PROXY STATEMENT

General. This Proxy Statement is furnished by the Board of Directors of Commercial Net Lease Realty, Inc. (the Company) in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on June 1, 2005, and at any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying notice of such meeting. All stockholders of record at the close of business on March 31, 2005 (the Record Date) will be entitled to vote.

Voting/Revocation of Proxy. If you complete and properly sign and mail the accompanying proxy card, it will be voted as you direct. If you are a registered stockholder and attend the meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person. Street name stockholders who wish to vote at the meeting will need to obtain a proxy from the institution that holds their shares.

If you are a registered stockholder, you may vote by telephone (1-800-690-6903), or electronically through the Internet (<http://www.proxyvote.com>), by following the instructions included with your proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, please check your proxy card or contact your broker or nominee to determine whether you will be able to vote by telephone or electronically.

Any proxy, if received in time, properly signed and not revoked, will be voted at such meeting in accordance with the directions of the stockholder. If no directions are specified, the proxy will be voted FOR each of the proposals contained herein. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised. A proxy may be revoked (1) by delivery of a written statement to the Secretary of the Company stating that the proxy is revoked, (2) by presentation at the annual meeting of a subsequent proxy executed by the person executing the prior proxy, or (3) by attendance at the annual meeting and voting in person.

Vote Required for Approval; Quorum. For Proposal I, the seven nominees for director who receive the most votes will be elected. If you indicate withhold authority to vote for a particular nominee by entering the number of any nominee (as designated on the proxy card) below the pertinent instruction on the proxy card, your vote will not count either for or against the nominee. For Proposal II, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast on the proposal is required to ratify the selection of independent public accountants. As of the Record Date, 52,189,532 shares of the common stock of the Company (the Common Stock) were outstanding. Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on each of the matters to be voted upon at the annual meeting. As of the Record Date, our executive officers and directors had the power to vote approximately 7% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Our executive officers and directors have advised us that they intend to vote their shares of Common Stock FOR each of the proposals contained herein.

Votes cast in person or by proxy at the annual meeting will be tabulated and a determination will be made as to whether or not a quorum is present. We will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but as unvoted for purposes of determining the approval of any matter submitted to the stockholders. If a broker submits a proxy indicating that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter (broker non-votes), those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to such matter. Broker non-votes with respect to the election of directors will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on this proposal. Broker non-votes with respect to the amendments to our charter and bylaws will have the effect of votes cast against the proposal.

YOUR VOTE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING IS VERY IMPORTANT TO US.

Solicitation of Proxies. Solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail. However, our directors and officers may also solicit proxies by telephone or telegram or in person. All of the expenses of soliciting proxies, including preparing, assembling, printing and mailing the materials used in the solicitation of proxies, will be paid by us. Arrangements may be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward soliciting materials, at our expense, to the beneficial owners of shares held of record by such persons. It is anticipated that this Proxy Statement and the enclosed Proxy will be mailed to stockholders on or about April 15, 2005.

Corporate Governance

General. We are currently managed by a nine-member Board of Directors that consists of Robert A. Bourne, Messrs. Habicht, Hinkle, Jennings, Lanier, Legler, Macnab, Martinez and James M. Seneff, Jr., who serves as Chairman. Gary M. Ralston also served as a director of the Company until his retirement on May 1, 2004. Messrs. Seneff and Bourne will retire from the Board on June 1, 2005. The Board has adopted a set of corporate governance guidelines, which, along with the written charters for our Board committees described below, provide the framework for the Board's governance of the Company. Our corporate governance guidelines are available both on our website at <http://www.nnnreit.com> and in print to any stockholder who requests it.

Independence and Composition. Our corporate governance guidelines and the rules and regulations of the New York Stock Exchange, which we refer to as the NYSE listing standards, each require that a majority of our Board of Directors are independent directors, as defined in the NYSE listing standards.

The Board of Directors, upon the unanimous recommendation of its Governance and Nominating Committee, has determined that Messrs. Hinkle, Jennings, Lanier, Legler and Martinez, representing a majority of our Board of Directors, qualify as independent directors. The Governance and Nominating Committee made its recommendation based on information furnished by all directors regarding their relationships with the Company and research conducted by management. In addition, the Governance and Nominating Committee consulted with the Company's counsel to ensure that its recommendation would be consistent with all relevant securities laws and regulations as well as the NYSE listing standards.

