Voting Proxy Agreements

In order for us to manufacture and sell gaming machines in Nevada, our officers are required to be, and have been or are in the process of being, registered, licensed or found suitable by the Nevada gaming authorities. In addition, under applicable Nevada law and administrative procedure, as a greater than 10% stockholder of WMS, Sumner M. Redstone was required to apply, and has an application pending with the Nevada gaming authorities, for a finding of suitability as a stockholder of WMS. Mr. Redstone and National Amusements, Inc., a company that he controls, collectively own 8,056,000 shares of our common stock. Under an amended voting agreement, Mr. Redstone and National Amusements voluntarily granted a voting proxy to Neil D. Nicastro to vote all of Mr. Redstone's and National Amusements' shares of our common stock. The voting agreement is intended to ensure that the passive investment position of Mr. Redstone and National Amusements relative to WMS will not change without prior notification to the Nevada gaming authorities.

Under this voting agreement, as proxy holder, Mr. Nicastro votes each share of our common stock owned by Mr. Redstone and National Amusements at his discretion at meetings of our stockholders or acts as proxy in connection with any written consent of our stockholders. The term of the voting agreement ends August 24, 2004 unless Mr. Redstone terminates it earlier upon 30 days' written notice. It may also be terminated upon a finding by the Nevada gaming authorities that Mr. Redstone and National Amusements are suitable as stockholders of WMS or are no longer subject to the applicable provisions of Nevada gaming laws.

As a result of a settlement of divorce in July 2002, Phyllis G. Redstone received 3,085,700 shares of our common stock. Ms. Redstone currently owns 1,214,000 shares, or 4.1%, of our common stock. Under an amended voting agreement, Ms. Redstone granted a voting proxy to Neil D. Nicastro to vote all of Ms. Redstone's shares of common stock in order to facilitate compliance by the Company with applicable gaming regulations. Under this voting agreement, as proxy holder, Mr. Nicastro votes each share of our common stock owned by Ms. Redstone at his discretion at meetings of our stockholders or acts as proxy in connection with any written consent of our stockholders. The term of the voting agreement ends November 8, 2012 unless Ms. Redstone terminates it earlier upon 30 days' written notice.

Neil D. Nicastro has advised us that he plans to use the voting proxies to vote all 9,270,000 shares of our common stock beneficially owned by Mr. Redstone and Ms. Redstone (approximately 31.5% of our common stock) in favor of the nominees for election as director and FOR proposal 2.

Required Vote

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of our common stock present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting is required to elect directors.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE NOMINEES FOR ELECTION AS DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is responsible for managing our overall affairs. To assist it in carrying out its duties, the Board has delegated specific authority to several committees. Ten of our eleven directors are neither officers nor employees of WMS or our subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

During fiscal 2003, the Board held fourteen meetings. Each director attended at least 75% of the aggregate number of meetings of the Board and all committees on which he or she served during the fiscal year.

Director Compensation

We pay a fee of $30,000 per year to each director who is not also an employee of WMS or our subsidiaries, excluding our chairman. Beginning in October 2003, we will pay Louis J. Nicastro, our Chairman of the Board, a fee of $300,000 per year. Each non-employee director who serves as the chairman of any committee of our Board of Directors receives a further fee of $5,000 per year for services in that capacity, each member of our Audit and Ethics Committee receives an additional fee of $25,000 per year, and each member of our Compliance Committee receives a further fee of $5,000 per year for services in that capacity. The $5,000 fee that Donna B. More receives as a member of our Compliance Committee includes any legal fees which may be incurred in the performance of her duties on this committee. David M. Satz, Jr. receives a fee of $5,000 per year for serving as the non-employee director of some of our subsidiaries.

Our stock option plans permit the issuance of shares of our common stock upon exercise of non-qualified stock options which may be granted to non-employee directors of WMS, generally at not less than 100% of the fair market value of the shares on the date of grant.

Directors are also entitled to participate, at our expense, in a medical reimbursement plan which is supplementary to their primary medical insurance. In addition, our directors may utilize the corporate aircraft for purposes related or incidental to the business of the Company. They also receive reimbursement of any expenses incurred for purposes related or incidental to the business of the Company.

Under the terms of the letter agreement, dated June 12, 2001, which terminated our employment agreement with Louis J. Nicastro, we continue to provide Mr. Nicastro with benefits relating to medical, dental and other expenses.

