PROXY STATEMENT

For the Annual Meeting of Stockholders
To be held on Tuesday, October 26, 2004

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of proxies to be voted at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Tuesday, October 26, 2004 at 10:00 a.m., at conference room 9-A of the McConnell Valdés law offices located at 270 Muñoz Rivera Avenue, San Juan, Puerto Rico, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth herein. This proxy statement is expected to be mailed to stockholders on or about October 4, 2004.

Each proxy solicited hereby, if properly signed and returned to us and not revoked prior to its use, will be voted in accordance with the instructions contained therein. If no contrary instructions are given by you, each proxy received will be voted for the matters described below. Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by: (i) filing with the Secretary of the Board of Directors written notice thereof (addressed to: Carlos O. Souffront, Esq., Secretary of the Board of Directors, Oriental Financial Group Inc., P.O. Box 195115, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00919-5115); (ii) submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (iii) by appearing in person at the annual meeting and giving the Secretary notice of his or her intention to vote in person. Proxies solicited hereby may be exercised only at the annual meeting, including any adjournment or postponement thereof, and will not be used for any other purpose.

Each proxy solicited hereby also confers discretionary authority on the Board of Directors to vote the proxy with respect to: (i) the approval of the minutes of the last annual meeting of stockholders; (ii) the election of any person as director if any nominee is unable to serve or, for good cause, will not serve; (iii) matters incident to the conduct of the annual meeting; and (iv) such other matters as may properly come before the annual meeting. Except with respect to procedural matters incident to the conduct of the annual meeting, we are not aware of any business that may properly come before the meeting other than those matters described in this proxy statement. However, if any other matters should properly come before the annual meeting, it is intended that proxies solicited hereby will be voted with respect to those other matters in accordance with the judgment of the persons voting the proxies.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The cost of solicitation of proxies will be borne by us. We have retained the services of American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, New York, New York, who acts as our transfer agent and registrar, to assist us in the solicitation of proxies for the annual meeting. The fee to be paid to such firm for these services is not expected to exceed $1,500, plus reimbursement of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. We will also reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of our shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share. In addition to solicitations by mail, our directors, officers and employees, including those of our subsidiaries, may solicit proxies personally, by telephone or otherwise without additional compensation.

VOTING STOCK OUTSTANDING AND VOTE REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Only holders of shares of common stock of record at the close of business on September 24, 2004 (i.e., the voting record date) will be entitled to vote at the annual meeting. The total number of shares of common stock outstanding on the voting record date and eligible to cast votes at the annual meeting is 22,246,369. On the voting record date, there were outstanding 1,340,000 shares of 7.125% Noncumulative Monthly Income Preferred Stock, Series A, $1.00 par value per share (the Series A Preferred Stock) and 1,380,000 shares of 7.0% Noncumulative Monthly Income Preferred Stock, Series B, $1.00 par value per share (the Series B Preferred Stock). The shares of Series A Preferred Stock and Series B Preferred Stock are not entitled to vote at the annual meeting.

Table of Contents

The presence, either in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. For purposes of determining quorum, abstentions and broker non-votes will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote. A broker non-vote results when a broker or nominee has expressly indicated that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter. Action with respect to the election of directors shall be taken by a majority of the votes cast. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will not have an effect on the election of directors. With respect to this proposal, each holder of shares of common stock has the right to cumulate his or her votes as described below under the heading Cumulative Voting in the Election of Directors.

PROPOSAL: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our by-laws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of such number of directors as shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board. The number of directors, as established by resolution, is presently ten. Our articles of incorporation and by-laws also provide that the Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes of directors as nearly equal in number as possible. The members of each class are to be elected for a term of three years and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Only one class of directors is to be elected annually.

