Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On June 3, 2008, Smith International Inc. (the Company or Smith ) and its subsidiary, Whitehall Acquisition Corp. ( W-H Acquisition ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) with W-H Energy Services, Inc. ( W-H ). On the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, W-H Acquisition will commence an exchange offer (the Offer ) to acquire all of the outstanding shares of common stock of W-H (together with the associated preferred stock purchase rights, the Shares ), in which each validly tendered Share will be exchanged at the election of the holder for the following consideration: (i) $56.10 in cash, without interest, and 0.48 shares of the Company s common stock (the Offer Consideration ), (ii) $93.55 in cash, without interest (the All-Cash Consideration ), or (iii) 1.1990 shares of the Company s common stock (the All-Stock Consideration ).

Following the consummation of the Offer, W-H Acquisition will merge with and into W-H (the Merger and W-H after the merger is sometimes referred to as the Surviving Corporation ), and all Shares not acquired in the Offer will be converted into the right to receive the Offer Consideration (other than (i) Shares held by holders who comply with the relevant provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act regarding the rights of shareholders to dissent from the Merger and (ii) Shares held in the treasury of W-H or owned by the Company, W-H Acquisition or any other wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company). The Merger Agreement includes customary representations, warranties and covenants by the parties. As soon as practicable following the Merger, the Company will cause the Surviving Corporation to be merged with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (together with the Merger, the Mergers ), subject to the successful completion of the Offer, as well as customary closing conditions and regulatory approvals, including the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976.

W-H shareholders electing the Offer Consideration will not be subject to proration under any circumstance; however, holders electing All-Cash Consideration or All-Stock Consideration may receive a different form of consideration than selected. Holders electing either All-Cash Consideration or All-Stock Consideration will be subject to proration such that, as long as the cash portion of the consideration to be received by the holders electing the Offer Consideration does not exceed $1.636 billion, the total amount of the cash to be paid pursuant to the Offer will equal $1.636 billion with the difference paid in shares of the Company s common stock. Holders who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of the Company s common stock will instead receive an amount in cash (without interest) equal to the amount of such fraction multiplied by the All-Cash Consideration. Therefore, in the event (i) all outstanding W-H stock options are exercised and none of the outstanding W-H restricted shares are forfeited prior to the Offer and (ii) all W-H shareholders and holders of restricted shares elect the Offer Consideration, the Company would fund $1.817 billion of the total Offer consideration in cash and would satisfy the remaining obligation by issuing approximately 15.5 million shares of the Company s common stock. However, if (i) all outstanding W-H stock options are exercised and none of the outstanding W-H restricted shares are forfeited prior to the Offer and (ii) the holders of 90 percent or less of the W-H Shares and restricted shares elect the Offer Consideration, the Company would fund $1.636 billion of the total Offer consideration in cash and issue approximately 17.85 million shares of the Company s common stock to satisfy the remaining obligation.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.01 to this report and is incorporated in this report by reference. The Merger Agreement has been attached to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Acquisition or W-H. In particular, the assertions embodied in the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules provided by W-H to the Company and Acquisition in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement. These disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company and Acquisition, on the one hand, and W-H, on the other hand, rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Company, Acquisition or W-H.

Important Information

The exchange offer described herein has not commenced. The description contained herein is neither an offer to purchase nor a solicitation of an offer to sell shares of Smith. At the time the exchange offer is commenced, the Company, through a wholly owned subsidiary, intends to file a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO containing an offer to exchange, form of letters of election and transmittal and other documents relating to the exchange offer, and W-H intends to file a solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 with respect to the exchange offer. These documents will contain important information about the exchange offer that should be read carefully before any decision is made with respect to the exchange offer. These materials will be made available to the shareholders of W-H at no expense to them. Investors and security holders will be able to obtain the documents (when available) free of charge at the SEC's web site, www.sec.gov. In addition, such materials (and all other documents filed with the SEC) will be available free of charge at www.smith.com or www.whes.com. Such documents are not currently available. You may also read and copy any reports, statements and other information filed by the Company with the SEC at the SEC public reference room at 100 F Street N.E., Room 1580, Washington, D.C. 20549. Please call the SEC at (800) 732-0330 or visit the SEC's website for further information on its public reference room.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain comments contained herein are forward-looking in nature and are intended to constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, statements regarding the consummation of the transaction, its effects on future operating results, the expected closing date of the transaction, any other effect or benefit of the transaction and any other statements that are not historical facts. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to materially differ from those anticipated in the statements. For a discussion of additional risks and uncertainties that could impact the Company's results, review the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These risks and uncertainties include the satisfaction of the conditions to consummate the proposed acquisition, general economic and business conditions, the ability to achieve synergies following completion of the proposed acquisition, the impact of intense competition, global economic growth and activity, the level of oil and natural gas exploration and development activities, political stability of oil-producing countries, finding and development costs of operations, decline and depletion rates for oil and natural gas wells, seasonal weather conditions, industry conditions, changes in laws or regulations and other factors and uncertainties discussed from time to time in reports filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