Meetings and Attendance. The Board of Directors met 14 times in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Each of the nominees currently serving on the Board of Directors attended at least 86% of the meetings of (i) the Board of Directors and (ii) the committees of the Board of Directors that he was eligible to attend. During fiscal year 2004, each of Messrs. Hinkle, Jennings, Lanier, Legler, Macnab, and Martinez attended 100% of the meetings of (i) the Board of Directors and (ii) the committees of the Board of Directors that he was eligible to attend. Our corporate governance guidelines provide that it is the responsibility of individual directors to make themselves available to attend scheduled and special Board meetings on a consistent basis.

All of our directors as of the date of the 2004 annual meeting of the Company's stockholders were in attendance for the 2004 annual meeting. In addition, non-management members of the Board of Directors met in executive session four times in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Pursuant to our corporate governance guidelines, the Chairman of the Board presides at all executive sessions of the Board of Directors, except for executive sessions to discuss the compensation of the Company's chief executive officer, which are chaired by the chairman of the Compensation Committee.

Stockholder Communications. The Board of Directors has adopted a process whereby our stockholders can send communications to our directors. Any stockholder wishing to communicate directly with one or more directors may do so in writing addressed to the director or directors, c/o Commercial Net Lease Realty, Inc., 450 South Orange Avenue, Suite 900, Orlando, Florida 32801. All correspondence will be reviewed by the Company and forwarded directly to the addressee.

Audit Committee

General. The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee, which is governed by a written charter, which is available both on our website at <http://www.nnnreit.com> and in print to any stockholder who requests it. Among the duties, powers and responsibilities of the Audit Committee as provided in its charter, the Audit Committee:

- has sole power and authority concerning the engagement and fees of the independent registered public accounting firm;

- reviews with the independent registered public accounting firm the plans and results of the audit engagement;

- pre-approves all audit services and permitted non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm;

- reviews the independence of the independent registered public accounting firm;

- reviews the adequacy of our internal control over financial reporting; and

- reviews accounting, auditing and financial reporting matters with our independent registered public accounting firm and management.

Independence and Composition. The composition of the Audit Committee is subject to the independence and other requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC thereunder, which we refer to as the Exchange Act, and the NYSE listing standards.

The Board of Directors, upon the unanimous recommendation of its Governance and Nominating Committee, has determined that all current members of the Audit Committee meet the audit committee composition requirements of the Exchange Act and the NYSE listing standards and that Mr. Lanier qualifies as an audit committee financial expert as that term is defined in the Exchange Act.

Meetings. The Audit Committee met four times in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. In fiscal year 2004, Messrs. Lanier, Hinkle and Martinez were, and currently are, the members of the Audit Committee, with Mr. Lanier serving as Chairman.

Governance and Nominating Committee

General. The Board of Directors has established a Governance and Nominating Committee, which is governed by a written charter, a copy of which is available both on our website at <http://www.nnnreit.com> and in print to any stockholder who requests it. As provided in the Governance and Nominating Committee charter, the Governance and Nominating Committee:

- identifies and recommends to the Board of Directors individuals to stand for election and reelection to the Board at our annual meeting of stockholders and to fill vacancies that may arise from time to time;

develops and makes recommendations to the Board for the creation, and ongoing review and revision of, a set of effective corporate governance principles that promote our competent and ethical operation and a policy governing ethical business conduct of our employees and Directors; and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors as to the structure and membership of committees of the Board of Directors.

Selection of Director Nominees. Our corporate governance guidelines provide that the Governance and Nominating Committee will endeavor to identify individuals to serve on the Board who have expertise that is useful to us and complimentary to the background, skills and experience of other Board members. The Governance and Nominating Committee's assessment of the composition of the Board includes (a) skills—business and management experience, real estate experience, accounting experience, finance and capital markets experience, and an understanding of corporate governance regulations and public policy matters, (b) character—ethical and moral standards, leadership abilities, sound business judgment, independence and innovative thought, and (c) composition diversity, age and public company experience. The principal qualification for a director is the ability to act in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. Each of the candidates for director named in this proxy statement have been recommended by the Governance and Nominating Committee and approved by the Board of Directors for inclusion on the attached proxy card.

