounted to $139,340 as of March 31, 2011.

The Company analyzed the Secured Convertible Debt Offering for derivative accounting under FASB ASC 815-15 and determined that derivative accounting does not apply to these instruments.

The Secured Convertible Debt Offering was then evaluated for a beneficial conversion feature and it was determined that a beneficial conversion feature existed. The intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature was determined to be $126,729. In addition, the relative fair value of the warrants was measured using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and determined to be $316,226 and recorded as a debt discount. The 10% face discount on the Notes was determined to be $118,284 resulting in an aggregate discount of $561,239 being recorded on the Notes. The aggregate discount is being amortized over the life of the Notes using the effective interest method. The amortization expense recorded on these discounts for the three months ended March 31, 2011 totaled $21,061 resulting in a total unamortized discount of $540,179 as of March 31, 2011.

Table of Contents

On February 28, 2011, the Company entered into an agreement to repay and modify three debt obligations owed to two stockholders. The debt obligations owed to these two stockholders were secured by a first lien on the Company's assets and consisted of the following: a $250,000 12% secured convertible note issued in November 2008 with a $0.35 per share conversion rate; a $50,000 payable that was due on demand and bore interest at 10% per annum; and a $231,540 6% promissory note that was due on demand. The terms of the agreement provided for the repayment of $431,540 of principal on the combined debt and payable with the remaining principal balance owed of $100,000 being converted into a Note under the Secured Convertible Debt Offering. In addition, the outstanding accrued interest owed to these two stockholders of $103,109 was paid through the issuance 687,393 common shares. Under the agreement, the terms of 350,000 warrants previously granted to these stockholders were modified whereby the exercise price was reduced to $0.15 and the term changed to 5 years. An additional 200,000 warrants with a 5-year term and a $0.30 per share exercise price were also granted to these stockholders. As of March 31, 2011, there remained an outstanding balance of $2,371 on the $250,000 12% secured convertible note, which was fully paid on April 21, 2011. After this final payment, the stockholders released their first lien in the Company's assets in preference to those Lenders associated with the Secured Convertible Debt Offering.

The Company evaluated the modification of the $100,000 owed to these two stockholders into the 12% Secured Convertible Debt Offering under FASB ASC 470-50 and determined that the modification was substantial and qualified as a debt extinguishment. The incremental increase in the fair value of the 350,000 modified warrants of $384, the fair value of the additional 200,000 warrants issued of $30,000 and the fair value of the 275,000 warrants issued under the terms of the Secured Debt Offering of $41,250 were recorded as a loss on the extinguishment of debt for the three months ended March 31, 2011.

A summary of the changes in convertible debt for the three months ended March 31, 2011, is as follows:

Plan of Operation

The Business

Our business is developing and delivering superior information management technologies and methodologies enabling our customers to manage, control, protect and access their information and data simply and cost effectively. Our traditional business is providing a cost effective on-line data protection solution to the small to medium business (SMB) and small to medium enterprise (SME) markets through our DigiBAK service. . This on-line cloud storage management solution helps organizations properly manage and protect their entire network from one centralized location.

Our emerging business product, released in the first quarter of 2010, is called DigiLIBE. We believe that DigiLIBE is a game-changing product that addresses the desperate need for a fiscally responsible, integrated system to manage the increasing growth, volume, and diversity of unstructured data that now represents up to 85% of enterprise information and continues to grow rapidly. Content chaos is overwhelming companies' ability to meet compliance, utilize collaboration tools and optimize storage needs for their virtualized infrastructures.

DigiBAK and DigiLIBE are complementary products DigiBAK providing cloud storage backup and recovery of structured data and operating system files and DigiLIBE offers information management and life-cycle control of unstructured data from end-user through archiving and back to the end user.

Growing both Business Segments:

We believe the benefits of seeking to grow both the DigiBAK and DigiLIBE businesses are:

- (i) solving a major industry and customer problem of managing continually growing information volume and associated cost of storage and retrieval;
- (ii) being able to access a larger share of opportunity in the information management storage business;
- (iii) offering significant technological advantages in corporate policy level control of information and ability to leverage knowledge from the information it creates; and
- (iv) optimizing how we synergistically allocate capital and resources between both business.

