ITEM 5. Niles, Ohio - RTI International Metals, Inc. (NYSE: RTI) announced today that it has amended its unsecured credit agreement with a group of banks led by PNC Bank of Pittsburgh as agent. The amended agreement replaces the existing $100 million facility that expires on May 31, 2005.

The amended facility will provide RTI with $90 million of standby credit through May 31, of 2008. The Company has the option to increase the amended facility to $100 million without prior bank group approval. The terms and conditions of the amended facility remain essentially unchanged except that the tangible net worth covenant in the replaced facility was eliminated in the amended facility. The company has no plans to utilize the facility except for the issuance of letters of credit.