Effective March 1, 2002, we issued a restricted stock grant of 250,000 shares of our common stock held in treasury to Louis J. Nicastro. This grant was issued in consideration for his service as Chairman of the Technology Committee of the Board of Directors, which had been established to provide enhanced oversight of the timely completion of the first part of our technology improvement plan and was disbanded effective September 18, 2003. Under the terms of the grant, the restricted shares would have vested on June 30, 2003 if the Board determined that certain specified performance conditions relating to our technology improvement plan were satisfied.

On May 7, 2003, the Board of Directors determined that the performance conditions for the vesting of these restricted shares had been satisfied, except for the occurrence of June 30, 2003. Based on Mr. Nicastro's willingness to accept a discount from the prevailing market price of the shares and the recent appreciation in the market price of our common stock, the Board further determined that it would be in our best interests to purchase the rights to the restricted shares from Mr. Nicastro at that time to mitigate (1) the potential increase in our compensation expense resulting from the vesting of the restricted shares on June 30, 2003, and (2) the potential dilutive effect and negative impact which may have arisen from resale of these restricted shares, when vested, if the market price of our common stock were to increase. We purchased the rights to these restricted shares from Mr. Nicastro for $3,500,000 or $14.00 per share. This share price reflects a discount of $0.50 per share from the closing market price on May 6, 2003.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Audit and Ethics Committee, established in accordance with section 3(a)(58)(e)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, is a three-member committee, currently composed of three independent directors (as independence is defined in Section 303.01(B) of the existing New York Stock Exchange listing standards): Messrs. McKenna (Chairman), Bach and Bartholomay. In September 2003, Mr. Sheinfeld, who served on the committee since 1993, resigned in anticipation of the proposed New York Stock Exchange independence standards that will not permit membership on the committee of attorneys whose firms provide any legal services to the Company. See Other Related Party Transactions. Mr. Sheinfeld continues to serve as a member of our Board of Directors.

This committee meets periodically with the independent auditors and internal personnel to consider the adequacy of internal accounting controls, to receive and review the recommendations of the independent auditors, to recommend the appointment of auditors, to review the scope of the audit and the compensation of the independent auditors, to review our quarterly earnings releases, to review the results of quarterly reviews and the annual audit by our auditors; to review our consolidated financial statements and, generally, to review our accounting policies and to resolve potential conflicts of interest. The Board has adopted a written charter for this committee. A copy of the charter is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement. The report of this committee is set forth later in this proxy statement. During fiscal 2003, this committee held twelve meetings.

The Compensation Committee is currently composed of Messrs. Bartholomay (Chairman) and McKenna. This committee makes recommendations regarding the compensation of senior management personnel. The joint report of this committee and the Stock Option Committee is set forth later in this proxy statement. During fiscal 2003, this committee did not hold any meetings, taking all actions by the unanimous written consent of its members.

The Nominating Committee is currently composed of Messrs. Neil D. Nicastro (Chairman) and Bartholomay. This committee makes recommendations about the nomination of candidates for election to the Board and does not consider recommendations from stockholders. During fiscal 2003, this committee did not hold any meetings, taking all actions by the unanimous written consent of its members.

The Stock Option Committee is currently composed of Messrs. Reich (Chairman) and McKenna. This committee determines the timing, pricing and the amount of option grants to be made under the provisions of our stock option plans. See Stock Option Plans below. Stock Option Plans

We have the following stock option plans in effect: our 1991, 1993, 1994, 2000 and 2002 Stock Option Plans, each of which was approved by our stockholders, and our 1998 and 2000 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plans, which were approved by our Board of Directors. All of these plans are referred to, collectively below, as the Plans. The Plans permit us to grant options to purchase shares of our common stock. These options may be granted as incentive stock options, designed to meet the requirements of Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, except for options granted under the 1998 and 2000 Non-Qualified Stock Option Plans, or they may be non-qualified options that do not meet the requirements of that section.

The purpose of each of the Plans is to encourage our employees and, under some of the Plans, non-employee directors, consultants and advisors, to acquire an ownership interest in our common stock and to enable these individuals to realize benefits from an increase in the value of our common stock. We believe that this benefit provides these individuals with greater incentive to maximize their performance by more closely aligning their interests with those of our stockholders and encourages their continued provision of services to us. The Stock Option Committee determines which of the eligible directors, officers, employees, consultants and advisors receive stock options, the terms, including applicable vesting periods, of the options, and the number of shares for which options are granted. The option price per share with respect to each option is determined by the Stock Option Committee and generally is not less than the fair market value of our common stock on the date that the option is granted. The Plans each have a term of ten years, unless terminated earlier.

