PROXY STATEMENT

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) of Halifax Corporation (the Company) will be held on July 21, 2006, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at Halifax Corporation located at 5250 Cherokee Avenue, Alexandria, Virginia 22312, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders and described more fully below. The approximate date on which this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card will first be sent or given to shareholders is June 28, 2006.

Sending in a signed proxy card will not affect the shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person since the proxy card is revocable.

The enclosed proxy is being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company for use in voting at the Annual Meeting, including any postponements or adjournments thereof.

At the Annual Meeting, shareholders will vote upon the election of directors. The Board of Directors is not aware of any other matter to be brought before the Annual Meeting.

Costs of Proxy Solicitation

The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the notice, proxy statement and proxy card and miscellaneous costs with respect to the same will be paid by the Company. The Company may, in addition, use the services of its officers, directors and employees to solicit proxies personally or by telephone and telegraph, but at no additional salary or compensation. The Company intends to request banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward copies of the proxy materials to those persons for whom they hold shares and to request authority for the execution of proxies. The Company will reimburse them for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in so doing.

Proxies and Voting

A proxy card is enclosed. If properly executed and received in time for voting, and not revoked, the enclosed proxy card will be voted according to your directions. You can specify how you want your shares voted on each proposal by marking the appropriate boxes on the proxy card. Please review the voting instructions on the proxy card and read the entire text of the proposals prior to voting your proxy card. If your proxy is signed and returned without specifying a vote on any proposal, it will be voted according to the recommendations of the Board of Directors on that proposal.

You may revoke your proxy card at any time before it is voted at the meeting by taking one of the following actions: (1) giving timely written notice of the revocation to the Secretary of the Company; (2) executing and delivering a later dated proxy card; or (3) voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

The enclosed proxy card confers discretionary authority to vote with respect to any and all of the following matters that may come before the Annual Meeting: (i) matters about which the Company did not receive notice prior to May 1, 2006; (ii) approval of the minutes of a prior meeting of shareholders, if such approval does not amount to ratification at the Annual Meeting of the action taken at such prior meeting; (iii) the election of any person to any office for which a bona fide nominee is unable to serve or for good cause will not serve; (iv) any proposal omitted from this proxy statement and proxy card pursuant to Rules 14a-8 or 14a-9 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act); and (v) matters incident to the conduct of the Annual Meeting. In connection with such matters, the persons named in the enclosed proxy card will vote in accordance with their best judgment.

SHARES OUTSTANDING AND VOTING RIGHTS

Only shareholders who held shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.24 per share (the Common Stock), of record at the close of business on June 26, 2006 (the Record Date), are entitled to notice of and vote at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of the Record Date, there were 3,175,206 shares of Common Stock outstanding. In order for a quorum to be present at the Annual Meeting, one-third of the shares of Common Stock as of the close of business on the Record Date must be present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting. All such shares that are present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present, including abstentions and broker non-votes (as described below).

Broker non-votes (i.e., when a nominee holding shares of Common Stock cannot vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that proposal and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner) are counted in determining whether a quorum is present. Abstentions and shares held of record by a broker or nominee that are voted on any matter are counted in determining whether a quorum is present. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted as votes cast in the election of directors. Abstentions, but not broker non-votes, will have the same legal effect as a vote against any other proposal.

Each share of Common Stock outstanding is entitled to one vote on each matter, which may be brought before the Annual Meeting. Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote. Each other matter to be voted upon requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes of shares present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on such matter.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF MANAGEMENT AND CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS

The following table sets forth as of June 26, 2006 the number of shares of the Common Stock beneficially owned by: (1) each person who owned of record, or is known by the Company to have beneficially owned, more than 5% of such shares then outstanding; (2) each director and nominee for director; (3) the Chief Executive Officer and the four most highly compensated executive officers of the Company whose salary and bonus totaled $100,000 or more during fiscal 2006 (the Named Executive Officers); and (4) all executive officers, directors and director nominees as a group. PROPOSAL I ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Bylaws, as amended (Bylaws) provide that the Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors consisting of between three and seven members, the precise number of directors to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors. The number of directors has been fixed at seven.