The Governance and Nominating Committee also considers director nominees recommended by stockholders. See the section of this proxy statement entitled PROPOSALS FOR NEXT ANNUAL MEETING for a description of how stockholders desiring to make nominations for directors and/or to bring a proper subject before a meeting should do so. The Governance and Nominating Committee evaluates director candidates recommended by stockholders in the same manner as it evaluates director candidates recommended by our directors, management or employees.

Independence and Composition. The NYSE listing standards require that the Governance and Nominating Committee consist solely of independent directors. The Board of Directors, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee, has determined that all current members of the Governance and Nominating Committee are independent as that term is defined in the NYSE listing standards.

Meetings. The Governance and Nominating Committee met four times in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Messrs. Hinkle, Jennings and Legler served in fiscal year 2004, and are currently serving as members of the Governance and Nominating Committee. Mr. Hinkle was named, and currently serves, as Chairman of the committee.

Compensation Committee

General. The Board of Directors has established a Compensation Committee, which is governed by a written charter, a copy of which is available both on our website at <http://www.nnnreit.com> and in print to any stockholder who requests it. The Compensation Committee is responsible for:

approving and evaluating the compensation plans, policies and programs for our executive officers and directors; and approving all awards to any employees and directors under our equity incentive plan.

Independence and Composition. The NYSE listing standards require that the Compensation Committee consist solely of independent directors. The Board of Directors, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Governance and Nominating Committee, has determined that all current members of the Compensation Committee are independent as that term is defined in the NYSE listing standards.

Meetings. The Compensation Committee met four times in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Messrs. Jennings, Legler and Martinez served in fiscal year 2004, and are currently serving, as the members of the Compensation Committee, with Mr. Jennings serving as Chairman. Mr. Jennings currently serves as Chairman.

Code of Business Conduct

Our directors, as well as our officers and employees, are also governed by our code of business conduct. Our code of business conduct is available both on our website at <http://www.nnnreit.com> and in print to any stockholder who requests it. Amendments to, or waivers from, a provision of the code of business conduct that applies to our directors, executive officers or employees will be posted to our website promptly following the date of the amendment or waiver.

Compensation of Directors

During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company paid each director who was a director for the entire year $20,000 for serving on the Board of Directors. Each director received $1,000 per Board of Directors meeting attended, $1,000 per committee meeting attended and $500 per telephonic board or committee meeting attended. Additionally, the Company awarded each independent director 1,500 shares of restricted stock, which vests over two years. Messrs. Habicht and Macnab have waived all of their director compensation. The Board of Directors believes this compensation level has been comparable to that provided by many other companies in the real estate investment trust (REIT) industry.

We have also established a Deferred Fee Plan for Directors, which permits non-employee directors to elect to defer receipt of their annual retainer, meeting fees and committee chairman fees. The deferred fees are credited to either a cash or phantom share account, at the option of the director. At the earlier to occur of either the time specified in each director's deferred fee agreement or a change of control of the Company, amounts credited to a cash account shall be paid in cash in a lump sum and phantom shares credited to a director's phantom share account shall be paid in either cash, Common Stock or a combination of both. In 2004, we did not distribute any amounts under this plan.

The following table sets forth the number of shares of Common Stock credited to each non-employee director's phantom share account under the Deferred Fee Plan for Directors in 2004:

Name	Number of Shares of Common Stock Credited to Phantom Share Account

The information contained in this report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC, nor shall such information be incorporated by reference into any previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except to the extent that the Company incorporated it by specific reference.