Other than Mr. José Enrique Fernández's employment agreement with Oriental Bank and Trust (Oriental Bank), our wholly-owned banking subsidiary, which requires the Board of Directors of Oriental Bank to nominate him for election as a director of Oriental Bank and, if elected, as Chairman of Oriental Bank's Board of Directors, there are no arrangements or understandings between us and any person pursuant to which such person has been elected a director. Except for Mr. Fernández, who is the father of José Fernández Richards, an executive vice president of Oriental Bank, no other director is related to any of our directors or executive officers, by blood, marriage or adoption (excluding those that are more remote than first cousin).

If any person named as a nominee is unable or unwilling to stand for election at the time of the annual meeting, the proxies will nominate and vote for a replacement nominee or nominees recommended by the Board of Directors. At this time, the Board knows of no reason why any of the nominees listed above may not be able to serve as a director if elected.

The Board of Directors Recommends that Stockholders Vote For this Proposal.

CUMULATIVE VOTING IN THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Pursuant to our by-laws, holders of shares of common stock have the right to cumulate their votes at annual meetings in which more than one director is being elected. Cumulative voting entitles each holder of common stock to a number of votes equal to the number of shares of common stock held by him or her multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. As a holder of shares of common stock, you may cast all or any number of such votes for one nominee or distribute such votes among any two or more nominees as you desire. Thus, for example, for the election of the three nominees being considered at this annual meeting, a stockholder owning 1,000 shares of common stock is entitled to 3,000 votes, and may distribute such votes equally among the nominees for election, cast them for the election of only one of such nominees, or otherwise distribute such votes as he or she desires.

In the absence of any express indication that the shares to be voted should be cumulated in a particular fashion, the votes represented by executed proxies will be distributed equally among the four nominees designated by the Board of Directors or in such other fashion as will most likely ensure the election of all the nominees.

BOARD INDEPENDENCE

Except for the Chairman of the Board of Directors, all of our directors are independent pursuant to the corporate governance standards adopted by the New York Stock Exchange for companies listed thereon.

In determining independence, the Board of Directors has affirmatively determined whether each director has a material relationship with the company. When assessing the materiality of a director's relationship with the company, the Board considers all relevant facts and circumstances, not merely from the standpoint of the director, but also from that of persons or organizations with which the director has an affiliation. Material relationships can include commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable and familiar relationships, among others.

The standards of the New York Stock Exchange for director independence are as follows:

Table of Contents

(i) A director who is an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of the company is not independent until three years after the end of such employment relationship.

(ii) A director who receives, or whose immediate family member receives, more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from the listed company, other than director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service), is not independent until three years after he or she ceases to receive more than $100,000 per year in such compensation.

(iii) A director who is affiliated with or employed by, or whose immediate family member is affiliated with or employed in a professional capacity by, a present or former internal or external auditor of the company is not independent until three years after the end of the affiliation or the employment or auditing relationship.

(iv) A director who is employed, or whose immediate family member is employed, as an executive officer of another company where any of the listed company's present executives serve on that company's compensation committee is not independent until three years after the end of such service or the employment relationship.

(v) A director who is an executive officer or an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of a company that makes payments to, or receives payments from, the listed company for property or services in an account which, in any single fiscal year, exceeds the greater of $1 million, or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross reserves, is not independent until three years after falling below such threshold.

Applying these standards, the Board of Directors has determined that, except for its Chairman, the other members of the Board, including nominees for director, are independent.

Pursuant to the rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission applicable to audit committees of companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange, in order to be independent, and in addition to the standards listed above, each audit committee member may not, other than in his or her capacity as a member of the audit committee, board of directors, or any other board committee:

(i) Accept directly or indirectly any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from the company or any subsidiary thereof, provided that, unless the rules of the New York Stock Exchange provide otherwise, compensatory fees do not include the receipt of fixed amounts of compensation under a retirement plan (including deferred compensation) for prior service with the company (provided that such compensation is not contingent in any way on contingent service); or

(ii) Be an affiliated person (that is, a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the company) of the company or any subsidiary thereof.

Applying these rules, the Board of Directors has determined that each member of its Audit Committee is independent.

