To our Stockholders:

Notice is hereby given that a Special Meeting of Stockholders (the Special Meeting) of Covanta Holding Corporation (the Company) will be held on November 16, 2006, at the offices of the Company, 40 Lane Road, Fairfield, New Jersey, at 10:00 a.m. local time, for the following purposes:

1. To approve an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to delete Article FIFTH which restricts the acquisition and transfer of common stock by owners of 5% or more of the outstanding common stock;
2. To approve an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to delete Section 4.3 which requires stockholder approval of the terms of any preferred stock issued by the Company to affiliates and to holders of 1% or more of the common stock; and

The Board of Directors of the Company has fixed the close of business on October 10, 2006 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting and at any adjournment or postponement thereof. PROXY STATEMENT

The enclosed proxy is solicited by Covanta Holding Corporation (the Company) for use at the 2006 Special Meeting of Stockholders to be held on November 16, 2006 (the Special Meeting), at 10:00 a.m. local time, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein and in the accompanying Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders. The Special Meeting will be held at the offices of the Company, 40 Lane Road, Fairfield, New Jersey. This proxy statement and accompanying proxy card were mailed on or about October 13, 2006 to all stockholders entitled to vote at the Company's Special Meeting.

Purpose of Special Meeting

At the Special Meeting, stockholders will be asked to act on the matters outlined in the accompanying Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders, including:

the approval of an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to delete Article FIFTH which restricts the acquisition and transfer of common stock by owners of 5% or more of the outstanding common stock (see page 3); and the approval of an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to delete Section 4.3 which requires stockholder approval of the terms of any preferred stock issued by the Company to affiliates and to holders of 1% or more of the common stock (see page 6).

Record Date and Share Ownership

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the record date, October 10, 2006, are entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. At the close of business on the record date, 147,529,062 shares of common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote. Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote on each matter to be voted on at the Special Meeting.

Quorum

The presence in person or by proxy of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast at the Special Meeting, including shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions, shall constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker non-votes (broker non-votes occur when a broker, bank or other nominee does not receive voting instructions regarding a proposal and does not have discretionary voting power with respect to the proposal) are counted for the purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. If there is not a quorum at the Special Meeting, the stockholders entitled to vote at the Special Meeting, whether present in person or represented by proxy, shall only have the power to adjourn the Special Meeting until such time as there is a quorum. The Special Meeting may be reconvened without notice to stockholders, other than an announcement at the prior adjournment of the Special Meeting, within 30 days after the record date, and a quorum must be present at such reconvened meeting.

Voting, Submitting and Revoking Your Proxy

If you properly execute, date and return the enclosed proxy, and you do not revoke it before it is exercised at the Special Meeting, your shares of common stock represented thereby will be voted by Anthony J. Orlando and Timothy J. Simpson, the proxy holders for the Special Meeting, in accordance with your instructions thereon. If you do not provide any specific instructions on the proxy, your proxy will be voted:

FOR approval of an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to delete Article FIFTH which restricts the acquisition and transfer of common stock by owners of 5% or more of the outstanding common stock; and

Table of Contents

FOR approval of the amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to delete Section 4.3 which requires stockholder approval of the terms of any preferred stock issued by the Company to affiliates and to holders of 1% or more of the common stock.

In addition, if other matters are properly presented for voting at the Special Meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement thereof, your proxy grants the persons named as proxy holders the discretion to vote your shares on such matters. The Company does not expect any additional matters to be presented for a vote at the Special Meeting.

Even after you have submitted your proxy, you may revoke your proxy or change your vote by completing one of the following actions before your proxy is exercised at the Special Meeting: (1) delivering a written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company at 40 Lane Road, Fairfield, New Jersey 07004; (2) submitting a properly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (3) attending the Special Meeting and casting your vote in person. Attendance at the Special Meeting will not cause your previously submitted proxy to be revoked unless you cast a vote at the Special Meeting.

If you wish to attend the Special Meeting and vote shares of the Company's common stock held through a broker, bank or other nominee, you will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds your shares and follow the voting instructions on that form.

Required Vote For Approval of Matters

Both of the proposals to amend the Company's certificate of incorporation require the affirmative FOR vote of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. An abstention as to any matter, when passage requires the vote of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, will have the effect of a vote AGAINST. Additionally, any non-vote (including broker non-votes) will have the effect of a vote AGAINST.

Brokers, banks or other nominees have discretionary authority to vote shares without instructions from beneficial owners only on matters considered routine by the New York Stock Exchange. However, on non-routine matters, such as the amendments to the certificate of incorporation, nominees do not have discretion to vote shares without instructions from beneficial owners and thus are not entitled to vote on such proposals in the absence of such specific instructions, resulting in a broker non-vote for those shares.