Duties, Powers and Responsibilities. Management is responsible for the Company's financial statements, internal controls and financial reporting process. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements, attesting to management's assessment of, and the effectiveness of, the Company's internal control over financial reporting in accordance with auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), and issuing a report thereon. The Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes. The Audit Committee is governed by a charter, which is available both on our website at <http://www.nnnreit.com> and in print to any stockholder who requests it. The Audit Committee charter is designed to assist the Audit Committee in complying with applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the NYSE listing standards, all of which relate to corporate governance and many of which directly or indirectly affect the duties, powers and responsibilities of the Audit Committee. Among the duties, powers and responsibilities of the Audit Committee as provided in the Audit Committee charter, the Audit Committee:

has sole power and authority concerning the engagement and fees of independent registered public accounting firms, reviews with the independent registered public accounting firm the scope of the annual audit and the audit procedures to be utilized, pre-approves audit and permitted non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm,

reviews the independence of the independent registered public accounting firm, reviews the adequacy of the Company's internal accounting controls, and reviews accounting, auditing and financial reporting matters with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and management.

Review and Discussions with Management and Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm. In this context, the Committee has met and held discussions with management and the independent registered public accounting firm. Management represented to the Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and the Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with management and the independent registered public accounting firm. The Committee discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU § 380), issues regarding accounting and auditing principles and practices and the adequacy of internal controls that could significantly affect the Company's financial statements.

The Company's independent registered public accounting firm also provided to the Committee the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Committee discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm that firm's independence. The Committee has reviewed the original proposed scope of the annual audit of the Company's financial statements and the associated fees and any significant variations in the actual scope of the audit and fees.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm. Consistent with SEC policies regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent registered public accounting firm. In recognition of this responsibility, the Audit Committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm.

Prior to engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm for the next year's audit, management will submit to the Audit Committee for approval an aggregate of services expected to be rendered during that year for each of the three categories of services listed in Proposal II.

Prior to engagement, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service. The fees are budgeted and the Audit Committee requires the independent registered public accounting firm and management to report actual fees versus the budget periodically throughout the year by category of service. During the year, circumstances may arise when it may become necessary to engage the independent registered public accounting firm for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approval. In those instances, the Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval before engaging the independent registered public accounting firm.

For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, the audit committee pre-approved 100% of services described below in Proposal II in the captions "Audit Related Fees" and "Tax Fees." For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, no hours expended on KPMG LLP's engagement to audit our financial statements were attributed to work performed by persons other than full-time, permanent employees of KPMG LLP.

Pursuant to our Audit Committee charter, the Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to the chairman of the Audit Committee, who shall promptly advise the remaining members of the Audit Committee of such approval at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

Conclusion. Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the audited consolidated financial statements in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 filed with the SEC.

Employment Agreements and Other Arrangements

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Macnab on February 16, 2004. The agreement is effective for a term of three years and is subject to three one-year renewals at the Company's option. After the expiration of the third one-year renewal, the agreement may be renewed upon the mutual agreement of the Company and Mr. Macnab. The agreement contains a non-compete provision applicable during the term and for one year thereafter and provides for a salary and participation in any bonus plans developed by the Company. The agreement also contains severance provisions that call for payment to Mr. Macnab of twice his annual salary in the event that he is terminated without cause or Mr. Macnab resigns for good reason (including a material reduction of responsibilities, a failure of a successor to the Company to assume the agreement or the Company's material breach of the agreement or a change in control of the Company), in addition to a prorated performance bonus for the year or partial year in which employment is terminated and the immediate vesting of restricted stock awards.

The Company also has entered into employment agreements with each of Messrs. Habicht and Whitehurst. Services has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Tracy. Each agreement will expire on December 31, 2005, and is subject to automatic one-year renewals. Each agreement contains a non-compete provision applicable during the term and provides for a salary and participation in any bonus plans developed by the Company or Services, as applicable. Each agreement also contains severance provisions that call for payment to the executive of twice the executive's annual salary (or in the event of a change of control of the Company, twice the executive's annual salary plus average annual bonus for the previous three years) in the event that the executive is terminated without cause or the executive resigns for good reason (including material reduction of responsibilities or reduction in salary, failure of a successor to the Company or Services, as applicable, to assume the agreement or the Company's or Services' material and willful breach of the agreement), in addition to the continuation of certain fringe benefits and the immediate vesting of options and restricted stock awards.

