ITEM 5. Other Events.

On November 20, 2002, Atlas Air, Inc. ("Atlas Air") and Atlas Freighter Leasing III, Inc. ("AFL III"), subsidiaries of Atlas Air Worldwide Holdings, Inc. (the "Company"), were formally notified by Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (the "Agent"), that the failure to provide financial statements for the third quarter of 2002 has created a default under the credit facilities maintained by Atlas Air and AFL III and the related intercompany aircraft leases between Atlas Air and AFL III (the "Facilities"). In a Form 8-K filing dated November 14th, the Company announced that as a result of the Company's previously disclosed restatement and reaudit, the Company's Form 10-Q for the third quarter would be delayed until the re-audit and restatement has been completed.

The applicable 15-day cure period for the default has now passed, causing the default to automatically become an Event of Default under the terms of the Facilities. Atlas Air and AFL III continue to seek a waiver from the lenders and are hopeful that they will continue to cooperate in this regard. If not waived, the Event of Default would entitle the lenders under the Facilities to accelerate repayment of approximately $246 million in outstanding indebtedness, should lenders representing at least 50.1% of the outstanding loans choose to do so.

The Company intends to seek additional waivers if and to the extent necessary to avoid defaults under any other indebtedness. There can be no assurance, however, that any such required waivers can be obtained.

Atlas Air's operations remain unaffected by this process.
