On August 9, 2005, Zix Corporation (the Company) closed a transaction under a Securities Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with certain purchasers (collectively, the Purchasers) in which the Company agreed to issue and sell an aggregate of 10,503,862 units consisting of (i) one share of common stock of the Company, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock), and (ii) a related warrant to purchase one-third of one share of Common Stock. The units were sold for a purchase price of $2.50 per unit, except in the case of units purchased by officers and directors of the Company, which were sold at a purchase price of $2.99 per unit.

Due to limitation arising as a result of marketplace rules of the Nasdaq National Market applicable to the Company, the Company only issued an aggregate of 6,302,318 shares of Common Stock and related warrants to purchase 2,079,767 shares of Common Stock to the Purchasers at the closing of the Purchase Agreement for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $15.8 million ($14.61 million in net proceeds to the Company after transaction fees and expenses). Additionally, approximately $10.5 million ($9.64 million in net proceeds after transaction fees and expenses) of funds relating to the remaining 4,201,544 shares of Common Stock and related warrants to purchase up to 1,386,507 shares of Common Stock (together, the Excess Securities) were placed in escrow pending the approval of the Company's shareholders to issue the Excess Securities.

On November 21, 2005, the shareholders approved the issuance of the Excess Securities at a special shareholders meeting. The approval of the shareholders results in total proceeds to the Company from the transaction of $24.3 million, net of transaction fees and expenses. The Company intends to use the net proceeds for working capital and general corporate purposes, including funding the Company's business plan. A copy of the Company's press release announcing the special shareholders meeting voting results, including the approval of the issuance of the Excess Securities, is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

All of the Common Stock shares issued in the August 9, 2005 private placement transaction and the shares issuable upon exercise of the warrants, including the Excess Securities, are covered by a shelf registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, No. 333-128186.
