Item 2.03. Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On March 14, 2008, CIGNA Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a new commercial paper program (the “Program”) to issue unsecured commercial paper notes (the “Notes”) up to a maximum of $500,000,000. Goldman, Sachs & Co. and J.P. Morgan Securities, Inc. will each act as a dealer under the Program (collectively the “Dealers”) pursuant to the terms and conditions of their respective Dealer Agreements with the Company (each, a “Dealer Agreement”). JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A, will act as issuing and paying agent under the Program. The Dealer Agreements contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnification provisions and provide the terms under which the Dealers will either purchase from the Company or arrange for the sale by the Company of Notes pursuant to an exemption from federal and state securities laws.

Under the Program, the Company may issue the Notes from time to time, and the proceeds of the commercial paper financing will be used for general corporate purposes, including working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions and share repurchases. The maturities of the Notes will vary, but may not exceed 397 days from the date of issue. The Notes will be sold under customary terms in the commercial paper market and bear varying interest rates on a fixed or floating basis at the option of the Company. The Program is backstopped by the Company’s second amended and restated revolving credit and letter of credit agreement dated as of June 19, 2007 (the “Credit Agreement”). The Program will not increase the Company’s overall debt as amounts issued under the Program will decrease the amount available to the Company under the Credit Agreement. Amounts available under the Program may be reborrowed. If at any time funds are not available on favorable terms under the Program, the Company may resort to the Credit Agreement for funding.

The Dealers and the issuing and paying agent and their affiliates have provided and may provide, various investment banking, other commercial banking and financial advisory services to CIGNA for which they have received, and may in the future receive, customary fees.

A copy of each Dealer Agreement is attached to this report as Exhibit 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and each is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits
