ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 204 of the General Corporation Law of the State of California (California Law) authorizes a corporation to adopt a provision in its articles of incorporation eliminating the personal liability of directors to corporations and their shareholders for monetary damages for breach or alleged breach of directors' duty of care. Following a California corporation's adoption of such a provision, its directors are not accountable to corporations and their shareholders for monetary damages for conduct constituting negligence (or gross negligence) in the exercise of their fiduciary duties; however, directors continue to be subject to equitable remedies such as injunction or rescission. Under California Law, a director also continues to be liable for (1) a breach of his or her duty of loyalty; (2) acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or knowing violations of law; (3) illegal payments of dividends; and (4) approval of any transaction from which a director derives an improper personal benefit. The adoption of such a provision in the articles of incorporation also does not limit directors' liability for violations of the federal securities laws.

Section 317 of the California Law makes a provision for the indemnification of officers, directors and other corporate agents in terms sufficiently broad to indemnify such persons, under certain circumstances, for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). An amendment to Section 317 provides that the indemnification provided by this section is not exclusive to the extent additional rights are authorized in a corporation's articles of incorporation.

Article IV of the Registrant's Restated Articles of Incorporation and Article VI of the Registrant's Amended and Restated Bylaws provide for indemnification of its directors, officers, employees and other agents to the maximum extent permitted by California Law.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS.

A. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

B. The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

C. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