The Company had previously entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Ralston. The agreement was set to expire on December 31, 2004, and was subject to automatic one-year renewals. It contained a non-compete provision applicable during the term and provided for a salary and participation in any bonus plans developed by the Company. It also contained severance provisions that called for payment to Mr. Ralston of twice his annual salary in the event that the Company terminated him without cause or he resigned for good reason (including material reduction of responsibilities or reduction in salary, failure of a successor to the Company to assume the agreement or the Company's material and willful breach of the agreement), in addition to the continuation of certain fringe benefits and the immediate vesting of options.

In April 2004, the Company entered into a separation agreement and general release with Mr. Ralston, which provided that Mr. Ralston would voluntarily resign all positions, titles or offices he held at the Company or any of its affiliated companies or entities and release the Company from all claims he might have against the Company or its affiliates. In consideration for this agreement, the Company agreed (i) to pay Mr. Ralston an aggregate sum of approximately $1,187,500, (ii) that any unvested shares of Mr. Ralston's restricted stock would vest, (iii) to purchase (or designate a purchaser for) Mr. Ralston's interest in Services based on a third-party valuation, and (iv) to engage Mr. Ralston to provide consulting services to the Company for 12 months at a rate of $250,000 per year. The agreement contained a 24-month non-compete provision as well as a confidentiality clause. In December 2004, the agreement was amended to provide that the Company would prepay all remaining amounts due to Mr. Ralston under the agreement (subject to a discount) and release him from all obligations relating to both his consulting services to the Company and the non-compete provision as of December 2004.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The information contained in this report shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed with the SEC, nor shall such information be incorporated by reference into any previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except to the extent that the Company incorporated it by specific reference.

The Board of Directors appointed a Compensation Committee comprised of the undersigned, Messrs. Jennings, Legler and Martinez. Members of the Compensation Committee, all of whom must be independent directors of the Company, are selected each year by the full Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing and administering executive compensation programs including administration of the 2000 Commercial Net Lease Realty, Inc. Performance Incentive Plan (the 2000 Plan) and the 2003 Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the 2003 Plan), as well as approval of changes in directors' compensation. The Compensation Committee currently operates under a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors in November 2003, a copy of which is available both on the Company's website at www.nnnreit.com and in print to any stockholder who requests it.

The Compensation Committee believes the Company's degree of success is largely attributable to the talent and dedication of its associates and to the management and leadership efforts of its executive officers. The goal of the Compensation Committee is to establish a compensation program that will attract and retain talented corporate officers, motivate them to perform to their fullest potential, as well as align their long-term interests with the interests of the Company's stockholders.

Historically, the key elements in the Company's executive compensation program have consisted of salary, annual bonus (which may be paid in cash and/or restricted stock) and long-term incentive compensation (paid in restricted stock). In making compensation decisions, the Compensation Committee considers the compensation practices and financial performance of other REIT industry participants and from time to time receives assessments and advice regarding compensation practices from independent compensation consultants. In evaluating performance, the Compensation Committee considers quantitative and qualitative improvement in the Company's Funds From Operations (FFO), capital structure, absolute and relative shareholder returns and individual performance and contribution to corporate goals and objectives. Additionally, the Compensation Committee makes a subjective assessment of the general performance of the Company, the officer's contribution to the Company's performance, the officer's anticipated performance and contribution to the Company's achievement of its long-term goals and the position, level, and scope of the officer's responsibility.

In keeping with its belief that tying the financial interests of executive officers of the Company to those of the shareholders will result in enhanced alignment of interests and shareholder value, the Committee has evaluated the stock ownership levels of executive management and determined them to be adequate. The Committee also established stock ownership guidelines of $100,000 for directors.

For 2004, Mr. Macnab received total cash payments of $398,077 in salary, and Mr. Seneff received total cash payments of $63,462 in salary. The Compensation Committee considered these levels of payments appropriate in light of Mr. Macnab's and Mr. Seneff's responsibilities and the Company's performance. A bonus of $292,500 was paid to Mr. Macnab in 2005 based on FFO per share results, strategy and organizational improvements, and total shareholder return for 2004. Additionally, 23,700 shares of restricted common stock were awarded to Mr. Macnab as long-term incentive compensation for the year 2004. Salary increases in 2004 for Executive Officers were based on FFO per share targets, individual performance, position, tenure, experience, leadership and competitive data in compensation surveys of comparable companies.

