REDHOOK ALE BREWERY, INCORPORATED
proxy statement for annual meeting of shareholders

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of Redhook Ale Brewery, Incorporated, a Washington corporation (Redhook or the Company), for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders on May 24, 2005, and at any adjournments thereof.

The address of Redhook's principal executive offices is 14300 N.E. 145th Street, Woodinville, Washington 98072.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy are being sent on or about April 20, 2005 to all shareholders of record as of the close of business on April 1, 2005 (the Record Date).

Only holders of record of Common Stock on April 1, 2005 will be entitled to vote at the meeting. At the close of business on April 1, 2005, there were 8,188,859 shares of Common Stock outstanding. The presence at the meeting of at least a majority of such shares, either in person or by proxy, is required for a quorum.

In deciding all matters at the meeting, other than the election of directors, each shareholder will be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held on the Record Date. For the election of directors, cumulative voting applies, so the number of votes each shareholder will have will be equal to the number of shares held on the Record Date multiplied by seven, the number of directors to be elected. Each shareholder may cast all such votes for a single nominee, distribute them among the seven nominees for directors equally, or distribute them among the seven nominees in any other way the shareholder sees fit. If a shareholder voting by proxy wishes to distribute votes among the nominees for director, he or she may do so on the enclosed proxy card in the space provided. If votes are not distributed on the proxy card, the persons named as proxies will vote FOR each of the seven individuals nominated to serve as director.

Under Washington law and the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws, if a quorum exists at the meeting: (a) the seven nominees for director who receive the greatest number of votes cast in the election of directors will be elected; and (b) the proposal to ratify the appointment of auditors will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against it.

If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote by using the proxy card enclosed with this Proxy Statement. When your proxy card is returned properly signed, the shares represented will be voted according to your directions. If your proxy card is signed and returned without specifying a vote or an abstention on any proposal, it will be voted FOR each of the seven individuals nominated to serve as a director and FOR the ratification of the appointment of Moss Adams LLP as independent auditors.

Shareholders may withhold authority to vote for one or more of the nominees for director and may abstain from voting on the proposal to ratify the appointment of auditors. Abstention from voting on these proposals will have no effect since approval of these proposals is based solely on the number of votes actually cast. Election of the persons nominated to serve as directors requires a plurality of all the votes cast for directors. This means that the seven individuals who receive the largest number of votes cast are elected as directors. Approval of the selection of Moss Adams LLP as independent auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares represented in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions will be considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum. Since brokerage firms holding shares in their street name will have discretion to vote their customers' shares on both of these matters, there can be no broker non-votes.

If you execute a proxy, you may revoke it by taking one of the following three actions: (a) by giving written notice of the revocation to the Secretary of the Company at its principal executive offices prior to the meeting; (b) by executing a proxy with a later date and delivering it to the Secretary of the Company at its principal executive offices prior to the meeting; or (c) by personally attending and voting at the meeting.

The Company will bear the expense of preparing, printing and distributing proxy materials to its shareholders. In addition to solicitations by mail, there may be incidental personal solicitation at nominal cost by directors, officers, employees or agents of the Company. The Company will also reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of the Company's Common Stock for which they are record holders.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business of the Company is currently managed under the direction of the Board of Directors, which consists of the following seven directors: Paul S. Shipman, Frank H. Clement, Jerry D. Jones, David R. Lord, Patrick J. McGauley, John D. Rogers, Jr. and Anthony J. Short. Mr. Jerry D. Jones is not running for re-election to the Board. Mr. Jones has served as a director since 1981 and the Company wishes him all the best.

The full Board of Directors met seven times during the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. No incumbent member attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of any Board committees of which he was a member during that fiscal year. Directors are encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. At the 2004 Annual Meeting, five Directors were in attendance.

In November 2003, the National Association of Securities Dealers (the "NASD") amended NASD Marketplace Rule 4350(c) to require a majority of the board of directors of a listed company to be comprised of independent directors, as defined in NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). Current nominees Messrs. Clement, Lord and Rogers are non-executive directors of the Company, and, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, do not have any relationship that would interfere with their exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities as directors. Therefore, the Board of Directors believes that Messrs. Clement, Lord and Rogers are independent directors as defined by NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). The Board of Directors has also determined that Mr. Loughran, the non-incumbent nominee for director, does not have any relationship that would interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as director. Therefore, upon his election, the Board of Directors believes that Mr. Loughran will qualify as an independent director under NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). The Board of Directors believes that Messrs. McGauley and Short, who are non-executive directors, have a relationship as A-B designees to the Board of Directors that makes them non-independent under the standards of NASD Rule 4200(a)(15).