DigiLIBE has received excellent feedback on the capability, performance, and function it delivers since its initial release. Our sales and prospecting efforts have also reaffirmed the potential of selling DigiBAK services as part of a DigiLIBE sale.

To date, Digitiliti has achieved significant market recognition and brand value having successfully established its presence in several vertical markets such as Finance, Legal, Telco, Managed Service Provider, Healthcare, Information Technology Services, and Management Consulting. In June 2010, DigiLIBE won the Tech Awards Circle Gold Award in the Midrange Software category. In briefings, leading industry analysts have described DigiLIBE as a unique and potentially disruptive product integrating both the storage management and information management markets.

The first company to demonstrate that it can genuinely bridge the gap between storage and information management will make existing products look archaic by comparison

Joseph Martins, Managing Director, Data Mobility Group LLC

We believe DigiLIBE is a fiscally responsible solution at a price, performance, and ease of use level that disrupts the current competitors point solution landscape and positions while exceeding customers expectations and needs. We also believe this product represents a significant step toward our goal of becoming a technology leader in the information content and context management marketplace.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Our liquidity is dependent, in the short term, on proceeds from newly issued debt and the sale of our common stock for cash. In the long term, we may need to continue expanding our capacity of the Data Storage Center by investing in property and equipment and software licenses.

We have financed our operations, debt service and capital requirements through cash flows generated from operations, the issuance of secured and unsecured convertible debt financing, capital leases and issuance of equity securities. We had a working capital deficit of $1,686,465 at December 31, 2010 and at March 31, 2011, we had a working capital deficit of $1,257,502. We had cash of $1,654 as of March 31, 2011, compared to cash of $27,557 as of December 31, 2010.

On February 28, 2011, the Company completed the placement of $1,182,844 Secured Convertible Promissory Note and Warrants (the Secured Convertible Debt Offering). All of the securities issued in conjunction with the Secured Convertible Debt Offering were sold to accredited investors as those terms are defined on Rule 501 of Regulation D of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and each such person had prior access to all material information about the Company. The offer and a sale of these securities were exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), pursuant to, among other reasons, Section 4(2) and 4(6) thereof, and Rule 506 of Regulation D of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Registration of sales to accredited investors are preempted from state regulation.

The Lenders in the Secured Convertible Debt Offering paid a 90% of the principal amount for their investment, resulting in a stepped-up basis in their individual Secured Convertible Promissory Notes. The Secured Convertible Promissory Notes bear interest at the rate of 12% per annum, have an 18-month maturity date and a $.20 per share conversion rate in the Company's common stock. The Secured Convertible Promissory Notes are secured by a first lien on all assets of the Company; provided, however, that the Lenders agreed to subordinate to a lien with respect to up to $100,000 of original principal amount of other notes against the Company's vault.

On February 28, 2011, the Company entered into an agreement with two stockholders to repay and modify three debt obligations owed to the two stockholders. The debt obligations owed to these two stockholders were secured by a first lien on the Company's assets and consisted of the following: a $250,000 12% secured convertible note issued in November 2008 with a $0.35 per share conversion rate; a $50,000 payable that was due on demand and bore interest at 10% per annum; and a $231,540 6% promissory note that was due on demand. The terms of the agreement provided for the repayment of $431,540 of principal on the combined debt and payable with the remaining principal balance owed of $100,000 being converted into a secured promissory note under the Secured Convertible Debt Offering. In addition, the outstanding accrued interest of $103,109 owed to these two stockholders was paid through the issuance 687,393 common shares of the Company. Under the agreement, the terms of 350,000 common stock warrants previously granted to these stockholders were modified whereby their exercise price was reduced $0.15 and their term was changed to 5 years. An additional 200,000 common stock warrants with a five year term and a $0.30 per share exercise price were also granted to these stockholders. As of March 31, 2011, there remained an outstanding a balance of $2,371 on the $250,000 12% secured convertible note, which was satisfied in full on April 21, 2011. After this final payment of $2,371 and completion of all documentation reflecting the repayment of the Miner Debt, the Miners released their first lien in the Company's assets in preference to those Lenders associated with the Secured Convertible Debt Offering.

