REDHOOK ALE BREWERY, INCORPORATED
proxy statement for annual meeting of shareholders

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by and on the behalf of the board of directors (the Board of Directors or Board ) of Redhook Ale Brewery, Incorporated, a Washington corporation ( Redhook or the Company ), for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, to be held at 2:00 p.m. Pacific time on Tuesday, May 23, 2006, and at any adjournments thereof.

The address of Redhook's principal executive offices is 14300 N.E. 145th Street, Suite 210, Woodinville, Washington 98072.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy are being sent on or about April 19, 2006 to all shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 31, 2006 (the Record Date ).

Only holders of record of common stock of the Company ( Common Stock ) on March 31, 2006 will be entitled to vote at the meeting. At the close of business on March 31, 2006, there were 8,228,339 shares of Common Stock outstanding. The presence at the meeting of at least a majority of such shares, either in person or by proxy, is required for a quorum.

In deciding all matters at the meeting, other than the election of directors, each shareholder will be entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock held on the Record Date. For the election of directors, cumulative voting applies, so the number of votes each shareholder will have will be equal to the number of shares held on the Record Date multiplied by seven, the number of directors to be elected. Each shareholder may cast all such votes for a single nominee, distribute them among the seven nominees for directors equally, or distribute them among the seven nominees in any other way the shareholder deems fit. If a shareholder voting by proxy wishes to distribute votes among the nominees for director, he or she may do so on the enclosed proxy card in the space provided. If votes are not distributed on the proxy card, the persons named as proxies will vote FOR each of the seven individuals nominated to serve as director.

Under Washington law and the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws, if a quorum exists at the meeting: (a) the seven nominees for director who receive the greatest number of votes cast in the election of directors will be elected; and (b) the proposal to ratify the appointment of auditors will be approved if the number of votes cast in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast against it.

If you are a shareholder of record, you may vote by using the proxy card enclosed with this Proxy Statement. When your proxy card is returned properly signed, the shares represented will be voted according to your directions. If your proxy card is signed and returned without specifying a vote or an abstention on any proposal, it will be voted FOR each of the seven individuals nominated to serve as a director and FOR the ratification of the appointment of Moss Adams LLP as independent auditors.

Shareholders may withhold authority to vote for one or more of the nominees for director and may abstain from voting on the proposal to ratify the appointment of auditors. Abstention from voting on these proposals will have no effect since approval of these proposals is based solely on the number of votes actually cast. Election of the persons nominated to serve as directors requires a plurality of all the votes cast for directors. This means that the seven individuals who receive the largest number of votes cast are elected as directors. Approval of the selection of Moss Adams LLP as independent auditors requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of shares represented in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon. Abstentions will be considered present at the meeting for purposes of determining a quorum. Since brokerage firms holding shares in their street name will have discretion to vote their customers' shares on both of these matters, there can be no broker non-votes.

If you execute a proxy, you may revoke it by taking one of the following three actions: (a) by giving written notice of the revocation to the Secretary of the Company at its principal executive offices prior to the meeting; (b) by executing a proxy with a later date and delivering it to the Secretary of the Company at its principal executive offices prior to the meeting; or (c) by personally attending and voting at the meeting.

The Company will bear the expense of preparing, printing and distributing proxy materials to its shareholders. In addition to solicitations by mail, there may be incidental personal solicitation at nominal cost by directors, officers, employees or agents of the Company. The Company will also reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of the Company's Common Stock for which they are record holders.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The business of the Company is currently managed under the direction of the Board of Directors, which consists of the following seven directors: Paul S. Shipman, Frank H. Clement, John W. Glick, David R. Lord, Michael Loughran, John D. Rogers, Jr. and Anthony J. Short.

The full Board of Directors met five times during the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. No incumbent member attended fewer than 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and of any Board committees of which he was a member during that fiscal year. Directors are encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. At the 2005 Annual Meeting, six Directors and nominees for Director were in attendance.