The average exercise price of outstanding options, at October 15, 2003, was approximately $15.67 per share. Of the 4,171,738 options outstanding on October 15, 2003, 1,626,837 were held by our officers and directors.

Restricted Stock Grants

Upon the recommendation of our Compensation Committee, we have, on occasion, granted restricted stock to our employees, officers, directors or consultants so as to motivate them to devote their full energies to our success, to reward them for their services and to align their interests with the interests of the stockholders.

In fiscal 2003, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and the Stock Option Committee, approved a grant of restricted stock of 7,478 shares to each of Brian R. Gamache, Scott D. Schweinfurth, Orrin J. Edidin and Seamus McGill in lieu of any cash bonuses for fiscal 2003 in recognition of their substantial time and efforts in the implementation of our technology improvement plan. The restricted shares will vest on June 11, 2004, subject to each individual's continued employment with WMS.

Treasury Share Bonus Plan

Our Treasury Share Bonus Plan for key employees covers 64,312 shares of common stock held in the treasury, of which 52,312 shares were available for grant on June 30, 2003. The vesting and terms of the awards are determined at the discretion of management. No awards of treasury stock were outstanding under this plan at June 30, 2002 or 2003.

JOINT REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION AND STOCK OPTION COMMITTEESON FISCAL 2003 EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee is responsible for making recommendations to our Board of Directors regarding the compensation of senior management personnel. To the extent that stock options form a portion of a compensation package, the Compensation Committee works together with the Stock Option Committee, which is responsible for determining stock option grants and awards.

It is the policy of the Compensation and Stock Option Committees to provide attractive compensation packages to senior management so as to motivate them to devote their full energies to our success, to reward them for their services and to align their interests with the interests of our stockholders. Our executive compensation packages are comprised primarily of base salaries, annual contractual and discretionary cash bonuses, stock options and retirement and other benefits. It is the philosophy of the Compensation Committee that WMS be staffed with a small number of well-compensated senior management personnel.

In general, the level of base salary is intended to provide appropriate basic pay to senior management taking into account their historical contributions to our success, each person's unique education, skills and value and the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer. The amount of any discretionary bonus is subjective but is generally based on our actual financial performance in the preceding fiscal year, the special contribution of the executive to our performance and the overall level of the executive's compensation including other elements of the compensation package. Contractual bonuses are likewise designed to give effect to one or more of these factors.

We also have used stock options, which increase in value only if our common stock increases in value and which terminate a short time after an executive leaves, and occasionally restricted stock grants as a means of long-term incentive compensation. The Stock Option Committee determines the size of grants to our executive officers and other employees on an individual, discretionary basis in consideration of financial corporate results and each recipient's performance, contributions and responsibilities without assigning specific weight to any of these factors.

Our President and CEO, Brian R. Gamache, receives a salary, a bonus based on a percentage of our pre-tax income and various retirement and other benefits, under a negotiated formula set forth in his employment agreement. Mr. Gamache's employment agreement provides for discretionary cash bonuses and reflects the same compensation philosophy described above.

In fiscal 2003, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee and the Stock Option Committee, approved a grant of restricted stock of 7,478 shares to each of Brian R. Gamache, Scott D. Schweinfurth, Orrin J. Edidin and Seamus M. McGill in lieu of any cash bonuses for fiscal 2003 and in recognition of their substantial time and efforts in the implementation of our technology improvement plan. The restricted shares will vest on June 11, 2004, subject to each individual's continued employment with WMS.