All independent directors meet in executive session, at which only independent directors are present, at least twice a year, in conjunction with a regularly scheduled board meeting.

Compensation of Directors

Non-employee directors participate in the Redhook Ale Brewery, Incorporated 2002 Stock Option Plan (the 2002 Plan) and the Directors Stock Option Plan (the Directors Plan).

The 2002 Plan provides that the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors administer the plan, determining to whom options are to be granted, the number of shares of Common Stock for which the options are exercisable, the purchase prices of such shares, and all other terms and conditions. On May 18, 2004, each of the directors, other than Messrs. Shipman, McGauley and Short, was granted an option to purchase 4,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.45 per share. The options were granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value on the grant date, became exercisable six months after the grant date, and will terminate on the tenth anniversary of the grant date.

Certain of the non-employee directors also hold stock options granted under the Directors Plan. Although the October 2002 expiration of the Directors Plan prevents any further option grants under this plan, the plan remains in effect until all options granted under the plan terminate or are exercised. The exercise price of each option granted under the plan was the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. Each option expires ten years after grant or one year after the death of the recipient director. Options granted under the Directors Plan became exercisable six months after the option was granted.

Non-employee directors also receive cash compensation. For 2004, each non-employee director received $2,500 on a quarterly basis, for total director fees of $10,000. Chairpersons of the Audit, Nominating and Governance and Compensation Committees received an additional $2,500 per year, payable following the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Table of Contents

Neither director McGauley nor Short received option grants in accordance with the policy of their employer, A-B. In addition, directors McGauley and Short were not paid meeting fees prior to the second quarter of 2004 in accordance with the policy of A-B. Following a change in the policy of A-B, both directors McGauley and Short were paid meeting fees for the remaining three quarters of 2004.

In connection with the exchange, the Company also paid $2.0 million to A-B in November 2004. As of December 31, 2004, there was no preferred stock of the Company outstanding.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted a policy of not engaging in business transactions with its officers, directors and affiliates except upon terms that are deemed to be fair and reasonable by a majority of the Company's disinterested directors.

Since October 1994, the Company has benefited from a distribution relationship with A-B, pursuant to which Redhook distributes its products in substantially all of its markets through A-B's wholesale distribution network. Through June 30, 2004, the Company's relationship with A-B consisted of a long-term distribution agreement (the "A-B Distribution Alliance") and an investment by A-B in the Company. On July 1, 2004, the Company completed a restructuring of this relationship by executing an exchange and recapitalization agreement and a new distribution agreement (the "A-B Distribution Agreement"). The terms of the exchange and recapitalization agreement provided that the Company issue 1,808,243 shares of Common Stock to A-B in exchange for 1,289,872 shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by A-B. The Series B Preferred Stock, reflected on the Company's balance sheet at approximately $16.3 million, was cancelled. In connection with the exchange, the Company also paid $2.0 million to A-B in November 2004. Pursuant to the exchange and recapitalization agreement, A-B is entitled to designate two members of the board of directors of the Company. A-B also generally has the contractual right to have one of its designees sit on each committee of the board of directors of the Company. Messrs. McGauley and Short are the A-B designated nominees and are both currently employees of A-B. The A-B Distribution Agreement provides that the Company continues to sell its product in the midwest and eastern United States through sales to A-B.

For the six months ended June 30, 2004, sales to A-B through the Distribution Alliance represented 67% of total sales during the same period, or $14,041,000. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, sales to A-B through the A-B Distribution Agreement represented 40% of total sales during the same period, or $6,275,000.