In November 2004, the Compensation Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors unanimously approved, director compensation commencing in fiscal year 2005 as follows: (a) annual retainer of $20,000 per year for each director; (b) restricted stock grant of 2,000 shares of common stock per year for each director vesting over a two year period; (c) meeting fees of $1,000 per Board meeting or committee meeting attended, and $500 per telephonic Board meeting or committee meeting attended; (d) chairmanship fees of $12,000 per year for Chairman of the Board of Directors, $10,000 per year for Chairman of Audit Committee, and $6,000 per year for Chairman of the Compensation, Governance and Nominating, and other committees; and (e) new director initial restricted stock grant of 2,500 shares of common stock, vesting over a two year period.

PROPOSAL IIProposal to Ratify
The Appointment of

KPMG LLP as the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Audit Committee currently believes that we should continue our relationship with KPMG LLP and have appointed KPMG LLP to continue as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is not required by the Company's bylaws or otherwise. However, the Board of Directors is submitting the selection of KPMG LLP to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. If the stockholders do not ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain the firm. In such event, the Audit Committee may retain KPMG LLP, notwithstanding the fact that the stockholders did not ratify the selection, or select another accounting firm without re-submitting the matter to the stockholders. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee reserves the right in its discretion to select a different accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

One or more representatives of KPMG LLP will be available at the Annual Meeting to answer your questions and make a statement if they desire.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership on Forms 3, 4 and 5 with the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Forms 3, 4 and 5 they file.

Based solely on the Company's review of the copies of such forms it has received, written representations from certain reporting persons that they were not required to file Forms 5 for the last fiscal year and other information known to the Company, the Company believes that all its officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners complied with all filing requirements applicable to them with respect to transactions filed during fiscal year 2004, except for Richard B. Jennings, Robert C. Legler and Robert Martinez, each of whom were late filing two Forms 4 in connection with phantom shares granted under the Deferred Fee Plan for Directors, resulting in a total of 4,449 shares of Common Stock not being reported on a timely basis.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

In May 2002, the Company purchased a combined 25% partnership interest for $750,000 in CNL Plaza, Ltd. and CNL Plaza Venture, Ltd. (collectively, Plaza). Affiliates of James M. Seneff, Jr., and Robert A. Bourne, each a member of the Company's Board of Directors, own the remaining partnership interests. The Company severally guaranteed 41.67% of a $15,500,000 unsecured promissory note on behalf of Plaza. The maximum obligation to the Company was $6,458,300 plus interest. Interest accrued at a rate of LIBOR plus 200 basis points per annum on the unpaid principal amount. This guarantee shall continue until maturity, which was extended to February 2005. For the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company received $446,000 in distributions and recognized a loss of $276,000 from Plaza.

The Company leases its office space from Plaza, an affiliate of Messrs. Seneff and Bourne. The Company's lease expires in October 2014. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company incurred rental expenses in connection with the lease of $1,018,000. The Company subleases a portion of its office space to Orange Avenue Mortgage Investments, Inc. (OAMI) (formerly CNL Commercial Finance, Inc.), CNL APF Partners, LP, CNL Restaurant Capital, LP, entities in which Mr. Seneff is a director, executive officer and minority shareholder. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company earned $345,000 in rental income and accrued rental income related to these subleases.

During the year ended December 31, 2004, CNL Shared Services, Inc. and CNL Financial Group, Inc., affiliates of Mr. Seneff, provided certain administrative, tax and technology services to the Company and Services. In connection therewith, the Company and Services paid $999,000 in fees relating to these services. Mr. Seneff is the Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer, a director, and principal stockholder of CNL Financial Group, Inc., which wholly owns CNL Shared Services, Inc.

In 2004, the Company provided disposition and development services to an affiliate of James M. Seneff, Jr., and Robert A. Bourne, each a member of the Company's Board of Directors. In connection therewith, the Company received a $175,000 in fees.