The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 (the Budget Act) generally provides that publicly-held corporations will only be able to deduct, for income tax purposes, compensation paid to the chief executive officer or any of the four most highly paid senior executive officers in excess of one million dollars per year if it is paid under qualifying performance-based compensation plans approved by stockholders. Compensation as defined by the Budget Act includes, among other things, base salary, incentive compensation and gains on stock option transactions. Total compensation of some of our officers may be paid under plans or agreements that have not been approved by stockholders and may exceed one million dollars in a particular fiscal year. We will not be able to deduct these excess payments for income tax purposes. The Compensation Committee considers, on a case by case basis, how the Budget Act will affect our compensation plans and contractual and discretionary cash compensation.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

We employ Brian R. Gamache under the terms of an agreement dated June 15, 2001. He receives salary at the rate of $550,000 per year, or a greater amount as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Mr. Gamache is entitled to receive a bonus in an amount equal to the lesser of $1 million or 1% of our pre-tax income and such other discretionary cash bonuses and special bonuses that may be determined by the Board of Directors. Mr. Gamache is also entitled to receive a grant of 100,000 options, which will vest for one-third of the grant on each anniversary of the date of grant at the end of each fiscal year in which WMS achieves or exceeds diluted earnings per share of 1.15 times those of the previous fiscal year. Mr. Gamache may participate in all benefit plans and perquisites generally available to our senior executives. The agreement is subject to automatic rolling extensions so that the term of Mr. Gamache's employment shall at no time be less than three years.

In the event of Mr. Gamache's death, his designated beneficiaries will continue to receive salary payments for a period of six months after the date of death. In addition, Mr. Gamache will receive death and retirement benefits, payable in installments, equal to one-half of Mr. Gamache's salary at the time of death or retirement, but not less than $275,000 per annum for a term that is the lesser of: (a) 10 years, or (b) the number of years Mr. Gamache is employed by WMS, beginning March 21, 2000. If Mr. Gamache is disabled for more than 90 consecutive days or 6 months in any 12-month period during the term of the agreement and is not able to resume his duties within 30 days of notice of disability, Mr. Gamache's employment terminates, and he will receive retirement benefits under the agreement.

We may terminate the agreement for cause, which includes dishonesty or failure to follow a reasonable direction of our Board of Directors. Mr. Gamache may elect to terminate his employment agreement upon the occurrence of: (a) a material breach by WMS of any material provision of the agreement, (b) the placement of Mr. Gamache in a position of lesser status, (c) the assignment to Mr. Gamache of duties inconsistent with his current positions, (d) the discontinuance or reduction of his base salary, (e) his removal from the Board or (f) relocation of our headquarters to a location more than 40 miles farther from his current place of residence than our headquarters are presently located. Upon any such event or wrongful termination, we would be obligated to pay Mr. Gamache: (w) a lump sum payment equal in amount to Mr. Gamache's base salary through the date of termination, less any payments previously made; (x) the pro rata bonus which would have been payable during the current year; (y) an amount equal to three times his base salary and annual bonus; and (z) the retirement benefits which would have been payable in the event of retirement on the date of termination.

Mr. Gamache also may terminate his employment agreement if the individuals who presently constitute our Board of Directors, or successors approved by these Board members, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. If such a change of control occurs and Mr. Gamache gives timely notice: (a) all of Mr. Gamache's unvested stock options will immediately vest; (b) we will be required to pay him a lump sum of three times his base salary and annual bonus; (c) all of his retirement benefits would be payable as if he had retired on the date of such change of control; and (d) all health benefits provided to Mr. Gamache under the agreement shall continue for 18 months thereafter. All of Mr. Gamache's unexpired unvested options also immediately vest upon the occurrence of (x) Mr. Gamache's death; (y) Mr. Gamache's termination by reason of permanent disability; or (z) any change of control, including the acquisition of more than 25% of our outstanding voting securities by any person or entity or group of affiliated persons or entities who were not the owners of at least 15% of the outstanding voting securities on July 16, 2001.

If payments made to Mr. Gamache under the employment agreement after a change of control are considered excess parachute payments under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the Code, additional compensation is required to be paid to Mr. Gamache to the extent necessary to eliminate the economic effect on him of the resulting excise tax. Under Section 4999 of the Code, in addition to income taxes, the recipient of excess parachute payments is subject to a 20% nondeductible excise tax on these payments. An excess parachute payment is a payment in the nature of compensation which is contingent on a change of ownership or effective control (as defined in the Code) and which exceeds the portion of the base amount (i.e., the average compensation for the five-year period prior to the change of control) allocable to the payment. These rules apply only if the present value of all payments of compensation contingent on the change of control (including non-taxable fringe benefits) is at least equal to three times the base amount. Excess parachute payments are not tax deductible by us.

