1. Interim Financial Statements

Organization

Konover Property Trust, Inc. (the "Company"), formerly FAC Realty Trust, Inc., was incorporated on March 31, 1993 as a self-advised and self-managed real estate investment trust (REIT). The Company is principally engaged in the acquisition, development, ownership and operation of retail shopping centers. The Company's revenues are primarily derived under real estate leases with national, regional and local retailing companies.

As discussed further in Note 7, the Company sold 32 centers during the three months ended September 30, 2001. On September 30, 2001, the Company's owned properties consisted of:

1. 31 community shopping centers in six states aggregating approximately 4,003,000 square feet;
2. 3 centers with approximately 942,000 square feet that are held for sale; and
3. One center under development with 207,000 square feet which is scheduled for completion in late 2001.

In addition, the Company had investments in:

- . three operating joint-venture community centers with 246,000 square feet and one joint venture community center under development with 98,000 square feet;
- . a land-development joint venture consisting of approximately 2,700 acres; and
- . third-party management company with 7.1 million square feet under management or leasing contracts.

The weighted-average square feet of gross leasable area was 9.3 million square feet for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 and 9.5 million square feet for the same period in 2000 (see Note 7).

On December 17, 1997, following shareholder approval, the Company changed its domicile from the State of Delaware to the State of Maryland. The reincorporation was accomplished through the merger of FAC Realty, Inc. into its Maryland subsidiary, Konover Property Trust, Inc. (formerly FAC Realty Trust, Inc.). Following the reincorporation on December 18, 1997, the Company reorganized as an umbrella partnership real estate investment trust (an "UPREIT"). The Company then contributed to KPT Properties, L.P. (formerly FAC Properties, L.P.), a Delaware limited partnership (the "Operating Partnership"), all of its assets and liabilities. In exchange for the Company's assets, the Company received limited partnership interests ("Units") in the Operating Partnership in an amount and designation that corresponded to the number and designation of outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company at the time. The Company is the sole general partner of the Operating Partnership and owns a 97% interest as of September 30, 2001. As additional limited partners are admitted to the Operating Partnership in exchange for the contribution of properties, the Company's percentage ownership in the Operating Partnership will decline. As the Company issues additional shares of capital stock, it will contribute the proceeds for that capital stock to the Operating Partnership in exchange for a number of Units equal to the number of shares that the Company issues. The Company conducts all of its business and owns all of its assets through the Operating Partnership (either directly or through subsidiaries) such that a Unit is economically equivalent to a share of the Company's common stock.

Edgar Filing: KONOVER PROPERTY TRUST INC - Form 10-Q

An UPREIT may allow the Company to offer Units in the Operating Partnership in exchange for ownership interests from tax-motivated sellers. Under certain circumstances, the exchange of Units for a seller's ownership interest will enable the Operating Partnership to acquire assets while allowing the seller to defer the tax liability associated with the sale of such assets. Effectively, this allows the Company to use Units instead of stock to acquire properties, which provides an advantage over non-UPREIT entities.

The Company has a majority interest in two taxable subsidiaries, Sunset KPT Investment, Inc. and truefinds.com, Inc., both organized under the laws of Delaware. Sunset KPT Investment, Inc. has the ability to develop properties, buy and sell properties, provide equity to developers and perform third-party management, leasing and brokerage services. truefinds.com, Inc. was formed to explore e-commerce and other technology related opportunities. All operations of truefinds.com, Inc. have been suspended. The Company holds substantially all of the non-voting common stock of these taxable subsidiaries. Substantially all of the voting common stock is held by an affiliated company of a director of the Company. Accordingly, these entities are accounted for under the equity method for investments. Additionally, these taxable subsidiaries are taxed as regular corporations.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its subsidiaries and the Operating Partnership. All significant intercompany balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Entities that are owned by or that are owned less than 100% and are controlled by the Operating Partnership have been consolidated. Control is demonstrated by the ability of the Operating Partnership to manage, directly or indirectly, day-to-day operations, refinance debt and sell the assets of the entity that owns the property without the consent of the other owners and the inability of the other owners to replace the general partner or manager. Investments in ventures which represent noncontrolling ownership interests or where control is deemed temporary are accounted for using the equity method of accounting. These investments are recorded initially at cost and subsequently adjusted for net equity in income (loss) and cash contributions and distributions.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information and with the instructions to

Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and notes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (primarily consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and nine-month period ended September 30, 2001 are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for a full fiscal year. For further information, refer to the audited financial statements and accompanying footnotes thereto included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Reclassification

Certain amounts from prior years were reclassified to conform with current-year presentation. These reclassifications had no effect on net loss or stockholders' equity as previously reported.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents.

