MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Executive Summary

ALLTEL Corporation ("ALLTEL" or the "Company") is a customer-focused communications company providing wireline and wireless services.

Wireless customer growth was strong as ALLTEL added more than 600,000 net customers during the year, most of which were new customers.

Wireless service revenues increased 7 percent from 2003 driven by an 8 percent increase in retail revenues, reflecting growth in the wireless segment.

Wireless segment income for 2004 increased 2 percent from a year ago, reflecting the growth in retail revenues not offset by an increase in operating expenses.

In its wireline business, ALLTEL added more than 90,000 high-speed data customers, increasing ALLTEL's DSL customer base.

ALLTEL maintained its strong financial position while returning more than $1 billion in capital to shareholders. Dividends were paid to shareholders during the year.

As further discussed under "Pending Acquisitions to be Completed in 2005", ALLTEL positioned its wireless business for growth through strategic acquisitions.

During 2005, the Company will continue to face significant challenges resulting from competition in the telecommunications market.

F-2

ACQUISITIONS

Pending Acquisitions to be Completed During 2005

On January 9, 2005, ALLTEL entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with Western Wireless, Inc. ("Western Wireless").

On November 26, 2004, ALLTEL and Cingular Wireless LLC ("Cingular"), a joint venture between SBC Communications Inc. and Cingular Wireless, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger.

Acquisitions Completed During 2004, 2003 and 2002

On December 1, 2004, ALLTEL completed the purchase of certain wireless assets from United States Cellular Corporation. On August 29, 2003, ALLTEL purchased for $22.8 million in cash a wireless property with a potential service area covering approximately 100,000 wireline customers.
F-3

On August 1, 2002, ALLTEL completed its purchase of local telephone properties serving approximately 589,000 wireline customers. The accounts and results of operations of the acquired wireline and wireless properties discussed above are included in the following table.
F-4

Service revenues increased $218.2 million, or 3 percent, in 2004, primarily reflecting growth in ALLTEL's wireless customer base. The above increases in service revenues in 2004 were partially offset by lower wireless airtime, retail roaming and wireless product sales. Service revenues increased $727.2 million, or 11 percent, in 2003. The acquisitions of wireless and wireline properties in 2003 resulted in an increase in service revenues of $150.0 million. Product sales increased $48.0 million, or 6 percent, in 2004 and $140.3 million, or 21 percent, in 2003. The increase in product sales in 2004 was primarily due to the sale of wireless devices.
F-5

Cost of services increased $100.6 million, or 4 percent, in 2004 and $234.6 million, or 12 percent, in 2003. The increase in cost of services in 2004 was primarily due to higher wireless network-related costs and increased wireless regulatory fees, cost of services for 2003 also increased due to higher wireless network-related costs and increased wireless regulatory fees. Cost of products sold decreased $32.0 million, or 3 percent, in 2004 and increased $152.2 million, or 17 percent, in 2003. Selling, general, administrative and other operating expenses increased $26.1 million, or 2 percent, in 2004 and $201.1 million, or 10 percent, in 2003. Pension expense, which is included in both cost of services and selling, general, administrative and other expenses, decreased $10.0 million, or 1 percent, in 2004 and $152.2 million, or 14 percent, in 2003. Depreciation and amortization expense increased $52.0 million, or 4 percent, in 2004 and $152.2 million, or 14 percent, in 2003.

A summary of the restructuring and other charges recorded in 2002 was as follows:

During the evaluation of its existing CLEC operations, ALLTEL determined that a business model that relied heavily on leased facilities was not sustainable. The $12.6 million in lease and contract termination costs recorded in 2002 consisted of $6.2 million, representing the expense of terminating contracts. F-8