BOARD MEETINGS

The Board of Directors held fifteen meetings during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2004. During fiscal 2004, directors received a fee of $900 for each Board meeting attended and $300 for each committee meeting attended. Only directors who are not officers of the company, including its subsidiaries, received fees for attendance at such meetings.

No director attended fewer than 75% of the meetings held in fiscal 2004, including meetings of committees on which he served during the year. Board members are required to attend the company's annual meeting of stockholders. All Board members attended last year's meeting.

BOARD COMMITTEES

The Board of Director has three standing committees: the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee.

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in its oversight of our financial reporting process and internal controls. It fulfills its oversight responsibilities by reviewing: (a) the integrity of the financial reports and other financial information provided by the company to any governmental body or to the public; (b) the company's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance, and ethics that management and the Board of Directors have established; and (c) the company's auditing, accounting, and financial reporting processes generally. The members of the Committee are Messrs. Diego Perdomo, C.P.A., Chairman, Alberto Richa-Angelini, Efraín Archilla, and Miguel Vázquez-Deynes. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Committee is financially literate and has designated Mr. Perdomo as audit committee financial expert, as such term is defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Committee met twelve times in fiscal 2004.

The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter that has been approved and adopted by the Board of Directors, a current copy of which is available on our website at www.orientalonline.com. The Committee is composed entirely of independent directors as required by the New York Stock Exchange and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Compensation Committee discharges the responsibilities of the Board of Directors relating to compensation of the company's directors and executive officers. Its general responsibilities are: (a) reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the chief executive officer, and evaluating the chief executive officer's performance in light of those goals and objectives; (b) making recommendations to the Board of Directors with respect to non-CEO compensation, incentives compensation plans and equity-based plans; (c) producing a committee report on executive compensation; and (d) conducting an annual performance evaluation thereof. The Committee also administers the company's various stock option plans and is given absolute discretion to, among other things, construe and interpret the plans; to prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the plans; to select the persons to whom options will be granted; to determine the number of shares subject to each option; and to determine the terms and conditions to which each grant and/or exercise of options is subject. The members of the Committee are Messrs. Julian S. Inclán, Chairman, Alberto Richa-Angelini, and Emilio Rodriguez. The Committee met four times in fiscal 2004.

The Compensation Committee operates pursuant to a written charter that has been approved and adopted by the Board of Directors, a current copy of which is available on our website at www.orientalonline.com. The Committee is composed entirely of independent directors as required by the New York Stock Exchange.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee assists the Board of Directors by: (a) identifying individuals qualified to become directors consistent with criteria approved by the Board; (b) selecting or recommending that the Board select the director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders; (c) developing and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the company that are consistent with sound corporate governance practices and in compliance with applicable legal, regulatory, or other requirements; (d) monitoring and reviewing any other corporate governance matters which the Board may refer to the Committee; and (e) overseeing the evaluation of the Board and management. The members of the Committee are Messrs. Francisco Arriví, Chairman, Pablo I. Altieri, M.D., and Emilio Rodriguez. The Committee was organized after the end of fiscal 2004. Therefore, it did not hold any meetings during such fiscal year. It operates pursuant to a written charter that has been approved and adopted by the Board of Directors, a current copy of which is available on our website at www.orientalonline.com.

Table of Contents

Pursuant to our by-laws, no nominations for directors, except those made by the Board of Directors upon the recommendation of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee, will be voted upon at the annual meeting unless other nominations by stockholders are made in writing, together with the nominee's qualifications for service and evidence of his or her willingness to serve on the Board of Directors, and delivered to the Secretary of the Board at least 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the mailing of proxy materials in connection with last year's annual meeting. Ballots bearing the names of all of the persons nominated by the Board of Directors and by stockholders, if properly made, will be provided for use at the annual meeting. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has not established any specific, minimum qualifications that it believes must be met by a nominee recommended by such committee for a position on the Board of Directors. The Committee instead considers general factors, including, without limitation, the candidate's experience with other businesses and organizations, the interplay of such experience with the experience of other Board members, and the extent to which the candidate would be a desirable addition to the Board and any committee thereof.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee generally identifies qualified candidates on the basis of recommendations made by existing directors or management. There are no differences in the manner in which the Committee evaluates nominees for director based on whether the nominee is recommended by a stockholder. The Committee will consider potential nominees by management, stockholders or other members of the Board, and develop and evaluate information from a variety of sources regarding the potential nominee before making a decision.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE GUIDELINES