In November 2003, the National Association of Securities Dealers (the "NASD") amended NASD Marketplace Rule 4350(c) to require a majority of the board of directors of a listed company to be comprised of independent directors, as defined in NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). Current nominees Messrs. Clement, Lord, Loughran and Rogers are non-executive directors of the Company, and, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, do not have any relationship that would interfere with their exercise of independent judgment in carrying out their responsibilities as directors. Therefore, the Board of Directors believes that Messrs. Clement, Lord, Loughran and Rogers are independent directors as defined by NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). The Board of Directors believes that Messrs. Glick and Short, who are non-executive directors, have a relationship as Anheuser-Busch, Inc. ("A-B") designees to the Board of Directors that makes them non-independent under the standards of NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). All independent directors meet in executive session, at which only independent directors are present, at least twice a year, in conjunction with a regularly scheduled board meeting.

Michelle Winery from 1978 to 1981. ## Committees of the Board

The Board has standing Audit, Compensation, Nominating and Governance, and Marketing Practices Committees. Each of these committees is responsible to the full Board of Directors and its activities are therefore subject to Board approval. Pursuant to an exchange and recapitalization agreement between the Company and A-B, A-B has the right to designate one of its Board designees to sit on each committee of the Board or to join each committee of the board in an advisory capacity, as described more fully in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, Part I., Item 1. Business Relationship with Anheuser-Busch, Incorporated.

The activities of each of these committees are summarized below:

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of and approval of the services provided by the Company's independent auditors. The Audit Committee assists the Company's Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing (i) the financial reports and other pertinent financial information provided by the Company to the public and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), (ii) the Company's systems of internal controls established by management and the Board, and (iii) the Company's auditing, accounting and financial reporting processes generally.

The Audit Committee met six times during 2005. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at www.redhook.com (select About Redhook Investor Relations Governance Highlights). A copy of the Audit Committee Charter was also included as an Appendix to the Company's proxy statement for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Audit Committee is currently composed of Messrs. Clement, Loughran (Chairman), and Rogers, all of whom are independent directors as defined by NASD Rule 4200(a)(15) and 4350(d)(2). The Board has determined that Mr. Clement qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as defined by the SEC. Mr. Anthony J. Short is currently A-B's designee to the Audit Committee and participates in an advisory capacity.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee currently composed of Messrs. Clement, Lord (Chairman) and Rogers, reviews and recommends to the Board the compensation and benefits to be provided to the Company's officers and reviews general policy matters relating to employee compensation and benefits. The Compensation Committee met once during 2005. Messrs. Clement, Lord and Rogers are independent directors, as defined by NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). Mr. Glick is A-B's designee to the Compensation Committee and participates in an advisory capacity.

Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee recommends to the Board nominees for vacant Board positions; reviews and reports to the Board on the nominees, including any suggested by shareholders, to be included in the slate of directors for election at the annual meeting of shareholders; recommends directors for each Board committee; develops a plan of succession to be used in the event of the President or Chief Executive Officer's resignation, disability, removal or death; develops and recommends to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company; and oversees the evaluation of the Board and management.

The Nominating and Governance Committee is currently composed of Messrs. Clement, Lord and Rogers (Chairman), all of whom are independent directors as defined by NASD Rule 4200(a)(15). Mr. Short is A-B's designee to the Nominating and Governance Committee and participates in an advisory capacity.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Nominating and Governance Committee. The charter is reviewed annually and revised as appropriate. A copy of the charter is available on the Company's website at www.redhook.com (select About Redhook Investor Relations Governance Highlights). The Nominating and Governance Committee met twice in 2005.

It is also the Company's policy that directors retire from the Board effective at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders following their seventy-third birthday.

Shareholder Recommendations for Nominations to the Board of Directors

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider candidates for director recommended by any shareholder of the Company who is entitled to vote at the meeting. The committee will evaluate such recommendations in accordance with its charter, the bylaws of the Company and the regular nominee criteria described above. This process is designed to ensure that the Board includes members with diverse backgrounds, skills and experience, including appropriate financial and other expertise relevant to the business of the Company. Eligible shareholders wishing to recommend a candidate for nomination should follow the procedures set forth in the Company's Restated Bylaws, as further described below. In connection with its evaluation of a director nominee, the Nominating and Governance Committee may request additional information from the candidate or the recommending shareholder and may request an interview with the candidate. ### CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted a policy of not engaging in business transactions with its officers, directors and affiliates except upon terms that are deemed to be fair and reasonable by a majority of the Company's disinterested directors.