In September 2000, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Services entered into a $6,000,000 promissory note with an affiliate in which James M. Seneff, Jr., Gary M. Ralston and Kevin B. Habicht, each of which are officers and directors of the Company, own a majority equity interest. The note was secured by the affiliate's common stock in OAMI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the affiliate. In July 2003, the promissory note was paid in full. In addition, the wholly-owned subsidiary of Services has an option with the affiliate to purchase up to 79% of all the common shares of OAMI equal to the purchase price paid by the affiliate for such common stock. The option expires on December 31, 2010.

In September 2000, CNLRS Funding, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Services, entered into a $15,000,000 line of credit agreement with OAMI. Interest, which is at a rate of 500 basis points above LIBOR, is payable monthly and the principal balance is due in full upon termination of the line of credit on March 31, 2005. In December 2003, the line of credit was amended to increase the borrowing capacity to $35,000,000. During December 2004, the credit agreement was terminated.

In 2002, the Company extended the maturity dates to dates between June and December 2007 on four mortgages with an original aggregate principal balance totaling $8,514,000 that are held with Colonial Investors, Ltd., Hillcrest Plaza Investors, Ltd. and Indian Woods Associates, Ltd., entities in which James M. Seneff, Jr. and Robert A. Bourne, each a member of the Company's Board of Directors, are the general partners and hold 2.5%, 9.0% and 0.5%, respectively, of the outstanding interests. The mortgages bear interest at a weighted average of 8.9%, with interest payable monthly or quarterly. As of December 31, 2004, the aggregate principal balance of the four mortgages was $2,482,000. The largest amount of aggregate indebtedness outstanding under the mortgages during 2004 was $2,935,000. In connection therewith, the Company recorded $243,000 as interest from unconsolidated affiliates and other mortgage receivables during the years ended December 31, 2004.

The Company has entered into five limited liability company (LLC) agreements with OAMI: CNL Commercial Mortgage Holdings I, LLC (CCMH I) in June 2001; CNL Commercial Mortgage Holdings II, LLC (CCMH II) in December 2001; CNL Commercial Mortgage Holdings III, LLC

(CCMH III) in June 2002; CNL Commercial Mortgage Holdings IV, LLC (CCMH IV) in December 2002; and CNL Commercial Mortgage Holdings V, LLC (CCMH V) in July 2003. Each of the LLCs holds an interest in mortgage loans and is 100% equity-financed with no third party debt. The Company holds a non-voting and non-controlling interest in CCMH I, CCMH II, CCMH III, CCMH IV and CCMH V of 42.7%, 44.0%, 36.7%, 38.3%, and 38.4%, respectively, in these investments and accounts for its interests under the equity method of accounting. During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company received $10,562,000 in distributions. In 2004, in connection with a loan to CCF from an affiliate of James M. Seneff, Jr., a member of the Company's Board of Directors, the Company pledged a portion of its interest in two of the LLCs as partial collateral for the loan.

The Company holds a 98.7%, non-controlling interest in Services and is entitled to receive 98.7% of the dividends paid by Services. James M. Seneff, Jr., a director of the Company, Kevin B. Habicht, an officer and director of the Company, and Gary M. Ralston, a former officer and director of the Company, collectively own the remaining 1.3% interest, which is 100% of the voting interest in Services. The Company has revolving lines of credit with Services that allow for an aggregate borrowing capacity of $105,000,000. The lines of credit each bear interest at prime rate plus 0.25% per annum, expire on May 9, 2006, and are secured by a pledge of the real estate and/or the other assets owned by the respective borrower. The outstanding aggregate principal balance of the lines of credit at December 31, 2004 and 2003 was $42,473,000 and $55,234,000, respectively, and bore interest at a rate of 5.50% and 4.25%, respectively, per annum. In connection with the lines of credit from Services, the Company earned $3,819,000, $3,327,000, and $6,018,000 in interest and fees during the years ended December 31, 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively, each of which was eliminated in consolidation. Effective January 1, 2005, the Company purchased the remaining 1.3% interest from Messrs. Seneff, Habicht and Ralston for $870,000, as determined by a third-party valuation. Upon completion of the purchase of the 1.3% interest, Services became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company.