In connection with all sales through the Distribution Alliance prior to July 1, 2004, the Company paid a Margin fee to A-B. For the six months ended June 30, 2004, the Margin was paid to A-B on shipments totaling 84,000 barrels to 495 Alliance distribution points. The July 1, 2004 A-B Distribution Agreement modified the Margin fee structure such that the Margin per barrel shipped increased and is paid on all sales through the new A-B Distribution Agreement. The A-B Distribution Agreement also provides that the Company shall pay an additional fee on shipments that exceed shipments for the same territory during fiscal 2003. In addition, the exchange and recapitalization agreement provided that the Margin be retroactively increased to the rate provided in the A-B Distribution Agreement for all shipments in June 2004. For the six month period ended December 31, 2004, the Margin was paid to A-B on shipments totaling 38,000 barrels to 371 distribution points. The incremental margin on June 2004 shipments was paid on approximately 20,000 barrels.

The Company also incurred additional fees related to A-B administrative and handling charges. Invoicing costs, staging costs, cooperage handling charges and inventory manager fees collectively totaled approximately $406,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

The A-B Distribution Agreement also contains provisions under which related-party transactions are generally permitted only pursuant to the reasonable demands of the Company's business and upon fair and reasonable terms no less favorable to the Company than would be obtained in a comparable arm's-length transaction with an unrelated party. The Company purchased certain materials through A-B totaling $5,584,000 in 2004.

In December 2003, the Company entered into a purchase and sale agreement with A-B for the purchase of the Pacific Ridge brand, trademark and related intellectual property. In consideration, the Company agreed to pay A-B a fee for 20 years based upon the Company's sales of the brand. A fee of $80,000 due to A-B is reflected in the Company's statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.

In conjunction with the shipment of its products to wholesalers, the Company collects refundable deposits on its pallets. In certain circumstances when the pallets are returned to the Company, A-B may return the deposit to the wholesaler. The refundable deposit liability reflected in the Company's balance sheets as of December 31, 2004 includes approximately $426,000 that is due to A-B.

In January 2003, the Company entered into a licensing agreement with Widmer Brothers Brewing Company (Widmer) to produce and sell the Widmer Hefeweizen brand in states east of the Mississippi River. A-B is also a major investor in Widmer. A licensing fee of $266,000 due to Widmer is reflected in the Company's statements of operations for the years ended December 31, 2004.

On July 1, 2004, the Company also entered into definitive agreements with Widmer with respect to the operation of a joint venture, Craft Brands Alliance LLC (Craft Brands). Pursuant to these agreements, the Company manufactures and sells its product to Craft Brands at a price substantially below wholesale pricing levels; Craft Brands, in turn, advertises, markets, sells and distributes the product to wholesale outlets in the western United States through a distribution agreement between Craft Brands and A-B. For the six months ended December 31, 2004, sales to Craft Brands represented 61% of total shipments during the same period, or 64,000 barrels. Mr. Shipman and Mr. Clement serve on the board of directors of Craft Brands. A-B and Widmer each appoint two directors to the Craft Brands board.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), requires that the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all such reports they file.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such reports received by the Company, and on written representations by the Company's officers and directors regarding their compliance with the applicable reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, the Company believes that, with respect to its fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, all filing requirements applicable to its officers and directors, and all of the persons known to the Company to own more than ten percent of its Common Stock were complied with by such persons, except the following: Mr. Rogers was late in filing his Form 4 upon being granted an option to purchase Common Stock on May 18, 2004 upon his election to the Board.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Committee) is composed exclusively of non-management directors, three of whom qualify as independent directors.

The Committee is responsible for establishing and administering the overall compensation policies applicable to the Company's senior management. The Committee is also responsible for establishing the general policies applicable to the granting, vesting and other terms of stock options granted to employees under the Company's stock option plan, and for determining the size and terms of the option grants made to the Company's executive officers, among others.

The Committee's responsibility is also to insure that the Company's officer compensation programs are structured and implemented in a manner that attracts and retains the caliber of executives and other key employees required for the Company to compete in a highly competitive and rapidly evolving business sector, while also recognizing and emphasizing the importance and value of achieving targeted performance objectives and enhancing long-term shareholder value.

The Company's executive compensation programs include three primary components: base salary, a performance based incentive payment, and long-term incentives in the form of stock options.

Base Salaries. Base salaries for all executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, are determined by reviewing the existing executive salary structure within the Company, as well as by comparing the compensation paid to the Company's executives to executives of comparably sized and similarly situated craft beer companies and other similarly sized public companies. The base salaries of the executive officers were not adjusted in 2002, 2003 or 2004.