The Company evaluated the modification of the $100,000 owed to these two stockholders into the 12% Secured Convertible Debt Offering under FASB ASC 470-50 and determined that the modification was substantial and qualified as a debt extinguishment. The incremental increase in the fair value of the 350,000 modified warrants of $384, the fair value of the additional 200,000 warrants issued of $30,000 and the fair value of the 275,000 warrants issued under the terms of the Secured Debt Offering of $41,250 were included in the calculation of the loss on extinguishment of debt resulting in a total loss on the extinguishment of debt of $71,634 for the three months ended March 31, 2011.

We used $417,493 of net cash in operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2011, compared to using $311,829 for the three months ended March 31, 2010. Cash used in operating activities during the three months ended March 31, 2011, funded a net loss of $909,684. This net loss was offset by non-cash charges of $102,442 for amortization and depreciation, $135,593 associated with stock options expense, $71,634 related to a loss on the extinguishment of debt, $33,648 related to amortization of the discount on our convertible debt and deferred financing costs and $28,039 related to common stock issued for services and warrants expense. In addition, the Company's operating activities generated $49,327 from a decrease in accounts receivable that helped support a $164,673 increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses, which served to support an increase of $92,401 in prepaid expenses. We used $311,829 of net cash from operating activities for the three months ended March 31, 2010. Cash used in operating activities during the three months ended March 31, 2010, funded a net loss of $808,640. This net loss was offset by non-cash charges of $159,453 for amortization and depreciation, $19,715 associated with stock options expense, $40,995 related to common stock issued for services and $84,339 related to amortization of discounts on our convertible debt and deferred financing costs. In addition, the Company's operating activities generated $61,412 from a decrease in accounts receivable that helped support a $170,044 increase in accrued expenses.

Net cash flows used in investing activities was $935 for the three months ended March 31, 2011, compared to net cash flows used in investing activities of $45,099 for the three months ended March 31, 2010. Both comparable totals are attributed to our purchase of property and equipment and software licenses during these two periods.

Net cash flow provided by financing activities was $392,525 for the three months ended March 31, 2011, compared to net cash provided by financing activities of $319,899 for the three months ended March 31, 2010. During three months ended March 31, 2011, cash provided by financing activities is primarily due to proceeds of $760,000 received from the sale of convertible notes. We used these proceeds to make $9,777 in capital lease payments, $231,540 in payments on notes payable and $147,630 of payments on convertible debt. During three months ended March 31, 2010, cash provided by financing activities is primarily due to proceeds of $765,300 received from issuance of our common stock, net of related issuance costs. We used these proceeds to make $10,829 in capital lease payments, $364,572 in payments on notes payable and $70,000 of payments on convertible debt.

As of March 31, 2011, the Company had $278,563 of debt and accrued interest outstanding from the $5.5 million offering and $121,167 of debt and accrued interest outstanding from the $750,000 secured offering.

Results of Operations

For the three month periods ended March 31, 2011 and 2010

Sales for the three months ended March 31, 2011 decreased 34% to $411,029 compared to $625,127 for the three months ended March 31, 2010 reflecting a $214,098 decrease in revenue. This loss in revenue is a result of increasing competitive pricing pressure from an ever-expanding range of alternative archiving storage services, a weak economy, and loss of a small number of larger customers where the cost of outsourcing archiving services become prohibitive to them. In response to these challenges, we have continued to restructure our resources, strengthen our VAR and customer relationships, reposition and rebrand our offering, initiate stronger sales efforts and refine other aspects of the DigiBAK business to sustain our margins. Despite this decrease in revenue, we increased our customer count from 805 as of March 31, 2010 to 901 as of March 31, 2011 and our current customer base remains highly satisfied with our DigiBAK service offering.