In connection with the purchase of wireline properties in Kentucky from Verizon and wireless properties from CenturyLink, the Company exchanged certain used equipment. In conjunction with a product replacement program initiated by a vendor in 2001, the Company exchanged certain used equipment. As of December 31, 2004, the remaining unpaid liability related to the Company's integration and restructuring activities was $12.6 million. As indicated in the table above, non-operating income, net increased $26.1 million, or 816 percent, in 2004 and non-operating income, net increased $17.9 million, or 100 percent, in 2003. Equity earnings in unconsolidated partnerships in 2003 included $17.9 million of additional income resulting from the sale of equity interests. F-9 received FCC approval for five non-rural ETC applications and obtained approval of its petitions from state commissions. Service revenue growth in 2004 and 2003 attributable to increased access revenues from customer growth, additional services and products. Primarily driven by growth in average monthly retail minutes of use, increased sales of higher-priced postpay rate plans and other services. Product sales increased $25.0 million, or 10 percent, in 2004 and $100.9 million, or 63 percent, in 2003. The increase in product sales was primarily due to increased sales of higher-priced postpay rate plans and other services. Cost of services increased $175.8 million, or 13 percent, in 2004 and $121.7 million, or 10 percent, in 2003. The increase in cost of services was primarily due to increased sales of higher-priced postpay rate plans and other services. Selling, general, administrative and other expenses increased $46.9 million, or 4 percent, in 2004 and $196.9 million, or 4 percent, in 2003. Depreciation and amortization expense increased $67.8 million, or 10 percent, in 2004 and $93.4 million, or 16 percent, in 2003. Primarily as a result of growth in revenues and sales discussed above, wireless segment income increased $22.2 million, or 10 percent, in 2004 and $196.9 million, or 4 percent, in 2003. Cost to acquire a new customer is used to measure the average cost of adding a new customer and represents sales, marketing and other expenses.

In addition to the effects of the acquisition, miscellaneous revenues in 2003 also reflected growth in revenues derived from DSL services. Primarily due to the DSL customer growth and increased sales of enhanced products and services, average revenue per user increased $1.2 million, or 14 percent, in 2004 and $1.1 million, or 14 percent, in 2003. Cost of services decreased $32.9 million, or 4 percent, in 2004 and increased $92.1 million, or 14 percent, in 2003. Cost of products sold decreased slightly in 2004 and increased $4.3 million, or 17 percent, in 2003. The decrease in 2004 was due to the acquisition of the DSL business. Selling, general, administrative and other expenses decreased $15.1 million, or 6 percent, in 2004 and increased $8.2 million, or 11 percent, in 2003. Depreciation and amortization expense decreased $10.0 million, or 2 percent, in 2004 and increased $60.9 million, or 11 percent, in 2003. #### Regulatory Matters-Wireline Operations

Except for the Kentucky properties acquired in 2002 and the Nebraska operations acquired in 1999, ALLTEL's ILEC subsidiaries are subject to rate-of-return regulation. Although the Company believes that the application of SFAS No. 71 continues to be appropriate, it is possible that changes in rate-of-return regulation may affect the Company's financial results. Most states in which ALLTEL's ILEC subsidiaries operate have adopted alternatives to rate-of-return regulation, either cost-of-service or performance-based regulation. A number of carriers have begun offering voice telecommunications services utilizing Internet protocol as the underlying technology.

traditional telephony services, and the distinctions between different types of IP-enabled services. The FCC indicated that although the FCC's rulemaking regarding IP-enabled services remains pending, the FCC has adopted three orders establishing a framework for IP-enabled services. On October 8, 2004, the FCC granted in part and denied in part a petition filed by Core Communications requesting that the FCC establish a framework for IP-enabled services. In April 2001, the FCC released a notice of proposed rulemaking addressing inter-carrier compensation. Under this rulemaking, the federal universal service program is under legislative, regulatory and industry participant scrutiny as a result of the FCC's actions. In May 2001, the FCC adopted the Rural Task Force Order that established an interim universal service mechanism that will be replaced by a permanent universal service mechanism.

telephone companies and to determine what changes, if any, should be made to the existing high-cost support mechanism. On November 8, 2002, the FCC requested that the Joint Board review certain of the FCC's rules relating to the high-cost support mechanism. As previously discussed under "Regulatory Matters - Wireless Operations", the FCC mandated that, effective October 1, 2003, the Joint Board review certain of the FCC's rules relating to the high-cost support mechanism. On December 20, 2001, the FCC released a notice of proposed rulemaking initiating the first triennial review of the FCC's rules relating to the high-cost support mechanism. On March 2, 2004, the D.C. Circuit Court overturned key portions of the FCC's Triennial Review Order. The D.C. Circuit Court's decision was affirmed by the Supreme Court. On September 13, 2004, the FCC released its Interim UNE Order requiring incumbent ILECs to maintain the status quo until a permanent UNE rule is adopted.