Since October 1994, the Company has benefited from a distribution relationship with A-B, pursuant to which Redhook distributes its products in substantially all of its markets through A-B's wholesale distribution network. On July 1, 2004, the Company completed a restructuring of its relationship with A-B and entered into an exchange and recapitalization agreement and a new distribution agreement (the A-B Distribution Agreement). The terms of the exchange and recapitalization agreement provided that the Company issue 1,808,243 shares of Common Stock to A-B in exchange for 1,289,872 shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by A-B. The Series B Preferred Stock, reflected on the Company's balance sheet at approximately $16.3 million, was cancelled. In connection with the exchange, the Company also paid $2.0 million to A-B in November 2004. Pursuant to the exchange and recapitalization agreement, A-B is entitled to designate two members of the Board of Directors of the Company. A-B also generally has the contractual right to have one of its designees sit on each committee of the Board of Directors of the Company. Messrs. Glick and Short are the A-B designated nominees and are both currently employees of A-B. The exchange and recapitalization agreement also contains limitations on, among other matters, the Company's ability to issue equity securities or acquire or sell assets or stock, amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws, grant board representation rights, enter into certain transactions with affiliates, distribute its products in the United States other than through A-B, Craft Brands or as provided in the A-B Distribution Agreement, voluntarily delist or terminate its listing on the Nasdaq Stock Market, or dispose any of its interest in Craft Brands, without the prior consent of A-B.

The A-B Distribution Agreement provides that the Company continues to sell its product in the midwest and eastern United States through sales to A-B. For the year ended December 31, 2005, sales to A-B through the A-B Distribution Agreement represented 41% of total sales during the same period, or $14,124,000.

The A-B Distribution Agreement provides that the Company shall pay to A-B a margin fee on all sales through A-B as well as an additional fee (the Additional Margin) on shipments that exceed shipments for the same territory during fiscal 2003. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the margin fee was paid to A-B on shipments totaling 85,000 barrels to 472 distribution points. Because 2005 shipments in the midwest and eastern United States exceeded 2003 shipments in the same territory, the Company paid A-B the Additional Margin on 7,000 barrels.

In connection with all sales through the A-B Distribution Agreement, the Company also paid additional fees related to A-B administration and handling. Invoicing costs, staging costs, cooperation handling charges and inventory manager fees collectively totaled approximately $249,000 for the year ended December 31, 2005.

The A-B Distribution Agreement also contains provisions under which related-party transactions are generally permitted only pursuant to the reasonable demands of the Company's business and upon fair and reasonable terms no less favorable to the Company than would be obtained in a comparable arm's-length transaction with an unrelated party. The Company purchased certain materials through A-B totaling $5,942,000 in 2005.

In December 2003, the Company entered into a purchase and sale agreement with A-B for the purchase of the Pacific Ridge brand, trademark and related intellectual property. In consideration, the Company agreed to pay A-B a fee for 20 years based upon the shipments of the brand by the Company. A fee of $83,000 due to A-B is reflected in the Company's statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

In conjunction with the shipment of its products to wholesalers, the Company collects refundable deposits on its pallets. In certain circumstances when the pallets are returned to the Company, A-B may return the deposit to the wholesaler. In May 2005, the Company reimbursed A-B approximately $881,000 for these pallet deposits.

The Company periodically leases kegs from A-B pursuant to an October 2001 letter of agreement. A lease and handling fee of $32,000 is reflected in the Company's statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

In connection with the shipment of its draft products to wholesalers through the A-B Distribution Agreement, the Company collects refundable deposits on its kegs. Because wholesalers generally hold an inventory of the Company's kegs at their warehouse and in retail establishments, A-B assists in monitoring the inventory of kegs to insure that the wholesaler can account for all kegs shipped. When a wholesaler cannot account for some of the Company's kegs for which it is responsible, the wholesaler pays the Company, for each keg determined to be lost, a fixed fee and also forfeits the deposit. For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Company reduced its fixed assets by $305,000 collected in lost keg fees and forfeited deposits.