We employ Scott D. Schweinfurth under the terms of an agreement dated as of May 19, 2000, as amended. Mr. Schweinfurth receives a salary of $330,000 per year, or a greater amount as may be determined by us. Mr. Schweinfurth may receive annual discretionary bonuses of up to 75% of his base salary, depending on performance criteria. Additionally, Mr. Schweinfurth may participate in all benefit plans generally available to executive employees and is provided with life insurance coverage in the amount of $1,000,000 or whatever lesser amount is available at an annual premium not to exceed $3,000. The agreement is subject to automatic rolling extensions so that the term of Mr. Schweinfurth's employment shall at no time be less than three years. We may terminate the agreement upon 30 days written notice for cause. The employment agreement may also be terminated at the election of Mr. Schweinfurth upon 30 days written notice for material breach. It may also be terminated by Mr. Schweinfurth if the individuals who presently constitute our Board of Directors, or successors approved by these Board members, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. If such a change of control occurs, and Mr. Schweinfurth gives us notice of termination within 60 days, then in lieu of any other rights under the agreement, all of Mr. Schweinfurth's unvested stock options will immediately vest, and we will be required to pay him a lump sum of three times his base salary. In the event of (a) Mr. Schweinfurth's death; (b) Mr. Schweinfurth's termination by reason of permanent disability; (c) any change of control; or (d) any person or entity or group of affiliated persons or entities, who were not the owners of at least 15% of the outstanding shares of our voting securities as of November 15, 2001, acquiring more than 25% of our outstanding shares, all of Mr. Schweinfurth's unexpired unvested options immediately vest. If the agreement terminates by reason of death, disability or material breach by us, or if we terminate the agreement other than for cause, we are required to pay Mr. Schweinfurth or his legal representatives an amount equal to all cash compensation that would otherwise be payable to him until the expiration of the extended term of the agreement. If any portion of the amount paid to Mr. Schweinfurth is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then additional compensation is required to be paid to him to the extent necessary to eliminate the economic effect on him of the resulting excise tax.

We employ Orrin J. Edidin under the terms of an agreement dated as of May 8, 2000, as amended. Mr. Edidin receives a salary of $330,000 per year, or a greater amount as may be determined by us. Mr. Edidin may receive annual discretionary bonuses of up to 75% of his base salary, depending on performance criteria. Additionally, Mr. Edidin may participate in all benefit plans generally available to executive employees and is provided with life insurance coverage in the amount of $1,000,000 or whatever lesser amount is available at an annual premium not to exceed $3,000. The agreement is subject to automatic rolling extensions so that the term of Mr. Edidin's employment shall at no time be less than three years. We may terminate the agreement upon 30 days written notice for cause. The employment agreement may also be terminated at the election of Mr. Edidin upon 30 days written notice for material breach. It may also be terminated by Mr. Edidin if the individuals who presently constitute our Board of Directors, or successors approved by these Board members, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. If such a change of control occurs, and Mr. Edidin gives us notice of termination within 60 days, then in lieu of any other rights under the agreement, all of Mr. Edidin's unvested stock options will immediately vest, and we will be required to pay him a lump sum of three times his base salary. In the event of (a) Mr. Edidin's death; (b) Mr. Edidin's termination by reason of permanent disability; (c) any change of control; or (d) any person or entity or group of affiliated persons or entities who were not the owners of at least 15% of the outstanding shares of our voting securities as of November 15, 2001, acquiring more than 25% of our outstanding shares, all of Mr. Edidin's unexpired unvested options immediately vest. If the agreement terminates by reason of death, disability or material breach by us, or if we terminate the agreement other than for cause, we are required to pay Mr. Edidin or his legal representatives an amount equal to all cash compensation that would otherwise be payable to him until the expiration of the extended term of the agreement. If any portion of the amount paid to Mr. Edidin is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, then additional compensation is required to be paid to him to the extent necessary to eliminate the economic effect on him of the resulting excise tax.