F-24

Review proceeding and permanent UNE rules on ALLTEL's ILEC operations cannot be determined, however it is not expected that the review will result in a permanent UNE rule. On September 15, 2003, the FCC launched its first comprehensive review of the rules that establish wholesale pricing of broadband services. During the first quarter of 2002, the FCC initiated a rulemaking to evaluate the appropriate framework for broadband access services. Section 251(b) of the Communications Act of 1934 (the "34 Act"), as amended, requires, in part, that local exchange carriers provide broadband access services. Because certain of the regulatory matters discussed above are under FCC or judicial review, resolution of these matters will be dependent on the outcome of the review.

F-25

Communications support services revenues and sales decreased $35.2 million, or 4 percent, in 2004 and increased $33.8 million in 2003. Sales of telecommunications and data products increased $13.8 million in 2004, reflecting increased sales to non-affiliated customers. The increase in revenues and sales in 2003 primarily reflected growth in sales of telecommunications and data products. Primarily due to the decrease in revenues and sales noted above, communications support services segment income decreased $10.5 million in 2004 and increased $10.5 million in 2003.

Set forth below is a summary of the restructuring and other charges related to the communications support services operating segment.

Segment Capital Requirements

The primary uses of cash for ALLTEL's operating segments are capital expenditures for property, plant and equipment. Capital expenditures for 2005 will be primarily incurred for further deployment of digital wireless technology, including network expansion.

(a) Computed as the sum of long-term debt including current maturities, redeemable preferred stock and total shareholder equity.

Cash Flows from Operations

Cash provided from operations continued to be ALLTEL's primary source of funds. Cash provided from operations in 2004 was $1,125.4 million, compared to $1,125.4 million in 2003.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Capital expenditures continued to be ALLTEL's primary use of capital resources. Capital expenditures were $1,125.4 million in 2004, compared to $1,125.4 million in 2003. During 2004, cash outlays for the purchase of property, net of cash acquired, were $185.1 million. In 2004, ALLTEL purchased $185.1 million of property. ALLTEL's commercial paper and long-term credit ratings with Moody's Investors Service ("Moody's"), Standard & Poor's. Factors that could affect ALLTEL's short and long-term credit ratings would include, but not be limited to, a material default. The revolving credit agreement contains various covenants and restrictions including a requirement that, as of the end of the period, At December 31, 2004, current maturities of long-term debt were $225.0 million and included a $200.0 million, 6.75 percent

Pension Plans

ALLTEL maintains a qualified defined benefit pension plan, which covers substantially all employees. Prior to January 1, 2004, F-30

Annual pension expense for 2005 was calculated based upon a number of actuarial assumptions, including an expected return on plan assets. The discount rate selected is based on a review of current market interest rates of high-quality, fixed-rate debt securities. As of December 31, 2004, ALLTEL had cumulative unrecognized actuarial losses of $226.9 million, compared to $18.0 million in 2003. ALLTEL made a $100.0 million contribution to its qualified pension plan in December 2004. ALLTEL does not expect to make any contributions in 2005.

Other Postretirement Benefits

The Company provides postretirement healthcare and life insurance benefits for eligible employees. Retired employees are eligible for healthcare benefits. Annual postretirement expense for 2005 was calculated based upon a number of actuarial assumptions, including a healthcare cost trend rate of 7.5 percent. F-31

The healthcare cost trend rate is based on the Company's actual medical claims experience and future projections of medical costs. On December 8, 2003, the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003 (the "Act") became law.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company does not use securitization of trade receivables, affiliation with special purpose entities, variable interest entities, or other off-balance sheet arrangements. As defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and regulations, the Company is a party to off-balance sheet arrangements.

Guarantees

As further discussed in Note 14 to the consolidated financial statements, in conjunction with the sale of the financial services assets to Convergys, ALLTEL agreed to indemnify Convergys for any damages resulting from the sale of assets to Convergys. F-32

Obligation to Sell Shares of ALLTEL Common Stock

As previously discussed, to fund the cost of the acquisitions completed in August 2002, ALLTEL sold 27.7 million equity shares.