In certain instances, the Company may ship its product to A-B wholesaler support centers rather than directly to the wholesaler. Wholesaler support centers assist the Company by consolidating small wholesaler orders with orders of other A-B products prior to shipping to the wholesaler. A wholesaler support center fee of $32,000 is reflected in the Company's statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

In 2005, the Company began using a proprietary A-B production planning system, customized for the Company's processes. Fees of $269,000 for the customization, implementation and use of the system were paid to A-B and reflected in the statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

On July 1, 2004, the Company also entered into agreements with Widmer Brothers Brewing Company (Widmer) with respect to the operation of a joint venture, Craft Brands Alliance LLC (Craft Brands). Pursuant to these agreements, the Company manufactures and sells its product to Craft Brands at a price substantially below wholesale pricing levels; Craft Brands, in turn, advertises, markets, sells and distributes the product to wholesale outlets in the western United States pursuant to a distribution agreement between Craft Brands and A-B.

For the year ended December 31, 2005, shipments of the Company's products to Craft Brands represented 56% of total Company shipments, or 126,000 barrels.

Mr. Shipman and Mr. Clement have been designated by Redhook to serve on the board of directors of Craft Brands. A-B and Widmer each have the right to designate two directors to serve on the board of directors of Craft Brands.

Pursuant to the supply, distribution and licensing agreement with Craft Brands, if shipments of the Company's products in the western United States decrease as compared to the previous year's shipments, the Company has the right to brew Widmer products in an amount equal to the lower of (i) the Company's product shipment decrease or (ii) the Widmer product shipment increase. In addition, the Company may, at Widmer's request, brew more beer for Widmer than the amount obligated by the contract. In connection with this arrangement, the Company brewed and shipped 8,900 barrels of Widmer draft beer during the year ended December 31, 2005.

In 2003, the Company entered into a licensing agreement with Widmer to produce and sell the Widmer Hefeweizen brand in states east of the Mississippi River. Widmer and Redhook are each 50% members of Craft Brands and A-B is also a major investor in Widmer. The Company shipped 26,000 barrels of Widmer Hefeweizen in 2005 and a licensing fee of $399,000 due to Widmer is reflected in the Company's statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2005.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), requires that the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the SEC. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all such reports they file.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such reports received by the Company, and on written representations by the Company's officers and directors regarding their compliance with the applicable reporting requirements under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, the Company believes that, with respect to its fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, all filing requirements applicable to its officers and directors, and all of the persons known to the Company to own more than ten percent of its Common Stock were complied with by such persons.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") is composed exclusively of non-management directors, three of whom qualify as independent directors.

The Committee is responsible for establishing and administering the overall compensation policies applicable to the Company's senior management. The Committee is also responsible for establishing the general policies applicable to the granting, vesting and other terms of stock options granted to employees under the Company's stock option plan, and for determining the size and terms of the option grants made to the Company's executive officers, among others.

The Committee's responsibility is also to insure that the Company's officer compensation programs are structured and implemented in a manner that attracts and retains the caliber of executives and other key employees required for the Company to compete in a highly competitive and rapidly evolving business sector, while also recognizing and emphasizing the importance and value of achieving targeted performance objectives and enhancing long-term shareholder value.

The Company's executive compensation programs include three primary components: base salary, a performance based incentive payment, and long-term incentives in the form of stock options.