Performance Based Incentive Payments. Incentive payments are based on the accomplishments of the executive team, the Company's results relative to financial and operational objectives set at the beginning of the year, and other relevant and significant accomplishments of the Company as a whole. Incentive targets are established for each executive officer in such officers' employment agreement and generally include both a discretionary and non-discretionary component. The non-discretionary incentive component is paid to the executive if the Company achieves certain financial targets set forth in their employment agreement; the discretionary component is paid to the executive at the discretion of the Committee, based upon the Company's overall compensation objectives. In 2004, the Company's executive officers (other than the Chief Executive Officer) received the entire discretionary portion of the incentive payment for which they were eligible. None of the Company's executive officers received the non-discretionary portion of their incentive payment. Mr. Shipman did not receive any discretionary or non-discretionary incentive payment for 2004.

Long-Term Incentives. The Company provides long-term incentives to executives through the grant of stock options. The options generally vest over five years and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's stock at the time of the grant, with the number of options awarded based on the executive's position. Since fair market value stock options can only produce value to an executive if the price of the Company's stock increases above the exercise price, these option grants provide a direct link between executive compensation and the Company's stock price performance. The Committee believes that stock options directly motivate an executive to maximize long-term shareholder value. The options also utilize vesting periods that encourage key executives to continue in the employ of the Company. In 2004, none of the executive officers, including Mr. Shipman, was granted an option to purchase shares of Common Stock. Under Federal income tax rules, the deduction for certain types of compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer and four other most highly compensated officers of publicly held companies is limited to $1 million per employee. In certain circumstances, performance-based compensation is exempt from the $1 million limit.

Table of Contents

The Committee believes all compensation earned by the Company's executive officers in 2005 will be deductible.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. The base salary of Mr. Shipman was not adjusted in 2002, 2003 or 2004. For 2004, Mr. Shipman did not receive any of the discretionary or non-discretionary portion of the target incentive for which he was eligible. Mr. Shipman was not granted an option to purchase shares of Common Stock in 2004. The Committee also reviewed perquisites and other compensation paid to Mr. Shipman for 2004, and found these amounts to be reasonable.

Respectfully Submitted,

David R. Lord (Chairman)
Frank H. Clement
John D. Rogers, Jr.

Executive Officer Employment Agreements

Each of Messrs. Shipman, Mickelson, Prial and Triplett has executed an employment agreement containing provisions, including but not limited to, confidentiality and non-competition restrictions during the term of the agreement. The Company provides each of its executive officers with an annual compensation plan under which they receive a specified minimum compensation plus additional cash incentives depending on attainment of various performance goals.

In November 2000, the Company renewed its employment agreement with Mr. Shipman. The agreement took effect on November 1, 2001 following the September 2001 expiration of the previous employment agreement. The agreement provides for a minimum base salary of $237,500. Mr. Shipman is also eligible for an incentive based on the Company achieving certain financial goals and other performance measures. The agreement, which expires on July 31, 2005, is subject to earlier termination by the Company with or without cause. If terminated by the Company without cause, or if terminated by Mr. Shipman for cause, the agreement provides that Mr. Shipman will receive a prorated incentive and his annual base compensation for a minimum of two years from the date that he is given notice of termination and all outstanding options held by Mr. Shipman will continue to vest for a period of two years from the date of notice of termination. The agreement further provides that Mr. Shipman is prohibited from divulging confidential Company information and may not compete with the Company for a period of two years following termination of the agreement.

The Company has employment agreements in effect with Messrs. Mickelson, Prial and Triplett. The agreements provide the officers with the following minimum base salaries: Mr. Mickelson $171,000; Mr. Prial $135,000; and Mr. Triplett $135,000. These officers are also eligible for incentives dependent on the Company's achieving certain goals, and other performance measures. These agreements expire on July 31, 2005, subject to earlier termination by the Company with or without cause. If terminated by the Company without cause, or if terminated by the officer for cause, the agreements provide that the officer will receive his or her prorated incentive as well as annual compensation for one year from the date that notice of employment termination is received, subject to certain conditions, and all outstanding options held by the officer will continue to vest for a period of one year from the date of notice of termination. The agreements also provide that the officers are prohibited from divulging confidential Company information and from competing with the Company for one year following termination of employment.