We employ Seamus M. McGill through our wholly-owned subsidiary, WMS Gaming Inc., under an agreement dated February 1, 2001, as amended. Mr. McGill receives a salary of $300,000 per year, or a greater amount as may be determined by us. Mr. McGill may receive annual discretionary bonuses of up to 75% of his base salary, depending on performance criteria. Additionally, Mr. McGill may participate in all benefit plans generally available to executive employees. The agreement is subject to automatic rolling extensions so that the term of Mr. McGill's employment shall at no time be less than two years. We may terminate the agreement for cause. The employment agreement may also be terminated by Mr. McGill if the individuals who presently constitute our Board of Directors, or successors approved by these Board members, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. If such a change of control occurs, and Mr. McGill gives us notice of termination within 60 days, then in lieu of any other rights under the agreement, all of Mr. McGill's unexpired options would immediately vest, and we will be required to pay him the lesser amount of (i) a lump sum equal to two times his base salary; or (ii) the maximum amount which could be payable to Mr. McGill without any portion of such amount being subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code. In the event of (a) Mr. McGill's death; (b) Mr. McGill's termination by reason of permanent disability; (c) any change of control; or (d) any person or entity or group of affiliated persons or entities who were not the owners of at least 15% of the outstanding shares of our voting securities as of November 15, 2001, acquiring more than 25% of our outstanding shares, all of Mr. McGill's unexpired unvested options immediately vest.

Mr. McGill will also receive reimbursement for limited relocation expenses and reimbursement of certain expenses associated with maintaining dual residences. Upon termination of this relocation, the Company shall reimburse Mr. McGill for costs related to moving back to Las Vegas.

We employ Robert R. Rogowski under the terms of an agreement dated May 1, 2000. Mr. Rogowski receives a salary of $200,000 per year, or a greater amount as may be determined by us. Mr. Rogowski may receive annual discretionary bonuses of up to 50% of his base salary, depending on performance criteria. The agreement is subject to automatic rolling extensions so that the term of Mr. Rogowski's employment shall at no time be less than one year. We may terminate the agreement for cause. The employment agreement may also be terminated by Mr. Rogowski if the individuals who presently constitute our Board of Directors, or successors approved by these Board members, cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority of the Board. If such a change of control occurs, and Mr. Rogowski gives us notice of termination within 60 days, then in lieu of any other rights under the agreement, all of Mr. Rogowski's unexpired options would immediately vest, and we will be required to pay him the lesser amount of (i) a lump sum of his base salary; or (ii) the maximum amount which could be payable to Mr. Rogowski without any portion of such amount being subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Relationship with Midway

Midway was formerly a wholly-owned subsidiary of ours. Since we distributed all of our Midway stock to our stockholders in April 1998, we do not own any Midway common stock. Eight of Midway's directors are also directors of ours, including Louis J. Nicastro, our Chairman, and his son, Neil D. Nicastro, the Chairman of the Board of Midway. See Proposal 1 Election of Directors. The remaining material agreements between Midway and us are described below:

Tax Separation Agreement. Until the Midway spinoff, Midway had been a member of the consolidated group of corporations of which WMS was the common parent for federal income tax purposes. Therefore, Midway is jointly and severally liable for any federal tax liability of the WMS group for the period that it was part of the WMS group. The agreement, dated as of April 6, 1998, sets forth the parties' respective liabilities for federal, state and local taxes, among other things, including: (a) the filing of tax returns with federal, state and local authorities; (b) the carryover of any tax benefits of Midway; (c) the treatment of the deduction attributable to the exercise of stock options to purchase our common stock which are held by employees or former employees of Midway and any other similar compensation related tax deductions; (d) the treatment of certain net operating loss carrybacks; (e) the treatment of audit adjustments; and (f) procedures with respect to any proposed audit adjustment or other claim made by any taxing authority with respect to a tax liability of Midway or any of its subsidiaries.

Tax Indemnification Agreement. This agreement provides for indemnification if the Midway spinoff fails to qualify under Section 355 of the Code. Midway will indemnify WMS if any action that it takes causes the spinoff to fail to qualify under Section 355 of the Code, against any taxes, interest, penalties and additions to tax imposed upon or incurred by the WMS Group or any member. WMS will indemnify Midway and its subsidiaries against taxes, interest, penalties and additions to tax resulting from the spinoff, other than any of these liabilities for which Midway is required to indemnify WMS.

Tax Sharing Agreement. This agreement is dated July 1, 1996 and remains in effect, except to the extent described in the Tax Separation Agreement referred to above. Under this agreement, WMS and Midway have agreed upon a method for: (a) determining the amount which Midway must pay to WMS in respect of federal income taxes; (b) compensating any member of the WMS group for use of its net operating losses, tax credits and other tax benefits in arriving at the WMS group tax liability as determined under the federal consolidated return regulations; and (c) providing for the receipt of any refund arising from a carryback of net operating losses or tax credits from subsequent taxable years and for payments upon subsequent adjustments.