Base Salaries. Base salaries for all executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, are determined by reviewing the existing executive salary structure within the Company, as well as by comparing the compensation paid to the Company's executives to executives of comparably sized and similarly situated craft beer companies and other similarly sized public companies. In July 2005, the multi-year employment contracts between the Company and each of Messrs. Shipman, Mickelson, Prial and Triplett expired. In June 2005, Mr. Shipman and Mr. Mickelson each entered into a letter of agreement with the Company regarding each officer's employment as an at-will employee. Effective August 1, 2005, Mr. Shipman's annual base salary was increased to $250,000 per year and Mr. Mickelson's annual base salary was increased to $186,000 per year, subject to review and annual adjustment as recommended by the Committee. In December 2005, Mr. Prial and Mr. Triplett each entered into a letter of agreement with the Company regarding each officer's employment as an at-will employee. Effective December 1, 2005, the annual base salary of both Messrs. Prial and Triplett was increased to $165,375 per year, subject to review and annual adjustment as recommended by the Committee. Prior to these increases, the base salaries of the executive officers had not been adjusted since 2000.

In January 2006, the Committee approved a 3% increase in annual base salary for Mr. Shipman and Mr. Mickelson, resulting in an increase of $7,500 to $257,500 per year for Mr. Shipman and an increase of $5,580 to $191,580 per year for Mr. Mickelson.

Performance Based Incentive Payments. Incentive payments are based on the accomplishments of the executive team, the Company's results relative to financial and operational objectives set at the beginning of the year, and other relevant and significant accomplishments of the Company as a whole. Incentive targets are established for each executive officer in such officer's letter of agreement regarding employment and include both a discretionary and non-discretionary component. The non-discretionary incentive component is paid to the executive if the Company achieves certain targets set forth by the Committee; the discretionary component is paid to the executive at the discretion of the Committee based upon the Company's overall compensation objectives. The Committee sets the incentive targets for the executive officers at the beginning of each fiscal year. In 2005, the Company's executive officers received incentives in conjunction with their prior employment agreements in effect through July 2005 as well as the letters of agreement that were executed in 2005. The following table sets forth the 2005 cash bonuses awarded to each of the Company's named executive officers:

	Incentive Under Employment Agreements in Effect through July 31, 2005	One-Time Special Bonus Paid Under the 2005 Letter of Agreement Regarding Employment	Annual Incentive Under the 2005 Letter of Agreement Regarding Employment
Paul S. Shipman	$	$ 60,000(1)	$ 31,250
David J. Mickelson	$ 4,375	$ 40,000(1)	$ 13,750
Gerard C. Prial	$ 20,625	$	$ 10,000
Allen L. Triplett	$ 20,625	$	$ 10,000

(1) Bonus paid upon execution of the 2005 letter of agreement regarding employment and for efforts undertaken in implementing the joint-venture arrangement with Craft Brands.

Long-Term Incentives. The Company provides long-term incentives to executives through the grant of stock options. The options generally vest over five years and have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the Company's stock at the time of the grant, with the number of options awarded based on the executive's position. Since fair market value stock options can only produce value to an executive if the price of the Company's stock increases above the exercise price, these option grants provide a direct link between executive compensation and the Company's stock price performance. The Committee believes that stock options directly motivate an executive to maximize long-term shareholder value. The options also utilize vesting periods that encourage key executives to continue in the employ of the Company. These options were granted under the Company's 1992 Stock Incentive Plan and 2002 Stock Option Plan. Under Federal income tax rules, the deduction for certain types of compensation paid to the Chief Executive Officer and four other most highly compensated officers of publicly held companies is limited to $1 million per employee. In certain circumstances, performance-based compensation is exempt from the $1 million limit. The Committee believes all compensation earned by the Company's executive officers in 2005 will be deductible.

In 2005, none of the executive officers, including Mr. Shipman, were granted an option to purchase shares of Common Stock. On November 29, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company approved an acceleration of vesting of all of the Company's unvested stock options (the Acceleration), including those held by executive officers. The Acceleration was effective for stock options outstanding as of December 30, 2005. These options were granted under the Company's 1992 Stock Incentive Plan and 2002 Stock Option Plan. As a result of the Acceleration, options to acquire approximately 136,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, or 16% of total outstanding options, became exercisable on December 30, 2005. Of the options subject to the Acceleration, options to acquire approximately 106,200 shares of the Company's Common Stock were held by executive officers, as follows:

Executive Officer	Number of Options	Exercise Price	Original Vesting Date
Paul S. Shipman	15,300	$ 1.865	August 2006
	12,000	$ 2.019	August 2006 and August 2007
David J. Mickelson	15,300	$ 1.865	August 2006