Each director is elected to serve until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until the election and qualification of his respective successor. The Board of Directors, based upon recommendation from the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, has nominated the nominees named below, which nominees are currently serving as directors and have indicated their willingness to continue serving as directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why such nominees would be unable to serve as directors. The Company expects each nominee to be able to serve if elected, but if any nominee notifies the Company before the meeting that he is unable to do so, then the proxies will be voted for the remainder of those nominated and, as designated by the Board of Directors, may be voted (i) for a substitute nominee or nominees, or (ii) to elect such lesser number to constitute the whole Board of Directors as equals the number of nominees who are able to serve.

In accordance with the merger agreement pursuant to which the Company acquired Microserv, Inc. (the Merger Agreement), the Company agreed that the former shareholders of Microserv, Inc., shall have the right to nominate a director to the Company's Board of Directors so long as such former shareholders collectively own greater than 50% of the number of shares of Common Stock issued to them pursuant to the Merger Agreement. As of the Record Date, the former shareholders collectively owned greater than 50% of the number of shares of Common Stock issued to them pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Gerald F. Ryles is the nominee of the former shareholders of Microserv Inc. In addition, pursuant to a voting agreement executed in connection with the Merger Agreement, Charles L. McNew, Joseph Sciacca, Hugh M. Foley and Thomas J. Basile, subject to certain limitations concerning the qualification of the nominee, to vote their respective shares of voting capital stock of the Company in favor of the nominee of the former shareholders of Microserv, Inc. The Board of Directors has the responsibility for establishing corporate policies and for the overall performance of the Company. The Board of Directors meets at least quarterly during the year to review significant developments affecting the Company and to act upon matters requiring Board of Directors approval. In addition, the Board of Directors receives monthly reports of significant activities that occur between meetings. It also may hold special meetings when important matters require action by the Board of Directors between scheduled quarterly meetings. Members of senior management attend Board of Directors meetings to report on and discuss their areas of responsibility. Committees of the Board of Directors and Their Functions

The Board of Directors has established an Audit Committee, Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee, and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, each of which is briefly described below.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in maintaining the integrity of the Company's financial statements, and of its financial reporting processes and systems of internal audit controls, and the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements. The Audit Committee reviews the scope of independent audits and assesses the results. The Audit Committee meets with management to consider the adequacy of the internal controls and the objectivity of financial reporting. The Audit Committee also meets with the independent auditors and with appropriate financial personnel concerning these matters. The Audit Committee selects, compensates, appoints and oversees the Company's independent auditors. The independent auditors periodically meet alone with the Audit Committee and always have unrestricted access to the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee also approves related party transactions. The Audit Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Toups (Chairman), Young and Hewitt, met four (4) times in fiscal 2006. The Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Toups, Young and Hewitt are independent as defined in applicable rules of the American Stock Exchange Company Guide (the AMEX Company Guide) and Rule 10A-3 of the Exchange Act and that Messrs. Toups and Young qualify as audit committee financial experts as defined under Item 401 of Regulation S-K.

Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee. The Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee administers incentive compensation plans, including stock option plans, and advises the Board of Directors regarding employee benefit plans. The Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee establishes the compensation structure for senior managers of the Company, approves the compensation of senior executives of the Company, and makes recommendations to the independent directors of the Board of Directors with respect to compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Grover (Chairman), Toups and Hewitt, met one (1) time in fiscal 2006. Each member is independent as defined in applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide. In addition, each member is a non-employee director as defined in Rule 16b-3(b)(3) of the Exchange Act.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee advises and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors on all matters concerning directorships, including the selection of candidates as nominees for election as directors and committee membership. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for developing corporate governance policies and administering the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also recommends potential successors for key management. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Grover (Chairman), Toups and Young, met one (1) time in fiscal 2006. Each member is independent as defined in applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide. On April 27, 2006, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommended to the Board of Directors the slate of directors for election at the Annual Meeting.