Representatives of American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the Company's transfer agent, will tabulate the votes and act as the inspector of the election at the Special Meeting.

Cost of Solicitation of Proxies

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be paid by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, the directors, officers and employees of the Company may also solicit proxies personally, electronically or by telephone without additional compensation for such proxy solicitation activity. Brokers and other nominees who held common stock of the Company on the record date will be asked to contact the beneficial owners of the shares that they hold to send proxy materials to and obtain proxies from such beneficial owners. Although there is no formal agreement to do so, the Company may reimburse banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses in forwarding this proxy statement to the Company's stockholders.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO DELETE ARTICLE FIFTH WHICH RESTRICTS
THE ACQUISITION AND TRANSFER OF COMMON STOCK BY OWNERS OF 5% OR MORE OF THE OUTSTANDING COMMON STOCK

On September 21, 2006, the Board of Directors approved, subject to stockholder approval, an amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation to delete Article FIFTH.

Description of Article FIFTH

Article FIFTH of the certificate of incorporation provides that no holder (whether record or beneficial, direct or indirect) of 5% or more of the Company's common stock, including a holder who proposes to make an acquisition of common stock which after the acquisition will result in total ownership by such holder of 5% or more of the Company's common stock ( "5% Stockholder" ), may acquire or receive additional shares of the Company's common stock, or transfer shares of the Company's common stock, prior to a determination by the Company that such acquisition or transfer would not result in an unreasonable risk of a deemed ownership change within the meaning of Section 382(g) (a "382 Ownership Change" ) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code" ), or any similar provision relating to preservation of net operating loss ( "NOL" ) carry forwards. The certificates representing the Company's common stock contain a legend setting forth these restrictions. In order to ensure compliance with the foregoing, Article FIFTH also provides that shares of the Company's common stock issuable to a 5% Stockholder will be issued in the Company's name and will be held by the Company in escrow.

Reasons for Proposed Amendment

The Board of Directors believes that it is in the best interests of the Company to delete Article FIFTH, for two reasons. First, retaining Article FIFTH no longer benefits the Company and its stockholders because a 382 Ownership Change, which Article FIFTH is intended to guard against, is no longer an event that can reasonably be expected to jeopardize the Company's efficient use of its NOLs. Second, removing the Article FIFTH restrictions could increase the liquidity of the Company's common stock and improve the Company's ability to access the capital markets.

Article FIFTH was originally added to the Company's certificate of incorporation when its predecessor, Mission Insurance Group, Inc., emerged from reorganization proceedings in 1990 as Danielson Holding Corporation (which was renamed Covanta Holding Corporation in 2005). The purpose of Article FIFTH was and has been to ensure that the Company had a mechanism to ensure the unrestricted use of its NOLs, which have been an important asset of the Company, by guarding against a 382 Ownership Change of the Company.

Under Section 382 of the Code, the Company would be deemed to have an ownership change if there is a more than 50% increase in ownership during a three year testing period by 5% Stockholders. If this calculation results in a 382 Ownership Change, the Company would not lose its NOLs, but the amount of NOLs that it would be entitled to utilize in a given year would be limited thereafter. As a result, if the Company's taxable income in any year following a 382 Ownership Change was greater than the amount of NOLs available for use in that year, the Company would pay cash taxes sooner than it would if the limitation were not in effect. Further, because the NOLs have a limited life, the limitations on use in each year following a 382 Ownership Change could cause some of the NOLs to expire unused.

While there are various components to the complex calculations under Section 382 of the Code, the amount of the limitation imposed in the event of such a 382 Ownership Change is primarily dependent upon three factors: (i) the equity value of the Company at the time of the 382 Ownership Change; (ii) the long-term federal tax exempt interest rate; and (iii) the net unrealized built-in gain in the Company measured by the difference between the fair market value of the assets of the Company immediately before the 382 Ownership Change and the tax basis of the assets. Calculations contemplated in applicable Treasury regulations utilize these factors to yield an aggregate limitation on the amount of NOLs that can be used each year following a 382 Ownership Change.

Table of Contents

In 1990 when Article FIFTH was initially adopted, the Company had just emerged from reorganization proceedings. At that time, there was no trading market for the Company's common stock because the American Stock Exchange (on which the Company's common stock had traded) had previously delisted the Company's stock. Also at that time, the Company had available NOLs in excess of $950 million, making preservation of the NOLs of critical importance to the Company's ability to reorganize successfully and grow. Due to the relatively small equity value and taxable income, triggering a 382 Ownership Change was considered to be a serious risk, because even a relatively modest investment in the Company's common stock could have significantly affected the calculation required by Section 382. As a result, any limitation on use of the NOLs would have materially and adversely affected the Company's financial condition and liquidity. Therefore, the Company believed at that time that it was prudent and in the best interests of its stockholders to implement strict safeguards against such a 382 Ownership Change in order to enable the Company to fully utilize its NOLs, and prevent an adverse affect on the Company's liquidity by triggering cash taxes on at least a portion of its income.