Basic and diluted income (loss) per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the income (loss) applicable to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if options or warrants to purchase common shares were exercised and preferred stock was converted into common shares ("potential common shares").

For the three months ended September 30, 2001 and September 30, 2000, basic and dilutive earnings per share are computed based on a weighted average number of shares of 31,332,415 and 31,108,904, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2001 and September 30, 2000, basic and dilutive earnings per share are computed based on a weighted average number of shares of 31,247,354 and 30,884,019, respectively. Potential dilutive common shares have been excluded from diluted earnings per share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2001 and September 30, 2000 because their inclusion would be antidilutive.

Dividends

No dividends were declared during the three months ended September 30, 2001.

Comprehensive Income

Comprehensive income equals net income for all periods presented.

Edgar Filing: KONOVER PROPERTY TRUST INC - Form 10-Q

3. Investment in and Advances to Unconsolidated Entities

A summary of the Company's investments in and advances to unconsolidated entities at September 30, 2001 and December 31, 2000 is as follows (all investments in unconsolidated entities are accounted for under the equity method):

Entity	Location	Ownership	September 30, 2001

Community Center Ventures:
Atlantic Realty LLC (2 community centers)	Apex and Pembroke, NC	50%	$ 2,720
Park Place KPT LLC	Morrisville, NC	50%	6,442
Falls Pointe KPT LLC	Raleigh, NC	50%	5,629
Taxable Subsidiaries (see Note 1):
Sunset KPT Investment, Inc.		86.5%	6,920
truefinds.com, Inc.		95%	7

The development of the properties in Sunset KPT Investment, Inc. is subject to, among other things, completion of due diligence and various contingencies, including those inherent in development projects, such as zoning, leasing and financing. There can be no assurance that such development will be completed. All debt incurred by unconsolidated ventures is secured by their respective properties as well as various guarantees of the Company and by the Company's respective venture partners.

4. Reportable Segments

Prior to the Outlet Portfolio sale in September 2001, management determined under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 131, "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information", that it had four reportable segments: community centers, outlet centers, Vanity Fair ("VF") anchored centers, and centers held for sale. The outlet segment includes properties which generate a majority of their revenue from traditional outlet manufacturers and are destination oriented. The VF-anchored segment includes properties that have less than $1.5 million in total revenue, generate at least 20% of their revenue from VF and have less than 150,000 square feet. Future presentations will include community center and held-for-sale only. The Company now includes properties under development or redevelopment in an "all others" segment column. Previously, these properties had been grouped into the held-for-sale segment. The prior-year segment presentation has been restated to reflect this change. The Company evaluates performance and allocates resources based on the net operating income (NOI) of the Company's investment portfolio. The accounting policies of the reportable segments are the same as those described in the summary of significant accounting policies. The Company's reportable segments are business units that offer retail space to varied tenants and in varied geographical areas.

5. Severance and Other Related Costs

C. Cammack Morton resigned as an officer and director of the Company on March 6, 2001. In connection with his resignation, the Company and Mr. Morton entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release. Under the separation agreement, which was a complete settlement of Mr. Morton's rights under his former employment agreement, the Company paid Mr. Morton $2.5 million in cash and released him from the non-compete restrictions in his employment agreement. In addition, the parties agreed upon Mr. Morton's rights under various equity awards.

Mr. Morton agreed that his 225,851 vested in-the-money Repurchase Rights and 300,000 vested out-of-the-money Repurchase Rights would remain outstanding (and entitled to dividend equivalent rights) until April 1, 2002. He also agreed to the immediate cancellation of his remaining 391,299 in-the-money Repurchase Rights in exchange for an additional cash payment of $900,000, of which the Company has already paid $400,000 and will pay the remaining $500,000 in January 2002. Mr. Morton also forfeited his interest in 140,000 out-of-the-money Repurchase Rights and 210,000 out-of-the-money stock options in exchange for $35,000 in cash.