In fiscal 2001, WMS paid to Midway and recorded as a long-term tax advance receivable, an amount equal to demonstrated tax benefits lost to Midway relating to the exercise or adjustment of WMS options held by Midway employees. If Midway is able to receive the tax benefits from these options or if there is a change of control of Midway, Midway will pay to WMS some or all of this amount. As a result of settling prior year tax returns with the Internal Revenue Service in June 2003, WMS made a payment to Midway and recorded a long-term tax advance receivable in an amount equal to tax benefits, in addition to payment of interest and unrecoverable consideration related to net operating loss carrybacks we claimed on our fiscal 1997, 1998 and 1999 federal income tax returns. If Midway is able to recover the tax benefits from these losses or if there is a change of control of Midway, Midway will pay to WMS some or all of this amount. At June 30, 2003, WMS fully reserved the aggregate $6.7 million of tax advance receivables due to the uncertainty of the timing of the payback period.

Other Related Party Transactions

Under an agreement with Neil D. Nicastro, one of our directors, Mr. Nicastro renders consulting services to us that our Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board or our Chief Executive Officer may reasonably request. The term of the consulting agreement is automatically renewable for successive one-year terms unless either party shall give notice of termination not less than six months prior to the end of the term then in effect. We pay Mr. Nicastro $1,000 per month for his services under the consulting agreement.

Ira S. Sheinfeld, one of our directors, is a member of the law firm of Hogan & Hartson, LLP. We retained the firm to provide tax services during the last fiscal year and have retained them for tax services during the current fiscal year.

Donna B. More, one of our directors, is a member of the More Law Group law firm, which we retained to provide gaming regulatory legal services during the last fiscal year and have retained for gaming regulatory legal services during the current fiscal year. See also Director Compensation.

In August 2003, William C. Bartholomay, one of our directors, joined the Willis Group Holdings Limited, a global insurance brokerage, which we have retained for insurance services during the current fiscal year. Mr. Bartholomay was formerly President of Near North National Group, insurance brokers, which we retained to provide insurance services during the last fiscal year. See also Election of Directors .

In January 2003, we employed William T. Bartholomay as our Manager New Market Development and continue to employ him at a salary of $80,000 per year plus discretionary bonus and/or stock option grants commensurate with such position. In fiscal 2004, we expect to pay William T. Bartholomay $80,000, plus an annual merit increase and discretionary bonus as may be paid commensurate with such position. William T. Bartholomay is the son of our director, William C. Bartholomay.

PROPOSAL 2 APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

We propose that the stockholders ratify the appointment by the Audit and Ethics Committee of the Board of Directors of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors for fiscal 2004. We expect that representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the annual meeting and that they will be available to respond to appropriate questions submitted by stockholders at the meeting. Ernst & Young LLP will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so.

We were billed the following amounts by Ernst & Young LLP with respect to services rendered with respect to fiscal 2002 and fiscal 2003.

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed by Ernst & Young LLP for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements for fiscal 2002 and fiscal 2003, including the review of the financial statements included in our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, were $241,359 and $307,700, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees. The aggregate fees for audit-related services for the same periods were $132,910 and $149,000, respectively. These audit related services generally included fees for accounting consultations, pension plan audit, gaming and regulatory audits, procedures performed in connection with our convertible debt offering and SEC registration statements.

Tax Fees. The aggregate fees for tax services for the same periods were $150,948 and $130,756, respectively. These tax services generally include fees for domestic and foreign tax consultations.

All Other Fees. We did not retain Ernst & Young LLP for any other services and were not billed any other fees except as set forth above.

Pre-Approved Policies and Procedures. Our Audit and Ethics Committee is responsible for approving the engagement of the independent auditors for audit services each year and for pre-approving all audit and permitted non-audit services by our auditors. The independent auditors will report to our Audit and Ethics Committee annually that they have not performed and will not perform any prohibited non-audit services. Any permitted non-audit services must be pre-approved by either the full Audit and Ethics Committee or a designated member of the Audit and Ethics Committee.

In fiscal 2003, no fees of our independent auditors were approved by our Audit and Ethics Committee under S-X Rule 2-01(c)(7)(i)(C).

The Audit and Ethics Committee has considered whether the independent accountant's provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independent accountant's independence.