With the recent acquisitions of the waste and energy businesses of Covanta Energy Corporation and American Ref-Fuel Holdings Corp., the Company's equity value has increased from roughly $50 million prior to the announcement of the Covanta Energy Corporation acquisition to approximately $3 billion as of September 21, 2006, and its taxable income has increased and accelerated the pace at which its NOLs are utilized.

Because of the Company's relatively large equity value compared to prior years, the Company now believes that, in the absence of a significant decline in the Company's equity value, taxable income or long-term federal tax exempt rate, the limitations imposed under Section 382, if they were to be triggered by a 382 Ownership Change, would not result in any material adverse impacts to the Company. The Company has, in consultation with its tax advisors, analyzed the various factors affecting the Section 382 calculations of an ownership change and, based upon the current levels of the Company's equity value, estimated the available NOLs in any given year to be well in excess of the Company's projected taxable income. Accordingly, even if a 382 Ownership Change were to occur, it is expected that the limited NOLs available to the Company on an annual basis would still be well in excess of the amount expected to be required to fully offset the Company's taxable income during the period over which the NOLs will be utilized. As an example, the Company believes that, based upon current levels of taxable income and interest rates, if at the time of a 382 Ownership Change the Company's market capitalization were 50% of its current value, the limitations imposed by Section 382 would result in no reduction in the utilization of its available NOLs or additional incremental cash taxes payable.

At the same time, the existence of Article FIFTH has various undesirable and ancillary adverse impacts upon holders of the Company's common stock. For example, under the share escrow mechanism required by Article FIFTH for all 5% Stockholders, all shares of common stock held by any 5% Stockholder must be delivered to the Company and are physically held in escrow by the Company. Further, such 5% Stockholder cannot purchase, sell, pledge or otherwise transfer any shares of the Company's common stock without approval of the Company's Board of Directors, which must determine with the advice of tax counsel that such purchase, sale, pledge or other transfer would not create an unreasonable risk of a 382 Ownership Change under the complex rules of Section 382 before granting its consent. Consequently, the stock holdings of 5% Stockholders are considerably less liquid than those of other stockholders because 5% Stockholders cannot quickly or timely purchase, sell, pledge or otherwise transfer Company common stock. The time and uncertainty involved in this process not only has an adverse effect on liquidity of a 5% Stockholder's stock holdings, but also has an adverse effect on investors considering an investment in the Company's common stock that would cause them to become a 5% Stockholder. As a result, investors have been or may be constrained from making additional investments in the Company because of the escrow mechanism and its implications on their liquidity. For example, institutional investors, such as mutual funds, may not want to purchase 5% or more of the Company's common stock if they are unable to sell the stock or add to their positions on a timely basis as they deem appropriate.

Another undesirable effect of Article FIFTH has been to limit the Company's ability to access the capital markets and attract new institutional and other long-term investors through an underwritten public offering.

Table of Contents

Due to the limitations of Article FIFTH and the 382 Ownership Change calculations under Section 382, to date the only means by which the Company has been able to access the capital markets has been through a pro rata rights offering. While the Company has been successful in conducting rights offerings in the past, such offerings have several disadvantages to the Company. First, the price at which the shares have been sold in these rights offering has been significantly below the fair market value of the shares at the time of sale because a rights offering must be priced a significant period of time prior to such sale. This has resulted in the Company receiving substantially less than market value for the sale of its securities. Second, rights offerings can be expensive to the Company. In order to assure a successful rights offering, the Company has paid fees to obtain commitments from certain large stockholders to participate in such rights offerings. Third, in order to comply with the complex rules of Section 382, the rights offerings had to be pro rata to all stockholders which has prevented new institutional investors from participating and limited the ability of institutional investors with small positions from making significant new investments in those offerings.

Finally, Article FIFTH has imposed similar limitations on the Company's ability to use its equity as a form of consideration in the acquisitions it has made or may pursue in the future.

If this amendment is approved, the transfer and acquisition restrictions on 5% Stockholders will end and the shares of common stock held in escrow by the Company pursuant to Article FIFTH will be promptly released. Certificates representing the shares of the Company common stock issued after the amendment is approved will not bear the current restrictive legend.

The deletion of Article FIFTH will also require renumbering of the Company's certificate of incorporation to reflect that there are now eight articles in the certificate of incorporation instead of nine. The Company is asking the stockholders to approve this renumbering together with their approval of the deletion of Article FIFTH.