The Company is currently in the process of renegotiating employment agreements with its Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Seven directors are to be elected at the annual meeting, to serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until their earlier retirement, resignation or removal. Frank H. Clement, David R. Lord, Michael Loughran, Patrick J. McGauley, John D. Rogers, Jr., Paul S. Shipman, and Anthony J. Short have been nominated by the Board of Directors for election or re-election at the annual meeting. All of the nominees, except Mr. Loughran, are currently directors of the Company. The accompanying proxy will be voted for these nominees, except where authority to do so vote is withheld. Should any nominee be unable to serve, the persons named in the proxy may vote for any substitute designated by the Board of Directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES NAMED IN PROPOSAL 1.

PROPOSAL 2 RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed the firm of Moss Adams LLP (Moss Adams), independent registered public accountants, to audit the Company s financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005.

At the Annual Meeting, the shareholders are being asked to ratify the appointment of Moss Adams as the Company s independent auditors for the fiscal year 2005. In the event of a negative vote on such ratification, the Audit Committee will reconsider its selection. Representatives of Moss Adams will be present at the Annual Meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders and to make a statement if they so desire.

On September 9, 2004, the Company engaged Moss Adams the Company s independent registered public accounting firm for its fiscal year ending December 31, 2004. During the last two fiscal years and the subsequent interim period through September 9, 2004, the Company had not consulted with Moss Adams with respect to: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company s financial statements; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K) or a reportable event (as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K). The decision to engage Moss Adams was approved by the Company s Audit Committee.

On August 16, 2004, Ernst & Young LLP (Ernst & Young) resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company. The resignation followed notification by Ernst & Young on July 23, 2004 that the firm would resign as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm following completion of services related to the review of the interim financial statements of the Company for the quarter ended June 30, 2004.

The reports of Ernst & Young on the Company s financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except that the report for the year ended December 31, 2003 expressed substantial doubt regarding the Company s ability to continue as a going concern if the Company s distribution agreement with Anheuser-Busch, which was subject to early termination in 2004, was terminated. The termination of the distribution agreement would have caused an event of default under the Company s bank credit agreement and would have required the Company to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock on December 31, 2004. As reported in the Company s current report on Form 8-K filed on July 2, 2004 and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, the Company and Anheuser-Busch entered into a new distribution agreement which will expire on December 31, 2024, subject to the one-time right of Anheuser-Busch to terminate the distribution agreement on December 31, 2014. Since the date of completion of the audit of the Company s financial statements as of December 31, 2003 and for each of the two years in the period then ended, and initial issuance of the Report of Ernst & Young LLP, Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm, thereon dated January 23, 2004, Ernst & Young LLP has modified its report, indicating that the conditions that raised substantial doubt about whether the Company would continue as a going concern no longer exist.

Table of Contents

In connection with the audits of the Company's financial statements for each of the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, and in the subsequent interim period from December 31, 2003 through August 16, 2004, there were no disagreements with Ernst & Young on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young would have caused Ernst & Young to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in their report. There were no reportable events as that term is described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K. The Company requested and Ernst & Young furnished a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agreed with the above statements. A copy of that letter, dated August 20, 2004, is filed as Exhibit 16 to the Company's current report on Form 8-K dated August 20, 2004.

Fees Paid to the Independent Auditors

The following table presents fees billed by Moss Adams and Ernst & Young for professional services rendered for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003.

Fee Category	2004		2003
	Moss Adams	Ernst & Young	Ernst & Young
Audit Fees(1)	$ 81,830	$ 20,000	$ 111,500
Audit Related Fees(2)	6,291
Tax Fees
All Other Fees

- (1) Audit fees include the audit of the Company's annual financial statements, review of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for such years, and services rendered in conjunction with registration statements.
- (2) Audit related services include professional services related to the audit of the Company's financial statements. The 2004 fees relate to consultation in connection with the SEC's comment letter regarding the Company's 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Auditor Independence

In 2004, there were no other professional services provided by Moss Adams LLP that would have required the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors to consider their compatibility with maintaining the independence of Moss Adams LLP.