Edgar Filing: REDHOOK ALE BREWERY INC - Form DEF 14A

	11,000	$	2.019	August 2006 and August 2007
Gerard C. Prial	15,300	$	1.865	August 2006
	11,000	$	2.019	August 2006 and August 2007
Allen L. Triplett	15,300	$	1.865	August 2006
	11,000	$	2.019	August 2006 and August 2007

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer. Effective August 1, 2005, the annual base salary of Mr. Shipman was increased from $237,500 to $250,000 per the terms of a letter of agreement with the Company regarding employment. Mr. Shipman received a one-time special bonus of $60,000 and an incentive bonus of $31,250 for services rendered in 2005. Mr. Shipman was not granted an option to purchase shares of Common Stock in 2005. In conjunction with the 2005 Acceleration, vesting was accelerated on options held by Mr. Shipman as follows: an option to acquire 15,300 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.865; an option to acquire 12,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.019. The Committee also reviewed perquisites and other compensation paid to Mr. Shipman for 2005, and found these amounts to be reasonable. Effective January 1, 2006, the Committee increased the annual salary for Mr. Shipman to $257,500.

Executive Officer Employment Agreements

Each of Messrs. Shipman, Mickelson, Prial and Triplett has executed a letter of agreement with the Company regarding employment. The Company provides each of its executive officers with an annual compensation plan under which they receive a specified minimum compensation plus additional cash incentives depending on attainment of various performance goals.

In June 2005, the Company executed a letter of agreement with Mr. Shipman regarding employment. The agreement became effective on August 1, 2005 following the July 2005 expiration of the previous employment agreement. The letter of agreement provides for a minimum base salary of $250,000 and stipulates that Mr. Shipman is an at-will employee. Mr. Shipman is eligible for a yearly bonus, of which 50% is discretionary and 50% is to be paid upon achieving certain targets per terms set forth by, and as approved by, the Compensation Committee or the Board. Mr. Shipman's target bonus for 2005 was $100,000 and the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Shipman $31,250. In the event that Mr. Shipman's employment with the Company is terminated by the Company for any reason other than for cause, he is entitled to severance equal to one month of base salary for each year of his service with the Company, capped at a severance payment equal to 24 months of base salary. On January 12, 2006, the Compensation Committee approved an increase in Mr. Shipman's annual base salary to $257,500, to be effective January 1, 2006.

The Company has executed letters of agreement regarding employment with Messrs. Mickelson, Prial and Triplett. The letters of agreement provide the officers with the following minimum base salaries: Mr. Mickelson $186,000; Mr. Prial $165,375; and Mr. Triplett $165,375. Messrs. Mickelson, Prial and Triplett are eligible for a yearly bonus, of which 50% is discretionary and 50% is to be paid upon achieving certain targets per terms set forth by, and as approved by, the Compensation Committee or the Board. Mr. Mickelson's target bonus for 2005 was $44,000 and the Compensation Committee awarded Mr. Mickelson $13,750. The 2005 target bonuses established for each of Messrs. Prial and Triplett were $20,000 and the Compensation Committee awarded each officer $10,000. In the event that any of these officers' employment with the Company is terminated by the Company for any reason other than for cause, he is entitled to severance equal to one month of base salary for each year of his service with the Company, capped at a severance payment equal to 24 months of base salary. On January 12, 2006, the Compensation Committee approved an increase of Mr. Mickelson's annual base salary to $191,580, effective January 1, 2006.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Seven directors are to be elected at the annual meeting, to serve until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders or until their earlier retirement, resignation or removal. Frank H. Clement, John W. Glick, David R. Lord, Michael Loughran, John D. Rogers, Jr., Paul S. Shipman and Anthony J. Short have been nominated by the Board of Directors for election or re-election at the annual meeting. All of the nominees are currently directors of the Company. The accompanying proxy will be voted for these nominees, except where authority to so vote is withheld. Should any nominee be unable to serve, the persons named in the proxy may vote for any substitute designated by the Board of Directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES NAMED IN PROPOSAL 1.