Patrick M. Miniutti's employment with the Company terminated on March 6, 2001, and he resigned from the Board of Directors on March 30, 2001. In complete settlement of all rights under his former employment agreement, Mr. Miniutti entered into a Separation and Settlement Agreement and General Release with the Company on March 30, 2001. Pursuant to the agreement, the Company paid a severance benefit to Mr. Miniutti consisting of $1.5 million in cash (payable in five equal monthly installments) and the forgiveness of a $125,000 loan. The Company also released Mr. Miniutti from the non-compete restrictions imposed by his employment agreement.

In addition, in exchange for the issuance of 259,545 shares of common stock (the "Settlement Shares"), Mr. Miniutti agreed to the immediate cancellation of all rights (including dividend equivalent rights) with respect to all equity awards granted by the Company. The shares are issuable upon the earlier of April 1, 2002, the sale of 50% or more of the Company's voting securities, the liquidation or winding-up of the Company or the payment by Mr. Miniutti of an amount equal to the Company's tax withholding obligations on the

Settlement Shares. Under the agreement, Mr. Miniutti is entitled to dividend equivalent payments with respect to the Settlement Shares for any record date occurring after March 30, 2001 but before the issuance of the Settlement Shares.

In addition to the $5.1 million of severance noted above, the Company recorded a charge of $0.8 million for additional severance and legal fees for Mr. Morton, Mr. Miniutti and eight other Company employees in the quarter ended March 31, 2001. The total severance and other related costs for the three months ended March 31, 2001 of $5.9 million is partially offset by a $0.9 million reduction in previously amortized stock compensation for Mr. Morton and Mr. Miniutti. Additional severance of $0.9 million was reported in the three months ended June 30, 2001.

During the quarter ended September 30, 2001, the Company continued its cost-savings efforts including the elimination of certain positions resulting in additional terminations of employees. The total severance including cash and accelerated stock vesting totaled $0.9 million during the quarter ended September 30, 2001.

6. Properties Held for Sale

As part of the Company's ongoing strategic evaluation of its portfolio of assets, the Company has classified the following properties as held for sale as of September 30, 2001:

- a) The Company's centers in Las Vegas and Nashville are presented as held for sale consistent with prior periods. These centers are currently being marketed.
- b) The Company has received unsolicited offers on a community center totaling 426,000 square feet. This community center is classified as held for sale as of September 30, 2001.

The following summary financial information pertains to the properties held for sale for the nine months ended September 30 (in thousands):

7. Property Disposals

On September 25, 2001, the Company sold a 31-property portfolio for $180 million. The portfolio consists of nine outlet properties, 16 VF-anchored properties and six community center properties. Three of the six community centers in the portfolio have outlet tenants but meet the definition, as discussed above, of community centers due to their proximity to the local market and other property characteristics. The community centers included in the portfolio were sold because they are collateral under certain common debt

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

This discussion should be read with the selected financial data in this section and the consolidated financial statements and notes in this report. Certain comparisons between the periods have been made on a percentage basis and on a weighted-average square-foot basis. Comparisons on a weighted-average square-foot basis adjust for square-footage added at different times during the year.

Selected Financial Data

The following information should be read with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in this report.

Industry analysts generally consider Funds From Operations ("FFO") an appropriate measure of performance for an equity REIT. FFO means net income before extraordinary items (computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States) excluding gains or losses on the sale of real estate plus real estate depreciation and amortization. Management believes that FFO, as defined herein, is an appropriate measure of the Company's operating performance because reductions for depreciation and amortization charges are not meaningful in evaluating the operating results of its properties, which have historically been appreciating assets.

"EBITDA" is defined as revenues less operating costs, including general and administrative expenses, before interest, depreciation and amortization and unusual items. As a REIT, the Company is generally not subject to Federal income taxes. Management believes that EBITDA provides a meaningful indicator of operating performance for the following reasons: (i) it is industry practice to evaluate the performance of real estate properties based on net operating income ("NOI"), which is generally equivalent to EBITDA; and (ii) both NOI and EBITDA are unaffected by the debt and equity structure of the property owner.

FFO and EBITDA (i) do not represent cash flow from operations as defined by generally accepted accounting principles, (ii) are not necessarily indicative of cash available to fund all cash flow needs and (iii) should not be considered as an alternative to net income for purposes of evaluating the Company's operating performance or as an alternative to cash flow as a measure of liquidity.

primary transactions included:

- . $9.0 million for dividends paid,
- . $232.8 million for debt repayments,
- . $2.1 million in deferred financing charges offset by,
- . $69.2 million of net proceeds from debt on income producing properties.

