This Amendment No. 12 to the Statement on Schedule 13D amends and supplements the Statement in Schedule 13D relating to the event date of January 25, 2001, filed by BFMA Holding Corporation, Florescue Family Corporation, Barry W. Florescue and Ned L. Siegel as amended by Amendment No. 1 relating to the event date of March 21, 2001, Amendment No. 2 relating to the event date of April 26, 2001, Amendment No. 3 relating to the event date of June 27, 2001, Amendment No. 4 relating to the event date of July 19, 2001, Amendment No. 5 relating to the event date of July 27, 2001, Amendment No. 6 relating to the event date of September 6, 2001, Amendment No. 7 relating to the event date of November 8, 2001, Amendment No. 8 relating to the event date of February 14, 2002, Amendment No. 9 relating to the event date of March 21, 2002, Amendment No. 10 relating to the event date of May 14, 2002 and Amendment No. 11 relating to the event date of June 5, 2002 (collectively, the "Schedule 13D"). Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein shall have the meanings assigned thereto in the Schedule 13D.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

The first paragraph of Item 4 has been amended to add the following:

On July 11, 2002, BFMA nominated three individuals - Richard A. Bloom, Barry W. Florescue and Charles W. Miersch - for election to the Morton's Board of Directors at its 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. According to the Company's most recent proxy statement, in the event that the Castle Harlan merger is not completed, a 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders has been scheduled to be held on August 28, 2002. Since the date of the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders occurs more than thirteen months after the date of the previous year's annual meeting, May 10, 2001, BFMA determined that the re-nomination of director nominees was necessary. BFMA intends to solicit proxies in favor of its nominees to Morton's Board of Directors if the meeting is held.

Lee M. Cohn (Chairman)
Alan A. Teran
Robert L. Barney
c/o Morton's Restaurant Group, Inc.

Gentlemen:

I have watched the proceedings of the special committee over the past month and a half and I am writing to you to express my profound disappointment in your actions. As you know, I have written several letters setting forth my concerns about the manner in which the senior management, the directors and the special committee of the Board of Directors of Morton's have conducted themselves over the past 17 months.

I am absolutely disgusted by your rejection of Carl Icahn's $17.00 per share offer which is substantially superior to Castle Harlan's $16.00 price, even with its condition that the company waive its "poison pill" rights agreement provisions. These provisions were originally designed to protect a company's shareholders from unwanted offers but are now being used against them in order, in my opinion, to help you deliver Morton's to your colleagues Allen Bernstein and John Castle. I am incensed that the company would state that it is prohibited from waiving its "poison pill" under its merger agreement with Castle Harlan. As you should be well aware, a company cannot, under current Delaware law, contractually prevent itself from exercising its right to waive this type of plan. Therefore, we question whether the special committee, in negotiating away this right, breached its fiduciary duties to the shareholders of Morton's under Delaware law. BFMA has alleged this very thing in its pending lawsuit against you. In the interest of all the company's shareholders, I demand that the special committee declare Mr. Icahn's latest $17.00 offer as a "superior proposal".

Edgar Filing: BFMA HOLDING CORP - Form SC 13D/A

I further demand that the special committee insist, if Castle Harlan wants to remain as the high bidder, that it top the Icahn offer by a material amount, rather than simply match the offer and waive certain closing conditions. If the special committee feels that these customary conditions to closing a transaction are important enough to differentiate one offer from another, then it appears to me that you must have real concerns about Castle Harlan's ability to close the deal.

The timing of your responses and Castle Harlan's responses to Mr. Icahn's offers lead me to believe that the special committee has neither acted fairly nor properly in this process. It appears more clearly to me today, after watching your recent antics, you have failed to act in a manner that represents the best interests of the company's shareholders.

I believe that this special committee should actively take certain steps to keep the auction process as open and fair as possible in order to maximize value for the company's shareholders. The first step would be to waive the company's "poison pill" rights plan and the application of Section 203 of the Delaware Business Corporation Law during the pendency of the sale process. This step would allow large shareholders to meet with each other without risk of causing the "poison pill" contained in the rights plan to be exercised or other adverse effects to impact a potential acquiror. There are no defensible reasons to maintain these "poison pill" provisions in light of your decision to sell the company. In fact, maintaining the "poison pill" chills the process and potentially precludes the company's shareholders' ability to get the best deal.

The second step would be to delay the company's special meeting from July 23, 2002 until the scheduled date of the annual meeting, August 28, 2002. This step would allow more time for the current bidders to continue to increase their offers and for other bidders to enter the process to make offers.

