F.N.B. CORPORATION
233,394 Shares of Common Stock

We have prepared this prospectus to allow the selling shareholders described in the prospectus or a supplement to the prospectus to sell up to 233,394 shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of outstanding warrants or upon conversion of outstanding convertible debentures originally issued by The Legacy Bank. We will not receive any proceeds from shares of common stock sold by the selling shareholders, except that we will receive the purchase price payable upon exercise of the warrants.

The selling shareholders described in this prospectus or in a supplement to this prospectus, or their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest, may offer the shares from time to time through public or private transactions at prevailing market prices, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at privately negotiated prices.

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol FNB. On June 22, 2006, the closing sale price of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $15.51 per share.

Read the risk factors included in the reports that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission to learn about factors you should consider before buying shares of our common stock. See Where You Find More Information/Incorporation by Reference.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any other regulatory body has approved or disapproved of these securities or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this prospectus. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Prospectus dated June 26, 2006.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements in this prospectus are forward-looking within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology, such as may, will, expect, estimate, anticipate, believe, target, plan, project or continue or the negatives thereof, variations thereon or similar terminology, and are made on the basis of our management's plans and current analyses, our business and the industry as a whole. These forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, economic conditions, competition, interest rate sensitivity and exposure to regulatory and legislative changes. These factors in some cases have affected, and in the future could affect, our financial performance and could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in such forward-looking statements. We do not undertake to update publicly or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any previous projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized. In addition, you should carefully review the risk factors described in other documents we file from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC.

Table of Contents

THE COMPANY

We were formed in 1974 as a bank holding company. During 2000, we elected to become and remain a financial holding company under the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999. We have four reportable business segments: Community Banking, Wealth Management, Insurance and Consumer Finance. We have 153 full service Community Banking offices in Pennsylvania and Ohio and 53 Consumer Finance offices in those states and Tennessee. Through our Community Banking affiliate, we have four loan production offices in Florida.

Through our subsidiaries, we provide a full range of financial services, principally to consumers and small- to medium-sized businesses in our market areas. Our business strategy has been to focus primarily on providing quality, community-based financial services adapted to the needs of each of the markets we serve. We have emphasized our community orientation by allowing local management certain autonomy in decision-making, enabling us to respond to customer requests more quickly and concentrate on transactions within our market areas. However, while we have sought to preserve some decision-making at a local level, we have established centralized legal, loan review, accounting, investment, audit, loan operations and data processing functions. The centralization of these processes has enabled us to maintain consistent quality of these functions and to achieve certain economies of scale.

On May 26, 2006, we completed the merger of The Legacy Bank, or Legacy, a Pennsylvania banking institution with offices in the greater Harrisburg, Pennsylvania region, with and into our subsidiary, First National Bank of Pennsylvania.

RISK FACTORS

We have identified a number of risk factors that we have included in the reports that we file with the SEC under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or the Exchange Act, which you should consider before buying shares of our common stock. See Where You Find More Information/Incorporation by Reference. The occurrence of one or more of those risk factors could adversely impact our results of operations or financial condition.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

We are registering shares that the selling shareholders may acquire upon exercise of warrants or upon conversion of convertible debentures that we assumed in connection with of the Legacy merger in order to enable the selling shareholders to sell, from time to time, shares of our common stock they acquire if they exercise the warrants or convert their debentures. The selling shareholders may sell all, some or none of their shares in this offering. See Plan of Distribution.

Table of Contents

We will identify the selling shareholders and certain information regarding each selling shareholder in a post-effective amendment, a prospectus supplement or in an Exchange Act report.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any of the proceeds from sales of shares of common stock by the selling shareholders. We will not receive any proceeds upon the conversion by selling shareholders of their convertible debentures. If all selling shareholders, exercise in full their warrants to purchase our common stock, we would receive total gross proceeds of $1,233,940, which we intend to use for general corporate and administrative purposes.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholders may sell all or a portion of the shares beneficially owned by them and offered hereby from time to time directly or through one or more underwriters, broker-dealers or agents. The shares may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of the sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. These sales may be effected in transactions, which may involve crosses or block transactions, on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the shares may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;

in the over-the-counter market;

otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market;

through the writing of options, whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;

consisting of ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

consisting of block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

through purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

through an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

Table of Contents

consisting of privately negotiated transactions;

consisting of short sales;

pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act;

in which broker-dealers may agree with the selling shareholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

consisting of a combination of any such methods of sale; or by any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

If the selling shareholders effect such transactions by selling the shares of common stock to or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholders or commissions from purchasers of the shares of common stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal, which discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may be in excess of the compensation customary for the types of transactions involved. In connection with sales of any securities or otherwise, the selling shareholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging in positions they assume. The selling shareholders may also sell shares short and deliver securities covered by this prospectus to close out short positions. The selling shareholders may also loan or pledge shares to broker-dealers that in turn may sell such shares.