Appendix A contains a copy of a restated certificate of incorporation which has been approved by the Board of Directors subject to the approval by stockholders of this proposal and of Proposal 2, with deletions from the current certificate of incorporation indicated with strikeouts and additions to the current certificate of incorporation indicated by underlining. If the proposed amendments are approved by stockholders, promptly after the meeting the Company will file a certificate of amendment to its certificate of incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware to effect the amendments. The Company will then file the restated certificate of incorporation as shown in Appendix A with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. Each of these certificates will become effective upon its filing.

Interest of Directors and Executive Officers

Samuel Zell, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and William Pate, a member of the Board of Directors, are affiliated with SZ Investments LLC ( "SZ Investments" ), and David Barse, a member of the Board of Directors, is affiliated with Third Avenue Management LLC ( "Third Avenue" ). SZ Investments, and Third Avenue are each 5% Stockholders and would benefit from the deletion of Article FIFTH since their shares of Company common stock would no longer be held in escrow by the Company and trading in their Company shares would no longer require approval of the Board of Directors. Therefore, SZ Investments and Third Avenue, subject to other regulatory requirements, including their status as affiliates under federal securities laws, could freely trade shares of Company common stock.

SZ Investments, Third Avenue and D. E. Shaw Laminar Portfolios, L.L.C., each of which are 5% Stockholders of the Company and beneficially own approximately 35% in aggregate of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, have each separately indicated their intention to vote in favor of Proposal No. 1.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR the approval of an amendment to the Company s certificate of incorporation to delete Article Fifth which restricts the acquisition and transfer of common stock by owners of 5% or more of the outstanding common stock. Proxies solicited by the Board will be voted FOR the approval of this amendment unless instructions to the contrary are given. Approval of this Proposal No. 1 is not conditioned or dependent upon approval of Proposal No. 2.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

APPROVAL OF AN AMENDMENT TO THE COMPANY S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO DELETE SECTION 4.3 WHICH REQUIRES STOCKHOLDER APPROVAL OF THE TERMS OF ANY PREFERRED STOCK ISSUED BY THE COMPANY TO AFFILIATES AND TO HOLDERS OF 1% OR MORE OF THE COMMON STOCK

On September 21, 2006, the Board of Directors approved, subject to stockholder approval, an amendment to the Company s certificate of incorporation to delete Section 4.3.

Description of Section 4.3

Section 4.3 of the certificate of incorporation states:

The rights, powers, preferences, privileges and restrictions granted to and imposed upon Preferred Stock or any series thereof which is to be issued to any holder of 1% or more of the outstanding shares of Common Stock or to any officer, director or affiliate of the Corporation must be approved by the stockholders of the Corporation prior to the issuance thereof. The term affiliate means a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Corporation. The term person means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a in unincorporated organization, or any other entity.

Reasons for Proposed Amendment

Section 4.3 was included in the Company s certificate of incorporation when it was originally incorporated in California in 1990 as part of the reorganization from which Mission Investments Group, Inc. emerged from bankruptcy. At that time, the Company was owned by a limited number of stockholders. The Board of Directors believes that such a provision is unnecessary, and unusual, for a widely-held New York Stock Exchange listed company in which the stockholders have other mechanisms to control insider dealings, such as the issuance of preferred stock on terms favorable to an affiliate. Although the Company has no present intention of issuing preferred stock, Section 4.3 could hamper or delay the Company s ability to raise capital quickly through the issuance of preferred stock in the marketplace since the Company would have to obtain stockholder approval if any portion of the preferred stock was being purchased by an affiliate of a holder of 1% or more of the common stock.

Interest of Directors and Executive Officers

Since Section 4.3 applies to any officer or director of the Company, all current officers (including the executive officers) and directors of the Company could benefit from the deletion of Section 4.3 since the terms of any preferred stock issued to them by the Company would no longer require stockholder approval. Mr. Zell and Mr. Pate are affiliated with SZ Investments and Mr. Barse is affiliated with Third Avenue. SZ Investments and Third Avenue, which each own 1% or more of the Company s common stock, would also benefit from the deletion of Section 4.3. Under the Company s corporate governance policies which are in accordance with New York Stock Exchange standards, the Audit Committee of the Company s Board of Directors or a committee of disinterested and independent directors is responsible for reviewing any conflicts of interest involving the Company. Accordingly, the Board of Directors believes that since the initial adoption of Section 4.3, adequate protections have been implemented and currently exist to protect the interests of stockholders against the type of insider dealings that Section 4.3 was originally intended to address.

SZ Investments, Third Avenue and D. E. Shaw Laminar Portfolios, L.L.C., each of which are 5% Stockholders of the Company and beneficially own approximately 35% in aggregate of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, have each separately indicated their intention to vote in favor of Proposal No. 2.

terms of any preferred stock to affiliates and to holders of 1% or more of the common stock issued. Proxies solicited by the Board will be voted FOR the approval of this amendment unless instructions to the contrary are given. Approval of this Proposal No. 2 is not conditioned or dependent upon approval of Proposal No. 1.
