Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 11, 2011, Gibraltar Industries, Inc. (the Company) and its wholly-owned subsidiary Gibraltar Steel Corporation of New York (GSCNY), as borrowers, entered into the Fourth Amended and Restated Credit Agreement with a syndicate of ten banks led by KeyBank National Association, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Bank of America, N.A., M&T Bank, RBS Citizens, National Association, and HSBC Bank USA, National Association (the Fourth Amendment and Restatement). The Fourth Amendment and Restatement amends and restates the Company's existing credit facility.

The Fourth Amendment and Restatement provides for a revolving credit facility and letters of credit in an aggregate amount that does not exceed the lesser of (i) $200 million and (ii) a borrowing base determined by reference to the trade receivables, inventories, and property, plant, and equipment of the Company's significant domestic subsidiaries. The Fourth Amendment and Restatement provides the Company with more flexibility by allowing for the Company to request additional financing from the banks to increase the revolving credit facility to $250 million. As of October 11, 2011, the Company did not have any amounts outstanding under its revolving credit facility. The Fourth Amendment and Restatement also provides the Company with the opportunity to enter into a term loan in the principal amount of $35 million subject to conditions set forth in the Fourth Amendment and Restatement.

Only one financial covenant is contained with the Fourth Amendment and Restatement, which requires the Company to maintain a fixed charge ratio (as defined with the Fourth Amendment and Restatement) of 1.25 to 1.00 or higher. Interest rates on the revolving credit facility and term loan will continue to be based on the London Interbank Offering Rate (LIBOR) plus an additional margin of 2.0% to 2.5% on the revolving credit facility and 3.0% to 3.5% on the term loan. In addition to the foregoing, the revolving credit facility is subject to an annual commitment fee calculated as 0.375% of the daily average undrawn balance of the revolving credit facility.

The terms of the Fourth Amendment and Restatement provide that the revolving credit facility is scheduled to terminate on the earlier of October 16, 2016 or six months prior to the maturity date of the Company's 8% Senior Subordinated Notes. As of October 31, 2011, the maturity date of the Company's revolving credit facility is June 8, 2015, six months prior to the maturity of the Company's 8% Senior Subordinated Notes. All revolving credit borrowings must be repaid on or before the maturity date. The term loan would be payable in quarterly installments and mature three years after the term loan funding date on which date the outstanding balance of the term loan is payable in full.

Borrowings under the Fourth Amendment and Restatement are secured by trade receivables, inventory, personal property, equipment, and certain real property of the Company's significant domestic subsidiaries. The Fourth Amendment and Restatement is guaranteed by each of the Company's significant domestic subsidiaries.

The Fourth Amendment and Restatement contains numerous affirmative and negative covenants and events of default which should be reviewed for a complete understanding of the Fourth Amendment and Restatement.

The foregoing description of the Fourth Amendment and Restatement does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Fourth Amendment and Restatement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated by reference.

The Fourth Amendment and Restatement has been filed to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms, provisions, conditions, and covenants and is not intended to provide any other factual information respecting the Company or its subsidiaries.