We have developed and adopted a set of Corporate Governance Guidelines to promote the functioning of the Board of Directors and its committees, to protect and enhance stockholder value, and to set forth a common set of expectations as to how the Board, its various committees, individual directors and management should perform their functions. We have also developed and adopted a Code of Ethics that reaffirms our basic policies of business conduct and ethics for our directors, officers, employees and agents. The Code consists of basic and general standards of business as well as personal conduct. Current copies of the Corporate Governance Guidelines and the Code of Ethics may be found on our website at www.orientalonline.com. José Enrique Fernández

On April 4, 2002, Oriental Bank and José Enrique Fernández entered into an employment agreement for a term of three years, which supercedes and replaces a previous employment agreement dated December 22, 1998, between Oriental Bank and Mr. Fernández. The agreement provides for an increase in salary to $400,000 in fiscal year 2003, and further increases to $450,000 in fiscal year 2004 and to $500,000 in fiscal year 2005, and an annual automobile and expense allowance of $38,400. The agreement also provides that Oriental Bank will pay for Mr. Fernández's membership in such social and business clubs that in his judgment are reasonably necessary for the performance of his Bank-related duties. Also, under the agreement, Oriental Bank will pay for a 10-year term life insurance policy in the amount of $1,500,000, covering the life of Mr. Fernández, for the benefit of Mr. Fernández's estate. The agreement also provides that, during its term, the Board of Directors will nominate and recommend to the stockholders the election of Mr. Fernández as a director at any election of directors in which his term as a director will expire, and, if elected, the Board of Directors will name Mr. Fernández to the position of Chairman.

Table of Contents

Pursuant to the agreement, Oriental Bank caused to be granted to Mr. Fernández options to purchase 60,000 shares of common stock. The stock options may be exercised by Mr. Fernández during a period commencing on the first anniversary and ending on the tenth anniversary of the agreement. Notwithstanding the above limitations, these stock options will become immediately exercisable if Mr. Fernández dies or is disabled, retires from employment with Oriental Bank, or if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Bank. The options shall survive one year after termination of the agreement, unless termination is the result of Mr. Fernández's illegal conduct or gross misconduct materially injurious to Oriental Bank, a regulatory order, or as a result of appointment by court or other public authority of a legal custodian for Oriental Bank for the purpose of liquidation.

The agreement may be terminated by Oriental Bank for just cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) at any time. In the event employment is terminated for just cause, Mr. Fernández will have no right to compensation or other benefits for any period after such termination. The agreement also provides for payments and other benefits for Mr. Fernández if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Bank or in the event of involuntary termination of employment in connection with any change in control of Oriental Bank, as defined therein. The term change in control is defined to include any of the following: (i) a change in control as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1817(j) and 12 C.F.R. § 303.4, or (ii) a change in control that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or (iii) when during any period of two consecutive years during the term of the agreement, individuals who at the beginning of such period constitute the Board of Directors cease for any reason to constitute at least a majority thereof, unless the election of each director who was not a director at the beginning of such period has been approved in advance by directors representing at least two-thirds of the directors then in office, who were directors at the beginning of the period.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Fernández may terminate his employment for good reason, which includes: (i) failure by Oriental Bank to comply with any material provision of the agreement, which failure has not been cured within ten (10) days after notice thereof has been given by Mr. Fernández to Oriental Bank; and (ii) any purported termination of Mr. Fernández's employment which is not effected pursuant to a notice of termination satisfying certain requirements set forth in the agreement.