Director Nomination Process

General Information. The Company has a standing Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors that is responsible for, among other matters, determining the types of backgrounds needed to strengthen and balance the Board of Directors, establishing criteria for selecting new directors, recommending nominees for director and recommending directors for membership on various Board of Directors committees for consideration of the full Board of Directors. See the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee charter, which was attached as an appendix to the proxy statement for the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on June 16, 2004, for a complete list of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's duties and responsibilities.

Messrs. Grover, Toups and Young constitute the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. All members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are independent, as defined in the applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide.

Consideration of Director Candidates Recommended or Nominated by Shareholders. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider properly submitted shareholder recommendations of director candidates. the name, address and resume of the recommended nominee; and the written consent of the recommended nominee to serve as a director of the Company if so nominated and elected.

The deadline for submitting the letter recommending a prospective director nominee for next year's annual meeting of shareholders, is March 1, 2007, provided the shareholder making the recommendation would like the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to consider recommending such recommended candidate to the full Board of Directors for inclusion into the proxy materials for the next year's annual meeting of shareholders.

In addition, Section 10 of Article III of the Company's Bylaws permits a shareholder to nominate directors for election at the Company's shareholders meeting, provided the shareholder follows the procedures summarized below. Shareholder nominations for directors to be elected, which have not been previously approved by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, must be submitted to the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in writing by certain deadlines specified in the Bylaws;

each shareholder nomination must set forth the following:

the name and address of the shareholder making the nomination and the person(s) nominated;

a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record, and/or beneficial owner, of voting stock of the Company entitled to vote at the meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to vote for the person(s) nominated;

description of all arrangements and understandings between the shareholder and each nominee and any other person(s), naming such person(s), pursuant to which the nomination was submitted by the shareholder;

such other information regarding the shareholder nominee as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC had the nominee been nominated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, including, but not limited to, the principal occupation of each proposed nominee; and the consent of each nominee to serve as a director of the Company if so elected.

The deadline for submitting shareholder nominations pursuant to the foregoing procedure in connection with the next annual meeting of shareholders is March 1, 2007.

The Company's Bylaws are available upon the shareholder's written request, at no cost, to Halifax Corporation, 5250 Cherokee Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22312, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Director Qualifications. In order to be nominated for director, a director candidate must meet the following criteria:

the director must be a natural person over 21 years of age;

the director should have high-level business experience;

the director should have knowledge about the issues affecting the Company's business and the industry in which the Company operates;

the director should have high moral character and share the values of the Company as outlined in the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics; and the director should have sufficient time to devote the director's energy and attention to the diligent performance of the director's duties, including, but not limited to, review of the Company documents, SEC filings and other materials and the attendance of the Board of Directors and committee meetings, as applicable.

Additional special criteria apply to directors being considered to serve on a particular committee of the Board of Directors, including, but not limited to, the Audit Committee. For instance, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will review whether the director nominee is independent, as independence is defined in the AMEX Company Guide.

Identifying and Evaluating Nominees for Director. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee assesses the appropriate size of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Company's Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws, whether any vacancies on the Board of Directors are expected and what incumbent directors will stand for re-election at the next annual meeting of shareholders. If vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee considers candidates for director suggested by members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and other Board of Directors members as well as management, shareholders and other parties and makes recommendations to the full Board of Directors regarding proposed candidates to fill the vacancy. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also has the sole authority to retain a search firm to identify and evaluate director candidates. Except for incumbent directors standing for re-election as described below, there are no differences in the manner in which the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee evaluates nominees for director, based on whether the nominee is recommended by a shareholder or any other party.