The third step would be to publicly release detailed second quarter financial information sufficiently prior to any vote by the shareholders on an offer and to give the shareholders (and any potentially interested parties) a chance to adequately review this information. We note that Castle Harlan, through John Castle, already has access to this information. We further note that many of Morton's competitors have demonstrated dramatic recent financial improvement in these past few months. As a substantial shareholder, I want to know how the company has performed during this most recent period. It has been more than three months since you agreed to the $12.60 price from Castle Harlan and four months since we have seen any updates on the company performance. Need I remind you that you negotiated this sale price at the worst possible time in the company's history?

These actions are necessary in light of my belief that, to date, this special committee has not performed its job in a capable manner. In your recommendation of the Castle Harlan transaction, the proxy statement extols "the fact that the Special Committee was able to negotiate the purchase price up to $12.60 per share from an initial offer price of $12.00 per share." You attempt to portray in your proxy statement that the special committee really worked hard for that 2% increase. Yet, as soon as the special committee (reluctantly, I believe) let Carl Icahn into the process to bid $13.50 per share, Castle Harlan immediately matched Mr. Icahn's offer (a $0.90 increase above the value the special committee worked so hard to secure with Castle Harlan). Further, Castle Harlan matched Mr. Icahn's $15.00 offer just five business days after it was deemed to be a "superior offer" and took less than two hours to match Mr. Icahn's $16.00 offer. It certainly appears that Mr. Icahn's interest in acquiring the company has done what the special committee was unable or unwilling to do. According to your own proxy statement, it took the special committee two months to negotiate a $0.60 per share increase in the per share purchase price. Suddenly, thanks to Carl Icahn's interest in acquiring the company, Castle Harlan has found an additional $3.40 per share, representing a 27% increase in their offer price. The shareholders are fortunate that Mr. Icahn has the sophistication to see the true value of this opportunity and the company and the resources and inclination to pursue this transaction and that Mr. Icahn is not as easily intimidated by your actions as some of the other interested parties appear to have been.

YOUR RECENT PUBLIC STATEMENTS REGARDING THE COMPANY'S POOR FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE, YOUR WARNINGS ABOUT A POTENTIAL DELISTING OF THE COMPANY'S SHARES AND YOUR EXPRESSIONS OF CONCERN REGARDING THE LIMITATION ON THE COMPANY'S GROWTH DUE TO ITS FINANCING TERMS ARE TROUBLING TO ME, TO SAY THE LEAST. HOW CAN THESE STATEMENTS BE JUSTIFIED IN THE FACE OF CASTLE HARLAN'S SUBSTANTIAL INCREASES IN ITS OFFER PRICE? WE BELIEVE THAT THE SHAREHOLDERS DESERVE AN EXPLANATION OF THIS INCONSISTENCY.

Despite the fortuitous recent increase in Castle Harlan's offer price, I continue to believe it significantly undervalues the company. Considering the improved restaurant operating environment and Morton's likely improved balance sheet and cash flow, I AM SURE THE SHAREHOLDERS WOULD BENEFIT FROM SEEING THE COMPANY'S MOST RECENT FINANCIAL RESULTS.

This is only my opinion, but perhaps if the special committee were focused on doing its job properly instead of trying to do everything possible to gift-wrap the company for Castle Harlan, the special committee would have been more open to third-party bidders earlier in the process and negotiated a price that reflects the true value of the company. Every increase by Castle Harlan makes the special committee appear to be more and more foolish and simply a puppet of John Castle and allowing Castle Harlan simply to match the economic terms of the Icahn offers only makes this look worse. In my view, the rejection of Carl Icahn's $17.00 offer is a breach of the special committee's fiduciary duties to the shareholders.

Unfortunately, I do not believe that you will undertake any of these steps on your own so, through our proxy solicitation process, we are encouraging the company's other shareholders to (i) vote "NO" on any Castle Harlan offer regardless of when the special meeting is held or at any price because we believe that the process was rigged and tainted (although Mr. Icahn is now interested in acquiring the company, it does not mean that there were no other interested parties willing to pay more, given the opportunity), (ii) elect three new directors at the company's upcoming annual meeting, (iii) demand the reconstitution of the special committee and (iv) re-auction the company in a fair and proper manner - the way it should have been done a year ago. I sincerely hope that you will listen to these shareholders when they communicate with you.

I am stunned at your apparent blatant disregard for the shareholders' best interests given the recent number of well-publicized cases of directors being held personally liable and accountable for breaching their duties and failing shareholders and the current environment of the SEC regarding actions of chief executives and financial officers and their crony boards. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

/s/ Barry W. Florescue
