ChoicePoint Inc. (the Company) has entered into a settlement with the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) regarding its investigation into the Company s compliance with federal laws governing consumer information security and related issues, including the fraudulent data access which occurred last year.

The terms of the settlement call for a civil penalty of $10 million, the establishment of a $5 million fund to be administered by the FTC for consumer redress initiatives, completion of certain one-time and on-going customer credentialing activities such as additional site visits, and undertaking additional obligations relating to information security. The settlement also requires ChoicePoint to obtain, every two years for the next 20 years, an assessment from a qualified, independent, third-party professional to ensure that its information security program meets the standards of the order.

As part of this settlement, ChoicePoint does not admit to the truth of, or liability for, any of the matters alleged by the FTC.

As reported in the Company s press release dated January 26, 2006, the Company has recorded a pre-tax charge of $8.0 million ($8.8 million net of taxes) in the fourth quarter of 2005 that reflects the net impact of this settlement.