Audit Committee Policy on Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing and overseeing the work of the Company's independent auditor. The Audit Committee has established the following procedures for the pre-approval of all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor:

Before engagement of the independent auditor for the next year's audit, the independent auditor will submit a detailed description of services expected to be rendered during that year for each of the following categories of services to the Audit Committee for approval.

Audit services. Audit services include work performed for the audit of the Company's financial statements and the review of financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Q, as well as work that is normally provided by the independent auditor in connection with statutory and regulatory filings.

Audit related services. Audit related services are for assurance and related services that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor and reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements.

Table of Contents

Tax services. Tax services include all services performed by the independent auditor's tax personnel for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

Other services. Other services are those services not captured in the other categories.

Before engagement, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service. The fees are budgeted and the Audit Committee requires the independent auditor to report actual fees versus the budget periodically throughout the year by category of service. During the year, circumstances may arise when it may become necessary to engage the independent auditor for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval. In those instances, the Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval before engaging the independent auditor.

If this proposal does not receive the affirmative approval of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal, the Board of Directors will reconsider the appointment.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF MOSS ADAMS LLP.

To be timely, a shareholder's notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received at, the principal office of the corporation (i) not less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the first anniversary of the date that the corporation's proxy statement was released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting; (ii) a reasonable time before the corporation begins to print and mail its proxy materials if the date of this year's annual meeting has been changed by more than thirty (30) days from the date of the previous year's meeting; or (iii) not more than seven (7) days following the mailing to shareholders of the notice of annual meeting with respect to the current year's annual meeting, if the corporation did not release a proxy statement to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting, or if no annual meeting was held during such year.

(c) A shareholder's notice to the Secretary under Section 2.3.2(b) shall set forth, as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election as a director (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (iii) the number and class of shares of stock of the corporation that are beneficially owned on the date of such notice by such person, and (iv) if the corporation at such time has or at the time of the meeting will have any security registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act, any other information relating to such person required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies with respect to nominees for election as directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, including but not limited to information required to be disclosed by Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A, and any other information that the shareholder would be required to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the shareholder's nomination of such person as a candidate for director or the shareholder's opposition to any candidate for director nominated by, or at the direction of, the Board of Directors. In addition to the above information, a shareholder's notice to the Secretary under Section 2.3.2(b) shall (A) set forth (i) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation's books, of the shareholder and of any other shareholders that the shareholder knows or anticipates will support any candidate or candidates nominated by the shareholder and (ii) the number and class of shares of stock of the corporation that are beneficially owned on the date of such notice by the shareholder and by any such other shareholders and (B) be accompanied by a written statement, signed and acknowledged by each candidate nominated by the shareholder, that the candidate agrees to be so nominated and to serve as a director of the corporation if elected at the annual meeting.

(d) The Board of Directors, or a designated committee thereof, may reject any shareholder's nomination of one or more candidates for election as directors if the nomination is not made pursuant to a shareholder's notice timely given in accordance with the terms of Section 2.3.2(b). If the Board of Directors, or a designated committee thereof, determines that the information provided in a shareholder's notice does not satisfy the requirements of Section 2.3.2(c) in any material respect, the Secretary of the corporation shall notify the shareholder of the deficiency in the notice. The shareholder shall have an opportunity to cure the deficiency by providing additional information to the Secretary within such period of time, not to exceed five (5) days from the date such deficiency notice is given to the shareholder, as the Board of Directors or such committee shall reasonably determine. If the deficiency is not cured within such period, or if the Board of Directors or such committee determines that the additional information provided by the shareholder, together with information previously provided, does not satisfy the requirements of Section 2.3.2(c) in any material respect, then the Board of Directors or such committee may reject the shareholder's notice.

(e) Notwithstanding the procedures set forth in Section 2.3.2(d), if a shareholder proposes to nominate one or more candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting, and neither the Board of Directors nor any committee thereof has made a prior determination of whether the shareholder has complied with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.3.2 in connection with such nomination, then the chairman of the annual meeting shall determine and declare at the annual meeting whether the shareholder has so complied. If the chairman determines that the shareholder has so complied, then the chairman shall so state and ballots shall be provided for use at the meeting with respect to such nomination. If the chairman determines that the shareholder has not so complied, then, unless the chairman, in his sole and absolute discretion, determines to waive such compliance, the chairman shall state that the shareholder has not so complied and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.