PROPOSAL 2 RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has appointed the firm of Moss Adams LLP ( Moss Adams ), independent registered public accountants, to audit the Company s financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006.

At the Annual Meeting, the shareholders are being asked to ratify the appointment of Moss Adams as the Company s independent auditors for the fiscal year 2006. In the event of a negative vote on such ratification, the Audit Committee will reconsider its selection. Representatives of Moss Adams will be present at the Annual Meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from shareholders and to make a statement if they so desire.

On September 9, 2004, the Company engaged Moss Adams as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. During the two fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and the subsequent interim period through September 9, 2004, the Company had not consulted with Moss Adams with respect to: (i) the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed; or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company s financial statements; or (ii) any matter that was either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K) or a reportable event (as described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K). The decision to engage Moss Adams was approved by the Company s audit committee.

On August 16, 2004, Ernst & Young LLP ( Ernst & Young ) resigned as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company. The resignation followed notification by Ernst & Young on July 23, 2004 that the firm would resign as the Company s independent registered public accounting firm following completion of services related to the review of the interim financial statements of the Company for the quarter ended June 30, 2004.

The reports of Ernst & Young on the Company s financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and was not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles, except that the report for the year ended December 31, 2003 expressed substantial doubt regarding the Company s ability to continue as a going concern if the Company s distribution agreement with Anheuser-Busch, which was subject to early termination in 2004, was terminated. The termination of the distribution agreement would have caused an event of default under the Company s bank credit agreement and would have required the Company to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock on December 31, 2004. As reported in the Company s current report on Form 8-K filed on July 2, 2004 and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, the Company and Anheuser-Busch entered into a new distribution agreement which will expire on December 31, 2024, subject to the one-time right of Anheuser-Busch to terminate the distribution agreement on December 31, 2014.

In connection with the audit of the Company s financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, and in the subsequent interim period from December 31, 2003 through August 16, 2004, there were no disagreements with Ernst & Young on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst &

Young would have caused Ernst & Young to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in their report. There were no reportable events as that term is described in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K. The Company requested and Ernst & Young furnished a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agreed with the above statements. A copy of that letter, dated August 20, 2004, is filed as Exhibit 16.2 to the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Fees Paid to the Independent Auditors

The following table presents fees billed by Moss Adams and Ernst & Young for professional services rendered with respect to fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004. 100% of these services were approved by the Audit Committee:

Fee Category	2005		2004
	Moss Adams	Ernst & Young	Moss Adams	Ernst & Young
Audit Fees(1)	$ 117,006		$ 81,830	$ 20,000
Audit Related Fees(2)	2,040		6,291
Tax Fees	2,000
All Other Fees(3)				10,000

- (1) Audit fees include the audit of the Company's annual financial statements, review of the financial statements included in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for such years, and services rendered in conjunction with registration statements.
- (2) Audit related services include professional services related to the audit of the Company's financial statements. The 2004 fees relate to consultation in connection with the SEC's comment letter regarding the Company's 2003 Annual Report on Form 10-K. The 2005 fees relate to consultation regarding The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, Section 404 project implementation.
- (3) Other fees include professional services performed by Ernst & Young to provide consent for the firm's report to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Auditor Independence

In 2005, there were no other professional services provided by Moss Adams that would have required the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors to consider their compatibility with maintaining the independence of Moss Adams.

Audit Committee Policy on Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing and overseeing the work of the Company's independent auditor. The Audit Committee has established the following procedures for the pre-approval of all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor:

Before engagement of the independent auditor for the next year's audit, the independent auditor will submit a detailed description of services expected to be rendered during that year for each of the following categories of services to the Audit Committee for approval.

Audit services. Audit services include work performed for the audit of the Company's financial statements and the review of financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-Q, as well as work that is normally provided by the independent auditor in connection with statutory and regulatory filings.

Audit related services. Audit related services are for assurance and related services that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor and reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements.

Tax services. Tax services include all services performed by the independent auditor's tax personnel for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning.

