Item 4. Changes In Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

On September 30, 2003, Ernst & Young LLP advised the Company's audit committee that, following completion of its review of the Company's financial statements as of, and for the quarter ended September 30, 2003, it would resign as the Company's independent auditors.

Ernst & Young's reports on Nicholas' financial statements for the years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

Edgar Filing: NICHOLAS FINANCIAL INC - Form 8-K

During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, and the subsequent interim period ended September 30, 2003, there have not been any disagreements between Nicholas and Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosures, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports.

Nicholas has commenced the process of retaining new independent auditors. That process is not yet complete.

Nicholas provided Ernst & Young with a copy of the disclosures contained in Item 4(a)(1) above. Ernst & Young's response is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.

Nicholas To Change Independent Auditors

Clearwater, Florida, - October 3, 2003: Nicholas Financial, Inc. (Nasdaq, NICK) audit committee chairman, Alton R. "Charlie" Neal, today announced that the Company has been advised by Ernst & Young LLP, that the auditing firm would resign as the Company's independent auditor following the completion of its review of the Company's financial statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2003.

During the fiscal years ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, and the subsequent interim period ended September 30, 2003, there have not been any disagreements between Nicholas and Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosures, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Ernst & Young, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports.

Nicholas Financial is now in the process of retaining a new independent auditor. The Company has been assured by Ernst & Young that they will assist Nicholas in making an orderly transition to the firm ultimately selected by the Company's audit committee.

Founded in 1985, with current assets of $94,853,000 as of June 30, 2003, Nicholas Financial is one of the largest publicly traded specialty consumer finance companies based in the Southeast. The company has approximately 5,045,000 shares of common stock outstanding and has reported record revenues and earnings for the past 13 years.