In the case of an incumbent director whose term of office expires, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews such director's service to the Company during the past term, including, but not limited to, the number of Board of Directors and committee meetings attended, as applicable, quality of participation and whether the candidate continues to meet the general qualifications for a Board of Directors member outlined above, including the director's independence, as well as any special qualifications required for a member of a Board of Directors committee if such director serves on one or more committees of the Board of Directors and makes a recommendation regarding such director's nomination for reelection to the full Board of Directors. When a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is an incumbent director eligible to stand for re-election, such director does not participate in the discussion of such director's recommendation for nomination for election as a director by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

In the case of a new director candidate, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate whether the nominee is independent, as independence is defined in the AMEX Company Guide, and whether the nominee meets the qualifications for a Board of Directors member outlined above as well as any special qualifications applicable to a member of the Board of Directors committee, on which the nominee may be appointed to serve if elected. In connection with such evaluation, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee determines whether the committee should interview the nominee, and if warranted, one or more members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee interview the nominee in person or by telephone.

Upon completing the evaluation, and the interview in case of a new candidate, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee makes a recommendation to the full Board of Directors as to whether to nominate the director nominee for election at the shareholders meeting.

Independence of Directors

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Grover, Toups, Hewitt and Young are independent within the definitions contained in the applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide. A majority of the Board of Directors members are independent as defined by the applicable rules of the AMEX Company Guide.

Communication with the Board of Directors

The Company's shareholders may communicate issues or concerns regarding the Company's business or the functions of the Board of Directors to the Board of Directors or individual members of the Board of Directors, including the Chairman of the Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee or Audit Committee, c/o the Secretary, Halifax Corporation, 5250 Cherokee Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22312.

The Secretary will review all correspondence and will create a log of all correspondence received. The Secretary will periodically forward any correspondence received from a holder of the Company's securities which deals with concerns regarding the Company's business or with the functions of its Board of Directors or which he otherwise determines requires their attention, to the Board of Directors or to the member of the Board of Directors to whom the correspondence is addressed. Directors may at any time review the log of all correspondence received and request copies of any such correspondence. Concerns relating to questionable accounting, internal controls or auditing matters will be brought to the attention of the Board of Directors in accordance with the procedures established by the Audit Committee with respect to such matters and set forth in the Company's Whistle Blower Policy.

Attendance at Annual Meetings of Shareholders

The Board of Directors has adopted a policy that a majority of the Company's directors attend the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All of the Company's directors attended last year's annual meeting of shareholders.

Director Compensation

Directors who are not officers of the Company receive an annual fee of $1,000. Non-employee directors also receive $2,000 for each regular meeting of the Board of Directors attended in person and $1,000 for each regular meeting of the Board of Directors attended telephonically. In addition, non-employee directors receive $1,000 for each special meeting of the Board of Directors attended. Members of the Board of Directors are also reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attending meetings of the Board of Directors and of committees of the Board of Directors. Under the Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan, each director was granted options to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock on the first of the month following the date of the annual meeting of shareholders on which he was initially elected and was granted options to purchase up to 2,000 shares of Common Stock on each annual re-election by the shareholders as a director of the Company. Such options were granted at an exercise price equal to or greater than the fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of grant. No further options may be granted pursuant to the Non-Employee Directors Stock Option Plan. REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND EMPLOYEE BENEFITS COMMITTEE

The overall philosophy regarding compensation of the Company's executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, continues to be based upon the concept that in order to achieve the Company's objectives of progress, growth and profitability it is necessary to attract and retain qualified executives who are motivated to provide a high level of performance. A vital element in this motivation is to offer an executive compensation program that is not only competitive but rewards those executives whose efforts enable the Company to achieve its goals. To accomplish this objective, the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee has an established policy whereby a significant portion of an executive officer's total compensation is related directly to the performance of the Company resulting in the interest of the Company's executive officers being parallel with the interests of its shareholders.

The executive compensation program includes three elements, which are intended to constitute a flexible and balanced method of establishing total compensation. These are base salary, annual bonus and stock options. When combined, these elements are intended to provide key executives sufficient motivation and incentives so that their efforts will maximize corporate performance thereby enhancing shareholder value. In accomplishing this objective, the compensation program seeks to balance performance rewards with what is reasonable under the total circumstances including the competitiveness of the executive marketplace.