Approval by the stockholders of the appointment of independent auditors is not required, but the Board believes that it is desirable to submit this matter to the stockholders. If holders of a majority of our common stock present and entitled to vote on the matter do not approve the selection of Ernst & Young LLP at the meeting, the selection of independent auditors will be reconsidered by the Audit and Ethics Committee.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP AS OUR INDEPENDENT AUDITORS.

AUDIT AND ETHICS COMMITTEE REPORT

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, the Audit and Ethics Committee of our Board of Directors was composed of three independent directors, as defined in the existing NYSE Listed Company Manual, paragraph 303.01(B), and operates under a written charter adopted by the Board. A copy of this charter is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement. WMS' management is responsible for its internal accounting controls and the financial reporting process. Our independent auditors, Ernst & Young LLP, are responsible for performing an independent audit of our consolidated financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States and to issue a report thereon. The Audit and Ethics Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.

Table of Contents

In keeping with that responsibility, the Audit and Ethics Committee has reviewed and discussed WMS' audited consolidated financial statements with management. In addition, the Audit and Ethics Committee has discussed with WMS' independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communications with Audit and Ethics Committees, as amended.

The Audit and Ethics Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit and Ethics Committees, and has discussed with the independent auditors their independence.

Based on the Audit and Ethics Committee's discussions with management and the independent auditors and the Audit and Ethics Committee's review of the representations of management and the report of the independent auditors, the Audit and Ethics Committee recommended to our Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in WMS' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2003 for filing with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

This report is respectfully submitted by the Audit and Ethics Committee of the Board of Directors for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003.

OTHER MATTERS

Stockholder Proposals

As of the date of this proxy statement, the Board has not received notice of, and does not intend to propose, any other matters for stockholder action. However, if any other matters are properly brought before the meeting, it is intended that the persons voting the accompanying proxy will vote the shares represented by the proxy in accordance with their best judgment.

We must receive any stockholder proposals to be acted upon at our 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders on or before June 24, 2004, in order to consider including them in our proxy materials for that meeting. If we do not receive notice of a stockholder proposal to be acted upon at our 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders on or before September 4, 2004, our proxy for that meeting may confer discretionary authority to vote on any such proposal.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our officers, directors and persons who beneficially own greater than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC. These persons are required by regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports that they file. Based solely on our review of copies of these reports that we have received and on representations from some reporting persons that no Form 5 report was required to be filed by them, we believe that during fiscal 2003 our officers, directors and 10% beneficial owners complied with all of their Section 16(a) filing requirements, except that Mr. McGill filed one late report concerning one transaction.

Manner and Expenses of Solicitation

This solicitation of proxies is made by the Board, and we will bear all solicitation costs. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mails, some of our officers, directors and other employees may also solicit proxies personally or by mail, electronic mail, telephone or facsimile, but they will not receive additional compensation for those services. We may also pay a soliciting agent to assist us in soliciting proxies for the meeting, but we do not expect that the agent's services would cost us more than $10,000. We will request that brokerage firms, custodians, banks, trustees, nominees or other fiduciaries holding shares of our common stock in their names forward proxy material to their principals and will reimburse them for their reasonable out of pocket expenses.

Voting Procedures

We will appoint inspectors of election to tabulate the number of shares of common stock represented at the meeting in person or by proxy, to determine whether or not a quorum is present and to count all votes cast at the meeting. The inspectors of election will treat abstentions and broker non-votes as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Votes withheld in connection with the election of one or more of the nominees for director will not be counted in determining the votes cast and will have no effect on the vote. With respect to the tabulation of votes cast on each proposal presented to the stockholders at the meeting, abstentions will be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that specific proposal, whereas broker non-votes will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that specific proposal. Therefore, abstentions will have the effect of a vote against each proposal, but broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote for or against each proposal. Under NYSE rules, with respect to any proposal that is a prerequisite to listing of additional or new securities, the total votes cast on the proposal must represent at least a majority of all outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote on the proposal and have the effect of a vote against the proposal. With respect to these proposals, therefore, broker non-votes are not counted as part of the total votes cast on the proposal and have the effect of votes against the proposal. The term "broker non-votes" commonly refers to shares held in street name for customers, where the broker does not have authority under NYSE rules to vote on its own initiative on particular items, and the broker has not received instructions from the beneficial owners. At the annual meeting, brokers will have the authority to vote on all of the proposals.
