On or about May 14, 2007, Inverness Medical Innovations, Inc. (the Company) sold $150 million principal amount of 3% convertible senior subordinated notes due 2016 (the Notes) in a private placement to qualified institutional buyers (the Investors identified in the Schedule of Investors included within Exhibit 99.1 hereto) pursuant to the terms of Securities Purchase Agreements dated May 9, 2007 (the Purchase Agreements) substantially in the form appended to this Current Report as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The Notes pay interest semiannually at a rate of 3.00% per annum and are convertible to Company common stock at a conversion price of approximately $52.30 per share, representing a 30% conversion premium based on the closing price of $40.23 per share on May 9, 2007. At the initial conversion price, the Notes are convertible into an aggregate 2,868,120 shares of common stock. The conversion price is subject to adjustment one year from the date of sale if the 30 day volume-weighted average trading price of Inverness common stock as of such date is lower than $40.23, subject to a floor of $40.23, or from time to time in the event of stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalizations and other similar events. The Notes may not be redeemed by the Company prior to their stated maturity. In the event of certain fundamental changes, as defined in the Indenture, the Company may be required to repurchase the Notes for cash at a price equal to 100% of the unconverted principal plus any accrued but unpaid interest. The Notes are equal in right of payment to the Company's outstanding bonds and subordinate in right of payment to the prior payment of the Company's senior indebtedness. The Notes contain customary events of default entitling the trustee or the holders to declare all amounts owed pursuant to the Notes immediately payable if the Company violates certain of its obligations.

The Notes were issued pursuant to an Indenture between the Company and U.S. Bank Trust National Association (the Trustee) dated May 14, 2007, a copy of which is appended to this Current Report as Exhibit 4.1 and incorporated herein by reference. The Company estimates that the net proceeds from sale of the Notes will be approximately $146.3 million, after deducting estimated discounts, commissions and expenses.

The Notes were offered and sold without registration under the Securities Act of 1933 in reliance upon the exemption provided by Rule 506 of Regulation D. However, pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement dated May 14, 2007 between the Company and the Investors, a copy of which is appended to this Current Report as Exhibit 99.2 and incorporated herein by reference, the Company agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to register the Notes and the shares of its common stock issuable under the Notes with the Securities and Exchange Commission within 90 days.