Financing Activities

The Company's policy is to finance its activities with the source of capital believed by management to be most appropriate and provide the proper balance of equity and fixed and floating rate debt. Sources may include undistributed cash flow, borrowings from institutional lenders, equity issuances, and the issuance of debt securities on a secured or unsecured basis. The Company's philosophy is to use its Funds Available for Distribution as a key source of financing.

In connection with the sale of the outlet portfolio on September 25, 2001, the balances of the REMIC facility and the $75 million permanent credit facility were paid or assumed. In addition, simultaneous with the sale, the Company refinanced its $60 million term loan with a $58 million term loan. The $58 million term loan has an interest rate of LIBOR, with a floor of 4.0%, plus 3.20% and matures in November 2003.

On January 11, 2000, the Company closed on a $5 million line of credit with a financial institution. In March, 2000, the available borrowings were increased by $5 million to $10 million. The line of credit has an interest rate of LIBOR plus 2.0%. The line of credit balance as of September 30, 2001 was $10 million and matures in February 2002. The line of credit is secured by a community shopping center in Georgia.

The Company has a $1.5 million line of credit with a financial institution which expires in February 2002. The line of credit is secured by one of the Company's income-producing properties in North Carolina and has an interest rate of prime plus 1/2%. There were no outstanding borrowings on this line of credit at September 30, 2001.

The Company may enter into additional mortgage indebtedness related to certain joint venture development projects. The Company's policy is to extend loans to unconsolidated entities only upon terms similar to those that would be made by third parties.

Any additional debt financing, including additional lines of credit, may be secured by mortgages on the properties. Such mortgages may be recourse or non-recourse or cross-collateralized or may contain cross-default provisions. The Company does not have a policy limiting the number of mortgages that may be placed on or the amount of indebtedness that may be secured by, a particular property; however, current mortgage financing instruments limit additional indebtedness on such properties.

Outlet Portfolio Sale

On September 2001, the Company completed the sale of a portfolio of 28 outlet shopping centers and three community centers in 17 states totaling 4.3 million square feet for $180 million to Chelsea GCA Realty, Inc.

Concurrent with the sale of the outlet assets, the Company refinanced certain existing debt with a new credit facility of approximately $58 million to be secured by 14 community centers. The term of the debt is for three years at a rate of 320 basis points over one month LIBOR, with a LIBOR floor of 4.0%.

The transaction with Chelsea included the assumption and/or paydown of approximately $165 million in current indebtedness secured by the sold properties. Net proceeds from the sale of the outlets and the $58 million financing was approximately $15 million.

Lazard Transaction

On August 5, 1998, stockholders approved the Lazard transaction involving the Prometheus Southeast Retail, LLC ("PSR") $200 million purchase of the Company's Common Stock at $9.50 per share. As part of the Lazard transaction, the Company signed a Contingent Value Rights Agreement with PSR. Under this agreement, if PSR has not essentially doubled its investment (through stock appreciation and dividends) by January 1, 2004, the Company will be required to pay PSR, in cash or stock at its discretion, an amount necessary to achieve such a return, subject to a maximum payment of 4,500,000 shares or the cash value thereof.

Current and Future Cash Needs

The Company's management anticipates that cash generated from operations as well as planned property dispositions and access to capital resources, including additional borrowings, refinancing of existing debt and issuances of debt or equity securities, will provide the necessary funds for operating expenses, interest expense and repayment of principal on outstanding indebtedness, current and future severance payments, dividends and distributions in accordance with REIT federal income tax requirements, re-tenanting and lease renewal tenant improvement costs, capital expenditures to maintain the quality of its existing centers as well as development projects.

Dividends

The Company's policy is to make a determination regarding its dividend distributions quarterly following review of the Company's financial results, capital availability, capital expenditures and improvement needs, strategic objectives and REIT requirements. The Company's policy is to declare dividends in amounts at least equal to 90% of the Company's taxable income, which is the minimum dividend required to maintain REIT status. Based upon previous losses, the Company will have approximately $10.6 million of net operating loss carry forwards for income tax reporting purposes, which could result in no dividend payment requirement to maintain its REIT status in 2001. The Company has recently suspended paying dividends. The Company is undergoing an evaluation of its capital needs, including the renovation of certain community shopping centers and reduction of debt. Consistent with the Company's policy, the Company will evaluate and determine any dividend payment each quarter based on its operating results and capital needs.