Base Salary. The base salaries of the executive officers, including the Chief Executive Officer, are a reflection of the size of the Company, the scope of responsibility of each individual, the extent of experience in their particular positions, individual performance for the previous year and market conditions. Reviewed annually, base salaries are related indirectly to the Company's performance and upon the exercise of subjective judgment of the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee and, with respect to officers other than the Chief Executive Officer, Mr. McNew. Messrs. Foley's, Sciacca's, Whiteside's and Scott's base salaries for fiscal year 2006 were $150,000, $160,000, $193,000 and $123,348, respectively. For fiscal year 2007, Messrs. Foley's and Sciacca's base salaries are $150,000 and $160,000, respectively.

Mr. McNew was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer effective May 8, 2000. Prior to that, Mr. McNew served as Executive Vice President of the Company from July 1999 and Chief Financial Officer from September 1999. His base salary is reviewed annually. For fiscal year 2006, based upon the Company's financial condition, Mr. McNew's base salary remained at $240,000. Mr. McNew's base salary for fiscal year 2007 is $240,000 until otherwise recommended by the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee to the independent directors on the Board of Directors and determined by such directors.

Incentive Compensation. The second component of the executive compensation program is incentive compensation related to the achievement of business plan objectives, including specified earnings targets. Based upon recommendations by the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee, the business plan and related objectives are reviewed and approved by the full Board of Directors with respect to the executive officers, other than the Chief Executive Officer, and by the independent directors of the Board of Directors with respect to the Chief Executive Officer. Executives who qualify under the program are monetarily awarded if specific objectives are achieved and can be further rewarded, based upon a formula calculation if assigned objectives are exceeded.

In fiscal 2006, Mr. McNew received a bonus of $37,500 and Messrs. Foley and Sciacca received a bonus of $10,000. In granting these bonuses, the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee considered the officers contributions to the Company throughout the year, including the sale of the secure network services business and the restructuring of the Company's debt, and the reduced salaries these officers agreed to take in past years.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007, the Compensation Committee and Employee Benefits Committee and the Board of Directors have not determined the parameters of the incentive compensation program.

Equity Compensation. The final component of the executive compensation program is the 1994 Key Employee Stock Option Plan (1994 Plan) which was adopted and approved by the Company's shareholders at the 1994 annual meeting and is for the benefit of the Company's key employees, including officers, who meet certain criteria and the 2005 Stock Option and Stock Incentive Plan (the 2005 Plan) which was adopted and approved by the Company's shareholders at the 2005 annual meeting and is for the benefit of officers, directors and key employees of and important consultants to the Company. No additional options may be granted under the 1994 Plan. The purpose of the 2005 Plan is to promote the long-term interests of the Company and its shareholders by providing a means for attracting and retaining officers, directors and other key employees of and consultants to the Company and its affiliates by providing for awards in the form of Common Stock. It also ensures our executive team is focused on shareholder value. The 2005 Plan is administered by the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee. Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee has sole discretion and authority to determine from among eligible participants those to whom and time or times at which, options or shares of restricted stock may be granted, the numbers of shares of Common Stock to be subject to each option or restricted stock grant, and the type of option to be granted.

No member of the Compensation and Employee Benefits Committee is a former or current officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

Severance Arrangements

On May 8, 2000, the Company entered into an Executive Severance Agreement with Mr. McNew, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. This agreement provides benefits under certain circumstances including a change in control of the Company and remains in effect so long as Mr. McNew continues to be employed by the Company. It confirms that employment is at will and provides for termination without additional compensation in the event of death, resignation, retirement or for cause, as defined in the agreement. Except in connection with a change of control event as defined in the agreement termination for any other reason results in compensation equal to twelve months salary. In the event of termination within one year after a change in control, Mr. McNew would receive compensation equal to twenty-four months salary subject to statutory limitations. In the event Mr. McNew was terminated without cause, on March 31, 2006, he would have been entitled to a termination payment of approximately $480,000.

The Company entered into termination/separation agreements on May 10, 2000 with Mr. Sciacca and on January 17, 2003 with Mr. Foley. On March 20, 2003, Mr. Sciacca's termination/separation agreement was modified to increase the period of payment in the event of termination without cause from six to nine months.