Gross margin for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was a loss of $108,030 compared to a profit of $323,156 for the three months ended March 31, 2010. This significant decrease in margin results from a one-time charge of approximately $277,000 the Company incurred during the three months ended March 31, 2011 that pertained to modifications and repairs made to our vault facilities that could not be capitalized and charged over future periods. At present, we are confident of recovering the approximate cost of this one-time charge under our property and casualty insurance. Notwithstanding this one-time charge, the Company's gross profit margin for the three months ended March 31, 2011 was 41%, compared to a 52% gross profit margin for the three months ended March 31, 2010. Overall, our strong gross margin reflects the direct benefits of actions described above taken by the Company during 2010 and continuing through 2011 to streamline and strengthen of operations and personnel. We continue to efficiently manage our Data Storage Center to plan for growth and capacity without requiring significant capital cost in the short term. Our strategy assumes we will refresh technology every three or four years, so we plan to refresh our hardware technology platform in 2011.

Research and development expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2011 were $147,853 compared to $269,742 for the three months ended March 31, 2010. During the first quarter of 2010, we incurred significant expenditures to finalize our in-house product development efforts, which allowed us to bring our new DigiLIBE product to market during the second quarter of 2011. These effort in 2010 allowed us to confirm the stability of the product by enhancing the installation process and broadening the scalability of the product. As a result of these actions, we were able to reduce our research and development overhead and personnel resources during the three months ended March 31, 2011, thus lowering our actual expenditures when compared to the three months ended March 31, 2010.

Given the release and roll-out of our new DigiLibe product in the first quarter of 2010, we have incurred lower sales and marketing expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2011 of $143,065 compared to $214,664 incurred during the three months ended March 31, 2010. This decrease in sales and marketing expenditure directly relates to our DigiLibe market launch actions during 2010, which include; establishment of regional and national reseller processes and agreements, and retaining a public relations and industry trade group to create market and industry awareness through product promotion within the industry analyst community, trade publications, and target market segments.

Our general and administrative expenses were reduced 21% from $458,631 incurred during the three months ended March 31, 2010 compared to $363,575 for the three months ending March 31, 2011. The improvement is attributable to our conscious efforts to slash costs and streamline administration and reduce executive salaries. The business restructuring undertaken midway through 2010 resulted in targeted efforts to reduce general overhead expenses through personnel realignment to priorities and goals, vendor contract negotiations, stock based compensation alternatives, insurance costs and a daily/weekly focus on expenditures between the CEO and CFO.

The decrease of $152,603 in interest expense between the comparative three months ended March 31, 2011 and March 31, 2010 is attributed to the amount of convertible notes that were converted under the terms of the Incentive Offer and no longer require the accrual of interest. The loss on extinguishment of debt results from the Company's repayment of a $100,000 note satisfied through the conversion of the note into the Company's Secured Convertible Debt Offering (see Note 4 to the consolidated financial statements).

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

We maintain disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in our Securities and Exchange Commission reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. Our disclosure controls and procedures are also designed to accumulate and communicate information to our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow for timely decisions regarding required disclosure. In designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, we recognize that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives. Accordingly, management must apply its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures.

We conducted our evaluation under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rule 13a-15(b) under the Exchange Act as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based on their review of our disclosure controls and procedures, the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are not effective in providing reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports we file under the Exchange Act were recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules, regulations and forms. In particular, we have identified the following material weakness in our disclosure controls:

(a) We did not maintain sufficient personnel with an appropriate level of technical accounting knowledge, experience, and training in the application of generally accepted accounting principles commensurate with our complexity and our financial accounting and reporting requirements. We have limited experience in the areas of financial reporting and disclosure controls and procedures. As a result, there is a lack of monitoring of the reporting process and there is a reasonable possibility will not be detected or made known to permit us to report on a timely basis.
