PRESS RELEASE

Amsterdam, 21 September 2011

ING CRO Koos Timmermans to present at Bernstein conference

Today, Koos Timmermans, Chief Risk Officer of ING Group, will address the Bernstein Pan European Strategic Decisions conference in London, United Kingdom.

In his presentation, Koos Timmermans will demonstrate ING's track record of delivering on its priorities, including strengthening its financial position, delivering on restructuring and generally building stronger Banking and Insurance organisations.

Mr. Timmermans will reiterate the substantial measures ING has taken since the beginning of the financial crisis, including managing down the asset base of the Bank and derisking the investment book. In this context he will explain that ING has responded to recent market developments by further reducing its government bond exposure to Southern European countries by EUR 3.2 billion while staying alert to further market developments. Furthermore,

Mr. Timmermans will elaborate on ING Bank's funding position and structure, providing an overview of ING Bank's issuance to date in 2011.

In addition, Mr. Timmermans will address ING's progress to meet the restructuring demands of the European Commission. ING is decisively yet prudently preparing the base case of two IPOs of the Insurance businesses while progress is being made to meet the other restructuring requirements.

Koos Timmermans will finish his presentation by illustrating ING Bank's strategic position: a liability driven bank that is well positioned for the future, using its strong deposit gathering capability for future growth while managing its balance sheet efficiently through further integration.

Today's presentation by Koos Timmermans can be downloaded at www.ing.com.