The selling shareholders may pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of shares of common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell shares of common stock from time to time pursuant to this prospectus or any amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act, amending, if necessary, the list of selling shareholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling shareholders under this prospectus. The selling shareholders also may transfer and donate the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, donees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

The selling shareholders and any broker-dealer participating in the distribution of the shares of common stock may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act, and any commission paid, or any discounts or concessions allowed to, any such broker-dealer may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. At the time a particular offering of shares is made, a prospectus supplement, if required, will be distributed that will set forth the aggregate amount of shares being offered and the terms of the offering, if applicable, including the name or names of any broker-dealers or agents, any discounts, commissions and other terms constituting compensation from the selling shareholders and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to broker-dealers.

Under the securities laws of some states, the shares may be sold in such states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the shares of common stock may not be sold unless such shares of common stock have been registered or qualified for sale in such state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

The selling shareholders may choose not to sell any or may choose to sell less than all of the shares of common stock registered pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

The selling shareholders and any other person participating in such distribution will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M of the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares of common stock by the selling shareholders and any other participating person. Regulation M may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares of common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares of common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock.

We will pay all expenses of the registration of our common stock; provided, however, that a selling shareholder will pay all underwriting discounts and commissions and selling commissions, if any.

Once sold under this prospectus, the shares of common stock will be freely tradable by persons other than our affiliates.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters with respect to the validity of the shares of common stock registered under this registration statement have been passed upon for us by James G. Orie, our chief legal officer, who owns 12,291 shares of Common Stock of the Registrant and options to purchase 46,756 shares of Common Stock of the Registrant.

EXPERTS

The consolidated financial statements of FNB and subsidiaries appearing in FNB's Annual Report (Form 10-K) for the year ended December 31, 2005, and FNB management's assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2005 included therein have been audited by Ernst & Young LLP, independent registered public accounting firm, as set forth in their reports thereon, included therein, and incorporated herein by reference. Such consolidated financial statements and management's assessment are incorporated herein by reference in reliance upon such reports given on the authority of such firm as experts in accounting and auditing.

With respect to the unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial information of FNB for the three-month periods ended March 31, 2006 and March 31, 2005, respectively, incorporated by reference in this prospectus, Ernst & Young LLP reported that they have applied limited procedures in accordance with professional standards for a review of such information. However, their separate report dated May 8, 2006, included in FNB's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 and incorporated by reference herein, states that they did not audit and they do not express an opinion on that interim financial information. Accordingly, the degree of reliance on their reports on such information should be restricted in light of the limited nature of the review procedures applied. Ernst & Young LLP is not subject to the liability provisions of Section 11 of the Securities Act for its reports on the unaudited interim financial information because those reports are not a report or a part of the registration statement prepared or certified by Ernst & Young LLP within the meaning of Sections 7 and 11 of the Securities Act.

WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION/INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE

We file annual, quarterly and other periodic reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC. You may read and copy any document we file at the SEC's public reference room at 100 F Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20549. PART II

Item 14. Other Expenses Of Issuance And Distribution.

The following table sets forth the costs and expenses payable by the registrant in connection with the sale of the common stock being registered. All amounts are estimates except the registration fee.

SEC registration fee	$ 388.21
Legal fees and expenses	5,000.00
Accounting fees and expenses	5,000.00
Miscellaneous expenses	1,000.00
	$ 11,388.21

The selling shareholders identified in this registration statement or an amendment or supplement thereto are not obligated to reimburse the registrant for the above listed expenses.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Florida Business Corporations Act, as amended (the Florida Act), provides that, in general, a business corporation may indemnify any person who is or was a party to any proceeding, other than an action by, or in the right of, the corporation, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided certain standards are met, including that such officer or director acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and provided further that, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the officer or director had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, the Florida Act provides that, in general, a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party to any such proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the corporation against expenses and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such proceeding, including any appeal thereof, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made with respect to any claim as to which such person is adjudged liable, unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines upon application that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity. To the extent that any officer or director is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any of such proceedings, the Florida Act provides that the corporation is required to indemnify such officer or director against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. However, the Florida Act further provides that, in general, indemnification or advancement of expenses shall not be made to or on behalf of any officer or director if a judgment or other final adjudication establishes that his or her actions, or omissions to act, were material to the cause of action so adjudicated and constitute: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director or officer had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe it was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) in the case of a director, a circumstance under which the director has voted for or assented to a distribution made in violation of the Florida Act or the corporation's articles of incorporation or (iv) willful misconduct or a conscious disregard for the best interests of the corporation in a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor or in a proceeding by or in the right of a shareholder.

The Registrant's articles of incorporation provide that the Registrant shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law in connection with any actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding, civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other (whether brought by or in the right of the Registrant or otherwise) arising out of the service to the Registrant or to another organization at the Registrant's request, or because of their positions with the Registrant. The Registrant's articles of incorporation further provide that the Registrant may purchase and maintain insurance to protect itself and any such director or officer against any liability, cost or expense asserted against or incurred by him or her with respect to such service, whether or not the Registrant would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability by law or under the provisions of this paragraph.

The Registrant's By-laws provide that to the fullest extent permitted by law, no director of the Registrant shall be personally liable for monetary damages for any action taken or any failure to take any action.

Item 16. Exhibits.

The exhibits listed on the Exhibit Index following the signature page are included in this Registration Statement.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof)

which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of the securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(5) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(6) (i) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.

(ii) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