In the event that there occurs a change in control, or if Mr. Fernández is terminated other than for just cause and in connection with a change in control, Oriental Bank will pay Mr. Fernández an amount equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to him (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 3.00. The payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Fernández terminates his employment for good reason, the severance payments from the Oriental Bank will be equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to Mr. Fernández (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 2.00. The severance payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination.

The agreement contains provisions restricting Mr. Fernández's ability to engage or participate in, become a director of, or render advisory or other services to any firm or entity competitive with Oriental Bank. The agreement does not contain any provision restricting Mr. Fernández's right to compete against Oriental Bank upon termination of employment.

Any salary increases for this agreement, or extensions thereof, shall be mutually agreed to by Oriental Financial Group and Mr. Fernández. The agreement also provides that Mr. Fernández will be entitled to participate in, and receive the benefits of, any stock option plan, profit sharing plan or other plans, benefits and privileges given to employees and executives of Oriental Financial Group for which Mr. Fernández may qualify. Such benefits will be provided to Mr. Fernández while he is employed under the terms of the agreement or any extension thereof. Pursuant to the agreement, Oriental Financial Group granted Mr. Fernández options to purchase not less than 20,000 shares of common stock starting in fiscal year 2002. The stock options may be exercised by Mr. Fernández during a period commencing on the first and ending on the tenth anniversary of the agreement. Notwithstanding the above limitations, these stock options will become immediately exercisable if Mr. Fernández dies, is disabled, retires from employment with Oriental Financial Group or if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group. The options shall survive one year after termination of the agreement, unless termination is the result of Mr. Fernández's illegal conduct or gross misconduct materially injurious to Oriental Financial Group, a regulatory order, or as a result of appointment by court or other public authority of a legal custodian for Oriental Financial Group for the purpose of liquidation.

The agreement may be terminated by Oriental Financial Group for just cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) at any time. In the event that employment is terminated for just cause, Mr. Fernández will have no right to compensation or other benefits for any period after such termination. The agreement also provides for payment and other benefits for Mr. Fernández if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group or in the event of involuntary termination of employment in connection with any change in control of Oriental Financial Group, as defined therein. The term change in control is defined to include any of the following: (i) a change in control as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1817(j) and 12 C.F.R. § 303.4; or (ii) a change in control that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Fernández may terminate his employment for good reason, which includes: (i) failure by Oriental Financial Group to comply with any material provision of the agreement, which failure has not been cured within ten (10) days after notice thereof has been given by Mr. Fernández to Oriental Financial Group; and (ii) any purported termination of Mr. Fernández's employment which is not affected pursuant to a notice of termination satisfying certain requirements set forth in the agreement.

In the event that there occurs a change of control, or if Mr. Fernández is terminated other than for just cause and in connection with a change in control, Oriental Financial Group will pay Mr. Fernández an amount equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to him (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year the termination occurs multiplied by 3.00. The payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Fernández terminates his employment for good reason, the severance payments from Oriental Financial Group will be equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to Mr. Fernández (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Fernández) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 2.00. The severance payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination.

The agreement contains provisions restricting Mr. Fernández's ability to engage or participate in, become a director of, or render advisory or other services to any firm or entity competitive with Oriental Financial Group for a period of one year subsequent to the termination of the agreement. The agreement further contains provisions protecting the confidential information and trade secrets of Oriental Financial Group while Mr. Fernández is employed by Oriental

Financial Group.