Other services. Other services are those services not captured in the other categories.

Before engagement, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service. The fees are budgeted and the Audit Committee requires the independent auditor to report actual fees versus budgeted fees periodically throughout the year by category of service. During the year, circumstances may arise when it may become necessary to engage the independent auditor for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval. In those instances, the Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval before engaging the independent auditor.

If this proposal does not receive the affirmative approval of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal, the Board of Directors will reconsider the appointment.

BYLAWS PROVISIONS

2.3.2 Nominations for Directors.

(a) Nominations of candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting of shareholders may only be made (i) by, or at the direction of, the Board of Directors, or (ii) by any shareholder of the corporation who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complies with the procedures set forth in the remainder of this Section 2.3.2.

(b) If a shareholder proposes to nominate one or more candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the corporation. To be timely, a shareholder's notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received at, the principal office of the corporation (i) not less than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the first anniversary of the date that the corporation's proxy statement was released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting; (ii) a reasonable time before the corporation begins to print and mail its proxy materials if the date of this year's annual meeting has been changed by more than thirty (30) days from the date of the previous year's meeting; or (iii) not more than seven (7) days following the mailing to shareholders of the notice of annual meeting with respect to the current year's annual meeting, if the corporation did not release a proxy statement to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting, or if no annual meeting was held during such year.

(c) A shareholder's notice to the Secretary under Section 2.3.2(b) shall set forth, as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election as a director (i) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (iii) the number and class of shares of stock of the corporation that are beneficially owned on the date of such notice by such person, and (iv) if the corporation at such time has or at the time of the meeting will have any security registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act, any other information relating to such person required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies with respect to nominees for election as directors pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act, including but not limited to information required to be disclosed by Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A, and any other information that the shareholder would be required to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the shareholder's nomination of such person as a candidate for director or the shareholder's opposition to any candidate for director nominated by, or at the direction of, the Board of Directors. In addition to the above information, a shareholder's notice to the Secretary under Section 2.3.2(b) shall (A) set forth (i) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation's books, of the shareholder and of any other shareholders that the shareholder knows or anticipates will support any candidate or candidates nominated by the shareholder and (ii) the number and class of shares of stock of the corporation that are beneficially owned on the date of such notice by the shareholder and by any such other shareholders and (B) be accompanied by a written statement, signed and acknowledged by each candidate nominated by the shareholder, that the candidate agrees to be so nominated and to serve as a director of the corporation if elected at the annual meeting.

(d) The Board of Directors, or a designated committee thereof, may reject any shareholder's nomination of one or more candidates for election as directors if the nomination is not made pursuant to a shareholder's notice timely given in accordance with the terms of Section 2.3.2(b). If the Board of Directors, or a designated committee thereof, determines that the information provided in a shareholder's notice does not satisfy the requirements of Section 2.3.2(c) in any material respect, the Secretary of the corporation shall notify the shareholder of the deficiency in the notice. The shareholder shall have an opportunity to cure the deficiency by providing additional information to the Secretary within such period of time, not to exceed five (5) days from the date such deficiency notice is given to the shareholder, as the Board of Directors or such committee shall reasonably determine. If the deficiency is not cured within such period, or if the Board of Directors or such committee determines that the additional information provided by the shareholder, together with information previously provided, does not satisfy the requirements of Section 2.3.2(c) in any material respect, then the Board of Directors or such committee may reject the shareholder's notice.

(e) Notwithstanding the procedures set forth in Section 2.3.2(d), if a shareholder proposes to nominate one or more candidates for election as directors at an annual meeting, and neither the Board of Directors nor any committee thereof has made a prior determination of whether the shareholder has complied with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.3.2 in connection with such nomination, then the chairman of the annual meeting shall determine and declare at the annual meeting whether the shareholder has so complied. If the chairman determines that the shareholder has so complied, then the chairman shall so state and ballots shall be provided for use at the meeting with respect to such nomination. If the chairman determines that the shareholder has not so complied, then, unless the chairman, in his sole and absolute discretion, determines to waive such compliance, the chairman shall state that the shareholder has not so complied and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.