Operating Plan

Over the last three years, the Company's strategy has been to transition from an outlet center company to a community center company focused on the southeast. At September 30, 2001, the Company has 4.0 million square feet of community shopping centers, excluding JV properties and properties held for sale. Two community shopping centers with total square feet of 305,000 were under development for most of 2001 and will be operational in the fourth quarter of 2001. One of these developments is held in a joint venture. The Company has two other outlet properties with minimal operations and a 2,700-acre tract of undeveloped land held in a joint venture that the Company is continuing to market for sale. Additionally, the Company is evaluating offers received to purchase a 426,000-square foot shopping center.

The Company continues to evaluate its long-term strategic alternatives to enhance shareholder value, including among other things, the possibility of a sale, merger or restructuring of the Company to continue as a going concern.

Economic Conditions

Inflation has remained relatively low during the past three years with certain segments of the economy experiencing disinflation, such as apparel sales. Disinflation in this market segment has slowed the growth of tenant sales, which adversely affects the Company's revenue due to lower percentage and overage rents on some properties. Any weakness in the overall retail environment as it relates to tenant sales volumes may have an impact on the Company's ability to renew leases at current rental rates or to re-lease space to other tenants. A decline in sales can effect renewal of tenant leases as well as the viability of a tenant, which could result in reduced revenue. Percentage and overage rent are directly impacted by sales volumes and represented 2.3% of the Company's total revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 and 3.3% for the same period in 2000. Continuation of this economic trend may affect the Company's operating centers' occupancy rate, rental rates, and concessions, if any, granted on new leases or re-leases of space. This in turn may cause fluctuations in the cash flow from the operation and performance of the operating centers.

Disclosure Regarding Forward Looking Statements

Some of the information in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q may contain forward-looking statements. Such statements include, in particular, statements about our plans, strategies and prospects under the headings "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations." You can identify forward-looking statements by our use of forward-looking terminology such as "may," "will," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "continue," or other similar words. Although we believe that our plans, projections and expectations reflected in or suggested by such forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot assure you that our plans, projections or expectations will be achieved. When considering such forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the following important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement:

- . our markets could suffer unexpected increases in development of retail properties;
- . the financial condition of our tenants could deteriorate;
- . the costs of our development projects could exceed our original estimates;
- . we may not be able to complete development, acquisition or joint venture projects as quickly or on as favorable terms as anticipated;
- . we may not be able to lease or release space quickly or on as favorable terms as old leases;
- . we may have incorrectly assessed the environmental condition of our properties;
- . an increase in interest rates would increase our debt service costs;
- . we could lose key executive officers; and
- . our markets may suffer decline in economic growth or increase in unemployment rates.

Given these uncertainties, we caution you not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. We undertake no obligation to release publicly the results of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect any future events or circumstances or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Item 3 - Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

The effects of potential changes in interest rates are discussed below. Our market risk discussion includes "forward-looking statements" and represents an estimate of possible changes in future earnings that would occur assuming hypothetical future movements in interest rates. These disclosures are not precise indicators of expected future results, but only indicators of reasonably possible results. As a result, actual future may differ materially from those presented. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations - Liquidity and Capital Resources," which provides information related to these financial instruments.

To meet in part long-term liquidity requirements, the Company borrows funds at a combination of fixed and variable rates. In addition, the Company has assumed fixed rate debt in connection with acquiring properties. The Company's interest rate risk management objective is to limit the impact of interest rate changes on earnings and cash flows and to lower our overall borrowing costs. Currently, the Company is party to an interest rate cap related to the September 2001 $58 million term loan. The agreement, which required a $0.1 million payment out of the loan proceeds, caps the variable rate term loan at 9.66% for the entire term of the loan. The agreement also set an interest rate floor at 7.20%. As of September 30, 2001, the Company had approximately $85.2 million of variable rate debt outstanding. If the weighted average interest rate on this variable rate debt is 100 basis points higher or lower in 2001, our interest expense would be increased or decreased approximately $0.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2001. The Company has no fixed rate debt maturing in 2001.