Table of Contents*Marcial Díaz*

On March 15, 2001, Oriental Financial Group and Marcial Díaz entered into an employment agreement for a term of thirty-six months commencing on March 15, 2001 and terminating on March 14, 2004. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the agreement provides for an automatic one-year extension after the original termination date unless a non-extension notice is provided by either party to the other party 120 days before the expiration date. No such notice was provided and, therefore, the agreement was extended for an additional one-year period until March 15, 2005. The agreement provides for a minimum base salary of $126,000 from March 15, 2001, through March 14, 2002, and further increases to $146,000 and $171,000 from March 15, 2002, through March 14, 2003, and from March 15, 2003, through March 14, 2004, respectively, an annual automobile and expense allowance of $18,000; an annual allowance of $10,000 for membership expenses for social and business clubs that in the judgment of Oriental Financial Group's chief executive officer are reasonably appropriate to the performance of the duties of Mr. Díaz pursuant to the agreement; and an annual performance bonus of not less than $80,000 for fiscal year 2002 and not less than $100,000 for fiscal year 2003 and subsequent fiscal years. Any salary increases for this agreement, or extensions thereof, shall be mutually agreed to by Oriental Financial Group and Mr. Díaz. The agreement also provides that Mr. Díaz will be entitled to participate in, and receive the benefits of, any stock option plan, profit sharing plan or other plans, benefits and privileges given to employees and executives of Oriental Financial Group for which Mr. Díaz may qualify. Such benefits will be provided to Mr. Díaz while he is employed under the terms of the agreement or any extension thereof. Pursuant to the agreement, Oriental Financial Group granted Mr. Díaz options to purchase 15,000 shares of common stock at the signing of the agreement and not less than 15,000 shares of common stock each year thereafter. The stock options may be exercised by Mr. Díaz during a period commencing on the first and ending on the tenth anniversary of the agreement. Notwithstanding the above limitations, such stock options will become immediately exercisable if Mr. Díaz dies, is disabled, retires from employment with Oriental Financial Group or if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group. The options shall survive one year after termination of the agreement, unless termination is the result of Mr. Díaz' illegal conduct or gross misconduct materially injurious to Oriental Financial Group, a regulatory order, or as a result of appointment by court or other public authority of a legal custodian for Oriental Financial Group for the purpose of liquidation.

The agreement may be terminated by Oriental Financial Group for just cause (as such term is defined in the agreement) at any time. In the event that employment is terminated for just cause, Mr. Díaz will have no right to compensation or other benefits for any period after such termination. The agreement also provides for payment and other benefits for Mr. Díaz if there occurs a change in control of Oriental Financial Group or in the event of involuntary termination of employment in connection with any change in control of Oriental Financial Group, as defined therein. The term change in control is defined to include any of the following: (i) a change in control as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 1817(j) and 12 C.F.R. § 303.4; or (ii) a change in control that would be required to be reported in response to Item 6(e) of Schedule 14A of Regulation 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The agreement also provides that Mr. Díaz may terminate his employment for good reason, which includes: (i) failure by Oriental Financial Group to comply with any material provision of the agreement, which failure has not been cured within ten (10) days after notice thereof has been given by Mr. Díaz to Oriental Financial Group, and (ii) any purported termination of Mr. Díaz' employment which is not affected pursuant to a notice of termination satisfying certain requirements set forth in the agreement.

In the event that there occurs a change of control, or if Mr. Díaz is terminated other than for just cause and in connection with a change in control, Oriental Financial Group will pay Mr. Díaz an amount equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to him (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Díaz) during the year the termination occurs multiplied by 3.00. The payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination. If Mr. Díaz terminates his employment for good reason, the severance payments from Oriental Financial Group will be equal to the aggregate annual compensation paid or payable to Mr. Díaz (including salary, bonus, car allowance and the value of any other benefits provided to Mr. Díaz) during the year in which the termination occurs multiplied by 2.00. The severance payment is to be made in a lump sum on or before the fifth day following the date of termination.

The agreement contains provisions restricting Mr. Díaz ability to engage or participate in, become a director of, or render advisory or other services to any firm or entity competitive with Oriental Financial Group for a period of one year subsequent to the termination of the agreement. The agreement further contains provisions protecting the confidential information and trade secrets of Oriental Financial Group while Mr. Díaz is employed by Oriental Financial Group.

