Item 8.01 Other Events.

Dolan Media Company is sad to report that David Michael Winton passed away on April 30, 2008. Mr. Winton served on our board of directors for fourteen years and had been nominated by our board for re-election at our annual meeting of stockholders to be held on May 12, 2008. At the time of his death, Mr. Winton was not serving on any of our board's committees.

Mr. Winton was a very early investor in Dolan Media. His extensive experience with growing young companies as well as his contacts with private equity sources brought material advantages to our company. His advice and counsel were important contributors to our success.

Our board of directors has decided to leave Mr. Winton's director seat vacant while the nominating and corporate governance committee seeks to identify a suitable candidate to serve on the board.