For the above named individuals in the immediately preceding paragraph, in the event of involuntary termination without cause, the Company will continue to pay the then current individual's salary for a period of six months for Mr. Foley and nine months for Mr. Sciacca from the date of termination. In the event Messrs. Sciacca or Foley were terminated, without cause, on March 31, 2006, they would each have been entitled to a termination payment of approximately $120,000 and $75,000, respectively.

In connection with the acquisition of Microserv, Inc. on August 29, 2003, the Company entered into a severance and restricted agreement with Mr. Scott. In the event of involuntary termination without cause, the Company would have been required to continue to pay the then current salary through August 29, 2006, payable during the twelve months following such termination. Mr. Scott ceased to be employed by the Company on September 5, 2005 and the Company paid him a severance payment for six months' salary of $83,133, as agreed upon by Mr. Scott at the time of his departure from the Company.

On September 30, 2004, the Company entered into an Employee Severance and Restrictive Covenant Agreement with Larry L. Whiteside. In the event that Mr. Whiteside's employment with the Company was terminate for other than Cause or Good Reason (as defined in the agreement) or in the event of Mr. Whiteside's death, physical or mental illness, disability or incapacity, Mr. Whiteside's base salary would continue as severance payments until, and terminated upon, the 12 month anniversary of the date of such termination. Mr. Whiteside terminated employment with the Company on May 6, 2006. In connection with his termination of employment, on May 25, 2006, the Company and Mr. Whiteside accepted and agreed that the Company would pay Mr. Whiteside, as severance, one year's base salary. Mr. Whiteside agreed that for a period of one year following the date of his termination of employment, that he will not (i) solicit, hire, contract, engage, retain, divert, induce or accept business from or otherwise take away or interfere with any current customer of the Company (or any subsidiaries or affiliates thereof) or any prospective customer with which the Company (or any subsidiaries or affiliates thereof) has targeted for new business and has had a substantial business contact in the past 12 months and for which Mr. Whiteside has knowledge of such business contact, in each case for the purpose of providing the same or similar services or goods as that of the Company (or any subsidiaries or affiliates thereof), and (ii) (a) solicit, divert or induce any of the current employees or consultants of the Company (or any subsidiaries or affiliates thereof) to leave or to work for Mr. Whiteside or any person or entity with which Mr. Whiteside is affiliated or (b) hire directly any current employees of the Company (or any subsidiaries or affiliates thereof) (it being agreed that this restriction does not prohibit an entity other than one controlled by Mr. Whiteside to hire such employees) or (c) supply information to an employer of Mr. Whiteside or another unaffiliated third party to assist such employer or other third party to do indirectly what Mr. Whiteside is restricted from doing pursuant to this letter agreement. Both the Company and Mr. Whiteside entered into a mutual release of claims and the Employee Severance and Restrictive Covenant Agreement was terminated.

As a result of this transaction, the G. and A. Ryles Living Trust of which Gerald Ryles, a director of the Company, is the manager, Jonathan L. Scott, an executive officer of the Company, and Gary Lukowski, a greater than 5% holder of the Common Stock, received notes worth and aggregate principal amount of $113,395, $52,934 and $176,279, respectively. The entire principal amount of each of the notes issued to the former shareholders of Microserv was due and payable on or before February 28, 2005. These notes accrued interest at a rate of 5% per annum, which accrued but unpaid interest was required to be paid by the Company on a quarterly basis. Due to the non-compliance with the Company's revolving credit agreement with Provident Bank at December 31, 2004, the notes were not repaid on February 1, 2005, and were classified as current notes payable. As a result of the non-payment, if the holders requested acceleration of the notes, the notes would have become due and immediately payable. The holders did not request acceleration. As a result of the non-payment, the interest on these notes increased to 10%. With the consent of Provident Bank, the Company used a portion of the proceeds from the sale of its secure network services business to repay these notes (including accrued interest) in full on July 13, 2005.