401(k)/1165(e) Plan

All of our employees, including the employees of our subsidiaries, are eligible to participate in the Oriental Group CODA Profit Sharing Plan (the 401(k)/1165(e) Plan). The 401(k)/1165(e) Plan is qualified under Sections 1165(a) and 1165(e) of the Puerto Rico Internal Revenue Code of 1994. The 401(k)/1165(e) Plan offers eligible participants eleven investment alternatives, including several U.S. mutual funds, a money-market account, and our shares of common stock. Contributions made through payroll deductions not in excess of 10% of annual base salary or $8,000, whichever is less, may be accumulated per year as before-tax savings. We contribute 80 cents for each dollar contributed by an employee up to $832 per year. The matching contribution is invested in our shares of common stock. The 401(k)/1165(e) Plan became effective on January 1, 1992. During fiscal 2004, we contributed 7,195 shares of common stock to the 401(k)/1165(e) Plan valued at approximately $194,768 at June 30, 2004.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The following report does not constitute soliciting material and shall not be deemed filed or incorporated by reference into any other filing of the company under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the company specifically incorporates it by reference.

Oriental Financial Group Inc. operates in a highly competitive industry where the quality, creativity and professionalism of its executive officers is of utmost importance to the success, profitability and growth of Oriental Financial Group. Accordingly, the compensation program of Oriental Financial Group, which is managed by the Compensation Committee, is intended to retain and appropriately reward experienced and well-trained executive officers, align the long-term interests of the executive officers with those of the stockholders and tie total compensation opportunities to the achievement of Oriental Financial Group s institutional goals and the achievement of goals for each of its subsidiaries.

The Compensation Committee evaluates the performance of management, reviews the compensation levels of members of management, and evaluates and reviews all aspects of compensation for Oriental Financial Group s executive officers.

In evaluating the performance and compensation of all of the executive officers, the Compensation Committee reviews available peer group information for comparable financial institutions or bank holding companies in Puerto Rico and in the United States and assesses the performance in accordance with the overall attainment of Oriental Financial Group s goals for such fiscal year, which are set forth in Oriental Financial Group s three-year business plan that is updated and approved by the Board of Directors every fiscal year.

Bonus

The compensation program for Oriental Financial Group s executive officers provides for a performance bonus, which purpose is to maximize the efficiency and effectiveness of Oriental Financial Group s operations. The bonuses that are paid to the executive officers are linked to the performance of Oriental Financial Group as an institution as well as to the performance of each of Oriental Financial Group s subsidiaries. In addition, in the event the institutional and individual goals are achieved, the bonus amounts that are generally paid to the executive officers are determined so that the total salary and bonus compensation paid to them is competitive with the amounts paid by comparable financial institutions or bank holding companies in Puerto Rico and in the United States.

Table of Contents

Long-Term Compensation

The compensation program for the executive officers also contemplates long-term incentive compensation in the form of stock options granted under Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans. Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans provide for ownership of the shares of common stock which, in turn, creates a direct relationship between the performance of Oriental Financial Group, as reflected by the market value of the shares of common stock, and executive compensation, and further creates a direct link between the interests of the executive officers and the interests of the stockholders.

The awards are made by the administrators of Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans, which are the members of the Compensation Committee. The plan administrators are given absolute discretion to select which of the eligible persons will be granted stock options and the amount of stock options to be granted to such persons. In general terms, the plan administrators, in determining such amounts, consider total compensation information obtained from various comparable financial institutions or bank holding companies in Puerto Rico and in the United States that they track, as well as the general trend in total compensation in the financial services industry.

Fiscal 2004 Results

Among the results of operations for fiscal 2004 that the Compensation Committee placed particular emphasis when it approved the bonuses paid and the stock options granted to the executive officers, which amounts are set forth in separate tables in this proxy statement, are the following: (i) Oriental Financial Group reported net income of $63.6 million compared to $51.3 million in fiscal 2003, representing an increase of 24.0%, and earnings per diluted share of $2.78 compared to $2.41 in fiscal 2003, representing an increase of 15.4%; and (ii) total financial assets managed and owned by Oriental Financial Group were $6.4 billion and total stockholders' equity was $294.7 million as of June 30, 2004, compared to $5.7 billion and $201.7 million, respectively, as of June 30, 2003, which represents an increase of 12.3% in total financial assets managed and owned, and an increase of 46.1% in total stockholders' equity.