Contractual Obligations and Commitments

Set forth below is a summary of ALLTEL's material contractual obligations and commitments as of December 31, 2004.

(a) Excludes $(13.1) million of unamortized discounts and the fair value of interest rate swap agreements of $67.1 million. Under the Company's long-term debt borrowing agreements, acceleration of principal payments would occur upon payment of a default. F-33

Market Risk

The Company is exposed to market risk from changes in marketable equity security prices, interest rates, and foreign exchange rates.

Equity Price Risk

Changes in equity prices primarily affect the fair value of ALLTEL's investments in marketable equity securities. Fair value is determined based on the closing price of the securities on the reporting date.

Interest Rate Risk

The Company's earnings are affected by changes in variable interest rates related to ALLTEL's issuance of short-term debt.

As of December 31, 2004 and 2003, the Company had no borrowings outstanding under its commercial paper program.

Foreign Exchange Risk

The Company's business operations in foreign countries are not material to the Company's consolidated operations, financial statements, or cash flows.

Critical Accounting Policies

ALLTEL prepares its consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Service revenues for the Company's communications business are recognized based upon minutes of use processed and transmitted. F-34 on historical minutes of use processed. Changes in estimates for revenues are recognized in the period in which they are earned. In evaluating the collectibility of its trade receivables, ALLTEL assesses a number of factors including a specific customer's creditworthiness. The calculation of the annual costs of providing pension and postretirement benefits are based on certain key actuarial assumptions. The calculation of depreciation and amortization expense is based on the estimated economic useful lives of the underlying assets. In accordance with SFAS No. 142, ALLTEL tests its goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangible assets for impairment. The Company's estimates of income taxes and the significant items resulting in the recognition of deferred tax assets are based on the Company's tax returns. F-35

Legal Proceedings

ALLTEL is party to various legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of business. Although the ultimate resolution of these proceedings is uncertain, the Company does not believe that the outcome of these proceedings will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

On December 16, 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued SFAS No. 123(R), "Share-Based Payment," which requires companies to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value of the award.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations includes, and future filings of the Company may include, forward-looking statements. Actual future events and results may differ materially from those expressed in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors. In addition to these factors, actual future performance, outcomes and results may differ materially because of other, more fully developed factors. See "Risk Factors" in the Company's 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

8. Employee Benefit Plans and Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions, Continued:

As a component of determining its annual pension cost, ALLTEL amortizes unrecognized gains or losses that exceed a certain threshold. A summary of plan assets, projected benefit obligation and funded status of the plans were as follows at December 31: Employer contributions and benefits paid in the above table included amounts contributed directly to or paid directly from the plans. The accumulated benefit obligation for all defined benefit pension plans was $916.2 million and $802.0 million at December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Actuarial assumptions used to calculate the projected benefit obligations were as follows for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003:

In developing the expected long-term rate of return assumption, ALLTEL evaluated historical investment performance of the Company's qualified defined pension plan assets. The asset allocation at December 31, 2004 and 2003 and target allocation for 2005 for the Company's qualified defined pension plan are as follows:

Primarily due to cash contributions funded to the qualified pension plan by ALLTEL in late December of each year that the Company's qualified defined pension plan assets were as follows:

Information regarding the healthcare cost trend rate was as follows for the years ended December 31:

2004	2003
6.5%	6.5%

For the year ended December 31, 2004, a one percent increase in the assumed healthcare cost trend rate would increase the projected benefit obligations by approximately $1.5 million.

F-64

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*8. Employee Benefit Plans and Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pensions, Continued:

Estimated future employer contributions and benefit payments were as follows as of December 31, 2004:

The expected employer contribution for pension benefits consists solely of amounts necessary to fund the expected benefit payments. The expected employer contribution for healthcare benefits is based on the expected cost of the healthcare plan. Under the Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement and Modernization Act of 2003, (the "Act") beginning in 2006, the Company will be required to contribute to a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan. ALLTEL has a non-contributory defined contribution plan in the form of profit-sharing arrangements for eligible employees.