Compensation of Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer

Mr. José Enrique Fernández, who serves as the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Oriental Financial Group and of Oriental Bank, negotiated the terms of his agreement with Oriental Bank at arm's length with Oriental Bank's Board of Directors. The current terms of Mr. Fernández's employment, including his salary and certain other compensation arrangements, are described in this Proxy Statement under Executive Compensation Employment Agreements.

Mr. Fernández's compensation in terms of bonus and any additional stock options granted to him under Oriental Financial Group's stock option plans was determined in accordance with Oriental Financial Group's compensation program described above and was based on considerations of competitive industry practice as well as the overall performance of Oriental Financial Group. In making such determination, the Compensation Committee took into consideration Oriental Financial Group's performance as a whole during fiscal 2004 (as described above) and the achievement of goals which are geared to ensure Oriental Financial Group's continued long-term growth and the enhancement of stockholder value, such as the further diversification of Oriental Financial Group's asset base and the emphasis on expanding Oriental Financial Group's financial services and non-interest income.

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in its oversight of Oriental Financial Group Inc.'s financial reporting process. The Audit Committee's responsibilities are more fully described in its charter, a copy of which may be obtained upon request from the Secretary of the Board.

Management has the primary responsibility for the preparation and integrity of Oriental Financial Group's financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles, and internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Oriental Financial Group's independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements and expressing an opinion on the conformity of those financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for fiscal 2004 with Oriental Financial Group's management and has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP the matters that are required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees. INDEBTEDNESS OF MANAGEMENT

Certain transactions involving loans and deposits were transacted during fiscal 2004 between Oriental Bank, some of its directors and executive officers, including those of its affiliates, and persons related to or affiliated with such persons. All such transactions were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates, collateral and repayment terms, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and did not involve more than the normal risk of uncollectability or other unfavorable features. At present, none of the loans to such directors and executive officers, including persons related to or affiliated with such persons, is non-performing.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

We are required to identify any director, executive officer or person who owns more than ten percent of our equity securities who failed to timely file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a required report under Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Based solely on the review of copies of such forms and on other information furnished to us by such individuals, we believe that during and with respect to fiscal 2004, our directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of our equity securities, timely filed all required reports thereunder, except that José Enrique Fernández, José Rafael Fernández, Norberto González, and Elmer Garrastazú, each an executive officer, inadvertently failed to timely file an Annual Statement of Beneficial Ownership of Securities (Form 5) for their acquisitions of our shares of common stock through the 401(k)/1165(e) Plan.

The stock performance graph below compares the cumulative total stockholder return of our shares of common stock from June 30, 1994, to June 30, 2004, with the cumulative total return of the Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Index, the Dow Jones US Total Market Index, and the Standard & Poor's Diversified Financial Services Index. The Standard & Poor's 500 Composite Stock Index is a broad index which includes a wide variety of issuers and industries representative of a cross section of the market. After careful consideration, we have decided to use the same composition of companies that made up the Standard & Poor's Diversified Financial Services Index, although the index retired in 2002. This index included a wide array of financial institutions or bank holding companies comparable to us. We have historically used this index and see it as an adequate representation of peer group industry guidance for us.

The Audit Committee reviewed and approved all non-audit services rendered by Deloitte & Touche to the company and its subsidiaries, and concluded that the provision of such services was compatible with the maintenance of Deloitte & Touche's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions. The Audit Committee has adopted a pre-approval policy regarding the procurement of audit and non-audit services. The Audit Committee intends to review such policy periodically. A copy of such policy is available on our website at www.orientalonline.com.
